

All six superintendents take part in HCLA Education Day

Hamilton County's six public school superintendents participated in a panel discussion Thursday as part of the Hamilton County Leadership Academy's (HCLA) Education Day. They covered school accomplishments, challenges in education today, communications, school board relations and more with this year's HCLA class. (From left) Dr. Derek Arrowood (Hamilton Heights Schools), Dr. Dan Hile (Noblesville Schools), Dr. Paul Kaiser (Westfield Washington Schools), Dr. Yvonne Stokes (Hamilton Southeastern Schools), Dr. David Mundy (Sheridan Schools), and Dr. Michael Beresford (Carmel Clay Schools).

The end of my relationship with my birth father?

As my adoption and reunion story continues, I've changed some names, places, and dates.

While the moment I revealed my journey to my sons was great, I experienced a painful one a few weeks later on the phone while talking with my birth father, Jack. It was the beginning of August, and I had been communicating regularly with both birthparents for well over three months.

Jack said that he had finally told both of his daughters about me, and the response had been positive. They thanked him for sharing the information with them. Part of me hoped that they might want to meet me some time, but Jack didn't mention anything like that. He then told me his wife still hadn't come around to accepting our relationship.

"I think it would be best if we didn't talk on the phone for a while," he said. "We can still email back-and-forth, but I just want to give her time to figure things out."

We hung up shortly after he told me this news. I was near tears. From the beginning, I had never meant any harm to either of my birthparents. Was this reunion causing marital strife for Jack? And an even bigger question played in my mind. Would I ever speak with or see him again?

Schwartz closes his final Council

Reporter photos by Stu Clappitt

Wednesday night was the last Hamilton County Council meeting of the year and Council President Steve Schwartz's last time at the gavel. In only 29 minutes, regular business to close out the year was handled, and Schwartz was honored for his service to the county. Standing for The Reporter's camera with wife Lori Schwartz, he hugged her and said, "This is how I want to spend my time now."

Buckingham honored with prestigious award from Indiana Prosecutors

The REPORTER

During the 2022 Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council (IPAC) Winter Conference, Hamilton County Prosecuting Attorney D. Lee Buckingham II received the Steve Johnson Award from the IPAC Board of Directors.

Presented to him during a ceremony on Monday night, the award celebrates Buckingham's 12 years as an elected prosecutor, 16 years as a deputy prosecutor, and countless hours dedicated to helping IPAC in many facets, including as a member of its Legislative and Executive Committees.

"I am honored to have served under Lee's leadership and vision," said Andre Miksha, Buckingham's chief deputy of 12 years. "Lee consistently approached the work of a prosecutor with unsurpassed integrity and humility; he has been a model for us all."

The Johnson Award was created in 2014 and named after former IPAC Executive Director Steve Johnson, who served as IPAC's leader for 14 years and spent his entire 38-year career at IPAC. The Johnson Award is given to individuals who demonstrate the same level of professional dedication and excellence as Steve Johnson. An award is based on sustained periods of outstanding support or service to an individual prosecutor or IPAC.

Buckingham also closes 2022 as the President of the Association of Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys. He will be succeeded by Rodney Cummings the Prosecuting Attorney of Madison County.

About IPAC

IPAC is a non-partisan, independent state judicial branch agency that supports Indiana's 91 prosecuting attorneys and their chief deputies. It is governed by a 10-member board of directors of elected prosecuting attorneys. IPAC assists prosecuting attorneys in the preparation of manuals, legal research and training seminars. It serves as a liaison to local, state, and federal agencies, study commissions, and community groups in an effort to support law enforcement and promote the fair administration of justice.

With my friend Mary's encouragement, I wrote a letter to Jack's wife, Dawn, that I emailed to him. I tried to alleviate any fears she might have about me and my intentions. Jack was pleased about what I had written and said in a reply that he would share it when the time was right.

I've always been a positive person, but I also try to be cautious, especially with my emotions. I had to prepare myself for the possibility that the few months of communication that happened in 2015 might be all I would get with Jack. And it hurt my heart.

My birth mother Linda was furious for me when she heard the news. She and I had continued to talk on the phone every two or three weeks and we texted regularly. Neither of us could figure out what was going on in Jack's wife's mind. Was she jealous? Nervous that I would take attention away from her and her daughters? We just didn't understand it.

