As part of Black History Month, the Carmel Clay Historical Society hosted "Roberts Settlement: Our Roots, Our Legacy" on Friday, Feb. 23, at the Carmel Clay Public Library.

Roberts Settlement Vice President Bryan Glover spoke to a group of around 75, sharing the history of the community in northeastern Hamilton County founded by free black settlers in the 1830s.

"It's wonderful to see a full house at these events," said Elizabeth Hamilton, director of the Carmel Clay Public Library families purchased land nearby Foundation.

In 1835, Hansel Roberts, Elijah Roberts, and Micajah Walden made claims with the land office in Indianapolis and received grants for homesteads located in Jackson Township about three-quarters of a mile east of what is today the inter-

Chuck had fixed himself a hot cup of Vanilla Crème Brulee coffee and sat down at our kitchen table where I was writing. When I started with, "Well," he knew he was in for either a sermon or a dissertation of some kind. I think he got both.

During a church testimony service in my early 40s, I remember saying, "Nothing will steal my joy." I had no idea the emotional tsunami I was about to endure.

During my struggle with losing what had been my normal way of living and thinking, I heard that statement echoing in my head. "NOTHING will steal my joy."

Per the Merriam-Webster Dictionary ... joy is the emotion evoked by well-being or the prospect of possessing what one desires. Happiness is defined as the state of well-being or contentment. Another definition of happiness is ... a pleasurable or satisfying experience.

Per the Janet Hart Leonard Dictionary, joy is a decision to enjoy life as much as possible, even during times of great hurt, sorrow, or fear. Happiness is defined as a situation or circumstance where there is no worry, grief, or sickness.

Westfield Washington Schools wipes lunch debt with Arby's grant

By AMY ADAMS

news@readthereporter.com

More than 1,400 students in Westfield Washington Schools have had their school lunch balances paid thanks to a one-time grant from the Arby's Foundation, the WWS Big Hearts fund, and private donations.

The Arby's Foundation, a charitable arm of Arby's Restaurant Group, Inc., recently stepped up to help combat food insecurity by committing $1 million to pay student lunch debt at schools na-

WWS applied for a grant in November 2023 with a total debt amount of nearly $60,000 accrued since the beginning of the school year. Ashley Knott, coordinator of family and community engagement, said that more than 20 percent of students in Westfield and 24 percent across Hamilton County receive free or reduced lunch.

In January, the Arby's Foundation awarded WWS a one-time grant of $59,701 to put toward delinquent lunch accounts for district students and families.

"We've always had lunch steadily," Knott said.

By the time WWS received risen even higher, so in addition to the Arby's Foundation grant, the WWS Big Hearts fund and school district to pay debts in the amount of $71,202.21. The WWS Big Hearts account exists to support students in need through recommendations from a school counselor.

Snelson named Husky Hero

The REPORTER

Hamilton Heights Middle and High School Band Director Mark Snelson has been named the Husky Hero for the month of January. He has been inspiring the love of music and developing future leaders and musicians at Heights since 2019.

"Words cannot begin to describe how honored I feel to receive this award," Snelson said upon being recognized. "It was certainly unexpected. The fact that a student went out of their way to write such heartfelt words about our program, the value music holds in their lives, and the impact of our relationship is overwhelming. It is something never expect."

"We hope that each kid in our program learns to value music in a deep and meaningful way," Snelson said. "We want them to know what it's like to work hard and find success. But most importantly, we have the unique opportunity to teach our students for up to eight years. This gives us a chance to facilitate important character qualities that will serve them well in our class, in school, and us to be the best we can in

Noblesville Lions Club updated on major project

The REPORTER

At last Wednesday's meeting, the Noblesville Lions Club was treated to Lion Mike Imbler, District 25D Eyeglass Recycling Chairman.

Imbler spoke to the club outlining specifics of this project for the international organization. A lot of his information contained updated activities and statistics. The Lions Club screens for eye glasses in many schools and have found a 23 percent student failure rate. Around the world, one in four students cannot see properly, which is a big reason the Lions Club collects glasses for recycling. Carmel Fire awarded International Accreditation status for third time

The REPORTER

The Carmel Fire Department (CFD) has received Accredited Agency status with the Commission on Fire Accreditation International (CFAI) for meeting the criteria established through the CFAI's voluntary self-assessment and accreditation program for a third time. The lengthy process consists of industry best practices and standards and assists CFD in developing programs for continuous improvement.

