The sting of criticism

Criticism is not for the tender of heart. Have I told you I am tenderhearted?

"If you can't say anything nice ... don't say anything at all." My mother said it so often that I thought it was a verse in the Bible. I've come to realize that not everyone had a mother like mine. She had a heart that was overflowing with kindness.

When I am criticized, I hear the negative words over and over. They tuck me into bed at night. Not good enough. I finally fall asleep after wrestling with the question, "What have I done to make them not like me?" I'm told, "Don't take this personally." Seriously, how can I not take it personally?

Words of criticism are like shackles as I struggle to let go of their bondage. Is it worth putting myself out there to possibly be criticized again?

When my book was published, I was so excited to get my readers to review my book on Amazon. Then I saw it ... a lone 3 Star review. They did not say why they gave my book (and me) such a "meh" rating. My heart sank. Why didn't they like my book? Then I saw a 4 Star. I read it as, not good enough. When I told another author about the two somewhat negative reviews, she said, "Ummm Janet, what about the 67 5-Star reviews?" She told me she had the same reaction to reviews of her book that were less than 5 Stars.

I have author friends who have shared with me their struggles with reviews. We take words seriously, and negative comments about our words head straight to our hearts. Trust me when I say ... they sting.

Being the receiver of criticism has made me more aware of what I say to others.

Rep. Spartz meets voters in Sheridan

Rep. Victoria Spartz (R-Ind.-05) continued her in-person town hall meetings she started in Kokomo last month with a town hall at the Sheridan Historical Society last Saturday. Over 80 folks in attendance heard Rep. Spartz give an update on happenings in Washington D.C., and she responded to questions about topics such as federal overreach, health care, and national security. "It was a pleasure to connect with constituents in Sheridan and have such robust conversations," Rep. Spartz said. "The feedback I get from these town halls is very valuable to me. I will continue to focus on issues important to Hoosiers in the Fifth District and make sure they have a seat at the table." Finding a space to heal

Recovery Café Hamilton County opens in Fishers

The REPORTER

In an effort to better support central Indiana's recovery community, Recovery Café Hamilton County opened last Thursday in Fishers. The grand opening and reception was held at The Eller House, 7050 E. 116th St., Suite 100, Fishers.

This Recovery Café will serve those struggling with substance use issues, mental health challenges, trauma, and homelessness.

The Recovery Café's goal is to uplift and empower individuals within the recovery space to shift from surviving to thriving. The Café's model takes a holistic and inclusive approach to recovery, with an emphasis on connection to oneself and one's fellow community members.

This program is membership-based and the membership itself is completely free, with the understanding that members follow a few guidelines. These guidelines for the program are that members are drug and alcohol-free for 24 hours, that they attend a weekly recovery meeting, and that they are a contributing member of the Café community through volunteering. The Café model offers services to its members, including regular recovery meetings, healthy meals, and a wealth of information for additional recovery resources, among others.

This project has been made possible through seed money from the Division of Mental Health and Addiction (DMHA) and the Recovery Café Network.

"The collective impact of this growing network of healing communities will over time transform thousands of lives, not just those that come through the doors of these new Recovery Cafés, but also their friends and family members," said Killian Noe, the Recovery Café Network Director and Founder.

It takes a village full of Lions to outfit Sheridan Schools with GHD furniture

The REPORTER

Sheridan Community Schools (SCS) recently received a generous donation from GHD (Indianapolis) of office furniture and supplies that will outfit the new fieldhouse and other areas of the school at a significant cost savings to the school corporation.

GHD is a global professional services company that leads through engineering and architectural skills and experience. On GHD.com, the company states, "Our forward-looking, innovative approaches connect and sustain communities around the world. Delivering extraordinary social and economic outcomes, we are focused on building lasting relationships with our partners and clients."

Moving the furniture was a joint effort among GHD, SCS staff, and Sheridan Lions Club members.

Sheridan School Board Member and GHD Senior Geologist Tyler Henning facilitated the donation.

our school and I'm proud of everyone who came to help," Henning said. "I appreciate GHD donating the supplies and furniture, the school for working hard to pick it up, and the Lions Club for assisting. I'm involved in all three organizations, and it was fun to see them all work together – a great example of community."

Superintendent Dr. Dave Mundy expressed his appreciation to Lions Club members, SCS staff, and especially GHD.

"This donation represents a significant savings to Sheridan taxpayers, as well as a sign of this tremendous community coming together for our students," Mundy said.

Westfield receives $2.3M for roundabout at 181st & Wheeler

The REPORTER

The City of Westfield has announced that it was selected to receive funds awarded by the Indianapolis Metropolitan Planning Organization (IMPO). IMPO has made $47.5 million available in funding for intersection, transit, bicycle, pedestrian, roadway, and bridge rehabilitation projects throughout central Indiana.

The IMPO holds an annual call for projects, allowing local government agencies to apply for IMPO-managed funds. During the most recent round of funding requests, 59 project applications from 17 local government agencies were submitted, totaling $183 million in requested funding. The 16 projects selected for funding are for construction bids by June 2026. Westfield was awarded over $2.3 million for constructing a roundabout at 181st Street and Wheeler Road.

According to Westfield Public Works Director Jonathan Nail, "181st Street and Wheeler Road is a critical intersection for Westfield Washington Schools traffic and visitors to the Grand Park Sports Campus. For several years, this four-way stop has created traffic congestion. We are pleased that the IMPO agreed that an improvement was needed, and we are excited to begin design work on this important project for the City of Westfield."

IMPO Director Anna Gremling said, "As the state's largest regional planning organization, we understand that infrastructure improvements are necessary to continue Central Indiana's economic development and quality of life goals. These projects contribute to a larger effort in the region to address the road safety crisis, accommodate burgeoning freight needs, and maintain the region's infrastructure in good repair while providing mobility options for everyone in the region."

The recipients were selected from a highly competitive pool. Each funded project requires a local funding match and is judged based on technical selection criteria, including impacts on air quality, improvements to congestion, pavement quality, and safety. The projects also meet goals for different projects set by representatives of the IMPO's member communities across the region.

Federal law requires each urbanized area with a population of 50,000 or more to have an MPO. The MPO planning process is necessary to receive federal funds for transit, transportation alternatives, and roadway improvements. IMPO encompasses 1,520 square miles and includes eight counties and 31 cities and towns.

Props to Patrick Propst, Hamilton County Leadership Academy Class of 2024 dean

The REPORTER

As Hamilton County Leadership Academy (HCLA) opens the application process for its 33rd cohort of leaders, Patrick Propst has been selected to serve as the HCLA dean for the Class of 2024. HCLA has been educating leaders and cultivating community networks for over 30 years.

"As an alumnus of the HCLA Class of 2018, I immediately saw the impression and influence that HCLA and its deans had in Hamilton County," Propst said. "In particular, I saw how each dean had a unique ability to channel the leadership, knowledge, networks, and resources of each class to shape and elevate all areas of life in the county. I look forward to meeting this year's class as they begin their journey with HCLA."

"The HCLA board is honored that Patrick is volunteering his time to support the growth of Hamilton County by serving as dean," HCLA President Andrew Bradford said. "His commitment to service will support the mission of HCLA to amplify impact and empower community members with access to people and insights into the operations of Hamilton County."

The dean plays an integral role in creating the class culture and connectivity and providing meaningful insight and expertise throughout the HCLA class experience. They serve as an ambassador for the program in the community and will collaborate with the HCLA executive director and board to cultivate and maintain an engaging, dynamic, and thought-provoking learning environment.

"HCLA is eager to watch the guidance and growth Patrick will provide to the Class of 2024," HCLA Executive Director Diana Coyle said. "His innate ability for developing individuals so they can identify their why and make an impact where they reside and work is clear and we can't wait to harness that skillset into the HCLA cohort experience."

Propst is an ordained minister and has been serving alongside Faith Community in Noblesville since 2004. Faith Community recently re-missioned and is exploring new faith expressions in today's world, while encouraging and supporting free-range Christians. He also serves as part-time executive director for Serve Noblesville and began his own life coaching, consulting, and spiritual direction company called Pachlain.

Propst's 18 years of living and raising his family in Noblesville created a passion for the city and the people. He recently launched a podcast with a good friend called A Sinner and Saint. On it, they explore the day-to-day experiences when people are at their best and their worst. His work, regardless of the hat he is wearing, is guided by the mantra of helping people, businesses, and organizations to "discover their good."

Eleven students named Hamilton County Bicentennial Ambassadors

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Bicentennial Commission announced last Thursday the 11 high school sophomores and juniors who will serve as Bicentennial Ambassadors now through December 2023. These Hamilton County student ambassadors will serve as a bridge from the past to the future through conversation and public engagement.

The purpose of the Bicentennial Ambassador program is to engage high school students by using the past 200 years to inform the future. Those chosen expressed a genuine interest in history and how communities function. They also met criteria for being a student in good standing at their high school.

Presenting the 2023 Bicentennial Ambassadors:

- Valerie Adams – Sheridan High School
- Ben Boyce – Carmel High School
- Ridhi Dondeti – Carmel High School
- Christopher Foote – Carmel High School
- Gabby Jellison – Noblesville High School
- Aurelia Lingenfelter – Hamilton Heights High School (not pictured)
- Isabella Lingenfelter – Noblesville High School
- Jane Martens – Carmel High School
- Elizabeth Parkins – Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School
- Sophia Stephens – Carmel High School (not pictured)
- David Young – Westfield High School

This unique opportunity is sponsored by Hamilton County Commissioners Christine Altman, Steve Dillinger and Mark Heirbrandt and is an official program of the Hamilton County Bicentennial Commission. Curriculum support is provided by the Hamilton County Leadership Academy.

Quotes from winners

Valerie Adams, Sheridan High School

“Being named a Hamilton County Bicentennial Ambassador is a huge honor. I hope to learn more about Hamilton County as a whole. I’m super excited for this opportunity and to learn more about each of the other Ambassadors as we move forward. Adams Township is a small community, but that does not stop us. I hope people enjoy the architecture of some of the buildings on Main Street. I also hope people enjoy how hospitable everyone is and how they will do everything in their power to help you feel welcome.”

Ben Boyce, Carmel High School

“To me, being a Hamilton County Bicentennial Ambassador means understanding my community more and showing others how much it means to me. I hope people enjoy the vibrant culture of Clay Township and learn about how the township has been a model for urban development.”

Ridhi Dondeti, Carmel High School

“It’s an honor to be a part of this historic celebration. As someone who loves history, I’m excited to learn more about the history of Hamilton County and how we became the amazing county we are today. I’m from Clay Township, and I enjoy the various events Carmel hosts throughout the year. With the Chinese Mooncake Festival, the Farmer’s Market, Winter Games, Christkindlmarkt, and much more, there’s always something for everyone to enjoy.”

Christopher Foote, Carmel High School

“Being named a Bicentennial Ambassador is very important to me as it gives me a chance to represent my community and to be able to be a leader for Hamilton County. It is a great opportunity and honor to be able to be a Bicentennial Ambassador. I hope that people are able to learn the rich history of Clay Township and understand the great arts and achievements Clay Township has to offer. Clay Township is a great place to live and a wonderful community for all people from all walks of life.”

Gabby Jellison, Noblesville High School

“To me being named a Hamilton County Bicentennial

Ambassador is all about serving my community. I believe history is such an interesting and important thing. This program is an amazing opportunity to learn more about the history of Hamilton County and be able to help out in the community. I am beyond excited to be able to represent my community. I hope that people enjoy all of the events that are planned for this year. Each township has a month designated to them, and since I live in Noblesville Township, I’m especially excited for the ‘Light up the Night’ event. I really hope people learn about Noblesville Township’s rich history and this unique place we get to call home.”

Jane Martens, Carmel High School

“Being a Hamilton County Bicentennial Ambassador means dedicating yourself to education, history and community. There are many people who live in Hamilton County who might not know much about modern-day townships or the histories behind them, and this is an opportunity to learn! As high school students, there’s not much emphasis on Indiana history – much less Hamilton County history – in our courses. By being in this program, we can really explore the scope of Hamilton County outside of our townships and share those experiences with others. I really hope that people enjoy learning about the arts in Carmel! There are so many activities and places here that center around visual and performing arts like performances at the Palladium, murals on the Monon, and even an entire Arts and Design District. It has a huge impact on the daily lives of residents as well as the way our township looks as a whole.”

