Murder on the Nickel Plate Express

Step back into the 1920s for dinner, music & mystery

Sports bras don't play fair

The REPORTER

Have you ever wanted to be Hercule Poirot minus the mustaches? This October you have your chance!

On Oct. 15 and 16, Main Street Productions is partnering with the Nickel Plate Express to bring you a murderous adventure where you ride the rails listening to the musical styles of the The Howlin' Owls, enjoy dinner with the Graveyard Stompers, and help solve a crime.

Can you solve the murder on the Nickel Plate Express in Roaring '20s style?

This exclusive four-hour event is sure to be the bee's knees. Take an hour train ride, a 90-minute stop in Atlanta for ritzy dinner and music and an hour train ride back. Add in a little time to get on board both times and you will have a four-hour adventure.

Toss on your swankiest glad rags and ride through Indiana's scenic countryside. Enjoy live music and sip your giggle water on the rolling juice joint on the way to dinner. Keep your peepers peeled for any suspicious characters. Then exit the train for a three-course dinner and where music is in the air and murder is on the menu.

Mingle, munch and sleuth your way through the clues.

If laughter is the best medicine, you may get a good dose of it today.

It's a sunny day and I just had quite the workout. I am not at the gym but at home.

I put on a new sports bra. Well, let's just say I attempted to do so.

I'm sweating. I'm exhausted. I think I pulled something in my back.

Whoever created the sports bra should have recommended it for young women only. Anyone on Social Security should be advised to "try" at your own risk.

I took the risk.

I wrestled it over my head and as I pulled the front over my "girls," I think I heard the back side of the bra say, "I'm not going any farther." It was stuck at my neck.

My "girls" were being lifted higher than they had been in years. They were caught in limbo.

I struggled to catch my breath as I wrangled with the back of the bra. I kept hugging my arms around my back. I looked in the mirror and vaguely remembered a yoga pose similar to that. It was not a pretty sight. I attempted to do yoga breathing . . . I couldn't.

When a woman reaches a certain age, gravity is no longer her friend. I reached that age quite a few years ago. Whenever I show cleavage, I show my midriff.

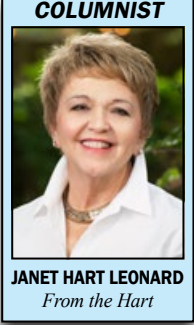

I finally wiggled my fingers to the bottom of the back of the bra. I was in quite the wrestling match. I got it down. Whew. I struggled to catch my breath.

Sweat puddled in the valley.

I was being held hostage by a sports bra.

Sports bras are to be worn to reduce pain and discomfort caused by breast movement. It is said that the sports bra keeps you from having to rearrange your breasts. My girls were promising to behave if I just allowed them to swing free and be released from this contortionist's contraption.

I wrestled it over my head and the "girls" fell to their old 66-year-old position. I think I sprained them. My back hurt down to my tailbone, which struggles to stay in place per my chiropractor. How am I going to explain to him that it went out while putting on my bra?

Carmel youth take you to 42nd Street

By STU CLAMPITT

Come along and listen to the lullaby of Broadway. From July 28 to 31, Booth Tarkington Civic Theatre, 3 Carter Green, Carmel, and their Young Artists Program (YAP) is staging 42nd Street to celebrate Broadway, Times Square and the magic of show biz with wit, humor and pizzazz.

At the height of the Great Depression, aspiring chorus girl Peggy Sawyer comes to the big city from Allentown, Pa., and soon lands her first big job in the ensemble of a glitzy new Broadway show. But just before opening night, the leading lady breaks her ankle. Will Peggy be able to step in and become a star? The score is chock-full of

Broadway standards, including "You're Getting To Be A Habit With Me," "Dames," "We're In the Money," "Lullaby of Broadway," "Shuffle Off to Buffalo" and "42nd Street."