August turned into September, and I tried to stay busy, live my life, and not think about the situation. But of course, it was difficult. At times it would creep into my head, and I would alternate between sadness and anger. I tried to tell myself that I had to be grateful for all I had learned and for the time that we had spent getting to know each other. I knew Jack said that we could still email each other, but I didn't want to pester him.

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.

Westfield Police investigating possible attempted abduction

The REPORTER

The Westfield Police Department (WPD) is investigating a possible attempted abduction and is seeking help from the community.

A juvenile male reported that on Wednesday, Dec. 7 he was riding his bike near the 700 block of Burgess Hill Pass, when an unknown male approached and grabbed his arm. The suspect was described as a white male in his 30s, slender build, approximately 6-foot-2, with a bald head and red goatee. He was said to be wearing black and gray pants, a black coat, sunglasses, and a dangling cross earring. The suspect's vehicle was described as a two-door black Dodge Ram, model year 2009 to 2018, dirty, with silver rims and a scrape on the driver's door.

WPD asks anyone who lives in the Maple Knoll addition and has outdoor cameras and/or video doorbells to review any recordings you may have that would have captured this incident, the suspect, and/or the suspect's vehicle between 3:30 and 4 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 7. Anyone with video footage, tips, or further information about this incident should contact Det. Zosso at azosso@westfield.in.gov or by calling (317) 804-3238.

WPD is investigating this incident fully, and the safety of Westfield residents is of the utmost importance to the department. The patrol division will conduct additional patrols in and around neighborhoods and bus stops.

Please report any suspicious incidents to dispatch at the non-emergency number, (317) 773-1300, or call 911 for emergencies.

Noblesville Friends welcome you to Dec. 11 Candlelight Service

Submitted

Everyone is invited to come to Noblesville First Friends Church for a Christmas Candlelight service at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 11.

The hour-long program will consist of scripture readings telling the Christmas story, solos by talented musicians playing trumpet and violin and two vocal soloists accompanied by piano. The congregation will be invited to sing well-known Christmas carols and enjoy the beautiful candlelight and share the joy of the season.

Please plan to attend this Christmas program and enjoy refreshments afterward in Fellowship Hall. The meetinghouse is located at 1055 E. Division St. across from Seminary Park in Noblesville.

As you arrive and leave the Candlelight Service, you will be able to enjoy the lighted Christmas nativity in front of the meetinghouse and the lighted objects in Seminary Park across the street. The Preservation Alliance sponsored the refurbishing of the lighted Nativity that was part of the Christmas decorations on the downtown courthouse square many years ago.

Rep. Victoria Spartz presses U.S. House leaders to support American workers

The REPORTER

This week, Rep. Victoria Spartz (R-Ind.) joined Reps Jared Golden (D-Maine), Dan Kildee (D-Mich.), and Mike Turner (R-Ohio) in sending a bipartisan letter to House Leadership to stress the importance of a longer-term reauthorization of the Health Coverage Tax Credit (HCTC).

The HCTC provides refundable tax credits for Americans who have lost their jobs to outsourcing and whose pensions have been taken over by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) to cover the rising cost of health insurance premiums.

"Bad government policies incentivizing outsourcing caused thousands of Hoosiers to lose their jobs, pensions, and health care coverages," Rep. Spartz said. "Additionally, government interventions incentivized health care consolidation leading to monopoly problems and higher prices for consumers. Indiana has experienced significant adverse effects of these policies. The Health Coverage Tax Credit provides some offsets to remediate this situation and needs to be established on a longer-term basis to provide more certainty for families."

Sheriff’s Deputies meet with Heights students

Photos provided by Hamilton County Sheriff’s Office / Facebook
On Monday, Hamilton Heights School Resource Officer Deputy Josh Ireland invited several female law enforcement officers from the Hamilton County Sheriff’s Office to come and speak with the fourth-grade class during their lunch period. Captain Kija Ireland, Corrections Officer Rachel Baldwin, and Deputy Lydia Fairchok introduced themselves to the class, gave short biographies of themselves, and went into the crowd and spoke with students at their tables, answering any questions they had. They were a great bunch of kids. The Sheriff’s Office thanks Hamilton Heights for hosting the Deputies.