Elizabeth Parkins, Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School

“I’m grateful to have been named an Ambassador because it means that I can represent Hamilton County and share my love of learning and history with others. I most hope that people see Carmel’s strong sense of community.”

David Young, Westfield High School

“To me, being a Hamilton County Bicentennial Ambassador means a great deal. I’ll be able to learn further about history relative to Indiana and more specifically Hamilton County. Beyond that, it’ll allow me to view different perspectives on historical topics and help me to construct a better understanding. With that being said, I am happy to be a part of this program. I hope people enjoy the diversity in Westfield along with the array of opportunities that have been created in recent years. Beyond what meets the eye, Westfield has continuously become more diverse, and I hope people enjoy being able to meet new neighbors and peers of different backgrounds. Diversity allows for not only social growth, but economic growth throughout the city as well. Along with that, we have also seen exposure to many new opportunities here in Westfield – both socially and economically. I hope that teens, families and adults are able to enjoy the new opportunities, centers, parks, etc., that have been introduced to Westfield.”

About the Bicentennial

The Hamilton County Bicentennial Commission was established by the Hamilton County Board of Commissioners as the official oversight agency for the 200th anniversary of the county in 2023. Carmel Clay Parks & Rec suspends plans for east side dog park

Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) will stop current planning efforts for a dog park on the east side of Carmel at River Road and Main Street on Carmel Clay Schools (CCS) property.

“We have informed Carmel Clay Schools about this decision and appreciate the opportunity for continued partnerships with CCS to collaborate for the benefit of the Carmel Clay community,” CCPR Director Michael Klitzing said.

CCPR presented a proposal and preliminary concept to the Carmel Clay School Board in January seeking consent to explore developing a dog park, community garden, and trails on school property located at the southwest corner of Main Street and River Road.

Due to a significant portion of the CCS property being located within a floodway, infrastructure placement was very limited. Public input received by CCPR, as well as constituent feedback relayed by multiple City Councilors, identified some concerns regarding the proposed placement of a dog park close to River Road.

Considering both site limitations and initial community input, CCPR has decided to consider additional locations for a future dog park.

In 2023, CCPR is developing its Comprehensive Parks and Recreation Master Plan for 2024-2028. As part of the master planning process, CCPR will gather community input regarding park and recreation needs and preferences to guide future planning efforts. Stay tuned for opportunities to provide feedback as part of the master plan process.

About HCLA

HCLA is a 10-month program for professional and community leaders who live or work in Hamilton County. Class sessions cover a wide variety of topics that affect the operations of the county. Participants receive learning in the areas of government, education, criminal justice, arts, culture, business, industry, and much more. Graduates of the program have a deeper knowledge and understanding of Hamilton County, create meaningful, life-long connections with their peers, HCLA alumni, and community leaders, and gain clarity around how to lead and make an impact in their backyard.

Hamilton County Bicentennial focuses on White River Township this month

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Bicentennial Commission announces its lineup of grant-funded events for March 2023.

This month the commission celebrates White River Township, located in the northeastern corner of Hamilton County and home to the community of Strawtown. This largely rural township has a long tradition of farming, beginning with Native American settlement hundreds of years ago where Strawtown currently sits.

During March, the commission will highlight how White River Township impacts the Hamilton County community with events at Strawtown Koteewi Park and Walnut Grove Community Center. The traveling exhibit will also tour during the month. You can see details and other events at hamcoturns200.com/events.

First Farmers March 25 from 1 to 4 p.m. Taylor Center of Natural History, 12308 Strawtown Ave., Noblesville Free

Hamilton County Parks and Recreation will partner with the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma for a day of learning about Indiana’s First Farmers. Strawtown Koteewi Park has recovered archaeological evidence of plant domestication and farming that will be available to explore.

Members of the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma will be onsite to discuss historic gardens, planting corn, and other farming practices. Guests are also encouraged to visit with a paleoethnobotanist to learn how plant remains are recovered on archaeological sites. Demonstrations on processing Chenopodium and other previously domesticated plants and clay pot cooking will also take place. Relationships with plants for food, medicine and lifeways will also be explored.

Annual Fish Fry April 1 from 4 to 7:30 p.m. Walnut Grove Community Center 12695 E. 256th St., Cicero $12 for adults, $7 for 12 & under. Activities are free.

White River Township’s annual Dan’s Fish Fry is a great opportunity to have a good meal while learning about the history of White River Township and Walnut Grove schools through displays and artifacts. Outside, there will be a touch-a-truck area with old and new farm equipment, and kids of all ages are welcome as representatives from Strawtown Koteewi Park located nearby and other organizations show off what makes them special.

Metronet debuts multi-gigabit internet service in Noblesville

The REPORTER

Metronet announced last Tuesday that residents and businesses in Noblesville and Northeast Indianapolis are among the first in the state to have access to faster internet with Metronet’s ultra-high-speed multi-gigabit service.

In addition to Metronet’s current offerings of 1 gigabit per second, speeds up to 2 gigabits are now available for residents; businesses may choose speeds up to 10 gigabits. With access to Metronet’s multi-gigabit symmetrical upload and download speeds, customers will experience higher-quality video conferencing, streaming, gaming, and online learning.

The updates to multi-gigabit speeds were made with no disruption to the current Noblesville and Northeast Indianapolis infrastructure. Those interested in upgrading to Metronet’s multi-gigabit speeds may call Customer Care at 1-855-977-4609.

Learn about Earth's origins at Carmel High School Planetarium

The REPORTER

Join the Carmel High School Planetarium Club and learn about the planet's incredible origins with "The Birth of Planet Earth" and Irish actor Richard Dormer.

Scientists now believe that the Milky Way galaxy is filled with solar systems, including up to a billion planets roughly the size of our own. This planetarium show employs advanced, data-driven, cinematic-quality visualizations to explore some of the greatest questions in science today, including:

- How did Earth become a living planet in the wake of our solar system's violent birth?
- What does its history tell us about our chances of finding other worlds that are truly Earth-like?

Come to the Carmel Planetarium to investigate constellations and bright stars of early Autumn. Attendees will explore some of the stars and deep sky objects inside selected constellation boundaries. The planetarium star projector will be used to simulate the night sky locally and then you will be immersed into an environment as if there was no light pollution. After the night sky portion of the show will be the presentation of the new program "The Birth of Planet Earth." This will be a fun and educational journey for the entire family.

The presentation will take place at 7 p.m. on Friday, March 17 in the Carmel High School Planetarium. (Running time: approximately 45 minutes.) Enter through the main entrance of the school on Main Street, walk past the Dale Graham Auditorium, and turn right. Doors will open 30 minutes before show time. No one will be admitted after the program begins. Children aged 12 years and under should be accompanied by an adult.

Tickets are available at tinyurl.com/mw6z9uyd. Tickets for adults are $5 and $3 for children, senior citizens, and CHS students.

Learn more at ccs.k12.in.us/chs/academics/planetarium, or call Planetarium Director Keith Turner at (317) 846-7721 ext. 7446. You can also follow along on Twitter at @CCSPlanetarium.

Two community heroes earn Sheriff's Livesaving Award

A heartfelt congratulations to nurse Heather Lynch upon receiving a Lifesaving Award from Sheriff's Department Captain Josh Carey. Her quick actions were the difference between life and death for an inmate. Thank you as well to Jail Transport Officer Jessica Gipe, who received a Captain's Award for her brave assistance during a motorist's vehicle fire. A job well done! Both of these women went above and beyond to serve the people of Hamilton County.

Carmel Midtown Plaza movies & live music move to new days & times

The REPORTER

Summer at Midtown Plaza is about to get even better in 2023. The City of Carmel and Allied Solutions will double the opportunities to watch weekly movies on the Big Screen, while the weekly outdoor music offering will change from lunch time to dinner time. In addition, a new Midtown Block Party is being planned for May 13.

All the exciting changes will go into effect in May, perfect timing for the community to gather at the Plaza on warm summer days and nights.

"Midtown Plaza was designed to be a public space where people from all over can gather and get to know each other," said Nancy Heck, Director of Community Relations and Economic Development. "Scheduling these special events and regular weekly events give everyone a reason to venture out of their homes and enjoy the beauty of Midtown and the Monon Boulevard."

Here are the details of the event changes:

Carmel Christian Church Pastor Jerry Zehr named Interfaith Ambassador of the Year

The REPORTER

Carmel Christian Church Pastor Jerry Zehr will receive the Interfaith Ambassador of the Year 2023 award from the Center of Interfaith Cooperation at the organization's annual banquet on Sunday, March 19 at the Indiana Ballroom.

The award is given to faith leaders who work hard to bridge the differences among all faiths and cultures in central Indiana. Zehr is the author of The Peacemaker's Path: Multifaceted Reflections to Deepen Your Spirituality, a book he spent years researching before publishing it in 2021.

Zehr was a leader in in-

In a world where anti-Semitism and other faith-based discrimination and hateful actions are seen across the country, Zehr offers a voice of peace as we all try to get along with one another in the great melting pot of central Indiana.

Carmel Mayor Jim Brainard will serve as co-chair of the event, and other community leaders will be there. Between 450 and 500 people are expected to attend.

Hamilton County talent takes over Center Stage in Lebanon

By STU CLAMPITT

Hamilton County has a strong theater community and some of our local talent will be on stage in nearby Boone County this month. Critic's Choice is coming to Center Stage Community Theatre (CSST), 604 Powell St., Lebanon, for three weeks this month starting March 10. Three of the seven-member cast and Director Jan Jamison are from Hamilton County.

According to Jamison, the show is about a Broadway critic who is in his second marriage.

"His first wife was this glamorous Broadway star," Jamison said. "They had a son who is now 12 and lives with his father and the second wife, who is more of a homebody. You can tell he likes that a lot more than being the husband of a star who's never home."

The critic's new wife writes a play, which he hates on first reading. Herein lies the dilemma. Does he go to the opening and write an honest critic, jeopardizing his marriage, or not attend the

Nickel Plate Arts celebrates record success for 10th annual Comic Book in a Day event

The REPORTER

More than 370 people attended the 10th annual Comic Book in a Day event, hosted by Nickel Plate Arts. The event offered the opportunity to create a comic book from scratch in just eight hours with the help of featured artists – including celebrity special guest and legendary comic artist Bob Hall – and staff members.

“I had an absolute blast,” Hall said. “I was astounded by the talent and the passion of all of the contestants, and I was very inspired by the spirit of the event. I am honored that I was able to share some insights and connect with so many fans.”

This year was a record-breaking year; more artists were involved in the challenge than ever before, and more pages of art were created in eight hours than ever before.

“The community really showed up in a big way, and we are thankful for all of the participants, our featured artists, and anyone who came out to watch the challenge and contributed to making the event a success,” Nickel Plate Arts Director Ailithir McGill said. “We are already looking forward to next year’s Comic Book in a Day event.”

The day-long challenge allowed participants to meet other artists and compete for prizes. All artwork created in the challenge will be displayed in an exhibit in Ignite Studio and published in a printed comic book. Winners were announced as part of the awards ceremony that followed the eight-hour challenge, and each participant was recognized as part of the Comic Book in a Day 2023 Recap.

Marissa Deckert named new Fishers Parks Director

The REPORTER

The City of Fishers has announced Marissa Deckert as the new director of Fishers Parks. Formerly the department’s assistant director, Deckert will take over the department’s day-to-day operations and lead major upcoming initiatives including the opening of Geist Waterfront Park this spring, the Geist Half Marathon in September, and the Summer Concert Series at the Nickel Plate District Amphitheater (NPD AMP).

Since joining the Fishers Parks team in 2018, Deckert has helped to spearhead the launch of new parks spaces, including the Fishers AgriPark and Fishers Maker Playground at Hub & Spoke. Deckert led the launch of a new concert series at the NPD AMP in 2022, which featured national acts like The Avett Brothers, Gov’t Mule, and Houndmouth.

“Marissa has been a key contributor to elevating Fishers Parks over the past few years, transitioning the department from a focus on smaller programming to large-scale community events,” Fishers Mayor Scott Fadness said. “Her expertise in event management and experience in the entertainment industry has allowed us to secure major national acts for the NPD AMP stage and take popular community events such as Spark!Fishers and Glow in the Park to the next level.”