According to YAP Coordinator Anne Beck, 42nd Street has a cast of 34 high school-age performers from Carmel, Fishers, Hamilton Southeastern, Mt. Vernon, Brebeuf Jesuit, Zionsville, Park Tudor, and Noblesville, all of whom must learn tap dancing.

"The challenge with this show and the tap dancing needed to pull off what an audience expects, is that unless a student had taken tap, that is not a universal skillset," Beck told The Reporter. "So I really worked

Oh, my goodness. Well, so much for my wearing a sports bra. I hope my granddaughter, Emma, appreciates what I went through to give her a surprise gift.

BTW, true fact: the first sports bra was designed by using two jockstraps. Seriously, I can't make this stuff up.

I hope you enjoyed your

The panelists include the following individuals:

- Allison Bullock, a Westfield graduate currently attending Purdue University. She is a pre-med intern at Trinity Free Clinic. She focused her studies on the behavioral health impacts of tobacco.
- Jocelyn Grider, a Guerin Catholic graduate. She attended University of Indianapolis and is currently seeking a master's in Public Health. She focused on the public health consequences.
- Calina He, a pre-dental intern at Trinity Free Clinic. She graduated from Carmel High School and currently attends Indiana University. She looked at the oral health outcomes for smokers.

About Breathe Easy Hamilton County

As an alliance working with local organizations and individuals within the Hamilton County community, Breathe Easy promotes tobacco-free living in order to reduce mortality and morbidity rates. Breathe Easy is working to ensure that all workers in Hamilton County are protected from secondhand smoke exposure. Breathe Easy believes everyone deserves the right to breathe smoke-free air at work and in public places.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

as the YAP coordinator to offer classes in tap throughout year to assist that as well as really worked with them in rehearsal process as their choreographer to make all levels feel improved within their own skillsets as well as for the show. More than half of the cast had never done a tap show before, so where they have grown to and what they have accomplished is so wonderful to see."

Every young actor you will see on stage is a rising star.

"The beauty of this program is that it is a pre-professional program and filled with students who might want to pursue the arts in college or have done shows at school and do not want to stop performing over the summer," Beck said. "They take master classes in acting, improv, dance, yoga, auditions, singing through the summer in addition to rehearsing the show so they truly all are rising stars and so excited and happy to come to Civic every day."

If you have been to a Civic Theatre YAP performance before, you may see some familiar faces, but many are brand new to this stage.

"Some of the cast are here for the first time," Beck said. "Some have been cast every year since their summer after eighth grade. Mary Kate Tanselle, who plays Peggy, is an example. She has been in every show and this year has one of the leads before heading off to college."

YAP auditioned 80 young actors for a show with only 34 roles. With that kind of talent pool and with YAP and Civic Theatre's track, you know 42nd Street will entertain.

"The cast is beautifully supportive of one another because one of my program mottos is that it is a safe, inclusive environment for all to shine, thrive, create and grow together as a YAP family, but also individually," Beck said. "I love the cast and they add to why I love my job."

With a short rehearsal schedule to stage this show, Beck said making the cast feel as polished and prepared as possible is a challenge.

"42nd Street in particular has some iconic Gower Champion choreography that I wanted to tribute, but it can also be tricky and quite challenging," Beck told The Reporter. "I never want choreo to be too easy, even in a short rehearsal process, because I like all students to feel they have accomplished great things. The challenge is to pay tribute to some of the original work while highlighting the strengths of every individual artist I have."

On the other hand, Beck said she thinks the rewards are endless.

"I always say I wish I had a program like this growing up," Beck said. "Seeing them have their own success, seeing them find personal joy in mastering a step they may have struggled with or a vocal note. Seeing them grow to make the show come to life and watching their own pride in it is amazing. As a choreographer, this year especially it has been rewarding to know so few had tapped before, and to see the caliber that they are now tapping intricate rhythms in unison – and having fun doing it!"

Beck calls the cast "thirsty to practice and work hard." She says their efforts are paying off and now they get to have some fun while putting the final polish on this production before the audiences show up.

