They really do save kittens!

Sometimes from trees, sometimes from cars

The Noblesville Police and Fire departments made an Independence Day rescue when they saved a kitten trapped in some suspension components of a vehicle at Cabela's, 13725 Cabela Pkwy., Noblesville. NPD was grateful for the assist, so officers presented firefighter Chad Vogel with the "Nine Lives Saver Award" for his hand in the rescue. That's truly some "purr-fect" teamwork!

Seekers of sweetness

It is a joyful thrill for me to see a hummingbird. There is something charming about a visit from one of these gentle, delicate, vivid, shy, dainty and miniature birds. Their beautiful swiftness is captivating how they flutter from one flower to the next, drinking sweet nectar before vanishing to their next destination.

There is an old expression that says, "Time passes as fast as a hummingbird flutters."

My children are one and three years old right now. Everything is so exciting to them. Little things that most adults do not even notice are new experiences for them, and I treasure this so much.

I was outside with my three-year-old and we were looking at our flowers. In my head, I was surveying the damage the bunnies had done to my plants and assessing if I needed to water when she said, "Mommy! I hear the birds singing. So many birds are singing!" She was so excited to proclaim this to me.

Noblesville's Charlie Jones passes away

The REPORTER

Retired Noblesville police officer Charlie Jones died Monday. He was more than a police officer, and his importance to Noblesville and the Hamilton County community at large was well-known.

Noblesville Mayor Chis Jensen had these words following Mr. Jones' passing: "Charlie Jones was an icon in our community," Jensen said. "He was a humble public servant and touched so many lives during and after his time as an officer in the Noblesville Police Department. Charlie also was tirelessly dedicated to Prevail's mission and helped organize bowling tournaments to raise money and awareness for the organization. He put others first and will be greatly missed. Our condolences go out to his family and friends."

Mr. Jones' obituary appears on Page 8 in today's edition. You may leave condolences at RandallRoberts.com and at ReadTheReporter.com.

Garrison has Dem opponent; most Reps go unopposed

The surprise filing of a candidate for Hamilton County prosecutor was one of a handful of last-minute Democratic candidates reported to the county elections office Tuesday. The deadline for filing was noon Tuesday.

Jessica D. Paxson, currently a deputy in the office of Prosecutor Lee Buckingham, was chosen to oppose Republican candidate Greg Garrison, who upset Buckingham in the May primary. Paxson is a Noblesville resident with several years' experience as a deputy prosecutor.

The candidate has been voting in the Republican primary in recent years but was endorsed by the Democratic leadership. The party has the option of filling their ticket when there was no candidate filed in their party's primary.

Make no mistake . . . Hamilton County sure knows how to celebrate the Fourth!

Carmel Fire Department investigating two separate blazes

By ASHLEY FOWLER
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

The Carmel Fire Department (CFD) is investigating two fires that damaged homes on opposite sides of the city.

Sometime between 11 and 11:30 p.m. Sunday, firefighters were called to a house fire in the 14000 block of Trailwind Court. That's on Carmel's north side near 141st Street and Ditch Road.

A family and their pet cat got out of the house safely, according to CFD Public Information Office Tim Griffin.

While responding to the fire on Trailwind Court, firefighters were called to a house fire on Cornell Avenue. That's on the city's south side near 106th Street and College Avenue. No one was hurt in the fire, Griffin told WISH-TV News 8.

Both fires were reported by neighbors who saw flames coming through the roof, the fire department said on Facebook.

Investigators are still trying to figure out what led to the fires, but Griffin says very dry conditions could have been a factor.

Local 4416 members from Fishers, Noblesville, and Westfield assisted Carmel with two separate fires Sunday night. Collaborative training and familiarity with operations between county fire departments lead to success on the ground.

COUNTY LINE — SWEETNESS

There are few other county-level Democratic candidates, so Republicans for judge, sheriff, county clerk, assessor, recorder, coroner, county commissioner and all but one county council member will be re-elected in November without opposition, barring any independent or write-in candidacies. Democrat Nathan Bullock will square off against Republican incumbent Amy Massillamany for County Council District 2.

At the state legislative level, Democrats also announced candidates against Republicans Jerry Torr, Carmel, who represents most of Clay Township, and James Buck, Kokomo, whose district includes portions of Hamilton County.

Josh Lowry, an attorney with offices in Carmel, will oppose Buck in Senate District 21, and Matt McNally, whose website indicates he lives in Westfield, will oppose Torr in House District 39.

The only other candidates fielded by Democrats in the last day for filing were Pam Williams for Adams Township Board and Julia Keller for Clay Township Board.