Deckert

During her time at Fishers Parks, Deckert led the charge on training and certifying Fishers Parks as the first sensory inclusive Parks system in Indiana and works closely with the Fishers Advisory Committee on Disability to ensure Parks spaces and programs are accessible to all. She was a guest speaker at the 2019 Indiana Governors Conference on Disability and oversaw the department’s

Once upon a time

Three little kiddies grew up to write books

The REPORTER

Once upon a time, three little kids met in kindergarten and became friends. Years later they found their voices and became authors.

Susan Zinn Crandall, Janet Hart Leonard, and Rex Dillinger graduated from Noblesville High School in 1974.

The three authors came together last Sunday for a book signing at Primeval Brewery, 960 Logan St., Noblesville.

The Hamilton County Reporter checked in with the three classmates to see what they are up to now in their writing journeys.

Crandall has published a dozen books but her Whistling Past the Graveyard made the Southern Indie Booksellers Alliance Best-seller List. She has sold the movie rights for it to make its way to the big screen.

“After spending the better part of the past year on research I am finally penning the first pages of an American historical novel based on a family story passed down from my great-grandmother,” Crandall said. “Genealogy and historical research has expanded this story from my initial plan of relaying a family tragedy on the Tennessee frontier in 1788 to encompassing the American Revolution in North Carolina.”

You can see the wheels turning in her mind as she shares her thoughts. She knows how to tell a story, as her readers will testify.

Dillinger recently moved to the Chicago area to be closer to his grandchildren. His book, A Conscious Choice to Love, was published in January 2023. His reason for writing the fiction book has to do with his own finding of a conscience choice to love.

“Having spent most of my life raising step-kids and enjoying step-grandchildren, I realized that it’s not just blood that binds a family together,” Dillinger said. “I believe it’s love and more specifically, a conscious choice to love. In some ways isn’t that a stronger bond than simple biology?”

His novel covers 50 years and four generations of the Andrews family, the good, the bad, and the ugly. It’s life with its consequences and strong emotions.

“Everyone wants to know how much is biographical and how much is fiction,” Dillinger added with a smile. “That’s for the reader to contemplate and adds a bit of intrigue and mystery to those who know me and my family.”

Leonard has written a newspaper column after being given a dare by a co-worker at Don Hinds Ford where she sold cars. Her column in the Hamilton County Reporter appears in the weekly Monday edition. “My editors are brave men who allow me to share my thoughts and feelings with my readers,” she said.

Leonard has lived on the same street for all her 67 years. As she says ... there is no place like home. Her home is in a 117-year-old little house on the alley. Her book, When the Hart Speaks, tells stories of her ever-so-not-as-planned life. She shares the beauty of finding her faith in the hardest of times. There is both laughter and tears in the words that she shares.

“There might be a few chapters that make you think, ‘hmmm, interesting way to look at life.’” Janet shared that thought and then winked.

Leonard can often be found tucked into a corner at her favorite cafés in Noblesville. She is writing her second book of non-fiction Soft Words for Hard Times. A third book has several chapters written. That one is a fictional novel that takes place in 1989 in the hills of Kentucky. Audrey Grace is a hairdresser who holds a lot of secrets ... when the preacher goes missing. Stay tuned.

Sen. Braun & Gov. Holcomb object to Ohio train derailment toxic waste coming to Indiana

By HANNA MORDOH
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Indiana leaders, including Gov. Eric Holcomb and U.S. Sen. Mike Braun, are opposing the decision to bring toxic waste from the New Palestine, Ohio, train derailment to an Indiana landfill.

Holcomb cited a lack of communication from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency to him and other Indiana officials about the decision to bring the hazardous waste to the state. He said he learned about the plan third-hand and wants the waste to stay in Ohio.

The waste is planned to go to Heritage Environmental Services landfill in Putnam County. That’s three miles east of Russellville, a town of 300 about an hour’s drive west of Indianapolis.

Heritage says 100 trucks filled with 2,000 tons of toxic soil from Ohio will be dumped in its Roachdale landfill. It says the company already follows strict regulations from the federal government. Heritage told I-Team 8’s Kody Fisher that it bid on bringing the material to Indiana because the landfill is qualified to handle the toxic waste.

The company says the toxic materials are going through final testing before being approved to be sent to Indiana. Once at the Indiana landfill, Heritage will keep the waste in a double-lined storage area to prevent any leakage into the local water supply.

Ali Alivi, executive vice president of Heritage Environmental Services, said, “The regulatory level is 6 parts per million that you’re allowed to receive here at the landfill. The material that we’re receiving is coming out at about 0.033 parts per million.”

Landfill manager Eric Chris told I-Team 8 his own family relies on the landfill to keep toxic waste out of their water. “I live within a mile of the landfill. My homesite has a freshwater well, and I have no concerns

Holcomb

Braun

Quotes from Gov. Holcomb & Sen. Braun

“I continue to object to the EPA Administrator’s decision, from Washington, D.C., to move hazardous waste from the East Palestine train derailment to Indiana. Further, there has been a lack of communication with me and other Indiana officials about this decision.”

“After learning third-hand that materials may be transported to our state yesterday, I directed my environmental director to reach out to the agency. The materials should go to the nearest facilities, not moved from the far eastern side of Ohio to the far western side of Indiana. I have made a request to speak to the administrator to discuss this matter. I want to know exactly what precautions will be taken in the transport and disposition of the materials.”

– Gov. Eric Holcomb on Feb. 28, 2023

“I am opposed to the transfer of hazardous materials from the East Palestine train derailment into Indiana. The Biden EPA and Transportation Department have mishandled this disaster from day one. Any material from this disaster being transferred to Indiana overseen by this Biden EPA is seriously concerning. Hoosiers’ safety is my top priority.”

– U.S. Sen. Mike Braun on Feb. 28, 2023

about anything leaching out of the landfill because of how it’s designed, monitored, and upkeep.”

County Commissioner David Berry, who lives in the Russellville area, has no problem with the toxic waste landing in Putnam County. “I was comfortable with that material coming here knowing that it’s going to be handled properly.”

People who live near the landfill said there are mixed feelings about the plan. Jennifer Goss lives less than 10 minutes away from the landfill in Russellville. She said she is not concerned about the material from Ohio coming to her community because of how long the landfill has been around.

“We ain’t grown six legs yet. I mean, really. They must be doing their job. Our water’s not getting contaminated. We get it checked regularly. I think they know what they’re doing with it,” Goss said.

If this material is approved to come to Indiana, Heritage said it will stay there forever.

The old philodendron plant my mom has had for over 37 years.

The old philodendron

What is an heirloom? It depends on whom you ask. Heirlooms hold value, but not always in the monetary way that one may think. The greatest value that may be tied to an heirloom is often the sentimental memories and stories tied to it.

The idea of passing something down through the generations in a family has always struck me. I love the idea of wondering where something came from and the sense of tradition that comes with items that have been handed down through different generations in families.

When I walk through an antique mall, I'm always left to wonder where did these items come from? Who used to use these plates and drank from these glasses? What stories did these items hold and what memories were tied to them for others? I'm also left to wonder, why did someone from the family of these items not keep them? Why did they end up here in the first place? Why didn't someone in the family see value in them?

I've said many times that flowers and nature are deeply tied to my memories, and an old philodendron plant that was in my childhood home for as long as I can remember is no exception. My mom and dad were married when they were 22- and 23-years-old back in 1986. Like many young couples just starting out, they lived in an apartment. One of the first things my mom got was a philodendron plant for their apartment. My mom bought it at a little plant shop with her dad in Nashville, Ind., when my mom first married my dad. This was the first plant my mom ever bought.

I was born just a little over a year later, making this philodendron something that was a fixture in my childhood home. As I write this today, this philodendron plant is over 35 years old.

My mom recently gave me a start from the original plant for me to have in my own home, and it got me thinking about the significance of what our children remember growing up with in their home, what we leave to them, and how nature ties into the idea of being an heirloom in families.

The average person walking by my living room may not think much of this plant, if they even were to notice it at all, but to me this means so much more than the start of an old plant. This is a link to my childhood, a peek into my parents' lives when they were first married, and something that has stood the test of time throughout my life.

This plant has been through a lot with my family. It has been a constant. It has seen many dogs, different houses, Christmas mornings, family dinners, great memories and some sad ones, too. It saw my parents raise two kids, my sister and me, from the time we were taken home from the hospital at birth until we both moved out to get married. It was there when my mom and sister met my now-husband for the first time, and when I brought my little girl and boy to Grandma's house for the first time. It was also there during some really sad days like when we lost my dad.

The philodendron plant that I remember from my childhood will grace my mantle, just as it has my mother's mantle all these years, and one day, it may just end up on my daughter's mantle in her home.

Sure, it just looks like a random houseplant on a mantle for a passerby, but to me it is so much more. It is an heirloom. It is a link to my past. It is a window into my parents' world during their newlywed years. It is a start of something new to have in my own home for my own children to grow up and remember being a constant in their house. I hope the start of this old philodendron that sits on my mantle will also be there to see many days and memories in my own home now. I hope it sees many happy days for my children and they grow up and look back, thinking it sure had been around for a lot of their childhood. What is a start from a plant now will, I hope, be a valuable heirloom someday for them.

Nature is giving us an opportunity to pass down heirlooms to our family. What are you passing down in your family?

Megan Rathz is a wife, mother and teacher. She says everything she has ever learned in life came from her Master Gardener mother.

Sheridan High School
English Teacher

Each March, Sheridan High School students and staff team up to raise money for a great cause. Polar Plunge is an annual event sponsored by Special Olympics Indiana and now includes specific high school days for this fun event.

On Friday, March 3, high school students from all over the state gathered at Eagle Creek Park. Each of these students had raised at least $85 for the opportunity to jump into freezing cold Eagle Creek Reservoir. As of publication, Sheridan's team had raised $5,645 and included 51 participants, one of the biggest teams around.

I love Polar Plunge for so many reasons. The first year we participated, I wasn't sure what to expect: I was so excited when our students ran with it, raised over $7,000, and had a blast on that day. The enthusiasm our Sheridan students have about this event is definitely my favorite part of it. If you know teenagers, they are sometimes difficult to motivate and they don't always get excited about the things we want them to. But, they are excited about this! They love the chance to get out in the cold and do something kind of wild while raising money for such a good cause.

Another reason I love this event is because it brings together a diverse group of students. Sheridan High School is proud of its special education offerings; we do a super job educating all our kids, including those students with special needs. On this day, the team we bring to the park includes kids of all abilities, including some students who do participate in Special Olympics-sponsored sports. The way they work together to be a team is magical.

I also love participating in Polar Plunge because it shows our students, kids who attend a very small school in a small town, that they can make a big impact. We bring one of the biggest teams and we raise a lot of money. Even though we are small, we really bring it on this day to help others.

Finally, I love Polar Plunge for what it offers me personally. Jumping into a cold lake isn't fun in a traditional sense, but it is so very fun when surrounded by excited kids, caring co-workers, and a community of like-minded freezing cold people. It's even more fun because of the first responders who volunteer to make sure everyone stays safe in the water, taking the worries off the teachers and allowing us to have fun with the kids. Being a teacher is great all-around, but heading back to school on the bus, wearing warm, dry clothes, after such a cool event is one of the best teacher days I can imagine.

Doughnut run leaves him Flunkin' Dunkin'

Recently, I had to contend with an epic battle between good and evil: To doughnut or not to doughnut.

Angel: All those calories and sugar—
Devil: A doughnut never hurt anyone.

Angel: Au contraire. April 2017. A man choked to death on a doughnut in Denver.

Devil: That was a half-pound glazed doughnut which he tried to wolf down in 80 seconds as part of an ill-conceived eating challenge.

Angel: I recommend angel food cake. Egg whites. No fat.

Devil: Nope, no bias there. Earth to angel, humans aren't sponge eaters. Besides, Scotty deserves a doughnut.