"The energy in the room when we would finish a full number and perform it was electric and thrilling!" Beck said. "Knowing the YAP program is providing them that is rewarding. Like I said before, I wish I had a program like this growing up."

Beck gives a great deal of the credit for the quality of this show to the team she is working with.

"I have an incredible production team, an amazing design team who also had to work in a very short amount of time to build 23 wigs and multiple costumes on 34 actors," Beck said. "I owe the world to Adrienne Conces (costume) and Andrew Elliott (wigs and makeup). Additionally, lights, set, sound all brilliantly professionally designed and live musicians playing this amazing score. Professional stage management team. It is just an all-around fantastic experience, and I am proud of the cast and teams immensely."

Tickets can be purchased at civictheatre.org/42nd-street or through the box office at The Center for the Performing Arts at (317) 843-3800.

Hamilton County volunteer service feeds hungry neighbors

It is not a surprise to anyone when we say that providing food to hungry neighbors is a challenging endeavor or most days. Included on the task list of regular activities are gratitude, donations, locations, donors, volunteer interaction, food distribution, hosts, more food, publicity, fundraising, events, food usage, food variety, and pantry maintenance.

It also will not come as a surprise that the last several months have been particularly difficult. Notwithstanding current economic conditions, food donations are up. Concurrently, food use from the pantries is at unprecedented levels. The feedback we receive is that a small percentage of folks are taking much more food per person than we have ever experienced before. Feeding Team is designed to provide a few meals to many people, not many meals to a few.

Recognizing that we had fallen behind the food need, we published an appeal for additional donations, and as has become the norm, dozens of neighbors stepped up to help. These gracious supporters help us bridge the food source gap.

One incredible Feeding Team partner stepped up with over 8,000 meals to supplement the immediate needs of hungry neighbors.

International Disaster Emergency Service (I.D.E.S.) is a largely unknown Hamilton County jewel. These amazing folks provide a wide range of relief services around the world for communities impacted by horrific disasters. This time, Jody England, GAP Director from I.D.E.S., heard about the need and reached out offering support to the hungry in our area. Fast forward a day and he is personally delivering cases of meals. Fast forward another day and nearly one thousand of those meals are distributed by volunteers into pantries all over Hamilton County. Thank you, Jody, I.D.E.S., volunteers, and hosts.

This week pantries 47 and 48 were deployed. Number 47 went to Jay County, right on the square in Portland, Ind. Number 48 is deployed at Victory Baptist church on the corner of 196th Street and State Road 19. We continue to be so very thankful for neighbors stepping up to host, donate, stock, and organize pantries.

Jody England (above), GAP Director at International Disaster Emergency Service (I.D.E.S.) of Noblesville, unloads one of the many boxes of food making up only part of the 8,000 meals donated by the organization to FeedingTeam.org.

With over 27,000 food-challenged neighbors in Hamilton County, FeedingTeam.org provides outdoor 24/7/365 no-questions-asked free food pantries throughout the county.

Neighbors ask, "Why do this? What is in it for you?" The answer is always the same: Serving people feeds my soul. It is a calling, not work.

When criticized or questioned, I encourage people to learn my story before assuming anything. There were suppers when we as a young couple with young kids could only afford Dinty Moore beef stew and a potato for dinner. Surreal moment. This is why the pantries exist. As a typical young family, we could not always make ends meet.

Thank you for embracing the pantries. We love serving with so many neighbors across Hamilton County.

In future columns we will share more stories from neighbors about how your generosity served them in times of need. Be assured that the face of hunger in Hamilton County is not what you may think.

In practical terms, this straightforward way to help neighbors is having real impact on lives, families, and our communities.

Thank you. A few meals can change the course of a person's life. A can of green beans means so much more when you have nothing to feed your kids. Would you like to get involved? We are in the process of evaluating our next pantry locations. If you think you have a potential location, please contact us.

