Meet the Candida

Dear Readers,

It's primary election season, and we have a fine selection of candidates for

In these pages you will read all about the candidates who have chosen to respond to The Hamilton County Reporter's request to share their information and help you make an informed decision at the polls on May 2. Candidate info in the pages to follow is presented as it was submitted.

The Reporter takes no responsibility for any typographical, grammatical or factual errors. These are the candidates speaking to you in their own words (or in the words of duly designated campaign staff). The only edits we have made have been to cut down those statements that were submitted over the 200-word limit we set to ensure everyone had equal space in our pages.

Candidates vying for the same office will be grouped together in a shaded box.

CICERO

Emily Pearson

Republican for Cicero Town Council, District 2

I love my town and volunteering. Life-long resident of Hamilton County. Moved to Cicero and married Jim Pearson in 1986. Member of the Cicero Kiwanis for 15 years in many leadership and committee positions. Coordinated and worked many Riley Roadblocks. Support the Friends of the Park by donating food and time to community fundraiser events. Love of reading led to helping the Friends of the Hamilton North Library as both a Board Member and their Treasurer. Teaching wreath and candy making classes to keep the traditions alive in the younger generations. Patient Advocate with the Shepherd Center. Precinct Committeeman for 12 years: working as Inspector; finding poll workers for each election; and voting in Caucuses to fill vacancies on the Town Council. Served officer roles in both the Hamilton County Republican Women's and Northern Hamilton County GOP clubs. Received many awards for volunteering. 30+ years of experience in the Insurance industry and 5+ years of Office Management. Loss mitigation and Public Safety focused.

My budgeting and management skills, along with a heart for service (and my recent retirement) will allow me keep Cicero growing, while maintaining that "hometown" appeal that makes us all proud to live here! Let's grow Cicero! Endorsed by Cicero Professional Fire Fighters 4416.

Chad M. Blueher

Republican for Cicero Town Council, District 2

Chad is a 16 year resident of Cicero. He's seeking re-election to Cicero Town Council following his two year term after caucus election filling an open seat. Chad's education includes a Bachelor's Degree from Purdue University in Electrical Engineering and a Masters Degree from Drexel in Engineering Leadership. Daily, Chad provides leadership at his job where he leads a site of 50+ Engineers and technicians.

He continues to be steadfast supporter for the entire community of Cicero. Chad's community involvement can be found through my support of Hamilton Heights School Corporation, through my three children, with engagement in Superintendent Advisory Board. Further, community volunteer work for Veterans (like my wife Jennifer) / Active Military and their families through my continued leadership at the Cicero American Legion as the Sons of The American Legion Commander, which thousands of dollars are raised each year to help our community.

Important decisions face Cicero over next 4 years

- Conservative / Strategic Growth • Improved Water and Wastewater Capacity
- Strong Public Safety with Police and Fire
- Continued Park Improvements

As current Town Council President, I look to maintain conservative fiscal responsibility on the council keeping Cicero the hidden gem of Hamilton County. Vote #RedWhiteandBlueher

Darren Peterson

Republican for Noblesville City Council, At Large

Darren Peterson is a long time Noblesville resident and a business owner of Peterson Architecture for over 21 years. He's a loving father of two daughters, and husband to Jennifer Roberts. Graduating from Ball State with a degree in Environmental Science and Architecture, he has gone on to make a name and impression for himself and company locally and across the country.

When Darren sets his mind to something, he's committed, works tirelessly and sees the vision through from strategy to execution. Whether he's taking on high school or college interns at his company, or serving on boards, Darren is intentional about making a difference and is a 'do-er.' Darren has been the driving force behind activating under-utilized spaces, creating events that celebrate the community, expanding arts programming, and executing several successful events and projects in Noblesville. Darren believes we must have a strong, vibrant and active downtown with ample parking, a variety of housing options and programming.

Darren's priorities when re-elected to the council are: • Planning for smart, sustainable growth. · Community Development: A strong community creates a safe community.