Heirbrandt named Commissioner of the Year for 2022

Will serve as 2023 president of Indiana Association of County Commissioners

The REPORTER

As first reported in the pages of the Hamilton County Reporter, Commissioner Mark Heirbrandt was recently honored with a top award from the Indiana Association of County Commissioners (IACC). Heirbrandt was named 2022 “County Commissioner of the Year.”

His work across Hamilton County has captured statewide attention since first being elected in 2013, and he has been recognized with an additional five statewide awards during his time on the board.

“I’m honored to continue serving the residents of Hamilton County. No matter what award I may receive, this job is critical to improving the quality of life for our community,” Heirbrandt said. “Making a difference in the lives of the people that I encounter every day is my top priority.”

Heirbrandt has been responsible for driving and completing many transformational county projects requiring extensive partner collaboration, as well as identifying and securing major funding in order to improve the lives of Hamilton County’s constituents and visitors.

Through Heirbrandt’s help, the county now has a taxpayer savings of $25 million over 25 years in new energy-efficiency initiatives and currently maintains 600 miles of roads and over 300 bridges. His work has also assisted in strengthening businesses and encouraged millions of dollars in investments for Hamilton County.

Some of Heirbrandt’s notable accomplishments so far include working to expand adequate infrastructure projects like roads and bridges as the county continues to rapidly grow. The major challenge is financing these projects while maintaining a tax-neutral environment for citizens. He has worked tirelessly to coordinate a county financing team to model the county’s future needs against its financial resources. These efforts produced a fresh, budget-neutral, long-term capital plan for the county.

Heirbrandt says his additional priorities include a focus on public safety, road safety and infrastructure, cost savings, and communication and transparency. He continues to work with Commissioners Christine Altman and Steve Dillinger to ensure Hamilton County is at the forefront of positive change.

“I’ve always communicated consistently and honestly with residents,” Heirbrandt said. “When people come together with new ideas and new solutions, we have a greater impact. In order for our community to succeed, we need to be proactive about providing the best resources while maintaining fiscal responsibility.”

Now, Heirbrandt will take his work to the next level. He was also elected to serve as 2023 President of the Indiana Association of County Commissioners during the recent annual conference.

As president, Heirbrandt will represent the elected county commissioners in the 92 counties of Indiana. He will be President of the IACC’s Board of Directors, which determines policies and legislative goals for the association. The elections were held during the IACC’s 2022 conference, the largest gathering of county commissioners in the state.

“I’m humbled that my colleagues have selected me to serve in this new capacity. It’s truly an honor,” Heirbrandt said. “This new position allows me to reach every corner of our great state, and I’m hopeful to use the resources at hand to continue to push county government forward not only for the residents of Hamilton County, but for all members of the Hoosier community.”

Sheriff's Office urges you pay special attention on the road this holiday season

Submitted by Hamilton County Sheriff's Office
With the increased travel coming up for the holidays, shopping and heading out to family events, motorists are urged to drive safely. It is very easy to allow yourself to become distracted. Listed below is information about distracted driving.
In the box at right, you can see the top 3 crash locations in the jurisdiction of the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office.
Distracted driving is any activity that diverts attention from driving, including talking or texting on your phone, eating and drinking, talking to people in your vehicle, fiddling with the stereo, entertainment or navigation system – anything that takes your attention away from the task of safe driving.

Texting is the most alarming distraction. Sending or reading a text takes your eyes off the road for five seconds. At 55 mph, that's like driving the length of an entire football field with your eyes closed.
You cannot drive safely unless the task of driving has your full attention. Any non-driving activity you engage in is a potential distraction and increases your risk of crashing. Please drive safely.

AG Todd Rokita launches litigation against TikTok

The REPORTER

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita has announced two separate lawsuits against TikTok — both related to false claims made by the company about its video-sharing app of the same name.

"The TikTok app is a malicious and menacing threat unleashed on unsuspecting Indiana consumers by a Chinese company that knows full well the harms it inflicts on users," Rokita said. "With this pair of lawsuits, we hope to force TikTok to stop its false, deceptive and misleading practices, which violate Indiana law."

The first lawsuit alleges that TikTok has lured children onto the platform through a variety of misleading representations indicating that the app contains only "infrequent/mild" sexual content, profanity, or drug references — when in reality the app is rife with extreme examples of such material. An essential part of TikTok's business model is presenting the application as safe and appropriate for children ages 13 to 17.

