I've fought to get Dottie right side up post-pandemic and just wasn't able to do it. We will begin our liquidation sale today online and in the boutique. All items are half off and final sale. Please come pick up your store pick-ups and use up those credits. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the best 13-year run. My gosh, I love this little shop.

— Brooke Magdzinski,

owner of Dottie Couture Boutique

Lee's mother, Christy, was also a loyal customer. She spent $300 and received $600 in gift cards during the latest sale. She said she only had the chance to spend $150 of that credit.

Christy Lee said, "I'm still holding on to hope that I'm not out that money. We haven't had a statement. We don't know, so I guess I am being optimistic. But, I'm still thinking this will all be corrected."

One local business told News 8 it is stepping in to help despite not being affiliated with Dottie Couture.

Sara Slaughter, the owner of Brianne's Boutique in Greenwood, said, "We are offering to anyone with some credit leftover that they are unable to use with Dottie to bring in their proof of credit and we're going to offer 20 percent off in-store."

"We're pleased to partner with local nonprofits and organizations across our service territory to enhance the quality of life of our customers and communities," Duke Energy Indiana President Stan Pinegar. "From planting trees to creating community gardens and nature trails, we hope to make a positive impact through meaningful and sustainable projects that make Indiana a desirable and vibrant place to live."

Over the last five years, the Duke Energy Foundation has awarded more than 70 grants totaling nearly $1 million to organizations across Indiana for projects that support environmental stewardship.

This year, grants were awarded to 20 Indiana-based organizations to support conservation and educational programs in Boone, Clark, Decatur, Fayette, Franklin, Hamilton, Hancock, Hendricks, Henry, Jackson, Jefferson, Monroe, Owen, Putnam, Ripley, Rush, Tippecanoe, Vigo and Wabash counties.

NAUGHTY

I tried demonstrating my best behavior, but golf courses always brought out the beast in me. I lacked talent to make the sport less frustrating. Even with Santa, I couldn't curtail my cursing, my expletives launching from larynx like the vilest of verbal divots. My golf balls – the ones I actually could find after striking – stopped rolling at the worst possible places: behind trees, in sand traps and lakes, in a dumpster, and even behind the tee-box once (don't ask).

I glanced at Santa to see if he was using the golf pencil to mark my name on the naughty list, and to my surprise, I spied him hockey-sticking his own errant ball into the fairway before his next swing, muttering a few course words of his own. I was impressed: Santa wasn't much better at golf than me – and just as angry.

I came from a spotty golfing past. My first experience with a golf ball was a harbinger that I should've considered a different way to spoil a good walk. My grandfather was an avid golfer. I was so fascinated by the first ball he gave me that I secretly cut it open to discover its contents. As soon as the point of my pocketknife poked its core, a mysterious liquid squirted into my left eyeball. Acid? I waited for inevitable blindness to set in. I'm still waiting.

Grandpa routinely took his grandsons golfing during our single-digit ages, hoping his midlife sporting passion would spread to another generation. I disdained being made to swing clubs (usually with embarrassing Tasmanian Devil cartoonish effect) in front of my cousins who were far better (it helps being taller than the club). My favorite part was when grandpa let us search for other people's long-lost balls between play. It was the greatest thrill finding tangible failures of golfers' past, pulling their orphaned, disobedient balls from brush, bush, briar, bramble and bark (water rescues were my favorite), filling empty Bunny Bread bags with Tittlest treasure. Course management compensated us for our findings – bubblegum money! It was better than hunting Easter Eggs.

I joined the high-school team my freshman year. I was so bad I believe I was placed on the double-secret reserved reserve team, the most unskilled of the unskilled. You won't even see our face in the yearbook. We reluctantly marched to the first tee box only after the better players had been announced, applauded for, and put in eager pursuit of their eagles, birdies and pars. Then, to a barren gallery and a cacophony of crickets, we were released into the wild without score cards, chaperones or survival training (a compass and pith helmet would've been nice). We were a coterie of chronic whiffers, the sultans of slice, the unhappy hookers, who wandered like a tribe of forgotten lost boys that were expected to somehow find our way through the nine-hole maze before sundown. I believe we are still out there somewhere.

But back to my round with Santa. Before even finishing the front nine, I had depleted my ball arsenal. Santa offered a ball, but I was done, leaving him alone for the back nine.

That final round erased my already fleeting belief in golf – my clubs were a yard sale hit. It also contributed to the end of my belief in Santa Claus, for on that following Christmas, guess what was not under the tree? That's right: no golf balls, the one thing Santa clearly knew I needed. Bah humbug.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Heights and is a scientist at Corteva Agriscience. They have two amazing and active children, Faith (Hamilton Heights class of 2030) and Caleb (Hamilton Heights class of 2033).

Lehman worked for Crowe Horwath for two years before joining the Lehman and Company CPA firm, founded by his parents Kevin and Donna (Flanders) Lehman. He was blessed with the opportunity to become a part owner in the practice in 2016. He has always had a heart for serving, for his family, for his church, for his community and his clients. He is the treasurer for Victory Chapel Community Church and the 50 Club of Hamilton County and is a board member of Hamilton County Extension Board as well as the co-commissioner for the Hamilton Heights Youth Football League. Ben has served as a 4-H volunteer for 17 years, while serving as Swine Barn superintendent for eight years giving back after his 10-year 4-H career. He has been a baseball, basketball, soccer, and football coach for Faith and Caleb’s teams the past few years and has loved every minute of spending that time with his kids and helping their peers learn and grow.

