Prevail, Inc. shares their story with GOP women

By STU CLAMPITT
news@readthereporter.com

There was very good attendance at Hamilton County Republican Women's (HCRW) meeting Tuesday evening at the Fraternal Order of Police Francis Castor Lodge, 7201 E. 196th St., Noblesville. HCRW's guest speaker was Prevail, Inc. Executive Director Mindy Konrath. Konrath spoke about the kind of work Prevail does as advocates for the victims of crime and abuse, shared some rather surprising statistics about their client base, and stressed that their services are both free and available without judgment. Because October is domestic violence awareness and prevention month, The Reporter is going purple with Prevail and encourages you to do the same. Show your support by wearing purple this month. Send your photos to News@ReadTheReporter.com with the names of everyone in the photo. We will publish all the photos we get from offices, community organizations and individuals in Hamilton County who show their support this October. You can learn more about Prevail, Inc. and how you can help at Prevailinc.com. There are top navigation buttons for both getting help and donating. Learn more about HCRW and find out how you can become a member at hamcogop-women.org.

Friends of Central Pool celebrates 25 years at Forest Park Aquatic Center

The REPORTER

The Friends of Central Pool is celebrating its silver anniversary successfully operating, maintaining, and expanding the Forest Park Aquatic Center. To honor this 25th anniversary, Noblesville Mayor Chris Jensen proclaimed Sept. 4, 2022, as Friends of Central Pool Day. The organization was recognized at the most recent Noblesville Common Council meeting. "For the past 25 years, the citizens of Noblesville have benefited greatly from the tens of thousands of volunteer hours invested in the Forest Park Aquatic Center by the Friends of Central Pool," Mayor Jensen said. "No other community has a stronger partnership than the City of Noblesville continues to have with the Friends of Central Pool." The Friends of Central Pool took over Forest Park Aquatic Center operations and maintenance in 1997. A testament to community service and volunteerism, the nonprofit organization has renovated the facilities as needed, and worked with local businesses and residents.

New display at Sheridan Museum

The Sheridan Historical Society has a new exhibit we are excited to share with the community: an antique doll display. The museum has several dolls on loan from Sheridan resident Wilma Bush which have been put into display cases for all to see. Pictured are Connie Mossburg, left, and Donna Jessup standing next to the large display case. These two ladies are responsible for obtaining the dolls and setting up the interesting display. Art spills into Noblesville streets

news@readthereporter.com

On Tuesday afternoon, the crosswalks at 8th and Maple streets and 9th and Maple streets in downtown Noblesville got an interesting upgrade. The crosswalks at 9th and Maple are now decorated in maple leaves. An artistic pattern adorns the crosswalks at 8th and Maple. These are not painted crosswalks. They involved a thermal process to cut and piece the design into tiles which were then heated to approximately 350 degrees to be placed on the street. Caravan Classes Owner Deanna Leonard told The

“The inspiration for the 9th and Maple crosswalks was taken from the buildings that surround it. Although it has a fall color scheme, it is taken from the red brick, the orange and the terracotta and the yellow of the Richwine Building which my studio is in.”

Nickel Plate Arts Executive Director Aili McGill initially contacted Leonard to design the crosswalks, and a big Reporter thank you goes out to both of them, as well as the City of Noblesville for allowing downtown to get a little more artistic.

FRIENDS

Friends of Central Pool recently led an effort to embark on phased major improvements and renovation project known as Project 2020 to make the pool safer, more accessible and modern.

Earlier this summer, the pool also unveiled its new

LED videoboard. The 31.5-foot by 12.5-foot screen is elevated 15 feet off the ground. It will be used as a scoreboard for swimming, diving and water polo matches, as well as a movie screen for special events at the aquatic center. The new screen, which is believed to be the largest of its type in the Midwest, also meets the standards to host competitive national and international swimming events.

The Forest Park Aquatic Center is one of the largest outdoor swimming and diving facilities in the Midwest. The pool has 10 swimming lanes of 50 meters, or 22 swimming lanes of 25 yards. It is the only outdoor pool in the Midwest with Olympic regulation diving platforms.

“The City of Noblesville is extremely fortunate to have such an incredible, world class facility as the Forest Park Aquatic Center and over 20 Olympic Trail qualifying athletes and 10 Olympians, including Noblesville’s own David Boudia, have called the Forest Park Aquatic Center home,” Noblesville Common Council President Megan Wiles said.