• Keeping Noblesville's Personality in Tact. Connect with Peterson at

When I ran my first campaign, I pledged to address traffic issues, support public safety, and be transparent to the public by being accessible to constituents.

I couldn't be more enthusiastic about keeping my promises to Noblesville residents, seeing through the Pleasant Street project, and other strategic infrastructure investments. Currently, I am the liaison for the parks board. I am also on the public safety committee. I was recently chosen to be on the Noblesville Arts Council.

My wife Amber and two children Conner and Emmalee couldn't be happier to call Noblesville home and look forward to an exciting future.

Rocky Shanehsaz Republican for Noblesville City Council, District 5

Rocky has enjoyed living in Noblesville for over 33 years. Best known for the hard work, time, and money he invested in converting Noblesville's historic Model Mill building into Mill Top Banquet & Conference Center; Shanehsaz leans conservatively believing strongly in responsible growth, historic preservation, and efficient use of taxpayer dollars.

After graduating from high school in Bowling Green, Ky., Rocky earned a multi-major degree in Chemistry, Animal Science and Computer Network Engineering from Western Kentucky University. He then attended medical school in the Dominican Republic, returning to the States in 1985. Now a grandfather of two, Rocky shares two children, Abe and Ava, with Terri – his wife of 27 years.

Rocky's philanthropic efforts over the years include sponsoring Savor Noblesville, Hamilton County Sherriff's Chaplaincy, Noblesville Parks' Princess Ball & Hamilton County Humane Society- just to name a few. He is proud to have been an initial donor to the Community Garden Project, Indiana Peony Festival and providing support in planting four Noblesville churches.

Looking forward to sharing his experience, knowledge, and business acumen to help guide the city's preservation and development, Rocky will continue to give back to the community that helped shape the man he is today.

Mike Davis

Republican for Noblesville City Council, District 1

Mike Davis is a lifelong Noblesville resident, business owner and local leader. Davis plans to continue his focus on Noblesville's growth through making public safety number one. He will focus on building a brighter future by making sound financial decisions, proactive and proper planning and respecting the past while making decisions for a successful city. Since his time in office, Davis has accomplished this by being fiscally responsible, using his business skills and experience, hardworking values and involving feedback from citizens. Davis grew up in Noblesville, went to Noblesville

Schools, and then came back to live in Noblesville after attending Ball State. He went on to work for his father's Noblesville company, Davis-Haslam Inc., which opened in 1974. Eventually, Davis bought the company and has run it for the last 25 years. Community involvement is a strong passion for Davis. Throughout the years, Davis has been on boards for the Noblesville Elementary Football League, Hamilton County Fifty Club and North Harbor HOA. Alexis Lowry

Democrat for Westfield City Council, District 4

Alexis was born and raised in Westfield. She graduated from Westfield High School - as did her parents, giving her very deep roots in the Westfield community. Alexis graduated from Indiana University-Bloomington with a degree in Kinesiology and has professional experience in sales, marketing, HR, and finance with a focus on personal insurance and investments. She currently is a small business owner and a certified Nutrition Coach. Alexis and her husband, Josh, have been foster parents since 2018 – they have adopted 4 of their foster children and have fostered 12. Alexis has always believed in serving and helping others. In her spare time, Alexis has served as her church's treasurer where she built the church parsonage into a Christian daycare and preschool from the ground up. Alexis also coaches multiple youth sports including soccer, basketball, and volleyball and is involved with her neighborhood HOA. Alexis is the first woman Democrat to run for Westfield City Council in 17 years. As a community advocate and lifelong city resident, Alexis is ready to bring a new vision to Westfield that ensures Westfield residents can work, play, and live in the city they love. Republican for Westfield City Council, District 5

