On the cover: Amy Adams, who writes the best human-interest articles we have read, keeps telling us that she is not a skilled photographer. We're sorry, Amy, but that cover photo is hands-down the best 4-H shot this newspaper has ever seen. You, dear readers, will see a lot more of her work in these pages – both her words and her images. Her skill belies her humility.

The following friends and supporters of The Reporter all stepped up in impressive ways to help us not only bring you full 4-H results in print this year, but also by making it possible to give Hamilton County Harvest Food Bank's "Meating The Need" program their largest single donation check ever (see Page 3).

Without the support of the advertisers you will see in this 64-page publication, none of the Hamilton County 4-H participants would be getting any of the ink they deserve.

These pages are packed and stuffed with every photo and bit of information we could squeeze in, and it is only possible because of the deep sense of community and willingness to give back exhibited by these supporters. If you're reading this in print, you're holding a solid quarter pound of USDA prime cut locally sourced 4-H news. Think about that.

Four ounces of ink and paper. 64 pages of memories of hot days, smiles, lessons and fun. Thank you, one and all, for helping us once again earn the title "Hamilton County's Hometown Newspaper!"

Meet Avery Williams, your 2023 Hamilton County 4-H Fair Queen

By RICHARD TORRES

Her journey began with a pencil she received 10 years ago as a grade-school student. On Friday night, that small token from her youth led to Avery Williams' spotlight moment while standing on stage at the Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds in Noblesville.

Williams was showered with applause during the 63rd annual Queen Pageant after being named the 2023 Hamilton County 4-H Fair Queen.

"This is such an honor," Williams said with her tiara glimmering under the exhibition hall lights. "I've watched all the queens growing up, and to be selected; I just truly feel honored to represent Hamilton County."

In her 10-year 4-H experience, Williams has completed 28 projects.

"All the people here to support all of us girls on stage really puts a smile on my face," Williams said. "I joined 4-H when I was younger just because we saw it. I think my school was advertising it for the third graders to go join, and we came to the open house here. It just looked like a good community to be a part of, and I've stuck with it ever since. I just love it."

Each of the 11 contestants were judged on their evening gown formal wear, their poise and stage modeling, in addition to on-the-spot questioning by pageant Master of Ceremonies, Adam Good.

Prior to the pageant, the contestants were interviewed by a three-person panel of judges, but parents Nicole and Tobin Williams have witnessed over the years, Avery is always prepared.

"Avery is such a go-getter. She always has been ever since she was a little girl. There was just no stopping her," Nicole Williams said. "Avery is a fun person, and she's funny. She's the funniest person I know."

Nicole Williams recalled, how Avery's voyage from 4-H newcomer to pageant queen unfolded.

"She came home with a pencil. That's how it all started," Nicole Williams said. "They gave pencils out during class, and she took it home and she was like, 'I'm going to join 4-H.' That's how it started. It started with a pencil."

Williams had already formed bonds with her court.

"We've only known each other this week, and we all just got so close. This is such a good group of people, and it really stood out to me just how much of a community it is here," Williams said.

Queen Avery's Court

Leading up to the crowning of the 2023 Hamilton County 4-H Fair Queen and her court, the Miss Congeniality honor was announced.

This year, Sheridan's Mac Smith, 16, was announced as the winner.

"To be named Miss Congeniality is a big honor. It shows that I'm a very caring person, and I like to have fun all the time," Smith said. "I was a little anxious, and I was excited that they announced me because I felt I had a lot of fun all week with all the other girls."

An eight-year 4-H member, Smith has exemplified dedication by completing 68 projects during her tenure.

"It's crazy. We do a lot of cramming before fair week, but we try to spread it out over the whole year to get it all done," Smith said.

While part of the 4-H program for half of her life, this was her first pageant.

"This is actually my first pageant ever, but I was really excited when I got announced as the Miss Congeniality," Smith said. "I watched them hand out ribbons throughout 4-H my whole life. They've handed me ribbons, and I knew I wanted to be one of them."

Smith intends to attend Purdue University after graduation.

Her pageant experience, Smith said, will hold a special place even beyond her high school years.