Through the years, the efforts of the Friends of Central Pool have remained committed to fulfilling the desire for a public swimming pool in the Noblesville community, which dates back to the early 1900s. The Forest Park Aquatic Center draws over 40,000 visitors to Noblesville, and hosts one of the largest three-day youth athletic competitions each summer.

PREVAIL

Advocating for Victims of Crime & Abuse

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Letter to the Editor

Noblesville voter not pleased with city's handling of Pleasant Street

Dear Editor:

I have been wondering why the three restaurants at 10th and Pleasant had to close so suddenly.

I was in the area over a month ago and stopped and asked an employee when they would be closing and the person said, "The city wants us closed in a day or so."

I have been in the area several times, and nothing has changed in over a month. Why? I'm sure employees at all the locations could have used another month's income during these trying times. Not a fan of the route of the new bypass which should have been handled a couple decades ago.

A couple more things I'm not pleased with: Logan/Flower Bridge was to cost under $3 million but cost over $4 million. The need for a new city logo. The one with The Historic Court House was fine. Certainly, in the heart of the city, just observe on Friday and Saturday night year-round. That's where the people are observing people and cars. You can observe a beautiful logo by pulling up the Hamilton County Reporter. I remember one of the reasons a city employee said we need a new logo is "the courthouse is not even on city property."

I've been a Republican all my life and will always be, but I urge you to educate yourselves about the candidates. Incumbents should be judged on what they accomplished and not just a candidate with seniority. Republicans and Democrats alike have no problem in spending your money.

Can't wait to hear what the new Hamilton County Fairgrounds will cost. I'm certain it will be considerably more than the figure that was given.

"Embarrassing milestone": U.S. passes $31 trillion in debt

The REPORTER

Senator Mike Braun released the following statement upon the United States surpassing $31 trillion in debt for the first time ever.

"Our great nation has now reached the embarrassing milestone of $31 trillion in debt because of President Biden's Inflation Bomb agenda and career politicians' failure to tackle out-of-control federal spending," Braun said. "The federal government continues to bring in more money than ever due to the Trump tax cuts, but D.C.'s runaway spending spree has

Senator Braun forced a vote on his balanced budget plan – The Braun Budget – earlier this year in the U.S. Senate.

President Joe Biden's own spending blueprint puts the U.S. on the path to reach $45 trillion.

Last week, Senator Braun took to the Senate floor to call for a Convention of States to add term limits and a balanced budget as amendments to the Constitution to address the national debt crisis.

Indy Chamber BAC endorses Sen. Walker

Submitted

The Indy Chamber's Business Advocacy Committee (BAC) announced Wednesday its endorsement of State Senator Kyle Walker in his re-election campaign for Senate District 31.

"Few leaders represent the Indy Region and its business community as thoughtfully and effectively as Sen. Walker. Through his vast experience in the public and private sectors, Kyle understands what creates successful communities and thriving economies," said Adam Burtner, VP of Government Affairs with the Indy Chamber. "As Senator, Kyle has championed inclusive, pro-business policies that our Region's economic growth and vitality depend on. The Indy Chamber remains committed to ensuring the Indy Region is the premier destination for talent and opportunity for all – and supporting business champions like Kyle are vital to making this mission a reality. We look forward to working with Sen. Walker in the next term and are excited for his continued leadership in the Indiana Senate."

In the Senate, Walker has focused on accelerating economic development and improving quality of life in the Indianapolis region to attract jobs and strengthen local communities.

During the 2022 legislative session, Walker authored economic development legislation (SEA 245) to attract sports, convention and tourism events to Indiana, which generate significant revenue, encourage investment and bring visitors to the Hoosier State. In the 2021 state budget, Walker secured funding to support technology, innovation and entrepreneurial efforts at the Indiana Internet of Things (IoT) Lab based in his district, which will be used to expand programming and development of IoT Labs across the state (HEA 1001).

Walker

Walker has also championed legislation to improve public safety across the region. In 2021, he sponsored legislation to expand an innovative partnership between the Fishers Police Department and the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IMPD) to track guns used to commit crimes across Central Indiana and bring more violent criminals to justice (HEA 1558). Over the last year since its creation, the Indiana Crime Guns Task Force has seized 369 illegal firearms, leading to the arrests of 397 repeat violent offenders.