I hate being called Scotty, but, otherwise, I liked the devil's thinking. Still, the angel had a valid point, for my weight weighs heavily on my mind:

My 32-inch-waist jeans no longer fit, even with stretch-fabric. (Note to editor: The same could be said about my size 33 jeans too. I'm just not ready to talk about it. Delete this parenthetical disclosure before going to press.) (Editor's note: No, Scott. It's publishing in its entirety. Buy stretchier pants or get a smaller waist.)

the privacy of an exam room. Why not put scales in the exam room instead? Given the choice, I'd choose being weighed in the exam room and then go into the hallway for the actual exam (any exam!). Weight is a very personal thing!

Still, I wasn't deterred from driving to Dunkin'.

The devil made me do it. The drive-thru was crowded. Apparently, the whole town deserved a doughnut. The day was a scorcher, could melt chocolate. The angel and devil returned while the car idled.

Angel: You can still back the car out before Brynne poses with TWO hands on your stomach.

I looked down at my belly bulge, frowned. A car pulled up behind me. No longer last in line, I was trapped, feeling as helpless as a peg-legged pirate forced to play hopscotch. I had no choice now but to order a doughnut.

Drive-thru speaker: Thanks for running on Dunkin', what can I get you today?

Me: I'd like a—
A jet-engine-like blast suddenly sounded from the nearest bay of a car wash located less than 10 yards away from the speaker. It blocked out all other sounds. "Boston Kreme," I shouted. I doubted the drive-thru manager heard me. I couldn't even hear myself.

Devil: A yeast shell. Bavarian filling. Chocolate topping. Yum.

Angel: Three hundred calories. Fats. Carbs. That car wash dryer is God speaking—

Devil: Scotty deserves a doughnut.

Too impatient to wait for the car wash dryer to time out, I advanced to the window to repeat my order in person.

I put the doughnut bag on the passenger seat.

Devil: See. I told you. Scotty deserves a doughnut.

Angel: More like Scotty deserves a double bypass.

I pulled the chocolate-topped Boston Kreme beauty from the bag while exiting the parking lot.

When driving under the influence of a doughnut, you have to steer with your left hand at the 10 o'clock position and hold the doughnut with your right hand at the 2 o'clock position (source: National Highway Transportation Safety Administration driver's manual).

At the stoplight, I glanced at the doughnut tilting toward my mouth while held in the 2 o'clock position, but before taking the inaugural bite, I noticed that the doughnut's top was void of chocolate icing. A bald Boston Kreme doughnut is a big buzzkill.

Peeved, I peered into the empty bag to see if the icing had fallen off inside. Instead, I found a big patch of icing on the back of my right hand. It had raced from the doughnut like quick-silver. The 90-degree day immediately softened the icing. The doughnut's tilt while held in the 2 o'clock position prompted the chocolate slide.

There were no napkins in the bag. To avoid further messiness, I removed my left hand from the steering wheel and attempted to coax the icing back onto the doughnut, but this only resulted in my left hand's forefinger becoming entirely enveloped by melted chocolate. It looked the finger of some rambunctious kid at a Golden Corral chocolate fountain.

There was chocolate on my right hand. There was chocolate on my left hand. Looking into the rearview mirror, I saw a smudge of chocolate on the bridge of my nose. Clearly, I was flunkin' Dunkin'.

I returned the doughnut to the bag and dropped it to the floor-mat. I was done with doughnuts. I pondered using the nearby car wash to clean myself.

The stoplight turned green. Hoping to avoid getting chocolate on the steering wheel, I raised both messy hands surrender-like, unsure how to steer home. I needed a quick solution before cars honked. I looked down at my stomach to see if it could hold the car steady, but, alas, my gut was not expansive enough (yet!) to reach the steering wheel. It felt good knowing my stomach wasn't driving-sized yet. I needed a reward. I reached for the bag on the floor-mat.

The devil was right. Scotty deserved a doughnut.

Carmel celebrating Disability Awareness Month

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel is observing National Disability Awareness Month in March and will be part of several special events. Mayor Jim Brainard signed a proclamation recognizing the month for Carmel and you can see how that all came together in a powerful new video that you can watch by going to tinyurl.com/bdcwd9td.

Kicking things off is a virtual art exhibit produced by Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation in partnership with the Carmel Arts Council featuring local artists of all ages and disabilities. The art is featured at CarmelArtsCouncil.org and will continue to be shared on social media throughout the month. Select works are also being displayed on the Midtown Plaza video screen.

OneZone is hosting a special breakfast March 2 at Hotel Carmichael with the theme of March Disability Awareness: Finding Your Next Great Hire. In addition, there will be a Transition Fair from 6 to 7 p.m. on March 23 at Carmel High School, 520 E. Main St. to help connect people with local agencies and services that are available to help families.

These events and the video were made possible with the help of members of the Carmel Advisory Committee on Disability (CACD) and others who live and work in Carmel.

The CACD was established in December 2019 for the purpose of fostering a culture of inclusivity within the City of Carmel. This Committee represents the diverse needs and interests of disabled people, provides comment on the city's current services, policies and practices and provides informed input on the development and assessment of future city projects and services that impact people with disabilities.

The Committee also works with local employers encouraging them to hire more people with disabilities and helping create positive social activities to enrich the lives of people with disabilities, their families and caregivers.

to make a greater impact through community connectedness, our spectacular spaces, and the richness and diversity of events."

Born and raised in southern California, Deckert moved to Indiana in 2018 after spending three years in the Pacific Northwest. Deckert started her career in recreational programming for youth and later moved into venue management. She spent 10 years with the Anaheim Ducks and oversaw event operations for the Honda Center venue.

In 2015, Deckert accepted a role as Senior Director of Security and Guest Experience for the Rose Quarter Sports and Entertainment district in Portland, Ore. For the next three years she advanced security operations with the Portland Trail Blazers and led efforts to become the first sensory inclusive venue on the West Coast. She has been an integral part of thousands of successful events including presidential campaign rallies; major touring acts; NBA, NHL, WHL games and playoffs; and large community events and festivals. Deckert also hosted the Stanley Cup Finals in 2007 and is proud to have a Stanley Cup championship ring. Deckert is a Fishers resident, mom of two, and grandmother. She is PTO Board president at HSE Schools and active in the community. In her free time, she enjoys riding bikes with her family along the Nickel Plate Trail, yoga, reading, concerts at the NPD AMP, and spending Saturday mornings at the Fishers Farmers Market.

Indiana Repertory Theatre's excellent production of 'Oedipus' proves as powerful as ever on stage

This week brings the latest offering in Indiana Repertory Theatre's 50th Season. In recent seasons (and including the company's next offering), IRT has introduced its audiences to numerous new works. This month, Artistic Director Janet Allen takes us back to the beginning.

Literally. Sophocles wrote Oedipus in or about 429 B.C. Sometimes referred to as Oedipus the King or Oedipus Tyrannus, the play has been referenced throughout all Western history, starting with Aristotle and continuing to this day.

The story of Oedipus would have been well known to Greeks who saw Sophocles' telling of the tale. A beloved king who saved the city of Thebes from the wrath of the Sphinx by answering her riddle, Oedipus is called upon again as a plague has befallen the city. In his zealous quest to save Thebes, Oedipus repeatedly ignores warnings to leave his own past buried. Sure of his own righteousness, Oedipus' own fate cannot be avoided. The audience in 429 B.C. knew what was coming. Most of the 2023 audience does too. That knowledge does not lessen the impact of the story onstage.

A simple and beautifully striking set, designed by Carey Wong, transports the audience to an age of gods. Oracles, Seers, and the indestructible effects of Fate. James Still's sharp and insightful direction propels the story. He has assembled a remarkable team of actors and designers. Sara Ryung Clement's costumes are beautiful and functional. Michelle Habbeck's lighting is evocative of the place. Most dramatically, Lindsay Jones' music and sound are all encompassing, but perfectly balanced with the actors on stage. Actor/musician Jed Feder moves between speaking as part of the Chorus and playing percussion at an array of instruments located on a corner of the stage. Reinforcing moods and moments, Feder is impressive and indispensable. Finally, Mariel Greenlee provides the cast with their minimal but striking movement direction.

As the title king, David Alan Anderson returns to the IRT in triumph. Whether buoyed by certainty or wracked by his realization of the truth, Anderson's performance is magnificent. The cast's eight other performers make up the Chorus and other characters of Thebes. Trieu Tran, Jan Lucas, Sola Thompson, Jed Feder, Olivia D. Dawson, Lisa Wolpe, Ryan Artzberger, and Mary Beth Fisher all flow beautifully between roles as citizens, shepherds, Queens, and one very distressed Seer. All are exceptional, with Wolpe's Tiresias a standout.

If you have vague memories of Greek Choruses speaking in monotonous, adapter David Daniel has anticipated your concerns and created a flow that pulls the audience into the story in a vital way. This is immediate and heart pounding storytelling. There is not a moment that feels dusty or academic.

Bottom line – Do not miss a chance to see this excellent production of one of the foundational pieces of all theatrical history. This is no museum piece and is as powerful as anything ever written for a stage.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF TAX RATE FOR FIRE CUMULATIVE CAPITAL FUND

To the Taxpayers of the City of Noblesville, Hamilton County, State of Indiana: You are hereby notified that on February 28, 2023, the Common Council of the City of Noblesville, Hamilton County, Indiana, held a public hearing after publication of notice pursuant to law, concerning Ordinance No. 03-02-23, ("the Ordinance"). The Ordinance was approved and reestablished a Fire Cumulative Capital Fund, ("the Fund") and a tax rate to generate money for the Fund, all pursuant to Indiana Code 6-1.1-41.

The Ordinance provides that the money in the Fund may be used for all purposes for which property taxes may be imposed by the City under Indiana Code 36-8-14.

The Fund will be funded by a property tax rate not to exceed $0.0333 on each $100 of taxable real and personal property within the City of Noblesville, Hamilton County, Indiana, beginning in 2023, payable in 2024, and each year thereafter, until reduced or rescinded.

Ten (10) or more taxpayers in the taxing district who will be affected by the tax rate and corresponding levy may file a petition with the Hamilton County Auditor, not later than noon thirty (30) days after the publication of this Notice of Adoption, setting forth their objections to the proposed rate and levy. Upon the filing of the petition, the County Auditor shall immediately certify the same to the Department of Local Government Finance, at which point the department will fix a date for and conduct a public hearing on the proposed rate and levy before issuing its approval or disapproval thereof.

Dated this 1st day of March, 2023.

City Releases Combined Sewer Overflow (CSO) Information

The City of Noblesville is a Combined Sewer Community, which means that some of the sewers in the older part of the City transport both storm and sanitary wastewater to the treatment plant. During rain events, the capacity of the lines transporting this liquid to the treatment plant may be exceeded. Overflow points exist to allow the system to relieve the excess flow to a receiving stream. This discharge into a receiving stream is a combination of the storm and sanitary flow.

The Utility has placed signs at each of the eight (8) outfall structures where the combined waste flow is discharged to a receiving stream. It is important that when you see water coming out of these structures, you stay out of the water. There is a risk of becoming sick if you come into contact with this water.

The probability of the combined sewer system having an overflow from one of our eight (8) outfall structures is high during a 0.25 inch rainfall within a 15 minute period. It is advisable that you do not wade in the streams during these times. If you have any questions or would like to be notified about CSO events, please contact Noblesville Utilities at cso_notification@noblesville.in.us or at (317) 776-6353 ext. 3106.

Public Hearing Notice

Indiana Joint Replacement Institute Ambulatory Surgery Center & Medical Center

IJRI is excited to announce their planning of a new outpatient surgery center and orthopedic clinic. The new 39,500 square foot building will be two stories with the first floor dedicated to providing total joint orthopedic surgery. The second floor will be home to an orthopedic clinic, a physical therapy gym, and a conference center. The estimated construction cost for the project is $37 million. The project will initially include four operating rooms and the associated patient services. First floor expansion space has been planned for the addition of two more OR's as IJRI continues to expand healthcare offerings to serve the community needs.