"All the people are amazing. They're some of the nicest people you will ever meet," Smith said. "Each of them is different in their own way, and I loved working with all of them. Just the whole process of how we get to give back to our community afterwards is fantastic."

Joining Williams and Smith during the fair will be the 2023 Hamilton County 4-H Queen Court, which includes 1st Runner-up Mary Rose Wahnsiedler, 2nd Runner-up Sophia Beeson, 3rd Runner-up Meghan Haws and 4th Runner-up Sophia Hulen.

"I'm really looking forward to spending time with all of the court and everybody else I get to hand ribbons to throughout the whole week," Smith said.

Leah and her mother, Marie, began clogging with the group when Leah was in first grade. This year, Leah's children Evelyn, 10, and Corban, 8, joined them for the first time on stage, and Marie's mother, Shirley Carter, watched with pride.

Simply having a wonderful llama time

By RICHIE HALL

Anyone who has been to the Hamilton County 4-H Fair knows that one of the busiest places at the fairgrounds is the Llama Barn.

There were 13 different llama events on the schedule this year. All the events have one goal, said Marilyn Nenni, who has run the llama projects for over 30 years: "The main thing is to greet the public and tell them about llamas," she said.

Nenni said 85 people participated in the llama projects this year, with around 25 new members.

“We hold our numbers pretty good,” she said. “We have six graduating this year.”

Llama 4-H'ers can compete in three different obstacle projects: Pack, Public Relations and Field. There is also a showmanship project.

Then there are the events for fun, which includes face painting, Leaping Llama, llama costumes, and the Walk-A-Llamas.

Nenni said that Friday night is the night for “big fun in here, as long as it doesn’t rain.” While there was some rain during the fair, nothing caused any major interruptions for the llama events.

“Most of them, there’s two kids to an animal,” said Nenni. “They show in different age groups, of course. That way they can work together and learn to train and be mentors for each other.

And then when it comes to the fair, they're really buddy-buddy and out here supporting, rooting for each other. The program's a lot of life lessons and llamas are just a tool."

Bria Robertson, who will be a fifth-grader at Westfield Intermediate School in a few days, is in her second year of llama projects. Robertson said her first year “was a lot of fun” and she had “a lot of great people” who taught her about the projects.

As for her second year?

"I know the llamas a lot better and I know a lot more people," said Robertson. She also said she could make friends with those joining the llama projects for the first time.

"Yeah, because I know how it is when you just come in and you're kind of nervous, like, 'I don't have any friends here,'" said Robertson. "So, I try to make friends."

Robertson's llama is Rag-time Blues – or “Rags” – and she said most of the time he's pretty good.

"Sometimes he can be kind of stubborn," said Robertson. "He's kind of silly. He's pretty open to all of it and open to trying new things."

On the other side of the experience factor is Sophia Hulen, this year's Hamilton County 4-H Queen Pageant's Fourth Runner-Up. Hulen, now a junior at Hamilton Heights, completed her eighth year of llama projects as a member of the Llama Trekkers and is on her way to becoming a 10-year member of 4-H.

Hulen's best friend showed llamas – "She's the one who inspired me to do it," said Hulen.

“I was not intimidated at all, I just soaked it all in and just went for it,” she said.

"I think the most fun part about being in the llama project is definitely just the opportunity to work with the animal and make new friends," said Hulen. "Some of my closest friends are from the llama project and I would just never have been able to have them without this project."

Hulen, who plans to study animal science with an agricultural business concentration once she gets to college, said that being in the llama projects has “definitely helped my confidence grow so much. I can communicate better, I’m a better leader and I know that without this, I wouldn’t be the person I am today.”

Meet your supreme & royal 4-H showmanship winners

Reporter photos by Richie Hall

On the last day of this year’s Hamilton County 4-H Fair, the winners were announced for both Supreme Showmanship and Royal Showmanship. (Above left) Kassidy Schakel, an incoming senior at Hamilton Heights, was selected as the Grand Championship of Supreme Showmanship. She is a member of the Jackson Hotshots 4-H Club. (Above right) Lauren Pickett, an incoming junior at Westfield High School, was chosen as the Grand Champion of Royal Showmanship. She is a member of the Llama Trekkers 4-H Club.