"Our region is stronger when all of our communities succeed, and I've been proud to author several initiatives that support economic development, investment and quality of life improvements across the Indianapolis region," Walker said. "Thank you to the Indy Chamber for your support and I'm eager to continue working together to help our region thrive."

Walker has been endorsed by a wide range of business and labor organizations, including the Indiana Chamber of Commerce, the Indiana AFL-CIO and the Indiana State Pipe Trades Association. He's also been endorsed by several law enforcement and public safety organizations, including the Indiana State Fraternal Order of Police, the Indiana Fire Chiefs Association, the Indiana Professional Firefighters PAC, the Fishers Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 199 and the Lawrence Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 159.

Indiana electric vehicle infrastructure plan receives federal approval

The REPORTER

The Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) has approved Indiana’s plan to use funding from the National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) program to build out a statewide electric vehicle charging network. The plan approval clears the way for the state to work with private and public partners to begin investing nearly $100 million over the next five years to bolster the availability of fast, reliable EV charging infrastructure across the state.

“A robust network of convenient, reliable charging infrastructure is essential to addressing range anxiety for electric vehicle owners,” INDOT Commissioner Mike Smith said. “Through the NEVI program, Indiana will work with private and public partners to make strategic investments in charging infrastructure along our highways to support the growing number of EV’s traveling throughout our state.”

In accordance with federal guidance, Indiana’s plan invests in EV charging infrastructure along the state’s FHWA-designated Alternative Fuel Corridors (AFC). Over the coming years, the NEVI funds must be invested in DC fast charging stations that are compliant with federal guidelines. Among the primary requirements, each station must have at least four ports that can simultaneously charge at 150 kilowatts, be located along every 50 miles of the AFC, less than one mile from an exit or intersection, and be accessible to the public 24 hours a day.

Indiana’s plan will invest in at least 44 Level 3 DC-Fast Charge EV charging stations to fully build out the state’s AFC’s. Once built out, every Hoosier will be within 40 miles of a NEVI-funded charging station. The plan also prioritizes providing access to and benefit from EV charging stations for disadvantaged communities in both urban and rural areas.

Graphic provided by INDOT

The NEVI program was created by the 2021 Bipartisan Infrastructure Law with the goal of deploying a national network of at least 500,000 electric vehicle charging stations by 2030 to reduce range anxiety and encourage wider adoption of electric vehicles. The program is authorized at nearly $5 billion nationally over the next five years.

NEVI will fund 80 percent of the installation of EV charging stations along with up to five years of operations and maintenance with the remaining 20 percent of costs to be funded by site owner-operators. The state anticipates seeking proposals from potential owner-operators by mid-2023 with the initial charging station installations to begin in 2024.

FBI warns of foreign attempts to disrupt the November election

By LAKYN McGEE

WISH-TV | wishtv.com

The office of Indiana Secretary of State Holli Sullivan says it received nearly 87,000 new registered voters since the beginning of 2022. This comes as federal agencies warn Americans to be cautious of foreign attempts to disrupt the November election.

The FBI says several countries have promoted misinformation about the integrity of American elections.

The FBI named Russia, China, and Iran in an assessment released Monday. The U.S. government has been on high alert since Russia used social media to meddle in the 2016 election.

Intelligence officials say Russia has amplified divisive topics circulating on the internet, while China has focused more on shaping policy perspectives and Iranian operatives impersonated Proud Boys groups to incite violence against U.S. officials.

As of Tuesday, officials had not identified any credible threats to election infrastructure.

The warning from the FBI comes as Indiana volunteers guide Hoosiers to get registered to vote.

“We want to make sure everyone has the correct information in the statewide voter registration system and that they’re properly registered,” Barbara Tully, a volunteer helping Hoosiers with their voter registration, told News 8’s Garrett Bergquist. “We’re giving them our vote 411 code so they can look up candidates that are on their ballot.”

The last day to register to vote ahead of the Nov. 8 election is Oct. 11.

Aging in place: supporting your loved one’s future

Despite our differences as human beings, the ideas of home, work, family and community are typically major aspects of our identity and embedded in our vision of what a “good life” looks like.

Aging in place is focused on one’s ability to remain within their home, residing either alone or among the people that they love and have chosen to live with. It is rooted in maintaining a sense of identity, optimal independence and autonomy through continuing to have meaningful roles and relationships within one’s community. Aging in place should be a viable option for all Americans, regardless of educational or professional background, income levels, ethnicity or socioeconomic status. By taking a closer look, you might just find that aging in place can provide the right experience for your loved one given their specific wishes, preferences, hopes and needs.