Lehman would like the opportunity to serve on the school board taking his career knowledge, volunteer experience and service-oriented heart to make our school the best it can be.

Q: Why do you want to serve Hamilton Heights as a member of the School Board?

A: I want to be an advocate for the kids, parents, teachers and property owners of this great community.

Q: What specialized skills/background do you bring with you that would make you an asset to the Hamilton Heights School Board?

A: I am a Certified Public Accountant; therefore, I help my clients with making financial business and personal decisions every day. This background has allowed me to look through the lens of many different businesses and situations while trying to have an open mind for what decisions will create the best outcome.

Q: What experience do you have with complex budgets?

A: My work as a CPA has provided me the opportunity to help clients create and review budgets. In addition to dealing with numbers daily for work, I am also the treasurer of Victory Chapel Community Church and the Fifty Club of Hamilton County. These individuals and organizations have entrusted me with making financial decisions and these roles have taught me to treat their money as I would treat my own.

Q: What is the district’s greatest capital needs right now? How do you think those needs should be addressed?

A: I believe the district’s greatest capital need right now is preparing for potential growth. I believe with kids transferring into the school system and the potential for more subdivisions being built calls us to be prepared for this potential influx of students. I believe our school did a good job initially preparing for the increase by remodeling, but at some point, we will need to review logistics and determine how to adjust for this new climate.

Q: What do you see as the opportunities and challenges in this district?

A: Our school’s greatest opportunity is the small-town feel, with booming potential. We have created an atmosphere that promotes family and being civic minded. Our challenge is to maintain our core values as transfers and new families move into our school system. We have to embrace the fact that why people are coming here is because of our core values.

Q: What are the significant issues that matter most to you? How will you be accountable for them as a School Board member?

A: The most significant issue for me is transparency. If I am elected, I will be working for those that entrusted me to do what I say. I want my constituents to know as much as I can possibly provide. I will do this by working to inform people on what is planned and listening to their concerns.

Q: What are the factors on which you will base your decisions as a School Board member?

A: I will base my decisions as a School Board member on my faith and the past opportunities I’ve had to learn from members of our community. I am simply a vessel trying to make the best better for our kids, our parents, our teachers and staff, and our community.

Q: How will you build consensus and support in the community around the decisions of the school district? Who do you bring with you to the table?

A: I will listen. I will insist on input from the community. If the school board assumes they know what’s best without input from the community, it will completely discount those around us and the wisdom they have developed over the years. My job will be to use discernment as I bring the needs and concerns of the kids, parents, teachers, and property taxpayers to the table to help make Hamilton Heights the best it can be.

CANDIDATE:

DOUG OZOLINS

Town: Atlanta

Married: Christi (Bryant) Ozolins

Children: 3

Profession: Entrepreneur

Doug Ozolins is a 1985 graduate of Center Grove High School and attended Ball State University. Doug’s wife, Christi Bryant-Ozolins, is a 1984 graduate of Hamilton Heights. Ozolins has lived in the community for more than three decades. The Bryant family has farmed in this community since the mid-1800s.

Ozolins is the owner of Tier2 Group (Construction Supply Wholesale) and Atlas Lifting & Rigging, Inc. (Lifting & Rigging Manufacturer). He is involved in the industries’ leadership and has served in many leadership positions on a national level. He has been married to Christi for 34 years and they are members of Arcadia Christian Church where he has helped lead worship for almost 30 years. Their son Derek is the high school tennis coach at Heights, and Josh is a senior at Heights and is planning to attend Purdue University. Son Nick passed away from injuries suffered in an automobile accident in 2010.

Ozolins has served as the elected school board representative for White River Township for the past eight years. Currently he is serving as a member of the Hamilton Heights School Board facilities and Policy committees. In addition, he among the longest serving members of the Indiana State School Board Association (ISBA) Legislative Committee (since 2019) and the high school Robotics Coach. He is a past member of the Hamilton Heights Educational Foundation, past President of the Husky Champion’s Club, past President of the Hamilton Heights Youth Football.

Ozolins would like to be elected to the school board one more term. He wants to finish the construction projects at Heights, hand his son his diploma, and ride off into the sunset knowing he made a difference in his community.

Q: Why do you want to serve Hamilton Heights as a member of the School Board?

A: When discussing this question, the first time I ran, I was told that it was never good to run if you had an agenda to promote. An agenda can blind you to what the best decisions may be. My only reason was to give back to the community that had been so supportive of my family when our oldest son Nick was killed in an auto accident during Christmas break of his freshman year at Purdue.

I want to continue to serve because, simply put, I have work left to do. Completing the building projects that have been started during my tenure is important to me. Also, as one of the most tenured members on the Indiana State School Board Association Legislative Committee, I have a major voice in the legislation that affects not only our school but the whole state. I am in that position to make a difference for our community. I look forward to the next four years.

Q: What specialized skills/background do you bring with you that would make you an asset to the Hamilton Heights School Board?

A: The best skill that any school board member can bring is common sense. What you do for a profession, what boards you have served on, your work in the community or what you have done in the past is important, but what matters the most is the ability to work cohesively and as a team with the other school board members and staff. The ability to listen, communicate with others, listen some more and then make decisions is crucial. I believe I have earned the respect of our community, administration, teachers, students, and current board members.