The Fairgrounds of the Future

The Hamilton County 4-H Fair kicked off with a groundbreaking at Centennial Pavilion. Numerous local officials and 4-H’ers took part in the ceremony. Part of the three-phase, multi-million-dollar improvement plan will be the rebranding of the fairgrounds as “The Silos at 37 Hamilton County: 4-H Fairgrounds and Events Center.” The Bicentennial Pavilion, scheduled to open late next year, will replace the O.V. Winks and Annex Buildings that will be lost to the expansion of Pleasant Street. The second and third phases of the project are contingent on funding and would include the construction of two silos at the main entrance. They would also include the demolition of seven outdoor buildings to be replaced by eight air-conditioned buildings that could be used year-round. Construction on Phase I is set to begin this fall.

(ABOVE LEFT) Kendall Peyton exits the horse arena after winning a ribbon for her horse Whitney at the Horse & Pony Western Show. Payton is from Westfield and a member of the Westfield Cloverleaves. (ABOVE CENTER) Annabelle Luckcuck (center) of Fishers relaxes while talking with her friend Noah Smith-Valdez and mother Wendy Luckcuck during the Horse & Pony Western Show on July 21. Annabelle is a member of the Giddy-Up Gang, and her horse is “Our Only Option.” (ABOVE RIGHT) Every Briley’s got a hungry horse! Noblesville’s Briley Sanford, a member of the Giddy-Up Gang, talks with her instructor Erica Swain at the Horse & Pony Western Show while her horse Lucky has a snack. The Reporter observed Lucky eating grass for several minutes.

Reporter photos

You never know who you might find at the Hamilton County 4-H Fair. If you spend as much time there as The Reporter did, the answer is “everyone.” In some cases we even got to make a few introductions, as we did with the Halls and the Campbells. (Above left) County Council member Mark Hall, Lisa Hall, Reporter Editorial Cartoonist Tim Campbell, and Barb Campbell. (Above right) We did give some consideration to running this photo of Tim Campbell pretending to drive a Farmall tractor through some filters to turn it into a cartoon, but we decided to leave single-panel illustrated comedy to the expert.

Victory has never tasted so sweet

By AMY ADAMS

The annual Home Made Ice Cream Contest has turned into a bit of a friendly family feud. Around a dozen contestants showed up for the competition with their confections ready to freeze on site in four categories, including youth and adult divisions of both electric and hand-crank creations. And while there may not have been a whole lot of action during the 40-minute time limit, the free flavor samples at the end drew fans into the stands.

The judges were just as eager to evaluate the entries. Hamilton County Council Member At-large Steve Nation, Hamilton County Extension Board President Jane Sipe, and 2023 Hamilton County 4-H President Jared Robert rated the ice creams on flavor, texture, and presentation.

This year’s sponsors Steve and Lori Schwartz, Schwartz Bait and Tackle, Taylor Homes, Hamilton Farm Bureau, Inc., Hamilton County Tourism, Inc., and the Hamilton County 4-H Council, Inc., provided winners with gift bags full of goodies.

At the end of the evening, 17-year-old Addie McMillan took home a brand-new engraved ice cream maker as the overall Grand Champion, and the Parobachek family went home with multiple ribbons, including first place in both adult categories and Most Original Flavor in both the adult and youth divisions.

Siblings shine in Talent Show

By AMY ADAMS

Ethan and Evan Feliciano will be representing their family and their county well at the Indiana State Fair.

Violinist Ethan, who will be a junior at Noblesville High School, came in first in Senior Instrumental Solo with “Csárdás” by Vittorio Monti and was named Senior Talent Show Reserve Champion. Cellist Evan, who is going into seventh grade at Noblesville East Middle School, came in first in Junior Instrumental Solo and was named Junior Talent Show Grand Champion.

The brothers are members of the Indianapolis Youth Orchestra. In their final production of the season, Ethan played as assistant principal violinist in the Symphony Orchestra, and Evan played as assistant principal cellist in the Concert Orchestra. Music is a high priority in the Feliciano family, and they have older siblings who play piano and percussion.

