Fun in Sheridan begins at the Historical Society Museum

By STEVE MARTIN
Sheridan Historical Society

They say a picture is worth a thousand words, and this one is no exception.

Pictured at right is Marilyn Nicholson Godby (Sheridan Class of 1966) and her 10-year-old granddaughter Samantha DeBoer. They live in suburban Omaha, Neb., now and are back in Marilyn's hometown this summer vacation to visit family and old friends. Folks familiar with Sheridan will certainly recognize the Nicholson and Godby family names.

They stopped by the museum to peek around, and Marilyn immediately recognized Sandy, the old Ben Franklin Store pony she rode when she was a youngster growing up here. Sandy was in front of the old Ben Franklin Store on Main Street for years and years. The Sheridan Historical Society acquired Sandy and restored her to a working relic. Samantha just had to take a ride like Grandma did when she was 10 years old. Well, as you can imagine, that made Grandma Marilyn happy and proud to no end.

Grandmother Marilyn Nicholson Godby smiles as her granddaughter Samantha DeBoer rides Sandy at the Sheridan Museum. Sandy was an icon in front of Ben Franklin Store on Main Street, and Grandma Marilyn has fond memories of riding Sandy when she was 10 years old, too.

Heritage Center, a.k.a. the Museum, is located at 315 S. Main St. in beautiful uptown Sheridan. It is open on Tuesday and Friday afternoons from 1 to 4 p.m., and through Labor Day weekend on Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Museum is also open on Main Street First Fridays from 5 to 9 p.m.

"De-Lovely: An Evening of Cole Porter" coming to Carmel's Hotel Carmichael

The REPORTER

Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael presents Elizabeth Doyle and David Edelfelt in "De-Lovely: An Evening of Cole Porter" on Oct. 14. With songs ranging from playful, to poignant, to comedic, these two singers/pianists will take audiences on a journey through Porter's life, from his small-town Peru, Ind., beginnings to Paris, Broadway and Hollywood.

"De-Lovely" – which Doyle and Edelfelt created and have performed to standing ovations in Paris, New York City, Chicago, and the 2021 Annual Cole Porter Festival – includes both vocal solos and duets and showcases their versatility as they take turns at the piano, playing for each other and themselves.

"As Cole's cousins, we've heard countless performers present his intricate rhymes and story-telling tunes ... this show was among the best we've ever heard," Maryalice Kubesch Williams and Polly Kubesch Dobbs said after Doyle and Edelfelt's performance at the 2021 Cole Porter Festival.

"De-Lovely: An Evening of Cole Porter" with Elizabeth Doyle and David Edelfelt plays Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael, 1 Carmichael Square, Carmel, at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 14. Click here for tickets and more information.

The Locator Club

Mary didn't bug me often after that conversation about what I should do regarding the search for my biological parents because she knew about my internal struggle. Mary understood that I didn't want to hurt my mother. But she planted another seed in me that day that began to grow. And when I read an article in a magazine about a mother and daughter who were reunited thanks to the help of a celebrity by the name of Troy Dunn, I knew what I had to do.

I had seen reruns of Mr. Dunn's television show, The Locator, after I had minor surgery in 2012. Troy and his team worked together for four seasons to reunite lost relatives, with the backstory and end result shown on TV. Of course, each episode brought me to tears and made me think about my own situation. But I still hadn't wanted to take the next step.

Chuck Goodrich of Gaylor Electric ranked as one of National Best CEOs of Diversity

The REPORTER

In addition to five million ratings across 70,000 companies, Goodrich holds himself and his company to a higher standard by emphasizing the value of diversity in the workplace. Such matter has resulted in being ranked as 96, next to the other top national performing CEOs with a diversity-minded corporate initiative.

"At Gaylor Electric, we are committed to bringing in the best people possible. And I have found that talent comes from a wide net of cultures," Goodrich said. "Construction is one of most diverse professional industries. On our larger national construction projects, we have 30 to 40 percent Hispanic individuals as our workforce."