Due to the project's size, by Indiana Law, the ASC's license requires that Indiana Joint Replacement Institute holds two public hearings to announce the new project. The public hearing is for all interested parties to attend to learn more about the new center.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

CHA Consulting, Inc., acting on behalf of the City of Noblesville and in partnership with American Structurepoint, will convene a public information meeting on Thursday, March 23, 2023, from 5:30-7:30 p.m. at Noblesville City Hall, 16 South 10th Street, Noblesville, IN 46060. The purpose of the public information meeting is to offer all interested persons an opportunity to review and comment on the Noblesville Pleasant Street corridor project. The purpose of the project is to provide a 20% volume reduction of S.R. 32 downtown Noblesville traffic. The Pleasant Street corridor will connect S.R. 37 to S.R. 32 across the White River. As the project has received State of Indiana funding, an environmental study for a reasonable range of alternatives is required by 329-IAC-5-1-4.

A brief presentation will be made at the beginning of the meeting. The presentation will be followed by an opportunity to view exhibits and materials. Representatives from the project team will be spaced appropriately around the conference room at individual tables and exhibits. Meeting information will also be made available on the project website (www.reimaginepleasantst.com), viewed at City Hall, or mailed upon request.

With advance notice, the City of Noblesville can provide special accommodation for persons with differing abilities, limited English speaking ability, and/or persons needing auxiliary aids or services such as interpreters, signers, readers, or large print. Should special accommodation be needed please contact Summer Elmore, Principal Scientist, CHA Consulting, Inc. at (317) 780-7182, or email selmore@chacompanies.com by March 21, 2023.

Strong women leaders

The REPORTER

March is Women's History Month in the U.S. – a milestone that has been recognized by Presidents and Congress since 1980. The theme for 2023 is "Celebrating Women Who Tell Our Stories."

March also is a big month for Ivy Tech Community College and the women who lead it. Ivy Tech will celebrate its 60th anniversary on March 15. With 19 campuses and around 150,000 students, Ivy Tech is the largest community college in Indiana and the largest singly accredited community college in the country. Ivy Tech contributes nearly $4 billion annually to Indiana's economy and is making an impact in communities across the state.

One woman leader, Dr. Stacy Atkinson, Ph.D., was named Chancellor of the Ivy Tech Hamilton County campus in 2021. Previously, she had served in other positions at Ivy Tech including leadership roles as Chancellor and Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs on the Richmond campus.

Whether it's opening the newly formed Hamilton County campus in 2021, launching a new nursing school earlier this year or building community and corporate partnerships, Atkinson and her team are focused on strengthening the current and future workforce of Indiana.

Trevor Joseph Hartfield

d. Feb. 14, 2023

Trevor Joseph Hartfield, 31, St. Petersburg, Fla., formerly of Arcadia, passed away on February 14, 2023, with his family and friends by his side.

Trevor chose to be an organ donor, so he is a true HERO. He will live on and bless so many others with the gift of life. Trevor was a ray of light and brought so much joy and laughter to anyone he encountered. He had a sweetness about him that was infectious and left a special unforgettable mark with so many. He also had a very serious side when not being his goofy self. If you needed him, he was always there.

He enjoyed all sports; Florida Gators football was his passion. He recently took up biking, loved taking his dog Percy to the beach and eating out with family and friends. Gaming with his buddies was also a favorite pastime. Trevor was a huge Dave Matthews fan and always looked forward to attending his concert each year. Although he didn't have a church home, he loved the Lord, had faith, and accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior.

Trevor is survived by his parents, Paul Hartfield of St. Pete, Fla., and Christine (stepdad Charles) Moore of Sheridan; paternal grandmother, Joann Bitterman of Wisconsin; maternal grandmother, Patricia Ogden of Indiana; and step-grandparents, Vernard (Vicky) Moore of Indiana. Trevor was the youngest of two children. He loved his older sister whole-heartedly and loved to play jokes on her expressing his love for her. He leaves behind his sister, Jessica (Nicholas) Wise of Indiana; stepbrothers, Eric (Abby) Moore and Brandon Moore; nephews, Hunter and Gavin; and niece, Faylinn Moore; and his dog Percy, which was the love of his life. He also leaves behind his Uncle Gregory (Kimberly) Hartfield, Jeffrey (Brenda) Hartfield, Aunt Sharon (Robert) Ockerlund, Uncle Kenny (Pam) Majors, Curt Majors, Dennis Majors, and Aunt Amy (Andy) Tess; along with many loving great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins and a host of friends.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Richard Hartfield; step-grandfather, Fred Bitterman; maternal grandparents, Kenneth (Elizabeth) Majors; and step-grandfather, John Ogden.

A celebration of life will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 11, with the memorial service immediately following at Arcadia Christian Church, 26901 State Road 19, Arcadia.

Baptized by coffee in the farmlands of home

I've been baptized again in the farmlands that remind me of home, and that's just one of the unique aspects Wheeler's Cafe and Market has to offer. If you're like me and grew up on a farm, this coffee shop will have a permanent place in your back pocket.

Four and a half years ago, being dubbed as a coffee shop in the "middle of nowhere," Wheeler's Cafe and Market found firm footing in the roots of the rural land. Located at 25625 State Road 37 North in Noblesville, Neal and Angie, operators of Wheeler's Cafe and Market, strive to make it worth the trip away from the city. They decided to serve specialty coffee drinks as well as a food menu because "not everyone drinks coffee, but everyone eats food."

Neal and Angie both agreed that "our menu has an upscale feel since our ingredients are sourced locally. We decided to have a market as well so the community doesn't need to drive out of town for local fresh produce. We wanted our menu to feel like we are feeding our own family, so we make sure the quality is at its finest."

They also offer gluten-free and vegan options as well to accommodate all taste buds. No matter what, you'll always also be served a side of a bad dad joke provided by Neal himself. "If you don't come in smiling, we'll make sure you're smiling by the time you leave."

I can certainly attest to the high-end quality of the turkey sandwich I had, but I'm here to focus more on the coffee. I ordered a hot Noble

Jones, named after Charles Jones, who was the first Black police officer in Noblesville. The two flavors that make up this latte are chocolate and the surprising flavor, blackberry. I quite enjoyed the touch of blackberry as it's a different flavor than what I usually order. Neal's favorite coffee order is the Maple Lapel, his own invention and also a menu favorite for locals. "The maple syrup is tapped from maple trees in Lapel and the sea salt caramel can help turn down the bitterness of the coffee." If you're going to order a food item, he recommends the Spicy Piggy. Angie's favorite menu item is ... all the menu. "If I didn't like it, it wouldn't be on the menu" she laughed.

The atmosphere inside the coffee shop has a rustic farm feel, fitting to where they are located. The black siding, rustic wood tables, and long bench to sit on feels like you're joining the Walton's for a family dinner. There is plenty of seating indoors as well as outdoors and plenty of outlets for your technological charging needs. If sitting and sipping on coffee isn't for you, you can head on through the door that connects Wheeler's Cafe and Market to Mercantile 37 and you can shop around.

When I walked in the door of Wheeler's Cafe and Market, I was a stranger. When I walked out, I felt like a family member. That's just part of the warmth one can feel when visiting. Speaking of warmth, operators Neal and Angie hit the nail on the head with what it means to be a part of a caring community.

"The community is the reason why we made it through COVID. They didn't want to see us go under and they really started coming here rather than going to town for different items," they said.

Wheeler's gives back to the community by being a part of the Mission Discovery group through HBM Special Services Co-Op. This group helps students in the local school districts by teaching various vocational skills within the community. While I was there, a student was helping Angie and Neal put together to-go boxes.

"By being a locally run coffee shop, we can do things like this and we can give back to the community," both Angie and Neal said.

They told me about various students from this program that have come and gone over the years and I could tell that giving back to the community in this way is something meaningful to them.

If you're ever headed north on State Road 37 anytime soon and find yourself needing to make a pit stop for coffee and a sandwich, Wheeler's Cafe and Market will welcome you inside with arms wide open.

To learn more about the menu and hours of operation, check them out on the web at mercantile37.com/wheelersmarket.

Carmel Clay Parks & Purdue University seek public input on city's proposed Chinese Garden

The REPORTER

Carmel Clay Parks & Recreation (CCPR) in partnership with Purdue University Professor of Landscape Architecture Dr. Huang invites the public to provide feedback regarding a future Chinese Garden.

The Chinese Garden honors the Carmel-Xiangyang Sister City initiative, which was created in 2012 to promote educational and cultural exchange between the city of Carmel and the city of Xiangyang, China. CCPR has partnered with Dr. Huang and Purdue University students in the landscape architecture program, including a Carmel High School graduate, to develop plans for a Chinese Garden. CCPR is working in collaboration with Carmel Clay Schools on the possible location of the proposed Chinese Garden.

- Online: Participate in an online survey to provide feedback on plants, garden styles, and other landscape elements for the Chinese Garden. The online survey is available now and will remain open through Sunday, March 26. Take the survey at tinyurl.com/ye24xnry.

The Noblesville boys basketball team won its first sectional championship since 2010 last Saturday at Carmel's Eric Clark Activity Center. The Millers beat Zionsville 58-50, holding off an Eagles comeback to claim the team's 23rd sectional title.

Millers back in winners' circle

Noblesville holds off Eagles for first sectional championship since 2010

By RICHIE HALL

CARMEL – Noblesville senior Luke Almodovar admitted something after the Millers won their first boys basketball sectional championship in 13 years last Saturday night: He was doing it on no sleep.

“I tried to take a nap today and it didn’t work,” he said. “I was just too excited.”

All that excitement and emotion came out on the floor of the Eric Clark Activity Center in Carmel – not just for Almodovar, but for all the Noblesville players, coaches and fans. The Millers claimed their first sectional title since 2010 by holding off Zionsville 58-50 in front of a packed crowd.

Noblesville played a brilliant first half, leading by 18 points at halftime. The Millers then held firm when the Eagles made their furious, and expected, comeback in the second half, and were soon winners of the team’s 23rd sectional title in program history.

“I’ve grown up here my whole life,” said Almodovar. “Played basketball here my whole life. It couldn’t mean more to me. I love this city so much. I love this community. I’m really glad that I got to bring them the sectional because it hasn’t happened in so long.”

“I’m just so excited for our guys, our program,” said Noblesville coach Scott McClelland. “You just look out here and see the smiles on the faces. Moms and dads and our kids.”

Young Noblesville fans were cheering the Millers on to victory.

The Millers only trailed once in the entire game. Hunter Walston began the game with a layin, then Zionsville’s Jackson Tielker hit a 3-pointer to put the Eagles up 3-2. But Almodovar answered that with a dunk, and Noblesville stayed out in front after that.

A key early play came from Aiden Brewer. The sophomore made a steal under Zionsville’s basket, and the ball eventually wound up in the hands of Cooper Bean, who made a 3.

“My role is whatever the coaches give me and my teammates need,” said

Brewer. “I’ll do whatever they ask me. I’ll do whatever the coaches ask me.”

“I thought Aiden Brewer really played hard tonight, all night,” said McClelland. “Some of this stuff’s not going to show up in the box-scores, but he really showed his true toughness tonight.”

Noblesville led 16-12 at the end of the first quarter, with Almodovar contributing nine of those points. The Millers then dominated the second period, outscoring Zionsville 18-4 for a 34-16 halftime lead. Almodovar kept rolling with eight points, including two triples. Bean drained two more 3s towards the end of the period, including a buzzer-beater.

Noblesville’s defense held Logan Imes, the Eagles’ Penn State-bound star, to six points in the first half. Imes made up for that in the third quarter, scoring in the first five points of the second half. Almodovar made another 3 and Aaron Fine scored on a layin, and the Millers were back up 39-21. Those 18-point leads were the biggest of the game.

Zionsville continued to chip away in the second half of the quarter, getting within 42-31 by the end of the period. Noblesville led 45-34 with 6:12 left, but the Eagles blasted back, scoring 10 unanswered points to get within 45-44. Imes and Tielker finished that run with 3s.

“Zionsville sped us up, got us in some traps, pressed us a little bit,” said McClelland.

“That run in the fourth quarter, I’m not going to lie: It had me scared a little bit,” said Brewer, something Almodovar said as well. “It had me scared. But we’re put in disadvantages in practice all the time.” Because of that, Brewer said the team is “ready for it.”

Trailblazers fall to Park Tudor in sectional matchup

The REPORTER

University’s attempt to repeat as Sectional 43 champions came to a heartbreaking end last Saturday night when Park Tudor’s Jermaine Coleman hit a buzzer beating three pointer to give the Panthers a 40-37 win over the Trailblazers.