Republicans are guaranteed eight of nine township trustee positions. In Fall Creek Township, Republican incumbent Doug Allman will face Democratic challenger Nicole Tredup.

I know I will blink and they will both be graduating high school, ready to embark on their next adventure that life has for them; I am sure it will feel like time will have passed as fleeting as a hummingbird landing on my flower.

Hummingbirds are more than beautiful fixtures in a garden. They are vital pollinators and essential to our wildlife habitats. They are often referred to as “feathered bees” in a garden because of their ability to pollinate flowers at a staggering rate. The hummingbird drinks nectar while pollinating a plant in a beautiful coexisting relationship between these intriguing birds and our treasured flowers. Many of the same flowers that attract butterflies will also draw hummingbirds.

The more appealing you can make your garden to these darting creatures, the more pleasure they will offer. Providing a hummingbird feeder is a wonderful addition to any garden. According to audubon.org, one can very easily make hummingbird mixture at home by mixing four parts water to one part refined white sugar, bringing to a boil and letting cool before filling your feeder at home. “Do not substitute honey, which can promote dangerous fungal growth, or use red food coloring, which is not necessary and could also prove harmful to birds.”

I have never once bought commercial hummingbird nectar, and trust me – hummingbirds will flock to your feeder with this homemade recipe. It is very important to change the nectar in your feeder frequently, especially in the summer!

Hummingbirds are very small in stature and have nests that match their petite size. Their nests are no larger than a ping-pong ball. Hummingbirds are predominantly migratory birds. According to britannica.com, “The architecture of the wing permits hummingbirds to fly not only forward but also straight up and down, sideways, and backward and to hover in front of flowers as they obtain nectar and insects from them.” Their rapid speed of pollination makes them a wonderful visitor to frequent your flowers. Hummingbirds are drawn to brightly colored flowers. They like things shaped as a bell that allow their long beaks to drink nectar. If the flower provides a place for them to perch while they drink, they will like it even more!

Some flowers that I happen to love that will attract hummingbirds include Trumpet Vine, Coral Bells, Salvia, Bee Balm (you cannot have enough of this in your garden, trust me!), Fuchsia, Petunias and if you're looking for a wonderful native plant to add that will attract them, check out Cardinal Flower! Unlike butterflies and bees that are attracted to sun-loving plants and rely on them for nectar, hummingbirds are attracted to both shade-loving and sun-loving plants, which is great for pollination if you have a primarily shaded garden.

“I always loved those little creatures, always feeling blessed when they appeared nearby. There's a magical quality to them.” The words of Leonard Cohen so beautifully capture exactly how I feel when I look up and see one of these tiny winged beauties.

Children have a way of naturally noticing things and reminding us to stop and notice them, too. I am grateful for the reminder to stop and listen for the birds singing. That same child-like excitement that my daughter felt when she heard the birds singing is still how I feel whenever I see one of those magical little birds.

Nature is talking to us, and the birds are singing. Do you hear it?

Advocating for Victims of Crime & Abuse

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Cicero puts its patriotism on parade

The Fourth of July parade for Cicero's final day of the Lights Over Morse Lake Festival was a massive success. Streets were lined with onlookers, the floats and parade participants were plentiful, and because it's Cicero, there were more golf carts than this photographer could count. Parade Grand Marshal Emily Pearson was chauffeured by Jan Unger and accompanied by young Opal Barger.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

By faith Abraham, when God tested him, offered Isaac as a sacrifice. He who had embraced the promises was about to sacrifice his one and only son, even though God had said to him, "It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned." Abraham reasoned that God could even raise the dead, and so in a manner of speaking he did receive Isaac back from death.

By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to their future.

By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons, and worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

Barbara Jean Nethery September 9, 1928 – July 3, 2022

Barbara Jean Nethery, 93, Noblesville, passed away on Sunday, July 3, 2022. The fabric of her 93 years was tightly woven with her Faith, family, friends and, of course, food!

Barbara's story began on September 9, 1928. She was born to Milton and Lela (Treadway) Linthicum in rural Monroe County, Ind. Barbara attended Kirksville school and cherished her school friendships throughout her life. She would proudly sing the Kirksville fight song upon request. Barbara became the family cook when her mother passed away, and this became a defining role throughout her life.

In 1946, Barbara met and married Ralph Nethery, a sailor returning home from World War II. It was a love story that would span over 74 years and likely over 50,000 shared pots of coffee. They moved to Noblesville for the promise of jobs at Firestone but found so much more. They added five children to their family and developed a Faith that became the bedrock of their lives. Barbara and Ralph were founding members of the First Pentecostal Church of Noblesville and developed life-long friendships through the church. Barbara enjoyed traveling to the annual conference, winters in Brownsville, Texas, and making her famous peanut brittle for church bake sales. Barbara and Ralph were often found at Jim Dandy with church friends or family, as Barbara tried to cajole Sam out of the top-secret coleslaw recipe.

