Memories of my grandfather

Do you have memories of your grandfather?

Mother was the youngest of a family of nine, and I was grandfather's next to last grandchild. He was 84 when my youngest sister was born.

He often told stories that happened along life's way. One such story took place on a wintery December day in 1899. He went with his fiancée's father from his home near Wingate to Crawfordsville to obtain his marriage license. A short distance from his father-inlaw's farm, a band of gypsies were camped near the road. As grandpa and his soon-to-be father-in-law approached, a slender lad began asking them for money. For a small sum he offered to dance by the roadside.

When there was no immediate response, he became insistent and declared, "I must make a living for my wife!" This plea elicited a coin. After a brief nimble performance, the dancing "bread-winner" returned to camp. It was a traveled custom for gypsy parents to arrange marriages for their children, giving the child's consent when he or she reached the age of 12. The lad claimed to be almost 13.

But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. We are different from much of the world and that doesn't bother us. We don't want to blend into the national religious or moral scene. We want to stand out and stand up.

Therefore, come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord; do not touch any unclean thing, and I will welcome you (2 Cor. 6:17).

So that you may be blameless and pure, children of God who are faultless in a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine like stars in the world (Phil. 2:15).

Several years ago, I saw a cartoon in which the preacher was speaking on being the light of the world. Above his head was a thought bubble that said, "but in the case of these people I am speaking dim bulbs." We are not the source of light, but moons that reflect the light of our Lord. To be lights in this perverse generation we must be different. Speak differently. Think differently Live differently. Our standard is not his world. We do not live to please this world. At the Stony Creek Church of Christ, we are different and make no apologies for it. Why do we chose to be different? Come and see for yourself.

John Andrew Takach April 30, 1947 – May 10, 2022

John Andrew Takach, 75, Carmel, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by family on May 10, 2022, following a five-year battle with Burkitt's Lymphoma. He was born on April 30, 1947, in Middletown, Ohio, to the late Mary Margaret (Domanich) Takach and John Thomas

John attended Bishop Fenwick High School in Middletown, Ohio, before attending Marian College in

Indianapolis where he pursued a B.S. in Mathematics. While at Marian, he met the love of his life and wife of nearly 53 years, Eileen (Butkus) Takach. They were married on June 7, 1969, just after John's graduation. He went on to obtain a M.A. in Education Supervision from Ball

John was a beloved middle school math teacher for over 40 years teaching at IPS schools 53, 21 and 98, John Marshall Middle School, Shortridge Middle School, and briefly at Arlington High School and Lincoln High School in Detroit, Mich. He exuded a fatherly presence of unconditional love and deep respect for each of his students, always seeking creative ways to reach those with particular challenges or difficulties, wanting them to recognize their own dignity and goodness. Others said that he made everyone around him "better people." Often on trips to the mall or at the drive-through of fast-food restaurants, former students would spot him and eagerly greet "Mr. T," whom many called their favorite teacher and remembered many years and even decades later.

John's personal interests and hobbies were many and varied throughout life, from stained glass window-making to woodworking, to most recently acrylic painting. His favorites were definitely golf, gardening and spending time with his beloved grandson and granddaughter. Many of his neighbors say they "knew all was well with the world" when they saw him riding his bright orange lawn mower around the yard or chatting in the driveway with neighbors walking their dogs.

John loved his wife and children unconditionally with deep thoughtfulness, unfailing generosity, selflessness, creativity, and a playful sense of humor. Eileen, John, and Sr. Michela (Jennifer) are eternally grateful to have had a husband and father who is so very difficult to lose because of how well he loved each of them.

John is survived by his wife, Eileen (Butkus) Takach; children, John (Michelle) Takach and Sr. Maria Anne Michela (Jennifer) Takach, S.V.; grandchildren, Parker and Chloe Takach; sisters-in-law, Anita (Les) Philipp and La-Verne (Martin) Thompson; brother-in-law, Rick (Madeleine) Butkus; and many cousins, extended family members, friends and former students.

Visitation will take place from 5 to 7 p.m. on Monday, May 16, 2022, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, 14658 Oak Ridge Road, Carmel. There were will also be an hour of visitation beginning at 10 a.m. Tuesday, May 17, 2022, followed by the Mass of Christian Burial. Burial will be in Carmel Cemetery, which all are welcome to attend.

well earlier this season and kind of got in a rut. Whenever you're trying to come out of a little bit of a rut, a win's a win at that point, right? We just fought and fought and fought, put up a few more runs there and we're fortunate to come away with a win."

Avery Parker, a senior, drove in the first run as her left field hit scored Cara Snedeker. Allie Dolenc then delivered her own base hit to score Parker.

"Avery Parker leading us this year, she creates a lot of opportunities for other hitters, and in turn, they create opportunities for her as well because they're hitting well," said Revercomb.

Sam Breaux added a two-run single to send in Ava Kainrath and Breaux. Mya Hughes also had a two-RBI hit, that one scoring Natalie Deck and Breaux. With that, Westfield led 6-0.

Heights got on the board in the top of the fourth inning by scoring two runs; Kaylee Rhoton and Ashlyn Fletcher both got home on separate errors. Westfield got a run back in the bottom of the inning. Dolenc led off with a double, then eventually scored on Breaux's RBI groundout.

The Huskies continued to battle, adding two more runs in the fifth inning. Bella Neiling singled in Faith Hittle, then Ashlyn Tharp scored on a passed ball.

"We spot them six in the first inning," said Heights coach Ken Olovich. "From there on in, it's a pretty even ballgame. We had a couple of plays and miscommunications, but I like how we kept our heads up and battled back in the game."

The Shamrocks scored their final two runs in the sixth inning, with Grace Feltz and Brookly Miner getting home after Mya Hughes reached on error.

Hughes was 3-for-4 at the plate, with Breaux totaling three RBIs. Morgan Squires pitched five innings for the win, with Rylie

After a quick start in the bottom of the first, Hamilton Heights looked to do what it has been doing a good amount of as of late and that's scoring runs.

It didn't take long at all for the Anderson Indians' offense to get going. They kept their feet on the gas, showing the Huskies they too know how to score in a 19-3 win on Wednesday.

The Huskies seemed determined with a Dean Mason single into center to lead off. Nate Hulen reached on a fielder's choice ground ball to second. Alex Rickey came in as a courtesy runner for Hulen. Sam Allen knocked a single to right for runners at first Drew VanOeveren walked to load the bases with one out. Isaac Tuma grounded out to second to score Rickey to get the Huskies up 1-0.

Allen was able to score on a wild pitch. Then, Logan Hickman drove home the other Heights run, lining a double to right to score VanOeveren for a 3-0 Huskies lead.

From the second through seventh, the Indians were able to score their 19 runs and completely take over this non-conference tilt to take Hamilton Heights by surprise by a score of 19-3.

The Huskies clinged to a 3-2 lead through three, but the Anderson offense exploded for three in the fourth, four in the fifth, another three in the sixth and topped it off with a seven-run seventh.

Anderson (13-8) have won four of five and head to face North Central Conference foe Muncie Central (6-11) in hopes of sweeping the three-game series with the Bearcats.

Hamilton Heights (10-5) lost just its second game in its last 10 and will make a trip to Lewis Cass (1-10-1) today. The Huskies also hope to sweep their series with the Kings, already taking the first game 6-0 on May 4.