Noah Herron

I am proud to be running as a Republican Candidate for District 5 City Council of Westfield. For the past decade I have been a proud business owner, leader and community volunteer in Westfield. Now, as an extension of that commitment to our community, I am running for public office. I will work alongside the residents of Westfield. I will collaborate to make sure that our community is strong, to make sure that we do the best we can, together. I want to make a difference and make Westfield a better place for all residents. Like you, I want to see our city continue to grow and prosper. Getting involved at the local level of politics is about the desire to improve things like communication, economic vitality, community identity and effective management of our resources. As a businessman and parent, not a politician, I will bring a fresh, positive and creative mindset to the Council, and through my work, help the city move forward on a better path. Mike Johns

Republican for Westfield City Council, District 5

Mike Johns moved to Westfield in 2003 because he saw a great opportunity for future growth. He purchased an 11-acre parcel of land, had it annexed to the City and developed Bainbridge: a peaceful neighborhood of 15 custom homes. Mike resides in Bainbridge with his wife Holly, where he serves as HOA President. They have two grown children and five grandchildren who reside in Westfield. Johns earned an MBA from Northwestern University. He has had a successful career in manufacturing, transportation and most recently real estate. He has been ranked in the top 1% of Brokers in Hamilton County. He served as treasurer for the American Marketing Association of Indianapolis and on the marketing committee of the Indianapolis Zoo. Mike was elected to the Westfield City Council beginning in 2020 and has served as its President since 2021. He has also served on Westfield's Advisory Plan Commission for the past four years. Mike's desire to seek a second term was based on his commitment to bring integrity, accountability and transparency to local government. Johns admits that he is not a politician. He has refused to accept contributions from developers. He believes that the residents of Westfield deserve "Common Sense Leadership."

Andrew Bouse

Republican for Westfield City Council, District 2

As a 7-year-member of Countryside HOA, Andrew has enjoyed developing relationships with other residents and board members, learning about the community's needs, working with City and County, and executing strategic plans. He worked 18 months to get the approval and County dredging to replace a treacherous bridge. He is not allowed to say that you can drive a car over the new one, that he helped build that bridge with his own hands, or that it is ADA compliant. But he will tell you that it has an incline and decline of one inch per foot and it has concrete pylons for a dock. Now it's time to build a different kind of bridge. The relationship between city, council, and clerk treasurer has been dysfunctional. Andrew knows it's time to heal and move forward. He will bring these groups closer to sync. He has been involved with the Grand Junction Task

Group, Communications Task Group, Westfield Art Alliance, WeCan, and has been a member of the Lions Club, VFW Auxiliary, and currently Historian for the SAL Carmel American Legion. His finest achievements are his marriage to the beautiful Dr. Elizabeth Bouse and his two girls.

Republican for Carmel Mayor

My biggest achievement, without question, is my family. I've been blessed to be married to my wife, Beth, for 20 years. We have a teenage daughter, as well as two dogs named Bailey and Thor. We are members of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church.

I served two terms on the Hamilton County Council. I ran to bring leadership and accountability to Hamilton County – which I did, despite push back from members of my own party. I analyzed every proposal that came before me to see whether it represented a good use of the tax dollars my constituents worked hard to bring home.

I don't make decisions based on what politicians want, I make decisions based upon the long-term interests of our community. Looking at our city, I see that now, more than ever, we need new leadership and fresh thinking for our future. I share a desire with my neighbors to ensure our community remains safe and prosperous.

My goals for Mayor include bringing fiscal responsibility to city government, development and growth without using taxpayer dollars, and a new focus on preserving our neighborhoods.

Miles Nelson

Democrat for Carmel Mayor

A lifelong Hoosier, Miles, his wife, Carolina and their two children have lived in Carmel for eighteen years. He is an entrepreneur with decades of experience in business ownership, business development, executive leadership and nonprofit board service.

His passion for giving back to his community was instilled at an early age by a family with a long history of service in the Indianapolis community. He has most recently served as a volunteer leader with the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation, Child Advocates and the Hispanic Business Council.