This happened for me when I stepped into the role as a caregiver for my mother. In my case, I continue to navigate the world of aging in place with her, striving to ensure that my mother’s needs and preferences are met. Based on my family’s experience, here are some issues to consider when planning for or supporting a loved one to successfully age in place.

You must identify misconceptions and the specific needs of the individual.

Our society does not adequately value or assist families in their efforts to provide multigenerational caregiving support. Due to both systemic and cultural reasons, public policy has prioritized a heavy reliance on nursing homes or assisted living as the primary options for people when they become sick, get older or have other complex needs.

There are a number of misconceptions that often lead individuals and their family members to explore facility-based options. A major bias held toward the aging in place concept is that this is only an option to those who can afford it. However, economically, it actually costs less to support many individuals through aging in place compared to the cost of facility-based care. For instance, there are low-cost, high-impact supports that can ensure an aging relative or loved one remains in their own home versus advancing into facility-based care. Such services are typically related to supporting people with one or more activities of daily living, and include but are not limited to:

- Running errands such as grocery shopping and picking up prescriptions
- Delivering meals to one’s home or transporting them to a community meal program
- Assisting with household chores such as laundry and yard work

Support is essential to the decision-making process.

When approaching the topic of aging with a loved one, it is important to keep in mind that decisions are not yours to make. Your position, as a relative or caregiver, is to provide support using research and open communication.

Research should be focused on locating resources that are available at a local, state and federal level. The University of Indianapolis Center for Aging and Community (CAC) advocates and collaborates with a number of government entities, nonprofits and other organizations to improve the quality of life for our older generations, particularly as it relates to care, health and policy.

Additionally, there are 16 Indiana-based Area Agencies on Aging (AAA), which are nonprofit or public organizations that provide or direct older adults to home or community-based services. AAAs offer an array of services to both older adults and their family caregivers. In fact, CareSource recently awarded Aging & In-Home Services of Northeast Indiana, a federal and state designated AAA, with The Heart of Community award. This award includes $28,000 of funding for use in supporting informal family caregivers.

For many health plans, such as CareSource, it is our responsibility to listen to our members’ vision for a good life and then help to make it happen. This is done by adopting evidence-based strategies that are focused on prioritizing each individual’s goals, hopes and desires as well as facilitating services that are person-centered and based on the individual’s unique circumstances. Through our MyLife person-centered planning framework, we attempt to expose individuals through discovery to different opportunities and experiences as well as identifying their support needs, strengths and preferences for a good life.

The human connection is key.

The foundational and most essential aspect of aging in place is the power of belonging and human connection. For many individuals, navigating this era of life can be rather lonely. When we look at who is most successful with aging in place, the blending of natural, familial and paid supports is the clearest predictor of success. In many instances, individuals relying solely on paid support can be some of the loneliest people.

On the flipside, individuals only receiving natural and/or familial support can face barriers to the types of assistance they really need depending on what their family can and cannot take on at any given time. In both situations, the individual is at risk of suffering due to a lack of support or the wrong kind of support.

Remember that nothing can truly compare to the value of a hug, a one-on-one conversation or breaking bread together. Some of the best ways to maintain and foster the human connection is through establishing a weekly visitation schedule, preparing and enjoying meals together, and utilizing virtual technologies and remote monitoring tools when face-to-face interactions are not possible.

By maintaining the human connection and a sense of companionship, the aging individual is more likely to feel comfortable being open and honest about what they are facing in their everyday life.

Steve Smitherman serves as the President of CareSource Indiana.

Gas prices once again top $4 per gallon in Indiana

By ADAM PINSKER
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Gas prices throughout Indiana increased seven cents between Monday and Tuesday, to an average price of $4.12 per gallon. The price is 16 cents higher than last week.

Several gas stations around Indianapolis were charging $4.29 per gallon Tuesday.

“Gas is expensive, I don’t drive certain places if it’s not going to bring any revenue, I don’t hang out with friends anymore who live on the eastside,” John Nieder of Indianapolis said.

The sharp increase is being blamed on an explosion at a refinery near Toledo, Ohio, on Sept. 20 that killed two people. The refinery, which produces 160,000 barrels of oil per day, has been offline since then.