Teaching children school bus safety

The REPORTER

Parents are an important part of a total safety program for children who travel by school bus. Children need to learn to be safe pedestrians as they walk to and from the bus as well as to be safe riders when they're on the bus. Here's how you can help:

- Have your children put everything they carry in a backpack or school bag so they won't drop things along the way.
- Attach a piece of high-visibility fluorescent or reflective material to their clothing or backpack.
- Make sure they leave home on time so that they can walk to the bus stop and arrive before the bus is due, as running can be dangerous.

LOCATOR CLUB

The Museum is located at the site of the old Hippodrome Theatre. That is why the theatre-like façade was chosen for the new location, a unique feature for the “fresh look” of Sheridan’s Main Street.

If you have not been to the museum in a long time, if you are new in town, or if you are just visiting, you need to stop by and have a look-see. The docents on duty are a bunch of friendly old folks, full of old folk’s jokes, and we love kids. If you have roots here, we probably already know who you are and can share a story or two about your family. And if you don’t have roots here, we will try to change that.

We hope you will drop by the museum and see us. Sheridan has quite a story to tell, from the arrival of George Boxley, through our boom times and bad, to the glory of impressive basketball and football dynasties, to the resilience of Sheridan’s people, and to the challenges yet ahead of us.

Comparably allows for all anonymous employee voices to be heard through an annual survey. The results are derived from non-Caucasian employees about their CEOs.

“Listening to and promoting the voices of all diverse employees is critical,” Comparably CEO Jason Nazar said. “This year’s list of CEOs implements equity and inclusion at the forefront of how they lead, according to feedback directly from their employees of color.”

Goodrich said diversity is an important aspect Gaylor Electric strives to have.

“At Gaylor Electric, diversity entails so much more than how someone looks. We have developed our own brand of what true IED looks like,” Goodrich said. “The best teams are made up of diverse thinking individuals, and unique perspectives are an advantage to developing solutions. This is the key to our successful teams.”

Comparably is a leading workplace culture and corporate brand reputation platform with over 15 million anonymous employee ratings on 70,000 companies. With the most comprehensive data on large and SMB organizations in nearly 20 different workplace categories it is one of the most used platforms for employer branding and a trusted site for workplace culture and compensation.

SCHOOL BUS SAFETY

- Go to the bus stop with a young child and have older children walk in groups. There’s safety in numbers because groups are easier for drivers to see.
- If your child must walk in the street, walk single file, face traffic, and stay as close to the edge of the road as possible.
- Don’t let your child play running games or push or shove at the bus stop.

- Make sure your child stands at least six feet (three giant steps) from the road while waiting for the bus.
- If children must cross the street to the bus, remind them to wait for the driver to signal that it’s safe to cross.
- Tell your child if they drop something near the bus, they should never pick it up. Instead, they should tell the bus driver and follow the driver’s directions. Remind children to look to the right before they step off the bus; other drivers in a hurry sometimes try to sneak by buses on the right.

- Teach your children to secure loose drawstrings and other objects that may get caught in the handrail or door of the bus as they are exiting.

Remind your children that to be good bus riders, they should:

- Talk quietly.
- Be courteous to the bus driver and follow the driver’s directions.
- Keep the aisles clear.
- Stay seated for the entire bus ride.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

I-465, I-69 construction brings short-term concerns for some businesses

By CAMILA FERNANDEZ WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A major construction project for Interstates 465 and 69 on the city’s northeast side begins today, and some businesses are raising concerns.

Two ramp closures will happen this weekend, but, while one is expected to be completed Monday, another will remain closed for two years.

“I think people are just going to want to be home because it’s going to get hot outside, so I think it’s going to be bad the next few years,” said John Stone, an artist at Black Ink Indianapolis.

According to Indiana Department of Transportation, the construction project aims to improve safety and traffic flow the I-465/I-69 interchange. The project will rebuild and add lanes to I-465 between I-69/Binford Boulevard and the White River.