The second lawsuit asserts that TikTok has reams of highly sensitive data and personal information about Indiana consumers and has deceived those consumers to believe that this information is protected from the Chinese government and Communist Party.

"In multiple ways, TikTok represents a clear and present danger to Hoosiers that is hiding in plain sight in their own pockets," Rokita said. "At the very least, the company owes consumers the truth about the age-appropriateness of its content and the insecurity of the data it collects on users. We hope these lawsuits force TikTok to come clean and change its ways."

Rokita is seeking emergency injunctive relief and civil penalties against the company.

Indiana Democrats issue statement after U.S. House passes the Respect for Marriage Act

The REPORTER

The Indiana Democratic Party on Thursday issued the following statement by Chairman Mike Schmuhl after the U.S. House of Representatives passed The Respect for Marriage Act, which would enshrine federal marriage protections for interracial and LGBTQ couples:

“The United States is strongest when it abides by its promise to deliver liberty, freedom, and opportunity to families across the country, and with The Respect for Marriage Act, we are now one step closer toward fulfilling the goal originally set by our Founding Fathers. The State Party applauds Congressmen André Carson and Frank Mrvan for supporting LGBTQ Hoosiers and this common-sense legislation that reflects the fabric of the modern United States of America.

“For LGBTQ Americans specifically, the passage of The Respect for Marriage Act is a culminating moment for a community that too often has had to advocate for – and sometimes die for – the right to love, the right to life-saving health care, or even the right to exist openly and freely in our country. Generations of LGBTQ Americans – including many Hoosier Democrats – have been on the frontlines fighting for this moment where acceptance and the opportunity to live and thrive is not just enshrined into law but approved by a majority of Americans. I personally applaud them, because this work is why more than 65 percent of Hoosiers support the right to marry in Indiana.

“But to be clear: The Respect for Marriage Act is not perfect. Should the ultra-conservative U.S. Supreme Court overturn nationwide marriage rights for LGBTQ or interracial couples, the ability to marry who you love would be up for debate in the Indiana General Assembly. Simply look to the Indiana GOP’s horrendous statements on interracial marriage, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA), and the refusal to include LGBTQ Hoosiers in the state’s hate crimes law as evidence to how extreme they could go to reverse the progress that’s been made.

“The right to marry who you love is an American right, and The Respect for Marriage Act is a necessary, inclusive step in the right direction. The Indiana Democratic Party looks forward to President Joe Biden’s signature and the upcoming celebration about how Democrats once again delivered a better future for all Hoosiers and Americans.”

Barbara Jean DeNoon

September 16, 1933 – December 8, 2022

Barbara Jean DeNoon, 89, Vevay, Ind., passed away on Thursday, December 8, 2022. She was born on September 16, 1933, to Herald and Inez (Kleyla) Setters in Indianapolis. Barbara was a professional opera singer, and everything she did revolved around music and her passion for singing. In her early years, she sang with the Indianapolis Orchestra and with Star Light Musicals. Also in her younger years, Barbara was a member of Eastern Star, and a member of Rutter Chapel United Methodist Church. She loved being a grandma and spoiling them all. Barbara was a big Snow White fan.

She is survived by her daughter, Lisa (Jeff) Smith; grandchildren, Ashley (Jesse) Bryant, Melisa Smith, Katie Smith, Hank Smith, and Stacie Smith; great-grandchildren, Autumn, Jordan, and Jeremiah Bryant, and Gunnar Smith.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, Harold DeNoon; daughter, Eileen Walters; and brother and sister-in-law, Elwood and Shirley Setters.

Services will be held at noon on Monday, December 12, 2022, at Randall & Roberts Funeral Center, 1685 Westfield Road, Noblesville. Visitation will be from 11 a.m. to the time of service at the funeral home. Burial will be at Crownland Cemetery in Noblesville.

Memorial contributions may be made to Paradigm Hospice, 8904 Bash St., Suite B, Indianapolis, IN 46256.

Albert C. "Bud" Rees

April 12, 1924 – December 8, 2022

Albert C. "Bud" Rees, 98, Fishers, passed away on Thursday, December 8, 2022, at his home and surrounded by his family. He was born on April 12, 1924, to Jesse and Helen (Rudd) Rees in Richmond, Ind.