Q: What experience do you have with complex budgets?

A: I currently own and operate two businesses. As for school finances with their state and federal requirements, a school board’s role is not to manage those finances, but to set a vision for the finance team. I have eight years of dealing directly with our team to keep your tax rates flat while expanding and remodeling our facilities.

No one in our community knows how to run the finances of a school corporation like our Heights financial team. We have hired and continue to maintain a staff that specializes in school finance and sets a vision of conservative financial decisions. Thankfully, I can get out of their way and let them do what they do best.

Q: What is the district’s greatest capital needs right now? How do you think those needs should be addressed?

A: Teacher pay and teacher retention should be everyone’s priority. We now have facilities that are state of the art, but none of this means anything if we don’t have and can’t keep the best staff to teach our kids. One of the agenda items I pushed for in the past on the state legislative committee was a major pay increase for our teachers. If I am re-elected, I will continue at the state level to focus our legislators on the importance of increasing our teacher’s compensation.

Q: What do you see as the opportunities and challenges in this district?

A: Keeping Heights, Heights is a constant challenge. Growth is an issue for many schools. However, I feel that our board has done its due diligence in planning for the future. We invest in detailed population studies that continue to be accurate year after year. I also feel that one of the biggest challenges we may face is the line between being politically correct and what we, as a conservative community, want our children to be taught. I want our kids to be brought up in a community that loves every one of them equally and allows great kids to do great things.

Q: What are the significant issues that matter most to you? How will you be accountable for them as a School Board member?

A: My goal has always been to make Hamilton Heights the best 3A school in the state. We have some of the best facilities, staff, and educational programs in the state. We have one of the best financial ratings of any school corporation in the state. We have the second lowest tax rate in Hamilton County. We have set the standard in the state of Indiana on how to run a fiscally conservative school corporation. We lead the way in the state for career pathways for our students. Our kids are safe and getting an outstanding education. If you feel I haven’t done my job, vote for the other guy.

Q: What are the factors on which you will base your decisions as a School Board member?

A: Always putting the student first and non-emotional, common-sense decision making.

Q: How will you build consensus and support in the community around the decisions of the school district? Who do you bring with you to the table?

A: I believe consensus and community support is earned through transparency (all school board meetings are available to the public and minutes are published unless it is an executive session where confidential personnel or student aspects are involved). I also believe communication, trust, integrity, and common-sense decision making are needed to gain that support. I hope that my 31 years of experience as a parent, years of service as a school board member, coach, and leadership in several Heights organizations has solidified the trust and support of the community.

Letter to the Editor

Carmel school board candidate: “I believe in One Team and diversity of thought”

Dear Editor:

I am a son of a teacher and parent with children in our Carmel Clay Schools. I believe in "One Team" and "diversity of thought."

There are two slates of candidates running together. Each slate agreed to run on a particular platform.

School board campaigns used to be non-partisan. These campaigns used to be about individual leaders who wanted to serve their community. Voters would research the candidates and look for open-minded leaders who accept that there are infinite ways to think about ideas and problems. You know: "diversity of thought."

Diversity of thought is the concept that there is more than one way to think about something. Our Superintendent and his leadership team need board members with unique perspectives and approaches to solving problems, which will challenge them to think more broadly.

Should we elect a slate of candidates from a political action committee that will "support ccs" to a fault? Or elect a slate of candidates that see a "fault" in everything our school is doing? Enrolling is falling – nothing to see here. The name-calling and labeling – nothing to see here. The lack of civility and decorum. The lack of transparency about how many fewer teachers are in our district this year – nothing to see here.

"One Team" does not mean "one thought." I am running an independent campaign to keep the focus on educating our children in an ever-changing world and our powerful "Together we achieve" mission.

Our school community should not be forced to endure another four years of partisan bickering. If we want our students and teachers to succeed, we should elect school candidates like myself who are deep in thought every day about the opportunities and challenges our school community face.

Clarifying wording of Westfield Washington Schools referendum

Public Question Clarification

PUBLIC QUESTION

WESTFIELD WASHINGTON SCHOOLS QUESTION

Shall the Westfield Washington Schools continue to impose increased property taxes paid to the school corporation by homeowners and business for eight (8) years immediately following the holding of the referendum for the purpose of retaining and attracting teachers and staff, funding academic and educationally related programs at current levels, and managing class sizes while changing the previously approved maximum referendum tax rate from $0.20 to $0.17? The property tax increase requested in this referendum was originally approved by the voters in 2016 and originally increased the average property tax paid to the school corporation per year on a residence within the school corporation by 16.0% and originally increased the average property tax paid to the school corporation per year on a business property within the school corporation by 14.2%."

☐ YES ☐ NO

This is how state law mandates the question.

This is what the question means.

PUBLIC QUESTION CLARIFICATION

The wording of the public question that will be on this year's ballot is required by state law.

The amount Westfield Washington Schools is asking for will NOT increase your total property taxes by 16% as stated in the public question. In fact, if the community passes the operating referendum renewal the current school tax rate will be reduced from $.20 to $.17.

Remember!

The school tax rate is ONLY A PORTION of your total property taxes.

Graphic provided by Westfield Washington Schools

The Westfield Washington Schools community values transparency, so voters should know exactly how the operating referendum question will look on the ballot on Nov. 8. There are strict, state-mandated rules on how a ballot question must be phrased, so the image above helps clarify the question. For more information on the operating referendum, click here.