University rallied from a 33-26 deficit early in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 35 with 1:42 left. Coleman put Park Tudor ahead 37-35 when he drove the lane and his five-footer hit the front of the rim and crawled in.

University battled back and Sabien Cain drove for a layin that knotted the score at 37. Cain had all 11 Trailblazer points in the fourth quarter.

Park Tudor jumped out to an early 7-2 lead before University went on a 19-4 run over the next 10 minutes to take a 21-11 win with two minutes left in the half. Thomas Ruffin hit the last two baskets of the first half to get Park Tudor within 21-15 at the break.

The team traded baskets early in the third quarter and University led 26-22 with 2:45 left when Bryce Gray scored a driving bucket. The Panthers ran off the next 11 points to take their largest lead at 33-26 in the fourth.

Cain finished with a game-high 22 points with Gray adding 10 points. Coleman and Bryce Petty led Park Tudor with 13 points each.

Park Tudor improves to 16-8 and advances to the Greenfield-Central regional to take on Secцина.

University ends the season with a school record 22 wins against 3 losses. The Blazers won their sixth consecutive PAAC championship.

Heights’ season ends at sectional semi-final

The REPORTER

Hamilton Heights’ season came to an end Friday in the semi-finals of Class 3A Sectional 27 at New Castle.

The Huskies lost to Delta 61-42. The Eagles jumped out to a 16-7 lead after one quarter, then expanded their advantage to 33-15 by halftime. Heights played even with Delta in the second half, but the Eagles were able to keep their lead at a comfortable margin.

John Irion had 14 points for the Huskies, while Tillman Etchison added 13 points.

Heights finished its season with an 8-15 record.

Gymnastics Shamrocks compete in first-ever regional

The REPORTER

The Westfield gymnastics team competed in its first-ever regional last Saturday at Valparaiso.

The Shamrocks finished sixth, but did top the century mark, with a score of 100.25 points. Senior Molly Moskovitz placed 12th in the all-around with a score of 34.75, while junior Elianna Reynolds was 17th, totaling 33.30 points.

Westfield’s best scores came in the floor exercise, with 25.95 points. Moskovitz finished 13th in that event, scoring 9.25 points.

She also placed 12th on the balance beam, posting an 8.975.

The Millers needed a big basket, and they got one from Almodovar with 2:28 left: He made a layin while getting fouled, and made it a three-point play by draining the free throw. Imes made two foul shots to cut Noblesville’s advantage to 48-46, but there seemed to be a momentum shift.

Indeed, the Millers finished the game with a 10-4 run. Walston nailed a triple, then Imes hit a jumper, and Noblesville led 51-48 with 1:08 left. The Millers finished the game from the free-throw line, making 7 of 8 during the final 68 seconds.

“You can’t win a game without sealing it with free throws,” said Almodovar.

Fine was 5 of 6 from the line during that stretch, and freshman Justin Curry added two more.

“He just continues to get better and better and his composure is tough,” said McClelland of Curry. “His defense is terrific.”

Almodovar finished the game with 23 points, followed by Bean with 11 and Walston with 10. Fine scored nine points and Curry had five points, going 5 of 5 from the free-throw line. Imes scored 24 points for Zionsville.

The Millers are 19-6 and advance to the Logansport regional on Saturday. Noblesville will play Fort Wayne Wayne for the Regional 3 championship. The Generals won the Columbia City sectional last Saturday over Homestead 55-53 on a buzzer-beater, claiming their first sectional title since 1994.

Golden Eagles unfazed by “rain delay,” come back to win sectional semi-final

The REPORTER

Guerin Catholic was on its way to the Class 3A Sectional 24 championship game at Shortridge last Friday night, when the weather intervened.

A leak in the Shortridge gym with 3:12 left in the fourth quarter forced the game to be halted. The Golden Eagles were leading Brebeuf Jesuit 44-34 at that point in time. Eventually, the game was called and finished the next day (last Saturday).

Guerin Catholic led 11-7 in the first quarter and held off a Braves comeback in the second period, leading 19-18 at halftime. The Golden Eagles held a 32-29 advantage after three quarters and were running away with the fourth before the contest was stopped.

When the game resumed, Guerin Catholic took care of business quickly, winning 58-45. Kamea Chandler the game with 15 points, followed by Dylan Murans with 11 and Robert Sorensen with 10. Also scoring were Lucas Parker (nine points), Jack Cherry (six), Bryson Cardinal (five) and Ty Sanders (two). Cardinal collected eight rebounds and Sanders grabbed five. Chandler dished out seven assists.

How Noblesville/Zionsville sectional matchup came to be

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

CARMEL – Noblesville was down 12 points in the third quarter against defending Sectional 8 champion Westfield in last Friday’s first semi-final at the Eric Clark Activity Center. But Noblesville rallied with a big second half, and that got the Millers past the Shamrocks 47-45.

In the other semi-final, Zionsville also made a second-half comeback to beat Fishers 59-53.

Fine on the Line

The Millers trailed Westfield for the first 28 minutes of the game. Not until Aaron Fine made a three-point play with 3:49 left in the fourth quarter did Noblesville hold a lead. Fine’s and-1 got the Millers ahead 41-40, and while they never trailed again, they had to fight off Westfield during those last few minutes.

Alex Romack tied the game at 41-41 with a free throw. Noblesville got the next two baskets, with Hunter Walston scoring on a putback, then Luke Almodovar made a layin to give the Millers a 45-41 lead.

The ‘Rocks came back again, with Durante Morton getting his own putback and Trey Buchanan hitting two foul shots. But Fine went to the line with 33.4 seconds left, and he drained two more free throws for the winning points. Almodovar made a steal during the closing seconds to seal the game.

Noblesville coach Scott McClelland said that during halftime, the message was “We’re not doing our job on the ball. We missed some bunnies. We didn’t have any transition baskets.” Another topic was character.

“They’re challenging your character,” said McClelland. “Who are you? I thought our kids really rose to the challenge.”

Westfield controlled the tempo of the first half, leading 11-4 after one quarter of play. Sam Bishop scored the game’s first points on a three-point play at the 6:18 mark, then was mostly responsible for a 6-0 run to put the ‘Rocks up 9-2, scoring four points on layins. Romack finished the quarter with a buzzer-beating layin.

Fine started the second quarter with the first of his two 3-pointers during the period, cutting the lead to 11-7. But Morton pushed the lead back up to 14-7 with a layin and a free throw seconds later. The Shamrocks were able to keep their lead between five and nine points for the remainder of the period and led 27-18 at halftime.

Another triple from Bishop gave Westfield a 30-18 lead to open up the third period. Almodovar made a layin, but Morton answered that with a layin, and the ‘Rocks were up by 12 again, 32-20.

The Millers took over after that, using a 13-2 run to lead 34-33. That stretch took up the remainder of the third period and included the first basket of the fourth quarter: Almodovar with another layin. Almodovar scored seven points of that run, with Cooper Bean hitting a 3, Aaron Fine making a floater and Aiden Brewer adding a free throw.

Noblesville was within 34-33 at that point. Bishop and Morton both scored to push Westfield ahead 38-33, but Almodovar tied the game with an and-1, then a dunk. Romack’s two free throws gave the Shamrocks a 40-38 lead, then Fine made his three-point play.

“Every possession matters in a game like that,” said McClelland. “Really proud of our kids and their resiliency to bounce back here in the second half.”

Young players, huge spark

Almodovar finished with 19 points and Fine scored 15. While both those players had great games, McClelland also gave credit to two young players who were competing in a sectional for the first time: Sophomore T.J. Davidson and freshman Justin Curry.

“I thought they were just outstanding, provided a huge spark,” said McClelland. “We had to change a little bit in our lineup, go a little bit smaller. I thought those two kids really came in and played with great energy, made some great hustle and defensive plays.”

Bishop scored 17 points for Westfield, which finished its season 16-8.

“We played a very good basketball game and I’m really proud of our guys,” said Shamrocks coach Shane Sumpter. “A lot of people had Westfield as a rebuild year, and we had other plans. We won 16 games and got to a sectional semi-final and had some great wins along the way.”

In the second game, Zionsville jumped out to a 12-6 lead in the first quarter. Logan Imes, the Eagles’ Penn State recruit, scored seven of those points. But the Tigers came back and grabbed the lead at the end of the period, as Jalen Haralson drained a 3 to give Fishers a 16-14 lead going into the second period. Haralson scored nine in the first quarter, while JonAnthony Hall added five points.

The Tigers stayed in front for the next two periods, leading 36-30 at halftime. Keenan Garner took over in the second quarter, nailing two triples and making an and-1 for 13 points in the period. Taden Metzger helped out with a 3-pointer.

Fishers led by nine points on three different occasions, including a 46-37 advantage with 2:03 left in the third quarter, this after Garner drained two more free throws. But Imes went on a personal 12-0 run that lasted into the fourth quarter, turning that nine-point deficit into a 49-46 Eagles lead with 4:47 left in the game.

Aidan Zimmer tied the game with a 3-pointer, but a basket from Jackson Tielker gave Zionsville a 51-49 lead, and the Eagles never trailed again. Imes finished the game with two free throws with 14.5 seconds left; he led all scorers with 33 points.

“It’s one of those performances where you’re going to second-guess yourself constantly at what could we have done different to get the ball out of his hands,” said Fishers coach Garrett Winegar. “But at the same time he made a lot of really good plays.”

Garner scored 18 points for the Tigers, while Haralson added 17 points. Fishers finished its season 14-12.

“I think the last month of the season we really saw what the team could be,” said Winegar. The coach pointed out that the Tigers won six of their last eight regular-season games.

“You saw that toward the end of the year, the potential that this group has,” said Winegar. “And now it’s just about continuing to work and sticking together.”

Faith, not luck: Shamrocks beat Carmel at sectional quarterfinal

By RICHARD TORRES
For The Reporter

CARMEL – Counted out long before the opening tip last Tuesday night, the defending sectional champion Westfield Shamrocks never lost faith.

Even with their star junior guard, Trey Buchanan, hobbled by a high ankle sprain leading up to and during the Class 4A Sectional 8 quarterfinals against host 12th-ranked Carmel, the Shamrocks still believed.

Despite the loss of eight seniors from last year's first-ever sectional title roster, the Shamrocks knew what was possible. Not even a 12-point second half deficit, nor a nine-point Carmel lead to start the fourth quarter inside the Eric Clark Activity Center could sway the Shamrocks' confidence.

"The entire week, we said, 'Hey, no one is picking us to win. Let's play loose. Let's play free. Let's give ourselves a chance in the fourth quarter to win it,'" Westfield head coach Shane Sumpter said.

"That's all we were saying, and at halftime, we stayed with that theme. What do we mean by that? Well, a five-point game with four or five minutes to go. That's really what we had. When we got it to that point, I felt really good."

By game's end, the Shamrocks rejoiced inside their locker room after surviving three ties, three lead changes and a frenzied final eight minutes to topple the Greyhounds, 43-40.

Down 33-24 entering the fourth quarter, the Shamrocks utilized their past to pave their future and seized their opportunity in the present behind clutch performances by senior Alex Romack, Buchanan and junior Seth LaRavia.

Learning how to win in 2021-22, the Shamrocks (16-7) proved they still can, taking their first lead since the night's opening 30 seconds, 35-33, with a bucket from Romack in the post and 4:05 remaining.

A 3-pointer by Buchanan with 2:06 left tied up the score 38-all before LaRavia's second of two 3-pointers in the fourth put the Shamrocks ahead 41-40.

Buchanan, who was visibly hindered by his injury, sealed the victory from 15 feet, burying a pair of foul shots with 15.8 ticks on the clock and the Greyhounds playing without their star, senior Samuel Orme, who fouled out to send Westfield to the line.

Buchanan sprained his ankle last week, and the sharpshooting guard had been sidelined until Monday night, as he struggled to recover in time to play against Carmel (15-8).

"He turned it the game after the Franklin (Central) game, so the very first practice, high ankle sprain, and the very first time he did anything yesterday for 10 minutes, and he was still a game-time decision," Sumpter said. "He was in tears in here at halftime. And what do you know? He hits a three and two big free throws. Just a gutsy performance."