State electric vehicle deployment plan available for public to review

The REPORTER

The Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT) on Wednesday announced that a draft version of Indiana's Electric Vehicle (EV) Infrastructure Deployment Plan is available online for review and public comment.

The plan is required by the National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program, part of the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law passed in November 2021. Through the NEVI program, Indiana will receive significant federal formula funding over five years to support the construction and operation of Direct-Current Fast Charging (DCFC) stations along alternative fuel corridors as designated by the Federal Highway Administration.

The intent of the NEVI program is to increase the availability of fast, reliable EV charging infrastructure across the country to reduce range anxiety and make EV ownership and operation more convenient.

Indiana's plan includes state agency coordination, public engagement, vision and goals, initial contracting and procurement guidance, existing and future conditions analysis, implementation considerations, cybersecurity planning, and civil rights and equity requirements.

Click here to review the plan; it's under the "Draft Deployment Plan" tab. Written public comment on the plan can be submitted online through the "Public Comment Form" tab and will be accepted through Aug. 20.

INDOT must submit the plan to the Joint Office of Energy and Transportation for federal review by Aug. 1. The Joint Office anticipates completing review of state plans by Sept. 30. The plan will be updated annually over the life of the NEVI program.

Do you want to be a Christian and a Christian alone?

As a country, state and county we will soon enter into another contentious political season. Are you a Democratic, Republican, Libertarian or unattached? To whom do you give your allegiance? What determines your political allegiance? Rest easy this is not a political ad nor is it intended to promote any party or candidate. I want us to think for a moment about what brings us to that conclusion.

When we consider our religious affiliation, what leads us to make that decision? This decision is far more significant than making a commitment to a political party or candidate. If God is who He says He is and Jesus is His Son, it behooves us to surrender and submit to Him and Him alone! God will not accept divided devotion and thus we would call on all men to worship Him and Him alone. Repeatedly in the Old Testament, we read of commands to worship Him and Him alone. Enshrined in the Law was the command to "worship no other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God" (Exodus 34:14). Paul warned of the danger of provoking God to jealousy (1 Cor. 10:22).

Why not leave any commitment to a church founded by men, not provoke God to jealousy and seek to be a Christian and a Christian alone? Is that idea intriguing? Does it seem reasonable? Let's investigate that together.

The REPORTER

State Road 37 & 146th Street

All left-turn lanes are currently restricted on SR 37 and on 146th Street with traffic moved to the interior lanes. Thru traffic and right turns on SR 37 and 146th Street will remain open. Drivers are encouraged to seek alternate routes for all left-turn access. View an alternate route map here.

State Road 37 & 131st/135th Streets

135th Street east of SR 37 is currently closed as work progresses on the project. SR 37 will remain open both northbound and southbound and allow right in/right out access at 131st Street. View the detour map here.

From Monday, July 25 through Thursday, July 28, there will be single lane closures on SR 37 between 7 p.m. and 6 a.m. to set barrier wall, place pavement markings and signage for Phase 6. Northbound will be moved first onto the newly constructed pavement and will be able to use 135th Street via right in/right out. Southbound will be last and will no longer have access to 135th Street west of SR 37. View the detour map here.

Please drive with caution through these areas. To learn more about the State Road 37 Improvement Project and sign up to receive text updates, visit 37Thrives.com.

Technology Drive (Northeast Commerce Park)

The inside lane of Technology Drive is currently closed to traffic to allow for construction of new pavement in the inside lane. One-way traffic will be in place in the outside lane as shown here. Access to all businesses will be maintained during the construction.

Southeastern Parkway & Cyntheanne Road

The intersection at Southeastern Parkway and Cyntheanne Road is currently closed for roundabout construction and is anticipated to reopen by the end of July. View the detour map here. Schoolhouse 7 Café will remain open for business during construction. View how to access their business here.

Cumberland Road

From Monday, July 25 through Thursday, July 28, milling and road resurfacing will take place on Cumberland Road. The southbound lane on Cumberland Road between 131st Street and 126th Street will be restricted daily between 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. The roundabout at 131st Street will be reduced to one internal lane to prevent traffic exiting southbound onto Cumberland Road. Flaggers will be in place at 131st Street and 126th Street to help direct traffic.