Carmel voter: it’s time to demand schools return to educating children

Dear Editor:

While citizens have come to expect yellow journalism from big tech and the mainstream media, most are shocked to learn that the Carmel Clay Schools are using similar tactics to influence the approaching school board elections.

In particular, the current Carmel Clay School Board is allowing the use of school websites, social media, and school generated emails to publish and disseminate a series of fact-checking articles designed to convince voters that our school board and superintendent are performing satisfactorily.

While the citizens of Carmel are smart enough to understand that self-proclaimed fact checkers typically conceal their inaccuracies and conflicts of interest by packaging their “facts” in a biased and unbalanced manner, this behavior cannot be allowed to go unchecked.

Our school board and superintendent need to be reminded that they serve at the pleasure of the Carmel taxpayers and are not allowed to use their position, power, and influence in a self-serving manner. Their current behavior makes clear that they are misappropriating taxpayer funds and violating school board policy by publishing and disseminating information in the hope of influencing the election, thereby securing their personal futures.

The voters of Carmel need to demand that our schools stop wasting taxpayer funds and return to the business of educating our children. The voters alone will determine if the school board and superintendent are open, transparent, and performing adequately. The voters will make their opinion known by voting for the candidates of their choice. That, ladies and gentlemen is a FACT, NOT FICTION.

Before you vote, go to cbsboardcandidates.com to learn more about a trio of candidates who are dedicated to restoring academic excellence in Carmel Clay Schools. Then vote Brake, Brown, and Sharp for Carmel Clay School Board.

Great work, volunteers!

HSE first graders & families explore nature in Ritchie Woods

Photo provided

The City of Fishers gives a shout out to the Nature First Open House volunteers. On Oct. 5 and 6, volunteers assisted as Hamilton Southeastern first graders and their families explored Ritchey Woods Nature Preserve, made a nature craft, had a snack, and enjoyed nature artifacts. Your time and commitment as Fishers volunteers is appreciated!

Former teacher excited to support Misti Ray & Melba Kiser in Noblesville school board election

Dear Editor:

As a Noblesville citizen of 34 years, and a retired teacher, I am excited about the upcoming school board election.

I do not have a personal relationship with any of the candidates, and so research was necessary for me to determine who would have my vote. I found that each of the candidates have had professional experience that would lend itself to board work. The volunteer work they have all invested in is commendable across the board and demonstrates much about what makes Noblesville a wonderful city and a great place to raise children.

Two candidates stood out. Misti Ray and Melba Kiser will have my vote.

Competence and a heart for volunteering are positive traits. I do find it problematic that most of the candidates are just extolling what is wonderful about our schools and nothing about what they want to do to make them better. Noblesville is not a rest on our laurels kind of community – we are always striving to be better. A leader cannot lead without a vision for what they want to accomplish and clearly stated priorities that others may embrace.

Misti Ray and Melba Kiser are committed to removing the noise that reduces the time dedicated to getting a great academic education. Their websites communicate exactly what they want to see change. That transparency is what our community deserves and our children need.

There are excellent teachers in Noblesville Schools, and they need the best leadership and community support that we can provide. I enjoyed professional time in the corporate world but became convinced I wanted to invest in young people and went back to school so that I could teach. My 18 years in the classroom taught me that without sufficient focus, learning suffered. The standardized test scores suggest that we need more focus on core academics.

One of the best ways we can support our beautiful teachers is to get rid of anything in the way of learning. Some of the social and emotional learning and other politically charged noise needs to be pushed out of the way. Reading, math, science, and history need to be center stage. Students who receive more time dedicated to instruction in the core academics will be well positioned for professional success and will be able to think critically to keep the “American Dream” alive.

I am excited to see what Misti Ray and Melba Kiser will contribute towards the absolute best for the children and young people of our community.

Carmel resident partners with Dress for Success Indianapolis

Submitted

Carmel resident Stephanie Grabow is passionate about empowering women and helping them fall in love with what they see in the mirror. A member of the International Association of Style Coaches, she helps women across Hamilton County and central Indiana shine in their own skin through color analysis and style coaching.

"There is dignity in beauty. All women deserve to show up in their own lives and look amazing doing it," Grabow said. "Feeling confident in your own body truly is a game changer."

Last month, Grabow was delighted to be invited by Dress for Success Indianapolis to run an interactive virtual workshop for their clients across central Indiana on topics including dressing for today's post-pandemic workplace and building a professional wardrobe on a budget.

"I have a passion for Dress for Success and for helping women show up with confidence and create their impact," Grabow said. "When you empower a woman, she brings along those around her – her family and her community. The ripple effect is cool."

Grabow continued, "In high school and college, I was that girl who made my own clothes because I had a New York Fashion Week vision on a rural Tennessee budget. I get the struggle, and I love teaching women how to feel pulled together and confident, no matter their lifestyle, body type or budget."

After two decades as a charity executive, Grabow took a mid-life turn to follow her passion for breaking the fashion mold and launched Stephanie Grabow Style+ in early 2022. Since her launch, Grabow has collaborated with several local organizations to help women thrive right where they are and create their impact.

"I love when a woman discovers something new about herself that was really there all along," Grabow said.

About Stephanie Grabow Style+

Stephanie Grabow, a central Indiana personal color analyst and style coach, is a solidly glass-half full joy spreader and change maker. Her passion is helping busy moms who want to feel pulled together, love what they see in the mirror again, and get on with life. A member of the International Association of Style Coaches, Stephanie lives in Carmel with her husband, son, and one ridiculous Mini-Gol-dendoodle. Learn more at stephaniegrabowstyle.com.