"I'm very proud of all members of the Carmel Fire Department for achieving accreditation for the third time," Mayor Sue Finkam said. "Their dedication, commitment and caring results in providing the highest level of service possible to our community."

The CFD is one of only 326 agencies to achieve accredited agency status globally and one of only four in the state of Indiana. CFD was accredited by CFAI after initially being accredited in August 2013, then re-accredited in March 2019.

The CFD submitted documents for reaccreditation in August 2023. Upon submission, a peer team consisting of four individual members of the fire service from across the country was assigned to review. HSE school board appoints Patrick Mapes superintendent

Experienced administrator to take the helm of Indiana's fourth-largest school district

Submitted by HSE Schools

Last Wednesday, the Hamilton Southeastern Schools Board of Trustees unanimously voted to approve a contract appointing Patrick Mapes as the district's next superintendent, effective immediately.

Mapes brings over 35 years of experience in teaching and school administration in Indiana, having worked in large, medium, and small K-12 organizations. He most recently served as superintendent of Perry Township Schools, playing an instrumental role in strengthening that district over the course of seven years at the helm.

Prior to leading Perry Township Schools, Mapes was chairman of the Indiana Education Employment Relations Board and spent nearly 15 years serving in various capacities, including superintendent, within Delaware Community Schools in Mun-

This year marked the 24th year of the competition and the largest field of teams in the program's existence. There were 14 teams comprised of nearly 140 students from Fishers, Hamilton Southeastern, Carmel, Guerin Catholic, Noblesville, and Westfield schools in the competition this year. The Bar Association had over 100 attorney and judicial officer volunteers to serve as judges and team advisors.

The case was written by the Indiana Bar Foundation, who generously permits the HCBA to use the case for the county competition. The students prepared the case of "Blake Toomey v. Alameda Pharmaceuticals."

Editor's note: On Monday, Feb. 26, The Reporter published an interview with television legends Linda Purl and Patrick Duffy. The pair spoke about music including Purl's upcoming show at Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael in Carmel love, fate, and their lives together. Read that interview at ReadTheReporter.com.

In addition to sharing their lives, Patrick Duffy and Linda Purl also share a heart for service. They express that through "Duffy's Dough," a business where all the profits go to fight food insecurity.

"Patrick's an idea person, and I think I'm sort of project-oriented," Purl told The Reporter. "Patrick has had a wonderful sourdough starter in his family for over 70 years, and he's a wicked baker with this stuff. If we go to a friend's house, we'll take the rolls, we'll take the cinnamon rolls, we'll take the baguettes, and they get good reviews. So a couple of years ago, Patrick said, 'well, we should start a company with this.' So we did."

Duffy interjected, "I said we should start a company with this. So SHE did. We got to make sure we get that

According to Purl, the couple knew little about running a business, so they reached out to friends who could help.

"We make the sourdough dehydrated starter. We have a little cooking book about what you can do with it," Purl said. "It's all online under DuffysDough.com. It's been a really fun project for us. We're also certified food handlers in the state of Colorado because that's where we make all the dehydrated starter. And boy, do we look good in our little plastic caps and gowns!"

Duffy told The Reporter all the net proceeds go to food-based charities.

"We give away everything," Duffy said. "We haven't made a dime personally. Once we pay for the flour and sugar and packaging, every once in a while, we write a check to a food charity of our choice. We both have had such fortune in our industry that to just say than saying, 'what would it mean to write a check for $50,000 to No Kid Hungry or a soup kitchen in downtown wherever?' Our goal is to leave something behind that will continue on afterwards and just become a standard of how to take care of your fellow person."

the symbolism in this busi-

"Working with bread is full of metaphors," Purl said. "There's the profound thing of the breaking of bread when you get to do that with friends with the end product, but also the resilience that of flour and sugar and off it goes. And it's kind of a miracle, this life force, as it reinvents itself and gives you another loaf of bread or another pancake. It brings people together and it's reassuring somehow to see this thing that that just keeps going."

Duffy ended The Report-Purl said she appreciates er's conversation with a segue that made this old radio broadcaster proud.

> "So bringing this full circle would be 'the new album is this could be the starter of something big."

that the 2024 HEPL Seed Library opened on Monday, March 4 at the Fishers Library. The Noblesville Seed Library will open on Tuesday, March 5.

The Seed Library is open to all Hamilton County residents, who may visit the library to get a maximum of 20 seed packets per library cardholder for the 2024 growing season. The honor system is followed, so there is no need to check in with a staff member unless there are questions. Seeds are not required to be returned, but HEPL does welcome most varieties of harvested seeds to share again with the community.