His only other bucket came in the second quarter following an 8-2 run by Carmel to put the Greyhounds up 19-9. Carmel ran out to an 11-4 lead in the first quarter, following a short-lived Westfield 2-0 lead, but the Shamrocks began chipping away at their 23-13 halftime deficit in the third.

A 9-2 run by the Shamrocks cut the margin to 27-22, but Carmel charged back to make it 33-24, leading to a frantic flurry in the fourth.

"I just knew we had to come out with a fire, like a higher level of intensity from the rest of the game. We didn't have time to mess around anymore," Romack said. "Just had to get it done."

"A lot of people probably didn't have us winning this game, and I think that chip on our shoulder, we just wanted to prove that we're still good. We're still here. You can't count us out."

Romack, who finished with a game-high 20 points, scored eight of them in the fourth. All eight came during the Shamrocks' 11-0 run in the fourth that positioned them in front 35-33.

"I just think there's a lot of belief in our school now. I think our culture has totally changed. We come into these games, and our guys believe they can win no matter what it says on their jerseys. That's just the fact," Sumpter. "They believe we can win."

An and-1 by Carmel's Jake Griffin pushed Carmel back ahead 36-35 with 3:38 remaining, and a dunk by Orme made it 38-35 a minute later, but then Buchanan stepped up.

"I sprained it last Wednesday, so basically, the week leading up to this game was kind of a me versus me battle, just getting back on the court. Every day was rehab. I got one full practice yesterday, and that was it," Buchanan said. "I didn't even get a full practice. I got 20 minutes of live stuff, and I was thrown out here. Man, credit the trainers for getting me in shape."

Buchanan's 3-pointer for his fifth of his total seven points was met by an Alex Couto bucket for Carmel in the final 1:21 before LaRavia dropped a trey at the 1-minute mark.

"That was obviously a very good basketball team we just beat on their home floor," Sumpter said. "We still had to make the plays, and we made them. Seth LaRavia hit a big-time shot. Alex Romack made some big-time plays in the second half. We got some stops when we needed to, and it really came down to getting a stop there at the end of the game."

Composure was equally as key, stemming from lessons learned last season under the leadership of former standouts Cam Haffner and Braden Smith.

"They obviously left their mark on Westfield, making that run last year it just gave us that much more confidence that we can do it again this year," Buchanan said. "Playing against them every day and getting us better, I was only a sophomore last year, playing against Braden, especially every day, just going at him, it made me a lot better, and it helped me develop those leadership qualities for this year, losing eight seniors. Me and Romack had to kind of step into that role. Their DNA is definitely still in our program."

Their identity bled through in the final seconds, as the Shamrocks forced a turnover and a scoring opportunity on Orme's fifth foul, while defending two failed 3-pointer tries by the Greyhounds in the last 8.9 seconds.

Orme had 13 points for the Greyhounds. Couto posted 11 points, followed by eight from Spencer White.

Charles Farrell added six points for Westfield, along with six from LaRavia off the bench and two points apiece by Durante Morton and Sam Bishop.

"Have the last four or five years changed (us)? Yeah. When you win a Hall of Fame championship. When you win a sectional championship for the first time ever. When you have a Braden Smith, who shows the way, and you have a Cam Haffner. When you have those guys, yeah, it carries," Sumpter said. "I feel really special about what we have going on at Westfield."

"I just wanted to do everything I could to help our team win there. We had to play hard. Everyone played well that fourth quarter. Seth hit some big shots, had a couple of good steals. It was a good team effort, especially in the fourth quarter," Romack said.

Haralson's leadership helps Tigers secure victory over rival Hamilton Southeastern

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

CARMEL – Sectional environments are sometimes not easy for young players.

If a young team is also playing its main rival, that only adds to the nerves. A young Fishers team faced that situation last Tuesday, when the Tigers took on Hamilton Southeastern in the quarterfinals of Class 4A Sectional 8 at Carmel's Eric Clark Activity Center.

But thanks to the leadership and maturity of Jalen Haralson, Fishers made it through. The Tigers used an 18-4 run during the third quarter to break out of a close game with the Royals and eventually win 68-49.

Southeastern led for most of the first quarter before Haralson pushed Fishers ahead 8-7 on a lay-in with 1:38 left in the period. Braeden Totten tied the game with a free throw seconds later, and that 8-8 score is where the first quarter ended.

Free throws from Keenan Garner and Haralson got the Tigers up 12-8. The Royals came back to tie it with baskets from Joe Karwowski and Donovan Hamilton. The back and forth continued throughout the second period, with HSE's Reph Stevenson getting involved; he scored six points in the quarter.

Totten gave the Royals a 25-24 halftime lead with a layin. Hamilton, Karwowski and Stevenson all had seven points for the Royals, while Haralson had 21 points for Fishers at halftime.

"He really carried us in the first half," said Tigers coach Garrett Winegar. "He had 21 of our 25. And then from there on, other guys started stepping up and making plays, and that's when we went on our run."

There was still some back-and-forth early in the third quarter. Karwowski's layin put Southeastern ahead 28-25, but Garner answered that with a three-point play.

The Royals went up 31-

28 after Totten hit a 3-pointer, but that's when Fishers started its run. Taden Metzger got hot, nailing back-to-back triples to put the Tigers up 34-31. They would hold the lead from that point forward.

Winegar said that getting Metzger shots was a big focus. Fishers wanted to have at halftime.

"We had to get him some shots," said Winegar. "We had to find a way to get Taden some shots, so we went to a couple different actions. We just tried to put them in situations where they had to decide between stopping Jalen or stopping Taden."

Haralson maybe didn't score as much in the second half, but Winegar pointed out that the sophomore was sending the ball to his teammates, who finished the plays with baskets. Millen McCartney helped out with a 3, and Metzger drained another triple before the quarter was finished.

"To Jalen's credit, a lot of guys who have 21 in the first half are going to try to keep doing it. He just started making plays. Hitting Taden on the pop, hitting Keenan on the roll. He just made the right basketball play all night, whether that was scoring or passing. It was a heck of a performance."

Fishers led 46-38 going into the fourth quarter, which Metzger opened by hitting his fourth 3 of the game. James Stasey helped out with a pair of baskets, then Haralson added five more points to get his team up 58-44. Parker Perdue's layin got the Tigers up 60-44, and Fishers stayed around that margin until the buzzer. The Tigers' Chris Rhodes came off the bench and made a fourth-quarter dunk, much to the delight of the Fishers crowd.

Haralson said his team used the phrase "return to zero" to get itself focused.

"Get back to zero really means just getting back to yourself," said Haralson. "Getting back to your game, back to how you play."

Haralson played outstanding, with 33 points and six rebounds. Metzger's four 3s translated into 12 points, while Garner dished out four assists.

Hamilton led the Royals with 12 points and four rebounds, with Stevenson and Totten both scoring 11 points. Southeastern finished the season 7-18, but the Royals did have their moments throughout the season.

"It was really good for our younger guys to play a tough schedule like that and get some experience," said Southeastern coach John Ashworth. "We were, I think probably the best seven-win team in the entire state. You look back, most of our games were hard-fought, tough games."

BLAZERS

First-round game

The University boys opened defense of their championship with a 58-30 win over Sheridan in an all-county matchup last Tuesday.

The Trailblazers overwhelmed the Blackhawks in the first half, making 11 three pointers on their way to a 53-15 halftime lead.

Caleb Wright put Sheridan on top early with a three-point basket before University outscored Sheridan 27-4 over the rest of the opening period. Bracey put the Blazers on top for good with a corner three pointer off an assist from Cain with 6:11 left in the period. Bracey scored 11 points in the quarter, making a trio of three pointers.

The University onslaught continued in the second quarter, with the Trailblazers making seven three pointers including four by Gray. University opened up a 44-10 lead with three minutes left in the quarter on an Andre Ozlowski three pointer. The Blazers led by as many as 40 late in the second quarter. Cain had eight second-quarter points.

The second half was played with a running clock and at a rapid pace, with only one clock stoppage. The Blazers substituted liberally in closing out the win.

"I'm proud of my kids' energy to start the game," commented Lafferman. "I thought our defensive pressure helped us get comfortable early. We shot the ball fantastic and it was a total team effort to get our first tournament win. Now we get back to practice and prepare for Cascade."

Four Trailblazers scored in double figures, led by Bracey with 15. Cain had 14, Gray 12 and Ozlowski scored 10. Ozlowski and Seth Hogg each pulled down five rebounds. Bracey had four rebounds and a team-high three steals.

Wright led Sheridan with 14 points with Trent DeCraene also reaching double figures with 10.

Semi-final game

University won its school record 22nd game of the season last Friday night in moving on to the Sectional 43 championship game. The Trailblazers used a 24-2 run over the last three minutes of the second quarter and first five minutes of the third quarter to defeat the host Cascade Cadets 57-32.

University led 17-14 with three minutes remaining in the second quarter before Cain scored the last seven points of the half in a 47 second span. Cain started the run with a three pointer before making a steal and driving for a dunk. After another steal, Cain rebounded a missed Trailblazer shot for the final points of the half and a 24-14 lead at the break.

Cain opened the second half with a three pointer off a set-up by Rob Russell.

Ozlowski scored off a Hogg steal before Russell made two foul shots to cap a 14-0 run. After a Cascade basket, University started a 10-0 streak with Bracey knocking down a three pointer from the left wing.

Ozlowski made two foul shots after making a steal then added a traditional three-point play. Cain added two foul shots for a 41-16 Trailblazer lead with 3:18 left in the third quarter.

Cain led three Trailblazers in double figures with 17 points. Russell had a dozen and Bracey scored 10 points.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:

Hamilton County, Indiana, (the "County") sold, and a Purchaser purchased, the above described tract or item of real property (the "Property") at tax sale held by the County on September 29, 2022. The Property has not been redeemed.

The last date that the Property can be redeemed is prior to the expiration of the redemption period. The redemption period is one (1) year after the date of the tax sale. The redemption period expires Friday, September 29, 2023, per the Hamilton County Auditor, which date may be verified with the Auditor. Any person may redeem the Property before the expiration of the redemption period.

In order to redeem the Property, the person who redeems must contact the County to determine the amount required for redemption under IC 6-1.1-25-2, which includes: up to 115% of the minimum bid for the Property depending upon date of redemption; the amount by which the purchase price exceeded the minimum bid plus 5% per annum interest; the total amount of all taxes and special assessments on the Property paid by the Purchaser or the Purchaser's assignee after the tax sale plus 5% per annum interest; as reimbursement to the Purchaser, the amounts certified by the Purchaser or the Purchaser's assignee as incurred for attorneys fees, costs of giving notice, and costs of a title search; and any other sums allowed by statute. The Purchaser or the Purchaser's assignee is further entitled to reimbursement for any additional taxes or special assessments on the Property that were paid by the Purchaser or the Purchaser's assignee subsequent to the tax sale, lien acquisition, or purchase of the certificate of sale, and before redemption, plus 5% per annum interest.

If the Property is not redeemed, the owner of record at the date of the tax deed is entitled to the tax sale surplus, if any. If the Property has not been redeemed before the expiration of the redemption period, on or after September 30, 2023, the Purchaser intends to and shall file a petition for a tax deed for said Property and vacation of liens. If the Property has not been redeemed before the expiration of the redemption period, and the Purchaser has complied with statutory requirements, the Purchaser or the Purchaser's assignee will be entitled to receive a deed to the Property.

You should contact Hamilton County, Indiana, Auditor if you intend to redeem and consult with your attorney and/or your advisor as to your rights and obligations.