Barbara also worked at BestLock for over 10 years and credits BestLock as where she got her signature cauliflower salad recipe from a co-worker. In retirement, Barbara and Ralph bought a farm in Scottsville, Ky., where they enjoyed many years. They quickly made close friends at their church in Bowling Green, enjoyed summer visits with their 12 grandkids and hosted the Nethery Family "goat roping" every Labor Day weekend.

They returned to Hamilton County in 2000 and their home quickly became headquarters for Saturday morning drop-in family breakfasts featuring Barbara's biscuits and gravy and endless pots of coffee. She enjoyed these Saturday mornings in her recliner, catching up on family news, discussing recipes as well as the latest diet she would be starting on Monday. Barbara was a treasured wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and close friend to many. She will be dearly missed, but God has called her home.

Barbara is survived by her children, William Alan (Rachel) Nethery, Kathy Lynn Harvey, Thomas Lee (Teena) Nethery, Timothy Joseph (Arlene) Nethery, and Terry Dale (Nancy) Nethery; 12 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Barbara was preceded in death by her husband of 74 years, Ralph W. Nethery; sister, Faye Warren; cousin, Wayne Martin; and stepmother, Sylvia Linthicum.

Services will be held at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan St., Noblesville at 2 p.m. on Friday, July 8 with Pastor Bill Chapman officiating. Visitation will be from noon until the time of service. Burial will follow the service at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Memorial contributions may be made to Tupelo Children's Mansion (mansionkids.org); or to the 2022 Walk to End Alzheimer's Heartland: Team C & N (act.alz.org).

'Hounds tennis coach leaves for teaching goal

By RICHIE HALL

sports@readthereporter.com

Bryan Hanan has spent the past six years with the Carmel High School tennis program, helping many young people achieve their goals of winning state championships.

Now, Hanan is heading to Franklin Central, where he will be working toward his goal – teaching at the high school level. And helping the Flashes tennis program along the way.

Hanan stepped down from the Greyhounds teams several days ago to accept a teaching job in the Franklin Central school system. He will also become the Flashes' high school tennis coach.

"This all started out with a teaching move, and I wasn't going to go anywhere without a teaching opportunity," said Hanan.

Hanan will be teaching seventh-grade Project Lead The Way in Franklin Central schools, and he hopes to eventually move up into the high-school teaching ranks.

"They had a middle school opening," said Hanan. "They sound pretty confident that they'll get me in the high school. I miss that area. I really do."

In addition, Hanan noted that Franklin Central is due for some big growth over the next few years. He wants to help the tennis program – which is familiar to people in Hamilton County due to the Flashes playing in the Hoosier Crossroads Conference – start to realize its potential.

"I'm excited to start over again," said Hanan, who coached at Greenwood, Southport and Warren Central before coming to Carmel. "There are going to be 4,000 kids over the next five years at Franklin Central. To me, it's a sleeping giant."

Of course, Hanan was part of a giant at Carmel. He started as the boys assistant coach in 2016, then moved up to head coach in 2018. The Greyhounds won state championships all six years Hanan was there, a record for most consecutive state titles.

During Hanan's tenure, Carmel also won four individual singles state championships (Patrick Fletcher in 2016-17 and Presley Thieneman in 2018-19), and has a streak of three straight doubles state titles (Uday Lomada/Jones McNamar in 2019, McNamar/Srisanth Malpeddi in 2020 and Malpeddi/Jack Jentz in 2021). Ethan McAndrews and Jay Natarajan won state doubles in 2016.

Hanan began coaching the Greyhounds' girls team in 2019. The team fell in the state semi-finals that year to Cathedral 3-2, then had to sit out a year in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. But Carmel came back to win two state titles in 2021 and 2022. Also, Leila Antony and Lauren Littell won the state doubles title in 2019.

"I've had a great time there," said Hanan. "It was a very tough move. I have a lot of strong relationships with parents there. It was not easy."

And that's one thing that Hanan wants to make clear: His move to Franklin Central is strictly a professional move.

"Our administration at Carmel was phenomenal," said Hanan. "Our players are phenomenal, our parents are phenomenal. There never was an issue. This was straight a teaching move."

Hanan is proud of the fact that Carmel alumni come back to cheer on the Greyhounds even after they have graduated, which the coach said was one of his goals when he took over the program.

"Every year when we get to state, not only do our alumni show up, our former parents show up," said Hanan, who noted that's what he is "most proud of."