Poise under pressure

Even though Callie Heflin has only been playing the piano for a year, that didn’t stop her from performing “Legend of the Bison” with poise and composure.

(Left) Ralston, Auburn, and Ayers Macy, all of Sheridan, and their Nigerian Dwarf goat Bucket are ready for the ball . . . er, the Pet Parade. (Second from left) Cassie, the calf-turned-racecar, sported a “4” in honor of her 4-year-old driver, Tyler Horney of Sheridan. (Third from left) Ethan Schaefer, 8, Noblesville, took the top spot in the Pet Parade dressed as a lion tamer who coaxed his mane-wearing fainting goat Oscar to shake, spin, bow, and even walk through a ring of “fire.” It’s a good thing none of The Men Who Stare At Goats were on hand to make Oscar faint. (Right) Just to be clear, the Hodgin family of Cicero brought their Leghorn chicken, Nugget, for the Pet Parade . . . not for lunch.

Crash course in common 4-H terms

4-H Record of Achievement

It is very important that members have a current record, as this is how 4-H’ers are selected for trips, awards, and scholarships.

Record Book Completion

A 4-H member is considered complete in his or her project work if they have “completed” their project book record sheet(s).

It is the responsibility of the 4-H leaders to review the project books and contact the Extension Office prior to the 4-H project judging if a member is incomplete. The project record books should be neat and completed.

The degree of completion will vary with the age of the member. There may be areas that the 4-H member cannot complete – an explanation should be given for this blank space (you may have to discuss this with your leader). Discuss the activities you have completed on your project(s) with your adult leader.

Please remember, a project with an incomplete project record sheet cannot be considered for a champion.

It is important that all our 4-H volunteers are consistent in reporting incompletes. When you are in doubt, please do not hesitate to contact the Extension Office. There is an electronic version on the website at extension.purdue.edu/hamilton.

4-H Project

A project is described as a “piece of the world’s work which I have chosen to do during this 4-H year. When completed, it will represent ME – my thinking, my skill of hands, my work ideals... my very best.”

4-H uses the project as a tool to accomplish its major task: the development of boys and girls. It allows young people to “learn by doing.” Its learning experiences expose young people to the knowledge, understanding, skills, and expected behavior of the particular area of interest chosen.

The project provides for individualized learning. The actual project work is done by the member, usually at home; familiar spaces become the laboratory or workshop of informal education. A member may complete several items related to a project area.

Subject Areas

Each project covers a definite subject area. The project may be divided into as many as 10 different divisions where the member completes one project division each year enrolled.

The project advances from simple skills to more advanced skills and information in later divisions. The member builds on prior learning at a pace appropriate to the individual 4-H’er, usually based on the member’s grade in school.

Project Manuals

A 4-H project manual contains help, information and direction needed to complete the project. Some projects have a manual for each division of the project. Others have one manual that the member uses throughout his 4-H career.

Project Records

Most projects have a record sheet which the 4-H’er uses to record the project expenses, income, work completed, and progress made in developing the project.

Most records are simple, while others require the help of parents or club leader. Keeping up-to-date records is important to tell your project story.

Project Ribbons

The Danish system uses color to signify different award levels. The 4-H Youth Development program awards ribbons in these colors:

- Purple (Superior): A purple is awarded to those entries that far exceed the average standard or meet the standards established for that particular class. This award indicates a near perfect exhibit.
- Blue (Excellent): A blue is awarded to those entries that exceed the average standard. This award indicates a certain degree of excellence that exceeds the average expectation and may be given to multiple participants.
- Red (Good): A red is awarded to those entries that meet the average standard or are slightly below the average standard established for that respective class. The general level of accomplishment meets expectations, but is less than excellent. Shortcomings are found in certain aspects to cause this ranking.

- White (Fair): A white is awarded to those entries that do not meet average standard. The level of accomplishment is less than expected. A ranking of white is deserved due to the severe shortcomings from the good standard.
- Green (Participation): A green is awarded when required components or pieces are missing from the exhibit.