Carmel's own Stephanie Grabow is helping women further their independence and improve their self-image by fine-tuning their style.

About Dress for Success Indianapolis

The mission of Dress for Success Indianapolis is to empower women to achieve economic independence by providing a network of support, professional attire and the development tools to help women thrive in work and in life. The purpose of our organization is to provide women with the supportive services they need to make life transitions that result in achieving self-sufficiency and socioeconomic advancement. Three programs exist to support the organization's mission: Style for Success, Career Development Center and Professional Women's Group. Learn more at indydfs.org.

Carmel voter supports Brake, Brown & Sharp for school board

Dear Editor:

I enthusiastically support Brake, Brown and Sharp to serve on the CCS School Board! I not only support them because of their qualifications, but because of their stated priorities.

They emphasize academic excellence, transparency, and parents' rights.

Academic excellence should be the goal of all, but can it be undermined by divisive programs and agendas? I think so.

It is beyond bold for any group to use the PUBLIC schools as a vehicle for their propaganda. If this is being attempted, who might be advocating for these programs and what are their motives? Parents and the public at large have the right to know.

It is the responsibility of the school board to identify those who push their agendas on vulnerable students and put a "brake" on their activities. In my opinion, Brake, Brown and Sharp have the desire, courage, and skills to maintain the outstanding reputation the Carmel Clay Schools enjoy!

Libertarian James Sceniak to participate in U.S. Senate debate

The REPORTER

James Sceniak, the Libertarian Party of Indiana's candidate for United States Senate, will participate in a debate at 7 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 16.

Sceniak will debate his opponents, incumbent Republican Todd Young and fellow challenger, Democrat James McDermott. The one-hour debate is sponsored by the Indiana Debate Commission and will be the lone debate featuring the three candidates.

The debate will originate from the studios of WFYI in Indianapolis. It will be carried on multiple television and radio stations statewide.

A live feed will also be available at IndianaDebateCommission.com.

James Sceniak is the Libertarian Party's candidate for U.S. Senate, running on a platform of medical freedom, individual freedom – including the right to self-defense – improving veterans' health care and bringing the Hoosier values of fiscal sanity and restraint to Washington.

Riverview Health to hold physician practice job fair

The REPORTER

Riverview Health Physicians will play host to a physician practice job fair from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and again from 4 to 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 26 in the Krieg DeVault conference room, located in the hospital's lower level.

Managers will hold open interviews on a walk-in basis during this time.

Open positions include medical assistants, LPNs and front office staff at a variety of physician offices including family practice, OB/GYN, surgery and other specialties.

Those attending should enter the hospital through Entrance 3 and use the elevators to proceed to the lower level. A virtual option will also be offered.

TODAY: Humane Society for Hamilton County holding priceless cat adoptions

The REPORTER

Today, Saturday, Oct. 15, the Humane Society for Hamilton County (HSHC) will hold a “priceless” cat adoption event from noon to 5 p.m.

With the shelter being over capacity, HSHC is playing host to a Purranormal Cativity adoption event, making this the perfect time to add a new boo to your crew. There are no tricks, just the treat of bringing another family member into your home, while making space for the next animal that is brought to HSHC. As the love of a furry friend is priceless, HSHC will ask adopters to make a donation of any amount at the time of adoption for cats 1 year and older. Kittens under 1 year will be 50 percent off. Some exclusions apply.

“Our goal is to adopt the cats in our care into forever homes just in time for fall,” said Suzanne Yoder, Senior Director of Marketing. “We encourage people to adopt instead of buying their next pet. We have so many amazing cats and dogs who are ready to be a part of your family.”

During the month of October, dogs 1 year and older have a reduced adoption fee of $31. Some exclusions apply. HSHC requires canine adopters to bring all family members as well as any dogs in the home to meet with a potential shelter dog. Cat adopters must bring all human family members. Those renting properties are recommended to bring the landlord's pet policy. All adopters are required to present government issued ID.

Mary Caroline Luprich
May 29, 1947 – October 2, 2022

Mary Caroline Luprich, 75, Westfield, passed away on Sunday morning, October 2, 2022, at Copper Trace of Westfield. Born May 29, 1947, in Chicago, Ill., she was the daughter of the late Casimir Joseph and Lottie (Ocwieja) Kusz.

She was a 1965 graduate of Madonna High School in Chicago, Ill.

Mary was a woman of strong faith. She attended St. Hubert Catholic Church in Hoffman Estates, Ill., for many years.

Mary was a people person, a trait that would serve her very well throughout her career. Starting out as a cashier with the National Tea Company, she quickly fell in love with her job. Interacting with the many customers that frequented her store throughout the years was truly a blessing. Mary would later become a licensed real estate agent, working for Liberman Real Estate Company in Schaumburg, Ill.

If anyone appreciated a sale, it was Mary. She was a bargain shopper extraordinaire, and the Queen of the garage sales. She was always on the lookout for toys, hoping to find just the right addition to her collection. She loved celebrating all the holidays, but there were a few that held a special place in Mary's world – Thanksgiving and Black Friday. Black Friday was her Super Bowl, and Thanksgiving was her pre-game tailgate party, (only with turkey, the customary trimmings, and a stack of sale ads from which to formulate her plan of attack with military precision). Mary was also an avid reader, never passing up an opportunity to lose herself in the pages of a good book.