Seeds are also available for schools, community groups, and nonprofits, whom HEPL loves working with to beautify Fishers and Noblesville. If you'd like to partner with HEPL, please reach out at seedlibrary@hepl.lib.in.us.

"We love hearing about our community's gardens every year, and we know the Seed Library is very important to library users," HEPL Community Engagement Coordinator Julia Welzen said. Find out who has best Sheridan's future educators learn chili at Cicero library about classroom furniture design

Submitted by Sheridan Community Schools

Education Professions students in Jill Cali's class at Sheridan High School (SHS) had an experience that not only allowed them to learn about classroom design but also to have a role in choosing furniture that will be purchased for their classroom.

Dainen Tolman, Director of K12 Education for Business Furniture Co., is passionate about helping educators create inspiring, interactive, and technology-integrated environments, and he brought that passion to the classroom for an interactive session with SHS students.

Tolman spent the first hour of the two-hour session talking to students about how the role of furniture is evolving in business and education. He began by explaining to students how important it is to have a "why," describing it as a "north star" to guide one's actions, including how one designs space. Students learned about agility versus flexibility as they considered what furniture they would select for their classroom.

"I would think that someone in ancient times would absolutely think the world was ending," Schoonveld says, struggling to explain the impact of a total eclipse to someone who has never seen one. "It's like trying to describe a mountain or an ocean using only a picture."

Schoonveld saw the light because of the darkness of Aug. 21, 2017. The day delivered a partial eclipse to much of the Midwest, but Kentucky was in the "path of totality": the narrow sliver of earth that gets a much more spectacular sight as the moon fully blots out the sun.

Schoonveld's family wanted to experience it, so they traveled from Ohio to Hopkinsville, Ky. It was a long trip, and the others were quite excited. Connor admits he was not exactly "over the moon" about the event, so he tagged along happily but not especially fired up.

Justus Companies to relocate headquarters to Noblesville, city approves economic revitalization area

The REPORTER

Last Tuesday, the Noblesville Common Council approved an economic development agreement and designated an economic revitalization area for The Justus Companies to relocate its headquarters to Noblesville after 114 years in Indianapolis.

The $7.33 million investment is part of the Planned Urban Development (PUD) Promenade of Noblesville, located on the northeast corner of Little Chicago Road and successfully negotiated the State Road 32. The Promenade of Noblesville PUD is a dynamic and inclusive community developed by The Justus Companies, residential comprising spaces, businesses, and recreational facilities.

"The significant investment The Justus Companies is making in Noblesville will increase the overall quality of life of our residents through job creation, housing, and creating a business and pedestrian friendly environment," Mayor Chris Jensen said. "We are grateful to Walt Justus and his team at The Justus Companies, for putting their trust and investment in the City of Noblesville as the future home of their headquarters. They parallel our commitment in making long-term investments in our residents ment and placing importance on being a community new jobs where everyone can work, live, and play. The Justus Companies have a proven track record of success in contributing to economic development and we are excited to welcome them to Noblesville."

As your employee, it's important to me that you know what is being worked on as transparently as possible in government. You hired me as your County Councilman, and my hope is that you'll choose to be informed by regularly reading this column, getting involved, and by asking questions. Council meetings are at 7 p.m. the first Wednesday of every month at the Judicial Center in downtown Noblesville. Meetings are also available

Like many of us, February's work was interrupted by Influenza A. Yep, I caught the flu. Personally, I missed an entire week of work. Yuck! Glad that's over. February's work concentrated on Finance, the Regional Development Commission, the County Utility District and researching upcoming proposed projects for both the full council as well as the RDC.

> This month there were two constituents service requests. Usually, requests require research with a county department, securing the correct answer and then following up with the taxpayer.

February's taxpayer questions were regarding the 2024 budget and the county tax rate. A constituent expressed concern after reading in the paper that higher than expected county investment income would be moved into existing budgeted line-item expenses. The 2024 budget included a substantial budgeted amount of investment talk about county business.

The second request was for information regarding the county tax rate and where on the county auditor's webpage our rates by township could be found. The taxpayer wanted to compare the county tax rate with that of Noblesville School District.

This month, it was an honor to represent you at the Westfield Small Business Networking meeting and at the Judge Andrew Bloch robing ceremony.

This is my timesheet. This is where my time went during month 14. There are quite a few projects in the queue for 2024, and while my job is primarily the financial oversight of the county budget, it is important to understand the Board of Commissioners' priorities and balance them with the stewardship of taxpayer dollars. That is the job, and I am excited to do the people's business.