Miles' love for Carmel and the people who call it home led him to run and win a seat on the Carmel City Council in 2019. During his time on the council, Miles has worked hard for his constituents, prioritizing their needs and concerns. He knows how important it is to put differences aside and put people first. As Mayor, Miles will work hard to make sure our community continues to be the best place for everyone to live, raise a family, build a career and support their neighbors. He'll build on the achievements of Mayor Brainard and keep Carmel moving forward. Connect with Nelson at Miles4Mayor.com,

Kevin 'Woody' Rider

Kevin 'Woody' Rider has dedicated his life to serving others. Whether it is through his 16 years as a leader on the city council, his more than 35 years as a successful entrepreneur and business owner, or his commitment to helping those in need, he feels it is his duty to make our community a better place.

Kevin's instrumental role in creating the Carmel we know can be attributed to his practical, innovative, and compassionate leadership approach to solving problems. With a strategic mindset and a focus on "getting things done," Kevin always takes into account how Carmel can continue to improve and make financially sound decisions.

Kevin's desire to serve others and provide uplifting opportunities for each person is reflected in his charitable initiatives. In 2020, Kevin co-founded Feeding Neighbors, a program that serves over a thousand meals per month to those in need. He is a volunteer shuttle bus driver, usher, and former trustee at Northview Church, and a board member at CHERISH, Hamilton County's child advocacy center. Kevin and his wife, Richelle, have been married for 17 years, and have three dogs - Gidget, and Zinnie, and Ralene. Connect with Rider at RiderForCarmel.com, on

Sheldon Barnes

Republican for Carmel City Council, Northwest District

I am the best candidate for the Northwest district because of my diverse experience that spans our armed forces, corporate America, and our family's small business. I believe every citizen should have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives. As a City Council member, I will work tirelessly to ensure that the needs and concerns of our residents are heard and addressed. My campaign platform focuses on keeping Carmel one of the best places to live, work, and play.

I am committed to working with community leaders, business owners, and residents to make Carmel an even better place to live, and I kindly ask for your vote on Election Day.

Ryan Locke

Republican for Carmel City Council, Northwest District

Ryan Locke, a third-generation Carmel resident, is an attorney with experience administering state government for the past eight (8) years, both at the Indiana State Police and the Office of the Indiana Treasurer of State. He has helped local communities across Indiana find creative and common-sense ways to serve their residents and solve their challenges. He oversaw the day-to-day operations of the Treasury and its related entities, including but not limited to Indiana's Statewide 911 Program, the Indiana Board for Depositories, the Indiana Bond Bank, and the state's CollegeChoice 529 programs. Ryan was also instrumental in the launch of two entirely new statewide programs working with individuals with disabilities. He successfully advocated for pragmatic advancements and innovations at the federal, state, and local levels positively impacting the everyday lives of Hoosiers.

He is running for Carmel City Council Northwest to bring his expertise and experience home to help ensure that Carmel continues to strategically and responsibly meet the needs of its residents now and into the future. Ryan and his wife Elise know there's no better place than Carmel to raise their two young sons, James and Edward, and their chihuahua, Daphne.

Brian G. Poindexter

Republican for Carmel Judge, City Court

Judge Brian Poindexter has served as the Judge of Carmel City Court since January 2009. Governor Mitch Daniels appointed Poindexter to fill a judicial vacancy. The citizens of Carmel have re-elected Poindexter to this position in 2011, 2015, and 2019. Before being appointed to the bench Poindexter was a Homicide Prosecutor in Marion County and supervised the Major Felony Division of the Marion County Prosecutor's Office.

In Poindexter's term during the pandemic, the court was transitioned to an emergency courtroom facility. Under Judge Poindexter's leadership, the facility was up and fully operational within three days, ensuring that residents had access even during the pandemic's toughest times.

"In my next term, I will continue building on vital community relationships and identifying the available local resources that will support the court in addressing the ever-changing issues and challenges the community faces," said Poindexter.