Bud graduated from Fortville High School and proudly served his country in the United States Army. As a Private First Class in the Quartermaster Service Company, Bud and his fellow soldiers courageously stormed the beaches of Normandy on June 6, 1944, liberating France and forever altering the course of history. For over 40 years, he worked as a millwright for International Harvester, retiring in 1982. Bud was a member of the Hamilton Masonic Lodge and a lifetime member of the NRA. An avid outdoorsman, he loved to fish and hunt and travel with his wife.

Bud is survived by his son, Mark (Karen) Rees; daughter-in-law, Marilyn; grandchildren, Todd (Rachel) Rees, Jennifer (Troy) Carolan, and Joshua (Kara) Rees; and great-grandchildren, Morgan, Cheaney, Rayel, Jolie, Ava, Easton, Waylon, and Willow.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Chlora Beth Rees; son, David Scott Rees; two sisters; and one brother.

Visitation will be from 4 to 8 p.m., with Masonic Services beginning at 7:30 p.m., on Monday, December 12, 2022, at Randall & Roberts Fishers Mortuary, 12010 Allisonville Road, Fishers. Services will be held at 11 a.m., with an additional visitation beginning at 10 a.m., on Tuesday, December 13, 2022, at Cyntheanne Christian Church, 13151 Cyntheanne Road, Fishers, with Rev. Larry Renihan officiating. Burial will be at Gravel Lawn Cemetery in Fortville.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Shriners Hospitals for Children Processing Center, PO Box 863765, Orlando, FL 32886 (shrinershospitals-forchildren.org/shc).

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will not welcome us. So when I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, spreading malicious nonsense about us. Not satisfied with that, he even refuses to welcome other believers. He also stops those who want to do so and puts them out of the church.

Blackhawks fall to Bulldogs at home

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

SHERIDAN – The Sheridan wrestling team hosted Clinton Central Thursday in a dual meet between two teams that could be battling for a conference championship in a few weeks.

The Bulldogs outlasted the Blackhawks 45-36 in front of a loud crowd at Larry Hobbs Hall. Sheridan took a big early lead thanks to the strength of its middle weights, but Clinton Central's lighter weights got pins in the later part of the meet.

"I just got through talking to them and I was very happy with the way they wrestled tonight," said Blackhawks coach Steve Leonard. "We had kind of a letdown match against North Miami, and I thought they wrestled really well tonight. Even the kids who lost, they wrestled hard. They're starting to learn, pick up new things, pick up more things. Hopefully by the time tournament season rolls around, we'll be in good shape."

The meet started right in the middle at 145 pounds, and Kevin Speck got Sheridan on the board with a pin. After absorbing a decision loss at 152 (the only match not decided by a pin or forfeit), the Blackhawks pounded out three more wins by fall, from Ryker Ream at 160, Zach Bales at 170 and Jacob Jones at 182. CC got a pin at 195, Peyton Cross' pin at 220 gave the Blackhawks a 30-9 lead.

"They do a great job when it's time to get ready for the match," Leonard said of Jones and Cross. "They're both very focused and they help other people get focused. They're good leaders."

Clinton Central took over after that, as Sheridan had to forfeit the next two weight classes and the Bulldogs won the next three divisions (113, 120, 126) by pin. Trai Fitzgerald kept the 'Hawks in the meet with a fall at 132 pounds, but the Bulldogs got a pin at 138 to clinch the meet.

Still, Leonard was optimistic that when the Hoosier Heartland Conference meet rolls around next month and the Blackhawks get some wrestlers back from injuries, "we should be able to hold our own with them," he said. Sheridan has won back-to-back HHC championships.

"Give them a run for the money, or they're giving us a run for the money, one or the other," said Leonard. "But I think it'll be a good conference tournament with them healthy and us healthy."

The Blackhawks' next competition is on Saturday, when they wrestle at the Frankfort Super 6. Other teams at that meet will be Delphi, Shelbyville, Kokomo and Lebanon.

Basketball—
Elks Lodge's Hoops Shoot contest is Sunday

The REPORTER

The Noblesville Elks Lodge and retired Hamilton County basketball coach Pete Smith will host the annual Elks Hoops Shoot contest this weekend.