Olio Road

Olio Road between Geist Reservoir and Haven Cove Lane, the first road south of the Geist Reservoir Bridge, may have daily lane restrictions for the reconfiguration and installation of access to Geist Waterfront Park and the Marina. These lane restrictions will occur between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. The estimated completion date is Aug. 1.

104th Street

From Tuesday, July 26 through Thursday, July 28, road resurfacing will take place on 104th Street, east of Olio Road to Cyntheanne Road. Flaggers will be in place to help direct traffic.

116th Street

Comcast will have daily lane restrictions in place on westbound 116th Street between Cameron Drive and Allisonville Road and northbound Allisonville Road between 116th Street to the Kroger signal for overhead work. Restrictions will be in place between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Resurfacing projects

ADA ramp and curb reconstruction has started taking place in Delaware Point, Hickory Woods, Overlook at Beaver Ridge, and Waterford Gardens as part of the 2022 Resurfacing Project. Homeowners will be notified via door hangers prior to any curb reconstruction near their home. After ADA ramp and curb reconstruction is completed, those areas will be restored with topsoil and seed. It is the responsibility of the homeowner to water the seed for the seed to germinate. Prior to road resurfacing, residents will be notified via street signage for street parking restrictions.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that openly profess his name. And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you as those who must give an account. Do this so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you.

Pray for us. We are sure that we have a clear conscience and desire to live honorably in every way. I particularly urge you to pray so that I may be restored to you soon.

In addition to his parents, Stan was preceded in death by his wife of 59 years, Patricia Kay Harmon (Cummings); his brother, Fred Harmon; and his sisters, Mary Clements and Jean Loveall.

AlleyCats suffer the bite of Wind Chill

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

The Indianapolis AlleyCats may have lost their AUDL game this week, but they are still in control of their own destiny.

The AlleyCats hosted the Minnesota Wind Chill Saturday afternoon at IUPUI's Carroll Stadium, falling 24-21 in a game that was more defensive-oriented than the score makes it out to be. The 'Cats were playing the game away from their usual setting at Grand Park Events Center, doing so in conjunction with the Indy Eleven's Saturday night game with Memphis.

The AlleyCats were holding their own with the Wind Chill in the first quarter, at one point taking a 6-4 lead. Jeremy Keusch was on fire during that run, scoring three of Indianapolis' goals.

But the 'Cats ran into trouble in the last third of the period, when Minnesota got three straight goals to take a 7-6 lead into the second quarter. Xavier Payne threw to Brett Matzuka to open the second period, tying the game at 7-7.

Both teams traded goals after that, with Cameron Brock finding Carter Rae. That made the score 8-8. The Wind Chill then went on a big run after that, scoring four straight times for a 12-8 lead. Minnesota stayed in front from that point forward.

"They shifted their defense early in the second quarter," said AlleyCats coach Will Drumright. The 'Cats got a score back during the last minute of the period when Matzuka caught a throw from Rae with 47 seconds left, but the Wind Chill answered just 22 seconds later, and went into halftime with a 13-9 advantage.

The teams traded goals for much of the third quarter, but the 'Cats were able to get consecutive goals late in the period. Keusch passed to Levi Jacobs to cut Minnesota's lead to 18-15. Then Payne got an immediate block, and the AlleyCats were able to eventually turn that into a score. Payne sent a 23-yard scoring toss to Matzuka, and Indianapolis was within 18-16.

"Our offense started to pick it up a little bit more," said Drumright. "Some of the guys started to hit their stride. We were battling some of the elements, with some cramping and things going on, but we were able to work the disc quickly and rotate some personnel to be able to allow us to do that."