The project includes more travel lanes, new ramp lanes, 14 new bridges, two rehabilitated bridges, and maintenance work.

“It’s a lot of traffic now. It used to be very quiet, but it’s getting more traffic,” said Sonia Garcia, the co-owner of Alex Tailor Shop. “It’s really bad traffic, especially when people are getting off work, so it’s just really bad around this area.”

The Keystone Avenue on-ramp to I-465 eastbound will close during the weekend for restriping work and is expected to reopen Monday.

Construction on the Alisonville Road on-ramp to I-465 eastbound will also begin this weekend. However, that ramp will remain closed through 2024.

The closure is needed to make room for construction and help keep traffic flowing during the project. Traffic pattern changes to I-465 westbound are set for next weekend. Workers will restrict I-465 westbound to one lane to restripe the pavement and shift traffic closer to the eastbound lanes.

Alex Tailor Shop has been in the area for over 15 years, and Garcia says the road work will have an impact.

“Some people they say, they might think, ‘Well, every time I go with Sonia to Alex Tailor Shop it’s a mess,’ so they’re going to look for another alteration place around their home or other places, so it’s going to affect me,” Garcia said.

However, both Garcia and Stone say they believe once construction is complete, the new changes will bring a positive change.

Noblesville Preservation Alliance will restage radio play “The War of the Worlds”

The REPORTER

In October of 1938, Orson Welles and the Mercury Theatre of the Air presented a broadcast that would prove to be one of the most memorable events in radio history: The War of the Worlds.

While presented as a radio play, many people thought it was a real news broadcast and widespread panic ensued. While many people were upset when they found out the truth, this broadcast showed the power of radio at that time.

On Oct. 7, the Noblesville Preservation Alliance will present a recreation of that broadcast live on stage at Preservation Hall in Noblesville. A cast of 10 or more people will be needed for the performance, and auditions will be open to the public beginning Monday, Aug 15. If you would like more information, or to schedule an audition time, send an email to 1NPAtheater@gmail.com.

Landowners with wells needed for county groundwater study

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Surveyor's Office is seeking volunteers for the county's three-year Water Availability Study. The study is being done by INTERA, the engineering firm employed by the county, and will monitor aquifer levels throughout the county in order to better understand the groundwater availability within the county.

The overall goal is to not only understand the current water resources in the county but also to determine ways to improve the long-term availability of water in the county, thus ensuring a sustainable source of water into the future.

An important part of this work is implementing a groundwater data network by partnering with county landowners. This network involves the addition of a water level sensor to volunteer landowner wells to remotely measure the groundwater fluctuations in that area. This network will be the first county-based real time groundwater information system in Indiana. The monitoring system uses next-generation acoustic sensor technology to turn residential, agricultural, industrial and irrigation wells into real-time monitoring networks. The sensor attaches to the top of the well and does not interfere with its function.

The county is looking for volunteers interested in having their well outfitted with a real-time sensor to add their water data to the groundwater network. The installation is free, and the data will contribute valuable information to the study. Landowners who choose to do so will be provided personalized access to your well's water level data through time. If interested, please reach out to the Hamilton County Surveyors Office at (317) 776-8495 or email surveyor@hamiltoncounty.in.gov.

See The Spinners & Three Dog Night at Kroger Symphony on the Prairie

The REPORTER

On Friday, Aug. 12, Kroger Symphony on the Prairie presents The Spinners.

Timeless in a way that few other acts today are, The Spinners are one of the most iconic and enduring groups in R&B history. With a towering legacy spanning over six decades, The Spinners have never lost their universal appeal.

In 2021, they returned with their first all-new original album, the aptly titled Round the Block and Back Again. The group created and came to define the smooth sound of Philadelphia Soul, channeling the highs and lows of romance and heartbreak into a catalogue of classic hits, beloved across generations. Throughout the years the Spinners continue to top the Pop, R&B and now Adult Contemporary Charts, with smash singles like, "I'll Be Around," "Could It Be I'm Falling In Love," "Then Came You," "The Rubber Band Man," and many more—earning Six Grammy nominations, 18 Platinum and Gold Albums, a Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, and selling millions of records worldwide in the process.