As a taxpayer myself, and listening to so many of you, our employers, it's important for the taxpayers to have access to all the information you want. I work for you and although you may not choose to do a deep dive into what your County Council does, it's important that you can always do so.

The first bill going forward is SB 1, reading skills. The bill requires certain schools, beginning with the 2024-2025 school year, to offer summer school courses for students who are not reading proficient or are at nity was the failure to give risk of not being reading proficient by third grade.

A similar reading proficiency bill, SB 6, requires the Department of Education to develop a method to identify students in grades 4 through grade 8 who are at risk of not being proficient in reading.

SB 185 addresses the use of wireless communication devices. This legislation requires each school corporation and charter school to adopt and implement a wireless communication device policy that prohibits a student from using a wireless communication device during instructional time. There is wording for a teacher to allow a student to use a or grandparents, we would wireless communication device for educational purposes during instructional time, in the event of an emergency, or to manage the student's health care.

Sandra Letitia Sherman Lees April 5, 1936 - February 29, 2024

Sandra "Sandy" Lees went to her eternal home on February 29, 2024, in Midwest City, Okla.

Mrs. Lees was born on April 5, 1936, to Paul and Alice Sherman in Noblesville. She grew up on a farm, where she developed her love for nature and especially horses. It was while she attended high school in Noblesville that she began dating the love of her life, Julius "Jude" Lees. She graduated in 1954, and she and Jude were married on July 8, 1955, after which they left for the adventure of Jude's career in the Air Force. They lived in Texas, Montana, South Dakota, Wyoming, and Utah during those years, raising three sons.

Upon Jude's retirement from the service in 1973, they returned home to Noblesville. Once they were settled again, she began working for the Noblesville Public Library, and continued working there for 20 years until her retirement. She was an active member of First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Noblesville, where she grew up and was married. She was a faithful Christian who was involved in a Disciples of Christ church wherever she lived. She was most recently a member of First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Midwest City. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star Radiant Chapter in Noblesville, where she served as a Past Honored Queen of Job's Daughters, Worthy Matron, District Deputy, and Grand Representative to Scotland. In 2009, Sandy and Jude moved to Midwest City, Okla.

Sandy was a talented soprano who sang solo and with choirs for many years. She was known by all as a loving and giving person. She loved giving gifts and celebrating those she knew and loved. She loved holidays and celebrations and worked to make them special. She was a loving mother and a wonderful sister, mother-in-law, aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. She was a curious lifelong learner. A visit with Sandy and Jude often included an interesting trip to a museum, and books and magazines were always present in their home. After raising three hungry boys, she never broke the habit of feeding people, and she always remembered a favorite dish.

She leaves behind her devoted husband Julius, sons Roderick (Cathleen) of Midwest City, Okla., Norman (Evelyn) of Noblesville, and Eric (Stephanie) of Plainfield, nine grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, her brother Ivan (Cathy) Sherman, two nieces and their families, and many other relatives and friends that she held close to her heart.

She was preceded in death by her parents and a sister-in-law, Delores Sherman.

Services will be held on Saturday, March 9 at Noblesville First Christian Church, 16377 Herriman Blvd., with visitation from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; an Eastern Star service at 12:30 p.m.; and a memorial service at 1 p.m. Interment will be at Highland Cemetery, 11171 Hoosier Road, Fishers.

Doyle Jacob Essig May 2, 1942 - February 23, 2024

Doyle Jacob Essig, 81, Conover, N.C., formerly of Noblesville, passed away on Friday, February 23, 2024, at Cardinal Health Center in Lincoln, N.C. Born May 2, 1942, in Noblesville, he was the son of the late Fred and Mary L. (Smith) Essig.

Doyle was a 1961 graduate of Sheridan High School. Shortly after graduation he put in his application with Riverview Hospital in Noblesville, taking the first steps of what would become a wonderful 33-year adventure. Though much of his time at Riverview was spent as an orderly, he wasn't defined by just his title. Whenever he saw a need, he was there to lend a hand. Doyle never had the "it's not part of my job" mindset. Each day he went from department to department, doing what he did best - helping where he could, and making the workday a little easier for everybody on shift.

Doyle had many interests outside of work. This led him to become involved in various clubs throughout his life, including membership in the Good Sam Club, National Handyman Club, National Cooking Club, and National Gardening Club. He was also a dedicated member of the Moose Lodge #540 in Noblesville.