Brett Matzuka scored three goals for the Indianapolis AlleyCats during their Saturday afternoon game with the Minnesota Wind Chill at IUPUI's Carroll Stadium. The Wind Chill beat the AlleyCats 24-21, but the 'Cats are still in contention for the third playoff spot in the AUDL Central Division.

While the temperatures never got into the 90s, as they were initially forecast to do, they stayed in the upper 80s throughout the game. In addition, there was enough humidity in the air to justify water breaks, which the teams took during the game. But Drumright said the heat didn't change the AlleyCats' tactics.

"We played outdoors last week against Madison when it's hot as this," said Drumright. The coach said his team's tactics were based on "what we need to be able to do against their defense."

"We knew it was going to be hot, but we practice in this," said the coach. "So we were ready for it."

Both teams scored in the final few seconds of the third quarter, with the 'Cats getting the last word: Rae found Jacobs to keep Indianapolis within 19-17. Minnesota opened the fourth period with a goal, getting back up 20-17.

The AlleyCats then scored back-to-back goals again, closing the gap to 20-19 with 7:52 left. Jacobs threw to Brock for the first goal, then a Wind Chill throwaway led to a 46-yard scoring pass from Keegan North to Rae.

Minnesota got consecutive goals to push its lead back up to 22-19, and the Wind Chill were able to stay comfortably in front for the remainder of the game. Keusch threw to Jacobs for the AlleyCats' 20th goal, then Payne found Jeffrey Burris for the contest's final goal.

Keusch led the scoring with four goals, while four more players (Matzuka, Rae, Jacobs and Brock) added three goals. North dished out five assists, while Rae, Payne and Jacobs each handed out three assists.

Despite the loss, the 'Cats are still in contention for the third playoff spot in the AUDL Central division. Indianapolis is 6-5, and needs only to beat Atlanta next Saturday in its regular-season finale in order to clinch a place in the playoffs.

"We wanted to get it done today, but we know that there's a lot that can happen next week," said Drumright. "We understand what we need to do next week against Atlanta and it's going to present its own challenge because we haven't seen them yet. But we're already focusing on what we need to do to win and get in."

Colts training camp kicks off Wednesday at Grand Park

By ASHLEY FOWLER
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Football fans, rejoice! The start of training camp for the Indianapolis Colts is less than a week away. The team is busy preparing for camp, which kicks off Wednesday at Grand Park Sports Campus in Westfield, says Stephanie Pemberton, the team's vice president of marketing. "We are so excited to be back at Grand Park. We're going to have a fully normal training camp, pre-COVID experience for our fans, which is gonna be a lot of fun," Pemberton said. Fans will have several chances to see the team in action. Sixteen practice sessions, including practices with the Detroit Lions on Aug. 17 and 18, will be open to the public.

Pemberton says that a fan-favorite event is returning to training camp this year: player autograph sessions. "We're bringing back autograph sessions after practice. I know fans missed that opportunity to really connect up close and personal with our players at practices and so we're gonna be bringing those back."

Colts City is also back this year, and it's sure to be a popular destination for Colts fans of all ages. It will feature a PLAY 60 Kids Zone with football drills and a 40-yard dash, a beer garden for adults, music from DJ Gno, and appearances by Colts mascot Blue and the Colts Cheerleaders.

Several theme days are planned, including Kids Day, Give Back Sunday, and Salute to Service military appreciation day, according to Pemberton.

"We've got Kids Day next week, where we're actually gonna be unveiling a partnership with Marvel — so if you're into superheroes that'll be a great day to come out! We've got Salute to Service, where we're going to be honoring military members and their families and offering some extra perks for them," Pemberton said.

Admission to Colts training camp is free and tickets can be picked up online.

Newgarden owns Iowa's Newton speedway

The REPORTER

It might be time to change the name of the city where Iowa Speedway is located from Newton to Newgardenton.

Josef Newgarden became the all-time INDY-CAR SERIES win leader at Iowa Speedway by capturing the Hy-VeeDeals.com 250 presented by DoorDash on Saturday, his fourth career win at the .894-mile oval and his fourth win of the 2022 season in the No. 2 Hitachi Team Penske Chevrolet. Newgarden and Ryan Hunter-Reay both entered this race tied atop the all-time Iowa win list with three apiece.