On Saturday, Aug. 13, Kroger Symphony on the Prairie presents Three Dog Night with special guest Danny McGaw.

Legendary music icons Three Dog Night, celebrating nearly five decades, claims some of the most astonishing statistics in popular music. In the years 1969 through 1974, no other group achieved more top 10 hits, moved more records, or sold more concert tickets than Three Dog Night.

Three Dog Night hits wind through the fabric of pop culture today, whether on the radio, in TV commercials, or in major motion pictures—songs like "Mama Told Me (Not To Come)," "Joy to the World," "Black and White," "Shambala," and "One" serve to heighten our emotions and crystallize Three Dog Night's continuing popularity. The group's eclectic taste, combined with its ability to recognize and record hits in a unique, distinctive and appealing style, resulted in Three Dog Night dominating the charts for years.

Performing with Three Dog Night is guest artist Danny McGaw, a singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, producer, and sound engineer. Danny's voice packs an emotional charge that commands any room. Whether it's intimate acoustic ballads or explosive folk-rock anthems, his incisive lyrics and emotional intensity leave an unforgettable impression.

General admission lawn seats, reserved seating, tables, and seats in the Huntington Bank Sunset Lounge are available for purchase.

Senator Mike Braun calls for maximum penalties for criminals who target cops

The REPORTER

Following the tragic murder of an Elwood police officer by a career criminal who had previously shot at police, U.S. Senator Mike Braun (R-Ind.) is restating his support for strengthening penalties for criminals who target police. Senator Braun has been an original cosponsor of the Thin Blue Line Act since his first year in office.

Carl Boards II, who shot and killed Elwood police officer Noah Shahnnavaz on Sunday, had previously been convicted of criminal recklessness (and other lesser charges) after shooting at Indianapolis police during a pursuit in 2006, striking the police cruiser multiple times. Boards was sentenced to 25 years in prison but was released after 13 years.

The Thin Blue Line Act makes the targeting, killing, or attempted killing of a police officer an aggravating factor in favor of maximum sentences. Currently this only applies to federal law enforcement; the Thin Blue Line Act would apply this to local and state police as well.

"The career criminal who killed an Elwood officer also tried to kill Indy cops 16 years ago and should have paid a stiffer price," Sen. Braun said. "If you try to kill a police officer, you should pay the highest price possible. I support making the targeting of police in a violent crime an aggravating factor in favor of the harshest penalties available."

More about the Thin Blue Line Act

• When a jury in a federal case considers whether to impose the death penalty, the jury must consider certain "aggravating" factors.

• Current law states that if the murder victim is a federal law enforcement officer or federal prosecutor, this fact shall weigh as an aggravating factor in favor of the maximum penalty.

• The Thin Blue Line Act provides the same level of justice to local law enforcement officers, prosecutors, and first responders.

• It also enhances the penalty when a defendant targets a law enforcement officer, prosecutor, or first responder solely because that individual has chosen to protect and serve.

The Indiana State Fair is in full swing at the Indiana State Fairgrounds and Event Center. The multi-week event has many more days of operation left and plenty of opportunities to shop local at the Indiana Grown Marketplace in the Agriculture/Horticulture Building.

"Like many Hoosiers, I enjoy shopping local in support of Hoosier farmers and small businesses," Lt. Gov. Suzanne Crouch said. "That is why the Indiana Grown Marketplace is one of my first and favorite stops at the Indiana State Fair. It is always fun to see what is new each year."

Shoppers can experience a storefront solely featuring Indiana grown, processed, packaged or produced products. In addition to shopping, the store also features educational displays, product sampling and demonstrations from artisans showcasing their craft.