“Which is not a lot compared to other refineries, but still any blip in our supply system can cause a shortage,” Executive Director of the Indiana Food and Fuel Association Scott Imus said.

Imus adds that gas prices could remain high because this is the time of year when refineries are down for maintenance.

The Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries, OPEC, was scheduled to meet Wednesday and could cut production, which would also drive up prices. The White House has tried to dissuade the cuts.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But whoever does not have them is nearsighted and blind, forgetting that they have been cleansed from their past sins.

Finley Edward “Ed” York
June 9, 1957 – September 29, 2022

Finley Edward “Ed” York, 65, Whitestown, Ind., passed away on Thursday evening, September 29, 2022, at Compassus Hospice of Indianapolis. Born June 9, 1957, in Livingston, Tenn., he was the son of the late Ernest Edward York and Delephine (Light) York-Blazier.

After graduating from Sheridan High School, Ed went on to serve his country in the United States Navy. He was a member of the K.V. Elliott American Legion Post 67 in Sheridan and a member of Six Points Church in Sheridan.

After his time in the Navy was complete, Ed started his career in the manufacturing and automotive industries. His journey began with Hampton Tool and Die in Hampton, S.C., where Ed served his apprenticeship and learned the ins and outs of the manufacturing business. After 15 years with the company, he took a position with Steel Parts in Tipton, Ind., and later hired on with Oxford Automotive in Greencastle, Ind., where he would retire as a tooling engineer and supervisor in 2002.

Ed enjoyed being outdoors, especially when it came to fishing. Being on the water in a boat was one of his favorite activities. Ed also loved spending time in his garage. As with most engineers, tinkering with things was a way of life; Ed was no different. The garage was a gathering place where friends came to sit and visit, solve all the world’s problems, and discover just how many things duct tape really can be used for. Ed was a real Mr. Fix-It. If you hung around his garage long enough, you just might learn something.

Family was Ed’s true passion. He was a loving husband and father and was filled with joy the day he became a grandfather. His work ethic, devotion to family, and strong faith are the beginning of a wonderful legacy for his family to carry forward. The “Gentle Giant,” whose sweet and quiet demeanor always put people at ease, will be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Ed is survived by his loving wife, Janice Darlene (Smith) York. She and Ed were married on January 10, 1976, and spent the next 46 years side by side, creating a lifetime of wonderful memories together. Also surviving are three sons, John Edward York (Joyce) of Indianapolis, Joseph Allen York (Amber) of Sheridan, and Brandon Scott York of Whitestown; grandchildren, Kanisha, Johnny, Jacob J., Ryder, Kylo, Destinie, Daphne, Darrah, Emmy, River, and Jacob; great-grandchildren, Madalyn and Kelton; sister, Donna Lynn Blazier-Roys of Lebanon; and many nieces and nephews, especially Alice “Boo Boo” and Nathan “Tank.”

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest Edward York and Delephine (Light) York-Blazier; stepfather, Donald A. Blazier; and by his canine BFFs, Jazzie and Bruno.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. on Thursday, October 6, 2022, at Six Points Church, 1545 W. 226th St., Sheridan, with visitation from 11 a.m. until the time of service. Pastor Scott McDermid will be officiating. Graveside Services are being planned for a later date.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

North Central pushes Carmel, 'Hounds advance to championship

The REPORTER

The Carmel boys soccer team played in its second dramatic showdown in two days on Wednesday, as the No. 1-ranked Greyhounds hosted No. 20 North Central in Class 3A Sectional 10 semi-final action at Murray Stadium.

Rankings, of course, go out the window in rivalry games, and the Panthers pushed Carmel to the limit, all the way to penalty kicks. But the Greyhounds stepped up in the shootout, nailing all five of their PKs to get past North Central 2-1 (5-4 PK) and advance to Saturday's championship game.

The 'Hounds scored the game's first goal with 14 minutes left in the first half when Exode Minga put in a ball off an assist by Davis Dilling. Carmel held the lead well into the second half until the Panthers tied the game with 10 minutes left in the contest.

The score was still 1-1 at the end of regulation, so overtime followed. Neither team scored after the two seven-minute periods, which sent the game into the shootout.

North Central went first, but Greyhounds goalkeeper Adam Keleher stopped the Panthers' first attempt, which turned out to be the pivotal moment of the PKs. Connor Dora then put in Carmel's first kick, and the 'Hounds were in control of the shootout.