Newgarden, who started second, beat Pato O'Ward in the No. 5 Arrow McLaren SP Chevrolet to the checkered flag by 6.1784 seconds for his 24th career victory. NTT P1 Award winner Will Power finished third in the No. 12 Verizon Team Penske Chevrolet on a scorching day in which air temperatures nearly reached 100 degrees.

"I'm glad I wore this cool shirt," Newgarden said. "It was actually pretty nice and easy in there, to be honest with you. The car was good. I was surprised at how hard these guys were pushing on the restarts. This is a long-game day."

"I was disappointed after qualifying. I just hate losing, and I felt like we had enough to get the job done, and we didn't. It motivated me. I knew we had a car here today to win this race in front of this great crowd. It's one of my favorite tracks."

Two-time NTT INDY-CAR SERIES champion Newgarden added this victory to his wins in 2016, 2019 and the second race of the Iowa doubleheader in 2020. He'll get a chance to add to his win total at Iowa in the Hy-Vee Salute to Farmers 300 presented by Google at 3 p.m. ET Sunday, live on NBC and the INDYCAR Radio Network, starting second again behind teammate Power.

Newgarden also passed Power for second in the NTT INDYCAR SERIES championship standings and clawed to within just 15 points of leader Marcus Ericsson, who finished eighth in the No. 8 Huski Chocolate Chip Ganassi Racing Honda.

"I feel good," Newgarden said. "We've been in the game. It's just not where we want to be in the game. We're in the fight; we're relatively there. We just got to figure out how to have more consistency. It's either winning or going sideways on our weekends."

There was nothing sideways about Newgarden's performance today. He led 208 of the 250 laps and ran away from O'Ward over the last 25 trips around the "Fastest Short Track on the Planet."

Newgarden also has finished every lap in the last nine INDYCAR SERIES races at Iowa. That's a stunning feat considering the perils of close-quarters oval racing and how easy it is to fall a lap down on a circuit where race laps take only 20 seconds.

While Newgarden never trailed after Lap 80, O'Ward made it interesting during the final fuel and tire stint. O'Ward pulled to within eight-tenths of a second of the lead with 25 laps to go when Newgarden was held up in traffic.

But once Newgarden cleared that thicket of cars, it was check-out time. He will split $10,000 with his team and his two charities, SeriousFun Children's Network and Wags and Walks Nashville, for the victory as part of the PeopleReady Force for Good Challenge.

"I was pushing Josef there at the end, but we didn't quite have it," O'Ward said. "We kept making the car better and better each stint. There at the end, I think we took a little bit out of them getting by Will and getting by Alex (Palou) and getting back the lappers trying to catch the No. 2."

Rinus VeeKay continued his recent resurgence by finishing fourth in the No. 21 Bitcoin Racing Team with BitNile Chevrolet, his second top-four finish in his last three starts. Six-time NTT INDYCAR SERIES champion Scott Dixon followed his victory last Sunday at the Honda Indy Toronto by finishing fifth in the No. 9 PNC Bank Chip Ganassi Racing Honda.

Dixon is one of five drivers lurking within about a race's worth of points from leader Ericsson. Newgarden is second, 15 points back; Power third, 22 behind; Palou fourth, 33 behind; Dixon fifth, 38 back; and O'Ward sixth, 59 back.

Seven-time NASCAR Cup Series champion Jimmie Johnson also was one of the stars of the show, finishing 11th in the No. 48 Carvana Chip Ganassi Racing Honda. Johnson made many brave moves in the highest groove of the racetrack to pass numerous foes. He led a career-high 19 laps — one of only three lap leaders today — and was running in the top five for a healthy portion of the race.

While there were only three lap leaders, the competitive race featured 772 total on-track passes, including 372 for position.