Family was a very important part of Mary's life. No matter what the occasion, her family always came first – without exception.

She is survived by her two daughters, Michelle Luprich of Noblesville, and Kristin Luprich of Westfield; three grandchildren, Mason Doerr, Madelyn Doerr, and Nathan Luprich; three brothers, John Kusz (Michaelene) of Park Ridge, Ill., Richard Kusz (Debra) of Wonderlake, Ill., and James Kusz (Diane) of Medford, Ore.; sister, Theresa Mazurek (Christopher) of Fox Grove, Ill.; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Casimir Joseph and Lottie (Ocwieja) Kusz; and by her former husband, Joseph Luprich.

A Celebration of Life is being planned for November 12, 2022, in Illinois.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

Glendora Ann Walker
September 18, 1934 – October 10, 2022

Glendora Ann Walker, 88, Lebanon, Ind., passed away on Monday evening, October 10, 2022, at Homewood Health Campus in Lebanon. Born September 18, 1934, in Boone County, Ind., she was the daughter of the late Jesse Ermin and Ethel Irene (Elsey) Poer.

She was a 1952 graduate of Sheridan High School, and a member of the Gadsden Church of Christ.

Family was always first and foremost in Glendora's life. If the kids or the grandchildren were involved in an activity, so was she, always there supporting them in whatever way she could. Back home on the farm, she was a dedicated farm wife; again, doing whatever needed done to support the people she loved the most. One of her favorite chores was keeping the yard in tip top shape. Every year, as winter was winding down, Glendora would get the itch to get out on the rider and officially start mowing season (the unofficial fifth season, and by far, her favorite). Life on the farm was busy, as was keeping up with a growing family, but she always found time to sit and watch her daily episode(s) of Wheel of Fortune, mostly uninterrupted.

Glendora also loved to cook, and it was the perfect way of sharing a part of herself with those she loved. She was fortunate enough to find a part-time career that let her share that part of her life with the world, literally. For 30 years, Glendora worked for Donaldson's Finer Chocolates in Lebanon and absolutely loved every single minute. She did a little bit of everything around the shop, but her favorite job was hand dipping the nuts.

Her strong faith and dedication to her family is the foundation of the legacy that she leaves behind.

Glendora is survived by her two sons, Randy J. Walker (Jacque) of Zionsville, and Ronald E. Walker (Teresa) of Lebanon; five grandchildren, Ben Walker (Lisa), Craig Walker (Eliana), Tracy VanFossan (Matthew), Brad Walker (Heidi), and Kelly Walker; six great-grandchildren, Henry Walker, Oliver Walker, Mason VanFossan, Cora VanFossan, Allison Walker, and Estelle Walker, plus one great-grandchild on the way; sister, Phyllis McCarty of Sheridan; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Jesse Ermin and Ethel Irene (Elsey) Poer; sisters, Betty Simms and Vonda Spray; and by the love of her life, Floyd Eugene Walker, on December 16, 1998. Married on June 28, 1953, she and her "favorite pet" would spend the next 45 years creating a lifetime of memories.

Glendora will be laid to rest at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan. A private Graveside Service will be held with Pastor Jim Williams officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to either the Alzheimer's Association, or to the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan.

Condolences: kerchevalfuneralhome.com

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Bezer, who loved the wages of wickedness. But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—an animal without speech—who spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them. For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to the lustful desires of the flesh, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error.

Connie L. Steele
December 22, 1945 – October 14, 2022

Connie L. Steele, 76, Noblesville, passed away on Friday, October 14, 2022, at her home. She was born on December 22, 1945, to Justin and Mary Davis in Lima, Ohio.

Connie worked as a medical technician for 25 years at St. Vincent Hospital. She loved to paint, play BINGO, and do crafts. Most of all, Connie enjoyed spending time with her family.

She is survived by her children, Ronald "Ron" (Mary) Lawrence Sr., Susan Lawrence, April (Mike) Welch, and Angie (Jon) Ward; grandchildren, Stefan (Doreen) Langley, Ronald (Darshika) Lawrence Jr., Nicholas (Cheyenne) Classick, Sarah Lawrence, Shavaun (Leo) Del Rosario, Bradley Lawrence, Kyle Lawrence, Alan Rawls, Jaxon Welch, and JJ Ward; and her great-grandchildren, Jaythan Langley, Clarissa Classick, Arya Langley, Jacob Lawrence, Emelia Lawrence, Mackenzie Del Rosario, Lilith Classick, Christopher Sortor, and Kailee Sortor.

In addition to her parents, Connie was preceded in death by her husband, Terry Steele.

Visitation will be from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., with services at 1 p.m., on Thursday, October 20, 2022, at Randall & Roberts Funeral Home, 1150 Logan St., Noblesville. Pastor Andrew Marshall will officiate. Burial will be at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Millers outlast Avon for first HCC win

The REPORTER

The Week 9 game between Noblesville and Avon Friday was a track meet, and the Millers crossed the line first.

Noblesville won a truly back-and-forth game with the Orioles, finally prevailing 43-41 in an exciting contest at Beaver Stadium. It was the first Hoosier Crossroads Conference victory of the season for the Millers.

“We were in control the whole game,” said Noblesville coach Dave Sharpe. “We’d let the leads slip away a time or two and they would tie it, but we would respond right back, so very proud of the way our guys handled adversity.”