Project Exhibit

Exhibits are required for most projects. This represents the member’s year of work, and is usually displayed and judged (evaluated) at the County 4-H Fair.

Parents should provide the “parent helper” role of offering encouragement and advice, but the exhibit should represent the member’s skills and knowledge learned in the project.

Remember, this exhibit is a small representation of what the 4-H member has learned through the 4-H process.

4-H Exhibit Judging

The exhibit judging is an evaluation held during the 4-H Fair.

The evaluation serves as a learning experience for the youth. The exhibit is only one measure of success and achievement. Members experience self-recognition, self-satisfaction, and the feeling of success and accomplishment as they complete and exhibit a project at the Hamilton County 4-H Fair.

As you prepare for the 4-H project judging, discuss the goals and procedures for the event with 4-H members in your club.

Workshops

Nearly everyone learns more quickly by listening, seeing and doing.

Workshops are held at the county level with resource leaders each year as needed. You are encouraged to take advantage of this learning opportunity. Leaders and parents are always welcome to attend. Workshop dates and locations will be announced in the newsletter.

Several areas also have workshops at local schools; contact your area leader for the dates. A workshop can also be held at the local club.

4-H: a different kind of youth organization

What is 4-H?

4-H is a leader in youth development, which began on the local level in response to evolving needs for new kinds of educational experiences for youth.

From the beginning, this youth-serving organization offered “hands-on” learning activities for young people so they might become productive citizens. Youth participants in 4-H activities have opportunities to offer positive contributions to our diverse and changing society.

4-H uses the far-reaching Cooperative Extension System network to offer youth programs and activities to diverse groups of young people in all 3,143 counties across the United States.

What is the 4-H Youth Development Education program?

The 4-H Youth Development Education program provides co-educational “hands-on” learning experiences in subject areas of interest to youth.

Young people who participate in 4-H programs develop citizenship awareness and leadership skills as they learn about new subject areas.

Kids in 4-H have fun while they learn! Non-formal educational activities help young people fully develop their skills and talents.

While they are learning about photography, the environment, job skills, or public speaking, young people practice a variety of skills in 4-H that will last a lifetime.

4-H is a community program.

How did 4-H evolve?

4-H began as a simultaneous response to needs throughout the country, rather than as the idea of one individual. The basis for this activity was to offer agricultural education to rural youth by organizing boys and girls clubs and through “learning by doing.”

Is there a 4-H program in my community?

There are Cooperative Extension 4-H staff in nearly all 3,143 counties across the United States.

The county 4-H staff help people in local communities by providing information about projects and programs. They can tell you about fun and interesting “hands-on” learning opportunities available for youth in your community.

History of 4-H

4-H in Indiana was started in Hamilton County. In 1904, John Haines, Superintendent of Hamilton County Schools, held a meeting for boys interested in learning to grow corn. Mr. Haines visited the project sites, held two instructional meetings, and had his members exhibit their projects at the end of the year. Mr. Haines was credited with planning the first junior club in Indiana.

In 1912 girls’ project clubs were added and in 1918 the club program became a part of the Agricultural Extension Program.

The mission of 4-H

The mission of today’s 4-H is to help youth and volunteers in their development through experiential educational programs, using the knowledge and educational base of Purdue University and the United States Department of Agriculture. It is accomplished through direct involvement of youth, adults, and the community.

4-H educational programs are designed to empower young people to become independent and participating members of their family and community by creating experiences to build self-confidence, developing inquiring minds, encouraging interpersonal cooperation, developing concern for the community, and teaching decision-making through real life participation.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL HAMILTON COUNTY
4-H PARTICIPANTS

Cats can seem a little judgmental, but in this case, they were the ones being judged! While The Reporter’s page designer neglected to put the names of these youngsters on this page (maybe he was distracted by laser pointers or nip), there was no way we were going to exclude them from this publication. After all, two of The Reporter’s owners live with cats. Our publisher even said, “You get those cats pics on these pages right MEOW!” Cat show results are included in the comprehensive alphabetical-by-last-name list on Pages 6 through 57.