The contest will take place this Sunday, Dec. 11 at the Noblesville Boys and Girls Club, 1700 Conner St., Noblesville. Doors open at 10:30 a.m. for registration and warm-ups, with competition beginning at 11 a.m. It is open to all boys and girls who live in the area. Everyone is asked to enter the Boys & Girls Club Community Center at Door No. 4 on the north side of the facility that faces Ivy Tech. Basketballs will be provided.

Contestants compete in one of six divisions:

1. Boys, ages 8-9
2. Girls, ages 8-9
3. Boys, ages 10-11
4. Girls, ages 10-11
5. Boys, ages 12-13
6. Girls, ages 12-13

If the contestant will be age 7 on April 1, 2023, they are too young to participate.

If the contestant will be age 8 or 9 on April 1,

2023, they shoot in the 8-9 age group.

If the contestant will be age 10 or 11 on April 1, 2023, they shoot in the 10-11 age group.

If the contestant will be age 12 or 13 on April 1, 2023, they shoot in the 12-13 age group.

If the contestant will be age 14 on April 1, 2023, they are too old to participate.

The participants will shoot 25 free throws to determine a local Elks Lodge Champion. The six winners will qualify to advance to the District competition. All rules have been set by the National Elks Association (not Coach Smith).

The Noblesville Elks Lodge is proud to have had six of their past winners advance from their local competition to then win at the district level, then state level, then regional level, and then compete at the national championship competition in Springfield, Mass. One of those national finalists from their lodge, Ryan Cline from Carmel High School and Purdue, won the National Championship in 2010.

Indy 500 winner Rossi to serve as honorary chair for Rev 2023 on May 6

The REPORTER

Alexander Rossi, winner of the 100th Running of the Indianapolis 500 in 2016, will serve as the honorary chair of Rev 2023 presented by Fifth Third Bank on Saturday, May 6 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Rev, Indiana University Health Foundation's signature event, is marking its 10th year as the traditional opening event for the Month of May.

Rev 2023, which sold out in record time Dec. 1, will feature more than 70 chefs from some of Central Indiana's best restaurants. More than 20 artists and entertainment acts will perform throughout the event. The evening ends with a dance party on the race-track's famed Yard of Bricks start-finish line as a DJ plays music from the flag stand above the track.

"From the first time I attended Rev back in 2016 as a rookie, I knew that it was a special event," Rossi said. "Not only does it kick off the Month of May and the biggest sporting event in the world, but it features some of Indy's best chefs and restaurants from the city who are all doing their part to help raise funds for IU Health's trauma, injury prevention and critical care programs."

"It is such an honor to be the 2023 Rev chairman. I look forward to doing what I can to help promote this spectacular evening at one of my favorite places in the world."

Rev organizers announced Rossi's role Wednesday at Just Pop In!, 6406 Cornell Ave. in Indianapolis. The restaurant and popcorn bar has participated in Rev since 2014. Saucy Rossi spicy cheddar popcorn, which was developed in honor of Rossi, was served to guests and media during the announcement. Sun King Brewery, which has also participated in Rev since its inaugural year in 2014, served its Pachanga Mexican Lager and Eels on Wheels Double IPA.

Rev 2023 is sold out, but anyone who still wants to purchase a ticket can join a waitlist at revindy.org/attend. About 3,500 are expected to attend Rev next May.

"Rev is always a wonderful evening in Indianapolis, but the celebration of our 10th year this year will be epic," Rev Executive Director Carol Howard said. "To have Alex Rossi, the winner of the landmark 100th Running of the Indianapolis 500, to help us honor a decade of Rev is perfect."

Rev is IU Health Foundation's largest annual fundraiser. Since its beginning, Rev has raised more than $6 million for trauma, injury prevention and critical care programs. Proceeds have made it possible for expansions to the IU Health Lifeline fleet, enabling the Lifeline team to provide emergency care while transporting patients statewide. Event proceeds also benefit drivers and fans at the IU Health Emergency Medical Center at Indianapolis Motor Speedway, which is part of the IU Health Methodist Hospital Level I Trauma Program.

IU Health Foundation leverages the power of philanthropy to support the IU Health vision of making Indiana one of the nation's healthiest states. IU Health Foundation improves the health of individuals, communities and the state by focusing its philanthropy on people, progress and partnerships. To learn more, visit iuhealthfoundation.org.