North Central made all four of their other attempts, but so did Carmel. Arjun Gupta, Alex Kaczmarek and Hayden Warneke all kicked in their attempts, and Will Latham made the fifth kick to clinch the victory.

"Tonight's game was one hard fought state tournament game," said Greyhounds coach Shane Schmidt. "It was difficult for us to find a rhythm in our passing game.

Sometimes a team just has to gut it out and I couldn't be more proud that the guys found a way to stick with it and come out on top."

Carmel is 13-2-3 and will host Herron in the Sectional 10 championship at 6 p.m. Saturday. The Achaeans beat Crispus Attucks 3-0 in the other semi-final.

Royals, Millers reach Sectional 8 final

Fifth-ranked Hamilton Southeastern and No. 7 Noblesville advanced to the championship game at Class 3A Sectional 8 by winning semi-final games at Fishers on Wednesday.

The Royals played the first semi-final, where they beat district rival and No. 3-ranked Fishers 4-2. The first five minutes of the game were crazy, as the two teams combined for three goals right out of the gate.

"We had a game plan we thought could work against them," said HSE coach Chris White. "The biggest thing was that, last time we played, they were just more aggressive than us. They were more physical. They won the mental battle. And that was our big goal coming in was making sure we match that toughness."

Southeastern scored first, with Andrew McDonald putting one into the net. The Tigers answered quickly with a score from Kyle Clayton, but Logan Puls got the Royals right back in front with his first goal of the night.

Puls was just getting started. He scored again midway through the first half to give Southeastern a 3-1 lead. That would be the halftime score.

"I thought the first 15, 20 minutes we really came out with an aggressiveness that they weren't ready to match," said White.

Fishers made a push in the second half and closed the gap in the 66th minute when Noah Reinhart scored, cutting HSE's lead to 3-2.

But the Royals put the game away when Puls got his third goal of the game with 1:55 left. Noah Link provided the assist.

"I call for the ball, and obviously, if I'm there, I make the run," said Puls. "I trust them to make the pass."

Southeastern improved to 13-2-3 with the victory. The Tigers finished their season 11-3-4 and were also co-champions of the Hoosier Crossroads Conference.

"I'm proud of the guys," said Fishers coach Phil Schmidt. "We came out just a little sluggish and that's credit to HSE. They came out fired up, played hard, played tough and really set the tone for the game."

In the second semi-final, Noblesville cruised past Pendleton Heights 5-0. The Arabians held firm for most of the first half, but the Millers broke through in the 29th minute when Sam Divis made a penalty kick. That would be the only goal of the half.

Noblesville got going in the second half, putting in four more goals. Jake Johns scored off an assist from Divis, then Johns returned the favor minutes later, assisting Divis in his second goal of the game and the team's third.

Noah Bernot scored the Millers' fourth goal. Pavlos Michaeloff completed Noblesville's scoring in the 76th minute, with Gavin Vogelgesang making the assist. The victory moved the Millers to 11-3-3 for the season.

Southeastern and Noblesville will face off at 6 p.m. Saturday for the sectional championship.

GC wins all-county battle

Guerin Catholic advanced to the championship of Class 2A Sectional 26 at Tri-West by beating Hamilton Heights 3-0 in an all-county semi-final.

The Golden Eagles improved to 4-9-1 with the victory, while the Huskies finished their season 10-7-1.

Guerin Catholic will play No. 3-ranked Brebeuf Jesuit in the Sectional 26 championship, which is set for 7 p.m. Saturday. The Braves beat Cardinal Ritter 4-0 to win their semi-final.

'Blazers get re-match with Park Tudor

University sailed to a 5-0 semi-final victory at Class 1A Sectional 40 at Park Tudor, moving the No. 3-ranked Trailblazers into a championship re-match with the host and second-ranked Panthers.

Jake Malinzak scored two goals for University. Sam Ricketts, Holden McCulloch and Padric Hatton all added one goal. The 'Blazers are now 14-2-2 for the season.

University and Park Tudor will play for the sectional title at 7 p.m. Saturday. The two teams met earlier in the season in the Pioneer Conference championship game, which the Trailblazers won 1-0.

'Hawks fall to Burris

Sheridan dropped a 12-0 semi-final to Muncie Burris Wednesday at Class 1A Sectional 39 at Anderson Prep Academy.