This Notice is made on behalf of the Purchaser as of the date of the first publication.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS AND ALL OTHER PERSONS AFFECTED OF ADOPTION AND CONTENT OF AMENDING RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF NOBLESVILLE REDEVELOPMENT COMMISSION AND NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON RESOLUTION

Taxpayers of the City of Noblesville Redevelopment District and all other persons affected hereby are notified that the City of Noblesville Redevelopment Commission (the "Commission"), at a meeting held on February 16, 2023, adopted an Amending Declaratory Resolution (the "Amending Declaratory Resolution") amending the Noblesville – Innovation Mile Economic Development Area (the "Area") to establish therein a new allocation area (the "Allocation Area 2"). The Area was previously established and confirmed by the Commission pursuant to its Resolution Nos. 2022-08 and 2022-11, adopted on March 28, 2022 and May 23, 2022, respectively, and is generally described as follows: beginning at the northwest corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-035.000-021 (located off of Olivo Road), then heading east along the northern boundary of said parcel and continuing east to the northeast corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-019.000-021, then heading north along the western boundary of Parcel #29-11-24-000-005.000-021 and continuing north to the northwest corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-004.002-021, then heading east along the northern boundary of said parcel and continuing east to the northeast corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-004.000-021, then heading south along the eastern boundary of said parcel and continuing south to the southeast corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-013.000-021, then heading west along the southern boundary of said parcel and continuing west to the southwest corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-033.000-021, then heading north along the western boundary of said parcel to the southeast corner of Parcel #29-11-24-000-032.000-021, then heading west along the southern boundary of said parcel to the southwest corner thereof, then heading north along the western boundary of said parcel and continuing north to the point of beginning. The Area includes approximately 306 acres.

With respect to the establishment of Allocation Area 2 pursuant to the Amending Declaratory Resolution, Allocation Area 2 is generally described as follows: Allocation Area 2 is bounded on the north by East 141st Street, on the east by the eastern boundary of parcel #13-11-24-00-00-033.000, on the west by Olivo Road and on the south by the southern boundaries of parcel #13-11-24-00-00-033.000 and 13-11-24-00-00-032.000. Allocation Area 2 is approximately 14.99 acres in size and includes the parcels 29-11-24-000-032.000-021 and 29-11-24-000-033.000-021. The Amending Declaratory Resolution amends the economic development plan for the Area to include as a new project with respect to Allocation Area 2 the construction of road improvements, utility improvements, drainage, public safety improvements and trails all in support of a medical office and surgery center building to be located therein (the "Project").

The Commission will use incremental real property taxes levied and collected in Allocation Area 2 in accordance with Indiana Code 36-7-14 and Indiana Code 36-7-25 to finance the Project. The Amending Declaratory Resolution, the Economic Development Plan for the Area as amended thereby, and supporting data including maps and plats describing the Area and Allocation Area 2, have been prepared and can be inspected at the office of the Secretary of the Commission, Noblesville City Hall, 16 S 10th Street, Noblesville, Indiana 46060 (the "City Hall").

Notice is further given that the Commission on March 16, 2023 at the hour of 9:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, at the City Hall in the Council Chambers, will receive and hear remonstrances from persons interested in or affected by the proceedings pertaining to the proposed Project and will determine the public utility and benefit of the proposed Project. At the time fixed for hearing or at any time prior thereto any person interested in the proceedings may file a written remonstrance at the office of the Secretary of the Commission at the City Hall, if filed prior to the time fixed for the hearing or with the Secretary of the Commission if filed at the hearing. At such hearing, which may be adjourned from time to time, the Commission will hear all persons interested in the proceedings and all remonstrances that have been filed. After considering this evidence, the Commission will take final action by either confirming, modifying and confirming, or rescinding the Amending Declaratory Resolution. It is anticipated that with respect to any confirming resolution of the Commission, it will also approve at that time the re-designation of the allocation areas in the Area to "Allocation Area 1" and "Allocation Area 2".

Dated this 1st day of March, 2023.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF TAX RATE FOR MAJOR BRIDGE FUND

To the Taxpayers of Hamilton County, State of Indiana:

You are hereby notified that on February 27, 2023, the Board of Commissioners of Hamilton County, Indiana, held a public hearing after publication of notice pursuant to law, concerning Ordinance No. 02-27-23-A, ("the Ordinance"). The Ordinance was approved and established a Major Bridge Fund, ("the Fund") and a tax rate to generate money for the Fund, all pursuant to Indiana Code 36-9-14.5.

The Ordinance provides that the money in the Fund may be used for the purposes listed in Indiana Code 8-16-3.1.

The Fund will be funded by a property tax rate not to exceed $0.0333 on each $100.00 of taxable real and personal property within Hamilton County beginning in 2023 payable in 2024, and each year thereafter, until reduced or rescinded.

Fifty (50) or more taxpayers in the County who will be affected by the tax rate and corresponding levy may file a petition with the Hamilton County Auditor, not later than thirty (30) days after the publication of this Notice, setting forth their objections to the proposed rate and levy. Upon the filing of the petition, the County Auditor shall immediately certify the same to the Department of Local Government Finance, at which point the department will fix a date for and conduct a public hearing on the proposed rate and levy before issuing its approval or disapproval thereof.

Dated this 3rd day of March, 2023.

NOTICE OF DETERMINATION TO CONSTRUCT AND FINANCE ADDITIONS AND IMPROVEMENTS TO THE TOWN OF ARCADIA SEWAGE WORKS AND THE ADOPTION AND PURPORT OF THE ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE SAME

Property owners, ratepayers, and other interested parties in or served or to be served by the sewage works of the Town of Arcadia (the "Town") are hereby notified that on March 1, 2023, the Town Council of the Town adopted Ordinance No. 2023-05 (the "Ordinance"), determining to acquire, construct, install, and undertake sewage works and stormwater additions, extensions, and improvements including (i) conversion of an existing polishing pond to an equalization basin, the installation of approximately 500 feet of 15-inch gravity sanitary sewer along with manholes, a bypass structure, and the refurbishment of the existing oxidation ditch and clarifier equipment, (ii) separation of cross-connected storm and sanitary sewers at several locations, plugging a sanitary sewer overflow, and installing approximately 2,000 feet of 8-inch gravity sanitary sewer, 1000 feet of 6-inch force main, a lift station, 900 feet of 12-inch storm sewer, and 400 feet of 15-inch storm sewer with manholes and inlet structures and (iii) rehabilitating 7,100 feet of 8-inch pipe and 2,250 feet of 12-inch pipe with cured-in-place pipe and 36 manholes (collectively, the "Project"); all pursuant to plans and specifications prepared by Commonwealth Engineers, Indianapolis, Indiana, consulting engineers employed by the Town, which plans are available at the office of the Clerk-Treasurer of the Town, and authorizing the issuance of the Town's revenue bonds payable solely from the net revenue of the sewage works ("Bonds") to pay the cost of the Project.

The total estimated cost of the Project is presently estimated to not exceed $7,900,000. The Ordinance directed that the Project be financed, in part, by the issuance of the Bonds and/or bond anticipation notes ("BANs") in an amount not to exceed $700,000. The Ordinance provides that the Bonds shall be special revenue obligations of the Town payable solely from and secured by an irrevocable pledge of and constituting a charge upon all of the net revenues derived from the Town's sewage works. The BANs, if issued, shall be payable from the proceeds of the Bonds. The Bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness of the Town within the meaning of the provisions and limitations of the constitution of the State of Indiana.

The Ordinance sets forth provisions governing the Bonds and the BANs, including, without limitation, redemption rights, transfer and exchange privileges, provisions concerning the sale of the Bonds and the BANs, the collection, segregation, and distribution of the revenues of the sewage works, provisions concerning the issuance of additional Bonds and BANs, and covenants of the Town relating to the Bonds and the BANs. Copies of the plans and cost estimates and the Ordinance are on file in the office of the Clerk-Treasurer of the Town and are available for inspection by any interested parties during regular business hours.

Forty (40) or more owners of property connected or to be connected to and served by the Town's sewage works may file a written petition objecting to the construction and acquisition of the Project in the time and manner provided by IC 36-9-23-12, as amended.

Five county girls basketball players earn “Supreme 15” All-State honors

The REPORTER

Five Hamilton County girls basketball players are among the 15 seniors and 15 underclass that have earned IBCA/Franciscan Health “Supreme 15” All-State honors for 2022-23, it was announced last Tuesday.

The IBCA also named Large School All-State teams (15 seniors, 15 underclass) and Small School All-State teams (15 seniors, 15 underclass). Eight county players have earned spots on those lists.

The “Supreme 15” is the top honor awarded, and players were voted to that group without regard to school size. The Large School and Small School all-state teams are secondary accolades -- the Large School group including players from Class 3A and Class 4A schools and the Small School group including players from Class A and Class 2A schools. Players who make the Supreme 15 are not considered for Large School or Small School honors.

In addition, 90 more seniors and 90 more underclass players were selected honorable mention all-state. The honorable mention laurels are awarded without regard to school size.

Hamilton Southeastern’s Riley Makalusky and Fishers’ Hailey Smith are among the players voted to the 2023 IBCA/Franciscan Health Supreme 15 Senior girls’ team. The other players, listed alphabetically, are Asiah Baxter, Warren Central; Ashlynn Brooke, Pioneer; Cristen Carter, Ben Davis; Asia Donald, Hobart; Nevach Foster, Mishawaka Marian; Laila Hull, Zionsville; RaShunda Jones, South Bend Washington; McKenna Layden, Northwestern; Karsyn Norman, Bedford North Lawrence; Amiyah Reynolds, South Bend Washington; Saige Stahl, Columbus East; Josie Trabel, East Central; and Amber Tretter, Forest Park.

Meanwhile, Hamilton Southeastern’s Maya Makalusky and Noblesville’s Meredith Tippner and Reagan Wilson were all voted to the 2023 IBCA/Franciscan Health Supreme 15 Underclass girls’ team. The other players on that list are: Lillian Barnes, Valparaiso; Addison Baxter, Columbia City; Kennedy Fuelling, Norwell; Avery Gordon, Brownsburg; Jaylah Lampley, Lawrence Central; Lola Lampley, Lawrence Central; Ellery Minch, Mt. Vernon (Fortville); Jordyn Poole, Fort Wayne Snider; Kira Reynolds, South Bend Washington; Chloe Spreen, Bedford North Lawrence; Faith Wiseman, Indian Creek; and Juliann Woodward, Jennings County.

Hamilton Southeastern’s Olivia Brown and Fishers’ Olivia Smith were both named to the senior Large School All-State team, with University’s Kelsey DuBois and Payton Seay named to the senior Small School All-State list. As for the underclassmen, Fishers’ Talia Harris, Westfield’s Ellie Kelleher and Hamilton Heights’ Camryn Runner are on the Large School All-State roster, with Sheridan’s Kenzie Garner making the Small School All-State list.

Hamilton Heights’ Ella Hickok was named to the underclass Honorable Mention list.

The IBCA/Franciscan Health All-State teams are selected through a process organized by the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association and presented by Franciscan Health Sports Medicine.

All IBCA-member head coaches have the opportunity to nominate players. A panel of 20 IBCA coaches -- 16 from the current regional areas, three district representatives (one each from IHSAA Districts 1, 2 and 3) and the committee chairman -- then meet to review the nominations, vote and finalize the selections.

Those on the IBCA all-state committee for 2023 included chairman Doug Springer of Northridge plus Brandon Bradley of Kankakee Valley from District 1, DeeAnn Ramey of North Central from District 2 and Kevin Moore of East Central from District 3.

Completing the voting panel were Kristi Ulrich of Penn, Andy Maguire of Zionsville, Curt Bengel of Plainfield and Tyler Choate of Evansville North in Class 4A; Steve Scott of Mishawaka Marian, Eric Thornton of Norwell, Kaley May of Danville and Michelle Harter of Connorsville in Class 3A; Tony Scheub of Andean, Justin Jordan of Whitko, Doug Greenlee of Greencastle and Tony Hasenour of Forest Park in Class 2A; and Rick Budka of Morgan Township, Sarah Black of Union City, Amy Macy of Edinburgh and Mike Lang of Trinity Lutheran in Class A.

Franciscan Health Sports Medicine is making a financial contribution to the IBCA Scholarship Fund as the presenting partner of the IBCA all-state teams. As part of the partnership, Franciscan Health Sports Medicine will provide plaques to Supreme 15 honorees and certificates to players receiving Large School All-State, Small School All-State or Honorable Mention

I was born and raised right here in Noblesville. I grew up in a home without domestic violence or assault - it wasn't something I saw, or even heard about. But when I was introduced to Prevail of Central Indiana, I was shocked by the number of individuals who are affected by domestic violence. In 2018 alone, Prevail helped more than 4,000 clients in Hamilton County (nearly 80 percent of clients are women and children). Domestic violence and abuse are hard topics to discuss, so you don't often hear about them. But at Tom Wood Volkswagen in Noblesville, we're breaking the taboo and raising awareness for Prevail, an organization that helps families in Hamilton County.