The Indiana Grown Marketplace at the state fair boasts more than 80 vendors and contains nearly 500 unique products, including hand crafted sauces, salsa, drink mixes, popcorn, spices and more. Shoppers can also find ready-to-eat products like cured meats, chocolates and candies. Does the August heat have you down? Stop at the Indiana Grown store for cold local root beer or bottled tea. There are also a variety of artisan made products you can use daily such as, wool dryer balls, yarn, skincare regimes, hand poured candles and more.

"The Indiana Grown Marketplace at the Indiana State Fair is an incredible opportunity for our members to market their products and for consumers wanting to support Hoosier businesses," Bruce Kettler, director of the Indiana State Department of Agriculture said. "I encourage everyone to stop by and support local businesses on their Indiana State Fair visit. There is truly something for everyone."

Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless. All eight local teams travel to Harbour Trees for Hamilton County tournament

sports@readthereporter.com

Hamilton County girls golf teams have to look no further than their own backyard to find quality competition.

All eight of the local teams traveled up to Harbour Trees on Thursday for the Hamilton County meet, which was hosted by Noblesville. It was the first meet of the season for the Millers, and it turned out well for them: the Millers finished with a score of 303 to claim the first-place trophy.

"I think we played great," said Noblesville coach Justin Werkley. Since it was the first tournament of the year, the No. 6-ranked Millers had no expectations for the event.

"We just wanted to come out and do the best we could," said Werkley. "They held it together, they played well, attitudes were great. I can't say enough good things about it."

Noblesville also had the individual medalist as well. Senior Caroline Whallon, who spent the beginning of the week competing at the Junior PGA Championship at Cog Hill Golf & Country Club at Palos Park, Ill., was the meet medalist with an even-par 71. Whallon went under par in her first nine holes, with a 34, and then followed that up with a 37 on her next nine holes.

"It was definitely a mentally challenging few days, just playing with some of the best golfers in the whole country," said Whallon. But she said the experience challenged her and helped her to become mentally stronger, and will help her in the long run throughout the season.

"Playing in a tournament like that is an awesome experience, and she'll have a ton of positive takeaways from it," said Werkley. "But I also know she's happy to be back playing with her teammates and getting the season underway. She's a great leader and we're lucky to have her."

The Millers had a consistent day all around. Jordan Adam placed third with a score of 74, then Josie Kelley also got a top 10 finish in her first-ever meet, taking eighth with a 77.

"Josie is a freshman," said Werkley. "A great player, great kid, love having her on the team. Jordan's made a ton of strides with her game this year. Karis Shields has stepped up big time, and then we've got a lot of other players that are competing for all those spots, too."

"With Josie coming in, I feel like we're probably going to be the strongest we've been in years, so I'm really excited for this season," said Whallon.

Westfield was the team runner-up, totaling a solid score of 306. The No. 4-ranked Shamrocks also had three players finish in the top 10, led by Addi Kooi. The sophomore took second individually with a score of 72. Freshman Kelsey Haverluck and Allie McKeown tied for fifth place; both carded 76s.

Westfield coach Josh Bryant, in his first year of leading the girls team, was happy with how his team played. He noted that Harbour Trees is "a very difficult track. That rough was thick. And it's a place that you play that, the girls don't get as much experience on other golf courses that we will play like Harbour Trees, and we handled it really well. Our putting was great. Our play around the greens was great."

Carmel, ranked No. 1 in the state, finished a close third with a score of 311. The Greyhounds were another team with three players in the top 10. Sophie Mock finished fourth with a 75, Michaela Headlee tied for fifth with a 76 and Ava Nguyen was ninth with a 79.

Carmel won its first three tournaments of the year, so the 'Hounds were playing their fourth event in four days.

"It's been a strong start," said Carmel coach Kelly Kluesner. "We've seen different players lead our team every single tournament, which is always exciting and something that we look forward to."

Kluesner admitted that the team "had some struggled with the greens out there. This course can definitely jump up and bite you, and today it got a few of our players. But we're really happy with the start of our season and look forward to the State Preview on Saturday."

Hamilton Southeastern, ranked fifth in the state, scored a 330 for fourth place. Janelle Garcia tied for 10th individually by carding an 80. Guerin Catholic was fifth with a team score of 368; Sydney Delagrang also tied for 10th with an 80.