Noblesville never trailed in the game. Freshman quarterback Landon Hughes got the first score, sending a 43-yard touch-down pass to Gage Gulley. Later in the first quarter, Logan Shoffner streaked 79 yards into the end zone, and that put the Millers up 14-7 to end the quarter.

Blake Widget added another touchdown on a two-yard run with nine minutes left in the first half. The Orioles came back quickly to tie the game, but Widget struck again, making a five-yard run to the end zone. Noblesville led 28-21 at halftime.

Avon tied the game again in the opening seconds of the second half, but Hughes put the Millers ahead for good with a five-yard touchdown run. Jack Letourneau made all five of his extra-point kicks after each Noblesville touchdown, and the Millers led 35-28.

The Orioles scored late in the third quarter, but a two-point attempt was no good. Shoffner then blasted off on a 43-yard touchdown run to open the fourth, and Gulley made the two-point conversion run.

“It came down to the nitty-gritty plays in the second half, two-point conversions,” said Sharpe.

The coach also praised his defense during the fourth quarter. Noblesville sacked the Orioles a couple times and forced a punt.

“Very proud of our fourth quarter effort, offensive and defensively,” said Sharpe.

Avon added one more touchdown late in the fourth, then tried an onside kick. Noblesville recovered, and soon had the victory.

The Millers will take next week off, then host Zionsville on Oct. 28 in the semi-finals of Class 6A Sectional 4.

Golden Eagles cruise past Culver, 42-0

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

NOBLESVILLE – The Guerin Catholic football team got three things out of its 42-0 win over Culver Academies Friday at the Eagles’ Nest.

First, the Class 3A No. 9 Golden Eagles gave their seniors a nice victory on Senior Night. Second, the team rebounded after a Week 8 loss to East Central. Third, Guerin Catholic got a confidence boost heading into next week’s sectional.

“All the seniors played meaningful roles and did some good things tonight, and that’s really a positive thing,” said GC coach Tom Dilley. “But it also gets some really good experience, as well as some positive learning experiences going into the playoffs.”

The Golden Eagles blasted through the first quarter, leading 21-0 by the end of the period. Malcolm Houze set Guerin up with a 41-yard pass to Will Fremion, getting the Golden Eagles down to the Culver 8. Two plays later, Justin Zdobylyak ran the ball in from the four-yard line for Guerin Catholic’s first touchdown.

Midway through the period, Houze threw a short pass to Alex Gibbs, and that turned into a 57-yard touchdown. The Golden Eagles quickly got the ball back, and Anthony Ferrucci was soon in the end zone on a 14-yard touchdown run.

“Our whole thing is, this is the start of the next season, a one-week season every week,” said Ferrucci. “So, I think just getting the mojo back after the tough loss to East Central is good going into the post-season.”

“You always want to start fast,” said Dilley. “I thought our defense did a nice job of getting a couple early stops and giving our offense some good field position and I thought we capitalized.”

Houze took over in the later stages of the second quarter, as he was responsible for two touchdowns. He punched in the ball from the one-yard line with 3:56 left, then in the period’s final minute, tossed a 43-yard TD throw to Ferrucci.

“I feel like we’re doing okay,” said Houze. “We’ve had a tough schedule, so our record doesn’t show how good we are.”

held a 35-0 halftime lead, so there was a running clock in the second half. Guerin Catholic got one more score: Zdobylyak rushed the ball 56 yards to the end zone with 4:20 left in the third quarter. Guentner made that kick, putting him 5-for-5 on the night. The Golden Eagles are 5-4 for the regular season, and will play a Sectional 27 first round game next Friday at Oak Hill.

Huskies slam Lafayette Central Catholic

The REPORTER

Hamilton Heights broke away from Lafayette Central Catholic on Friday, and cruised to a 41-21 victory at the Huskies’ stadium in the third-place game of the Hoosier Conference play-offs.

The game was tight in the first half. Heights got on the board first after Jaylyn Pugh caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from Bodie Derrer. The Knights responded with two touchdown throws of their own, and led 14-7 after the first quarter.

The Huskies came storming back, with Tyler Champion taking a five-yard Derrer pass into the end zone with 9:59 left. A minute and a half later, Kaleb Murray picked off an LCC pass and took that 58 yards to score. Teigan Scoles made all three extra-point kicks, and Heights was back up 21-14.

Central Catholic scored seconds later on a long run, and the score was 21-21. That would be the halftime score, but the second half was all Huskies.

Trey Ehman got in the act with a two-yard touchdown run early in the third period. Derrer then connected on his third TD of the game, tossing a 13-yarder to Evan Tilton. Scoles made two more kicks, and Heights led 35-21 after three. Ehman then added one more touchdown in the fourth quarter, on a 23-yard run.

Ehman had an outstanding game, gaining 225 yards on the ground. Derrer finished 12-of-24 with 129 yards and three touchdowns. Champion made six receptions.

The Huskies are 7-2 and play at Maconaquah next week in the first round of Sectional 28.

Tigers ground Eagles on their home turf

The REPORTER

Fishers kept its feet on the ground, and that helped the Tigers soar to a big Hoosier Crossroads Conference win on Friday.

Fishers beat Zionsville 37-7 at the Eagles’ field. Jon Tangara opened the Tigers’ scoring with a field goal, but after that, Fishers’ running game took over.

