(Thank you, Curtis!)

However, even this Word Nerd apparently can't keep up with our ever-evolving language. I've known since my Journalism and English days at IU that this is a reality. I'll never forget the first time I realized just how out of touch I was.

I was teaching a workshop on how to show appreciation to funders during the 2013 Grant Professionals Association National Conference. I broke the room up into small groups. Everyone was looking at examples of thank you letters I'd created. Participants were supposed to discuss how to improve each letter.

One eager young man did a great job sharing his group's top points. But I was taken aback when he said, "And we would change the ending - no one ends a letter anymore with the word, 'Sincerely'. We would say 'Warm Regards' or just 'Regards' instead."

I was flabbergasted.

"Uh ... yes ... absolutely." I stammered. Fast forward to last Saturday. I was enjoying an evening with Our Gang, a group of dear friends I've mentioned a time or two in this column. I was telling them about my high school reunion and my attire from that event. When I said that I wore a long sleeveless blouse, my friend Cindy stopped

Kurt started manipulating metal at just 10 years old. More than five decades later, he still loves it just as much.

The impact of the Scouting for Food initiative extends far beyond the food collected. It serves as a catalyst for teaching scouts valuable life skills, fostering teamwork, and instilling a sense of responsibility. Through this experience, these young individuals are empowered to make a positive impact on society and develop into future leaders who understand the importance of service to others.

As the Scouting for Food program continues to flourish in Noblesville and other communities across the nation, it serves as a reminder of the power of unity and the significance of coming together to support those in need. The dedication displayed by these scouts and their families stands as a shining example of how a small act of kindness can make a tremendous difference.

The success of this year's Scouting for Food campaign in Noblesville is a testament to the remarkable individuals who volunteered their time and energy to make a lasting impact. It is through their unwavering commitment to service that they have exemplified the true spirit of scouting and inspired others to follow in their footsteps.

To all the scouting families in Noblesville who participated in this year's Scouting for Food, thank you for your incredible efforts. New in 2023 is the release of the digital Friday, June 9, except for DonutNV Hamilpassport. Westfield Welcome has partnered with Bandwango to provide a fun, interactive experience on your way to completing the Donut Trail.

Here's how it works:

Participants will use their cell phones to download the digital passport on the Westfield Welcome website at westfieldwelcome.com/donut-trail.

They will then complete a few quick registration questions, then the passport will be instantly delivered via text message and email.

Starting on Friday, June 2, contestants will use passports to locate all 12 donut-shaped signs along Westfield's trail system. Once a donut-shaped sign has been found, players will digitally "check in" on the passport. Checking in at all 12 donut-shaped signs unlocks offers for free donuts from each local donut shop.

To redeem free offers, contestants will "claim" their prize in the digital passport and receive an email showing successful completion, which will be displayed at each donut shop.

Offers are available Friday, June 2 to Franciscan Health Indianapolis announced on Thursday that it is one of America's 250 Best Hospitals for 2023, according to new research released by Healthgrades, the leading marketplace connecting doctors and patients.

This achievement puts Franciscan Health Indianapolis in the top 5 percent of hospitals nationwide for overall clinical performance across the most common conditions and procedures. Franciscan Health Indianapolis is the only hospital in Indiana to receive this distinction in 2023.

"I'm delighted in this significant recognition, which places Franciscan Health Indianapolis among the elite healthcare organizations across the country," said Franciscan Health Indianapolis President and CEO Lori Price. "Our commitment to providing compassionate care in our Franciscan tradition has created a culture centered on our patients' needs, resulting in better outcomes, which bears out in this award from Healthgrades."

Healthgrades evaluated patient mortality and complication rates for 31 of the most common conditions and procedures at nearly 4,500 hospitals across the country to identify the top-performing hospitals. Obituary & News

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground.'

Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds in the sky and all the creatures that move along the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food.' And it was so.

God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day.

Get to Carmel Racquet Club to see Midwest Clay Court Championship

By RICHIE HALL sports@readthereporter.com

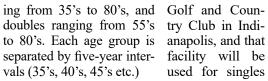

CARMEL – Walking through the lobby of the Carmel Racquet Club, the televisions are all tuned to the French Open, the major clay court tournament that is currently being played at Stade Roland Garros in Paris.

For those tennis fans who are interested in seeing competition on clay, but can't just jet off to Paris at a moment's notice, don't worry. The CRC is giving you another option: The 2023 Midwest Clay Court Championship, which the club is hosting now through Sunday.

The Midwest Clay is a long-time event on the calendar, and as a United States Tennis Association (USTA) Level 3 tournament, it's an important one, too. The USTA divides tournaments into categories from Level 7, which offers the lowest amount of ranking points, to Level 1, which offers the highest. (A winner at a Level 3 tournament receives 1,800 ranking points, compared to 3,000 for Level 1 and 150 for Level 7.)

Since having a good result at this tournament can help out a player's ranking, the Midwest Clay attracts a field of top-level players.

"We get some of the best in the country in each of the different age groups," said Denise Boehnlein, the tournament chair.