The cases heard in Carmel City Court consist of misdemeanor cases, typically involving cases related to vehicles, drugs, alcohol, and infractions for traffic violations, and DNR violations.

Poindexter is committed to the rule of law and following the constitution. He places the highest priority and value on equal access to justice and always places service above self.

Anita Joshi, MD

Democrat for Carmel City Council, West District

I'm a physician who listens to people with the sole aim of helping them. I'm a small business owner who has to be fiscally responsible to keep my business thriving. I am a community leader who has served in a wide variety of boards in a leadership capacity, including Women's Fund, Center for Interfaith Cooperation and Brebeuf Jesuit. Most importantly, I have been a resident of West Carmel for the past 18 years, so I know and love this area with every fiber of my being. I will bring leadership and management experience to Carmel City Council, but I will also provide a unique, outside perspective that doesn't always exist at our municipal level. I believe it is important to have voices that listen to and represent the community we live in. As a physician, I use data driven analysis and compassionate decision making in my every day life, and I will bring that with me to City Council. I believe this will allow me to meet the challenges and opportunities that Carmel has ahead.

ber of Fishers City Council and is the first Democrat ever elected to Fishers municipal office. Citizens know that a long-standing supermajority (of any party) is unhealthy. Balanced government serves citizens best. Councilor Vare delivers balance, accountability, fiscal responsibility, checks and balances and government transparency in Fishers. In 2022, Councilor Vare ran for Indiana State Senate is a 22-year resident of Fishers, the mom of two HSE Schools graduates, a local small business owner, a volunteer and a champion for the community she loves. Councilor Vare is a member of the Fishers Finance Committee and Fishers Arts + Culture Commission. She served as a committee chair for the successful HSE Schools referendum in 2016. She is a graduate of Fishers City Government Academy, Hamilton County Leadership Academy, Ball State's Economic Development Course and Community Development Course. In 2021, Councilor Vare was recognized as an Impact Award nominee, one of 30 alumni designated in the Hamilton County Leadership Academy's 30-year history. "I am eager to continue to serve the Fishers community on the City Council and fight to provide the good local government that all taxpayers deserve." Samantha Chapman

a lifelong Hoosier and animal lover who has dedicated her life to changing policy and laws that better protect animals at the state and local level. In 2022, she was honored with Manchester University's Young Alumni Outstanding Achievement Award for her role in helping facilitate the historic transport of 4,000 beagles from a breeding research facility in Virginia. Chapman graduated from Manchester College with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and

Indiana University McKinney School of Law. After law school, Chapman served as a judicial clerk for the Honorable Paul Mathias on the Indiana Court of Appeals and in private practice defended businesses in complex employment matters before joining the Secretary of State's office as the Business Services Division Attorney and Special Counsel. Chapman currently serves on the Board of Directors for Friends of Indy Animals and Waldo's Muttley Crew Animal Rescue. She is an avid runner and enjoys hiking, yoga and volunteering. She lives with her beagle named Sunny and two cats, Michael and Minnie. Connect with Chapman at Sam4Fishers.com, on Facebook, or email Info@Sam4Fishers.com. Thanks for reading!

Psychology and then earned her J.D. in 2015 from

Crystal Neumann serves as a member of Fishers City Coun-

She has a passion to make a difference and become a role model for others. She is also passionate about sustainability efforts, serving on the Fishers Environmental Working Group. She cares about building community, sustainability, mental health, and public safety. She's been on ride-alongs and completed FireOps 101 Training to connect with others who also serve Fishers. Neumann has a doctorate in business administration with her work being published in several journals, and she has presented at several national and international conferences. Her commitment and efforts toward making education affordable and accessible were recognized, in which she was selected as an honoree of Reverend Jesse L. Jackson's Rainbow PUSH Excel 2017. Neumann was also inducted into the Indiana Latino Leadership Circle in 2020 and Hoosier Women Forward in 2022. She is a 10-year resident of Fishers, mom of one HSE Schools graduate with another in 8th grade, and has a commitment to serve her community.