The Tigers were dominant on the ground, totaling 431 yards of rushing offense. Carson Dunn let loose for a 76-yard touchdown streak in the first quarter. Tangara’s kick made the score 10-0, and it would stay there through halftime.

Fishers revved things up in the third quarter, putting up 20 points. Dunn made a short touchdown run, then Khobie Martin picked up a couple of touchdowns of his own, scoring from two and 29 yards. Martin finished the Tigers’ scoring with a short run in the fourth period.

Martin totaled 202 yards on the ground, with Dunn

‘Rocks use first quarter momentum, great defensive effort to hold off Flashes

By CRAIG ADKINS
For The Reporter

WESTFIELD – The regular season finale at Westfield on Friday featured two teams that are heading in different directions. The Flashes have now lost three straight and Westfield has now won three consecutive heading into the state tournament in two weeks.

The Westfield Shamrocks were able to take advantage of opportunities early on and their defense stood tall and held strong in a 24-13 win over Franklin Central to close out the regular season.

The ‘Rocks started their first series at the Flashes’ 46. They were faced with a 4th down and 4 at the FC 38 and went for it. Cole Ballard then threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to sophomore tight end Mikeah Webster for a 7-0 Westfield lead.

The ensuing drive for the Flashes didn’t pan out the way they planned.

On the second play, quarterback Nevan Tutterow threw a pass that was intended for his tight end. The ball was tipped up by linebacker Casey Graybill and then immediately intercepted by fellow linebacker Tyler Dikos. After Dikos fumbled the ball, cornerback Andrew Lieske picked up the ball and ran it in for a fumble return touchdown for a 14-0 Westfield lead.

“I think the wind mattered,” said Westfield head coach Jake Gilbert of the wind playing a big factor throughout the game.

“We had the wind in the first quarter and we got a score. They threw a pass into the wind and we got an interception, a pick-six. This was a windy night and the wind mattered a lot,” continued Gilbert on the big factor the wind played.

Franklin Central did their best to keep the game honest early. They marched 80 yards, highlighted by big pass plays of 47 yards to Damir Swanigan and another 25-yarder to Jeremiah Smith that got the Flashes set up for their first score.

The Flashes lined up in the “wildcat” formation and that became a direct snap to tight end Jake Newman, resulting in a two-yard TD run, cutting the Shamrock lead to 14-7.

At that point, it seemed that this might be a high-scoring affair.

Westfield's Jake Gilbert addresses his team after the Shamrocks beat Franklin Central 24-13 to finish the regular season.

Westfield came right back down the field, going 65 yards. This drive ended in grand fashion. Ballard found a new weapon in sophomore wide receiver Parker Knott for a 43-yard touchdown strike that pushed the lead back to double digits at 21-7.

“We were able to capitalize on having the wind early. We just didn’t capitalize in the second half,” stated Gilbert on Westfield’s inability to turn opportunities into points in the second half, like they did in the first half.

Franklin Central cut the Shamrocks’ lead back under 10 in the middle of the third. Starting near midfield, the Flashes drove 54 yards, ending the drive on an eight-yard touchdown run from Jeremiah Smith. The PAT would be blocked, keeping the Westfield lead at eight, 21-13.

“Those guys have been, in my opinion, the best defense in the conference or second to Southeastern. So, we expected them to be very tough and it would be hard to run the ball against them and they’ve got a great secondary,” said Gilbert, complementing Franklin Central’s defense.

Late in the third quarter, Brody Boehm was able to get his confidence back. Prior to his lone field goal attempt on the night, Boehm had made just one of his six field goal tries on the season. The junior kicker nailed a 44-yard field goal from the left hash that would account for the final score of 24-13.

“We didn’t expect it to be easy offensively. I was really happy how our defense played. They struggled to score some, but I still think our defense played great,” stated Gilbert on nothing coming easy and defense ultimately being a point of emphasis for the victory.

These two squads will get to rest and recoup with no game next week. Then, on Friday, Oct. 28, they will start the state tournament.

Franklin Central (3-6, 2-5 HCC) will host highly-touted No. 2 Center Grove (7-2) in 6A Sectional 8. The Trojans lost at home to third-ranked Cathedral last night, 40-29.

Westfield (6-3, 5-2 HCC) sports a three-game winning streak heading into tournament play. The No. 9 Shamrocks will face the No. 7 Carmel Greyhounds (6-3) in 6A Sectional 4. Carmel defeated Lawrence Central on Friday, 27-7.

Ballard finished the game 8-of-13, totaling 108 yards. Maximus Nosler led the receptions with four. Kendall Gamett led the rushing with 72 yards, followed by Ballard’s 50 yards.

Complete stats were unavailable at press time.

‘Hounds play consistently, take down Lawrence Central

The REPORTER

Carmel finished up its regular season with a 27-7 victory over Lawrence Central Friday at the Greyhounds’ stadium.

Carmel scored a touchdown in each of the four quarters. Alijah Alfayyad got on the board with a seven-yard run midway through the opening period, then Aydrin Caldwell took an 11-yard pass from Jack Kazmierczak into the end zone. Ben Sponsler made both extra-point kicks, and the ‘Hounds led 14-0 at halftime.

The defense stepped up for Carmel in the third quarter, as Kyle Fedorcha took a 63-yard interception return for a touchdown. Sponsler’s kick made it 21-0. Kazmierczak finished the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run early in the fourth.