Kristi Lilek led Fishers by scoring 87; the Tigers totaled 378 as a team. Ashlyn Tharp led Hamilton Heights with a 91, while Kelsey DuBois scored a 92 for University.

Kofoid prevails in wild cushion duel with McIntosh to win BC39

The REPORTER

Reigning USAC National Midget champion Buddy Kofoid kept saying he wanted to kiss the bricks at Indianapolis Motor Speedway. First, he had to conquer the Speedway's dirt.

Driving the No. 67 of Keith Kunz/Curb-Agajanian Motorsports, Kofoid did that in spectacular fashion Thursday night, outdueling Cannon McIntosh in a cushion-riding frenzy late in the Driven2SaveLives BC39 presented by WeatherTech at The Dirt Track at IMS.

The two drivers put on a thrilling show for the capacity crowd, exchanging the lead several times as the 39-lap main event wore on. The action featured both drivers using the highest portion of the track for grip, so much so that bouncing off the Turn 4 wall became part of their path.

On the final lap, Kofoid scooted away from McIntosh when McIntosh's No. 08 machine of Dave Mac Dalby Motorsports bobbled slightly in Turn 2.

"This is the biggest midget win of my career," Kofoid said before kissing the Yard of Bricks mounted in the wall at the finish line. "It's something special, and I feel like it hasn't even sunk in yet."

Kofoid, a native of Pengrove, Calif., said he had to catch his breath after what he described as "almost giving (the lead) away on the last restart" as he again went breathtakingly high in Turn 4.

"I started ripping the fence and if I put (the car) upside-down, I put it upside-down," he said, laughing. "Luckily, that didn't happen."

Of the frequent wall contact with his right-side tires, Kofoid said "some of it was intentional, some of it was an accident. A lot of the time it worked out, and luckily I didn't get bit."

Said McIntosh, who led much of the first half of the race: "It was fun racing with him there. I feel like we were able to push each other to the limit without going over the limit. That was a cool battle."

Kofoid became the third "Buddy" to win a major event at IMS, following Buddy Lazier (1996) and Buddy Rice (2004) in the Indianapolis 500 presented by Gainbridge. Thomas Meseraul, Zach Daum and Jacob Denney rounded out the top-five finishers.

The two-night BC39, held for the fourth year, honors the late Bryan Clauson, a five-time USAC champion who led three laps in the 2016 "500." Clauson was the inspiration for this quarter-mile dirt track and the event that attracted 86 drivers this year, including several NASCAR Cup Series stars plus 10-time World of Outlaws champion Donny Schatz. The 26-car main event featured reigning Cup Series champion Kyle Larson, who finished eighth.

This event also promotes organ donation through the Indiana Donor Network. Clauson, who died in a racing accident in August 2016, saved five lives as an organ donor.

Before kissing those bricks, Kofoid joined the Clauson family in victory lane.

"We won at probably the coolest track in the world (with) great fans, and it was cool to see a packed house," he said. "To honor Bryan Clauson and the whole Clauson family, plus Driven2SaveLives, it's hard to put into words what that means."

"Also, (winning) $15,000 is pretty damn cool, too."

Thursday's action began with six qualifying races of 10 laps each. Winning were Jacoby Denney, Jace Park, McIntosh, Kofoid, Bryant Wiedeman and Kaylee Bryson.

In the main races, Mariah Ede and Rylan Gray were D Main winners, with Ryan Timms winning the C Main and Chase McDermand capturing the B Main.

Former USAC champions and NASCAR veterans J.J. Yeley and Ryan Newman were eliminated in the D Main. Chase Briscoe, who has won a Cup Series race this season, reached the B Main before bowing out of the competition.

The BC39 winner once again was presented with a winner's wreath in the spirit of the "500." The wreath included messages from organ recipients who have benefited from the Driven2SaveLives campaign through the Indiana Donor Network.