The Blackhawks finished their season 6-11-1.

Carmel boys fall in regional championship

The REPORTER

The Carmel boys tennis team’s historic state championship streak came to an end on Wednesday at the Kokomo regional final.

The No. 2-ranked Greyhounds lost a close championship to No. 1 Harrison 3-2. The Raiders won at Nos. 1 and 2 singles, with Carmel taking both doubles matches. Harrison then won the No. 3 singles match 6-1 in the third set to clinch the championship, ending a streak of six consecutive state titles, something no Indiana school had ever done before.

The Greyhounds’ No. 1 doubles team of Michael Bao and Braedon McIntyre was unbeaten in the team tournament, and will thus advance to the individual tournament.

Carmel finished its season 18-2, with both losses to Harrison.

Sports cars return to the spotlight this weekend at IMS

The REPORTER

Some of the most evocative names in global motorsports – Aston Martin, Audi, BMW, Ferrari, Lamborghini, Mercedes-Benz and Porsche – will compete on the biggest stage this weekend as the Indianapolis 8 Hour Presented by AWS returns Friday, Oct. 7 through Sunday, Oct. 9 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

The eight-hour endurance sports car race, which starts at noon ET Saturday, will feature two series racing simultaneously on the 14-turn, 2.439-mile road course at IMS – the Intercontinental GT Challenge Powered by Pirelli and the Fanatec GT World Challenge America Powered by AWS. A total of 25 cars are expected to compete into the dusk, a unique sight for fans at the Racing Capital of the World.

Other series racing during this fall festival of sports car and touring car action include GT America, Pirelli GT4 America and TC America. Those three series are conducting doubleheader sprint races during the weekend, with Race 1 Friday or Saturday and Race 2 Sunday.

Tickets are available at IMS.com.

Fourteen cars are expected to race for victory in the Intercontinental GT Challenge during the 8 Hour, with season drivers’ and manufacturers’ championships on the line in the penultimate round of the global series in 2022.

Jules Gounon and Mercedes-AMG are in strong position to claim drivers’ and manufacturers’ titles at Indy, respectively, after both scored maximum points in the first two races of the season.

Mercedes-AMG also will receive a boost this weekend since its closest rival – Audi Sport – is not racing this weekend at IMS. Instead, reigning manufacturers’ champion Ferrari and Lamborghini and Porsche will try to find a way to break Mercedes’ dominant march toward what appears to be an inevitable first IGTC manufacturers’ title.

That’s a tall task, as Mercedes-AMG holds an 86-35 edge over absent Audi, with Ferrari third at 25 points. Ferrari must outscore Mercedes-AMG by 18 points to stay eligible for the manufacturers’ title at the season-ending race Dec. 9-11 at Abu Dhabi.

Frenchman Gounon leads fellow Mercedes-AMG driver Dani Juncadella by seven points in the drivers’ standings. Gounon will join Russell Ward and Phillip Ellis in the No. 33 Winward Racing Mercedes, while Juncadella will share the No. 77 Team Craft-Bamboo Racing Mercedes with former Indy Lights driver Daniel Morad and Raffaele Marciello.

If Gounon can win for the third time this season, he will clinch the drivers’ championship.

Morad isn’t the only driver with INDYCAR ties competing in the IGTC field this Saturday. INDYCAR SERIES veterans Tristan Vautier (No. 6 US RaceTronics Mercedes), Jan Heylen (No. 45 Wright Motorsports Porsche 911), Franck Perera (No. 3 K-PAX Racing Lamborghini Huracan) and Ryan Dalziel (No. 13 Triarsi Competizione Ferrari 488) all will race.

There are more IMS and INDYCAR ties in the GT World Challenge America field. Jarett Andretti, son of INDYCAR SERIES race winner John Andretti, and INDYCAR SERIES race winner and Indianapolis 500 pole winner Ryan Briscoe will join Jeff Westphal behind the wheel of the No. 218 Andretti Autosport x Vital Speed Ferrari 488.

Spectators are admitted Friday through Sunday at IMS, with the action getting underway at 8 a.m. ET Friday and Saturday and 9 a.m. Sunday. Among the schedule highlights besides the 8 Hour race is 8 Hour qualifying at 1:55 p.m. Friday and the pole shootout for that event at 4:55 p.m. that day.