His gentle spirit and strong sense of faith helped him live a life dedicated to caring for others. He will be greatly missed by everyone who had the pleasure of working with him and having him be a part

Doyle is survived by his cousins, Charles Smith, Donna Dillow, Anna Belle Robertson, and Mary Mkiels (Jerry). Mary and her husband, Jerry, were Doyle's devoted caregivers for many years. He was preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Mary L.

(Smith) Essig; brother, Royce M. Essig; and by his cousin, Phillip Private family services will be held at Kercheval Funeral Home

Doyle will be laid to rest at Boxley Cemetery in Boxley, Ind. Condolences: kerchevalfuneralhome.com

RARE LIFEfrom Page A9

One of the people I met is a young woman who lives in Australia. We video chat on a regular basis, which is incredible! We share our successes and struggles and feel truly understood. There are also a few people I have met online who live right here in the U.S. I haven't had the opportunity to meet in person with anyone yet, but I do hope to someday soon.

A very brief explanation for a very complicated life stories of what has shaped our lives positively and negatively. My rare disease has done both for me. There are a lot of tough days and just downright gut-wrenching moments living with a progressive muscle disease. Watching abilities I once had being ripped away is immensely difficult to process.

There are also many beautiful moments that have come out of this story. So, it continues, finding the balance between the two and living life to the fullest the best that I can. Not always getting it right, but always willing to try again.

Until next time ...

PA requirements who met (or would have met) at least an 80 percent PA approval rate in the previous 12-month period for a particular health care service.

 Require transparency of a utilization review entity's requirements, restrictions, clinical criteria, and statistics on approvals and denials on its website.

• Compel that PA determinations must be made with 48 hours of requests with shorter turnaround times for urgent and emergency services.

Unfortunately, the bill died in the Senate Appropriations Committee over cost-to-Medicaid concerns. These are admittedly stringent requirements and undoubtedly the legislation would have faced stiff opposition in the House by powerful insurance and employer groups.

The legislature must meaningfully address the outof-control PA system. Probably not this year.

NOBLESVILLE – For a top three matchup between Noblesville and Westfield, the Millers and Shamrocks couldn't have asked for a better environment in a soldout Class 4A Sectional 8

The Mill. A huge second-quarter surge was exactly what Noblesville needed as it made a statement in last night's first semifinal with a dominating 71-43 home court win.

As is the rivalry, the first quarter was a quick backand-forth before Westfield had two different five-point leads. Noblesville would then go on a 7-3 run to end the first, trailing 16-15.

"We played really, really well in the second quarter, allowing us to get a lead and kind of gain a lot of momentum," Noblesville head coach Scott McClelland said.

The Millers played a pretty flawless second quarter and seemed to leave the 'Rocks stymied heading into halftime.

After trailing late in the first 16-13, Noblesville scored 24 unanswered points. Before Westfield knew it, the Millers had built a 37-16 lead.

That lead would swell to 41-19 at halftime, leaving Westfield stunned through two quarters.

Noblesville kept the momentum once they grabbed the lead early in the second and didn't let up. Their lead stayed at just about the same length for most of the third and held to a 55-32 lead after three.

"We're just trying to chip away and our goal was to try to get it to under 10 going into the fourth quarter," said Sumpter. "We made a couple of runs, but we just couldn't get over that hump. Five county girls players earn "Supreme 15" honors, IBCA releases All-State honors for 2023-2024

Five Hamilton County girls basketball players are among the 15 seniors and 15 underclass girls' basketball players have earned IBCA/Franciscan Health "Supreme 15" All-State players in our county. I think honors for 2023-24, it was announced Thursday.

The IBCA also named Large School All-State teams (15 seniors, 15 underclass) and Small School All-State teams (16 seniors, 15 underclass).

The "Supreme 15" is the top honor awarded, and players were voted to that group without regard to school size. The Large School and Small School all-state teams are secondary accolades -- the Large School group including players from Class 3A and Class 4A schools and the Small School group including players from Class A and Class 2A schools. Players who make the Supreme 15 are not considered for Large School or Small School honors. The Senior Small School All-State team had 16 members because of a tie in the voting for the final spot.

In addition, 89 more class players were selected honorable mention all-state. The honorable mention laurels are awarded without regard to school size. In total, 270 players -- 135 seniors and 135 underclass players -- were recognized on the 2024 IBCA girls' basketball All-State teams.

Fishers' Talia Harris, Hamilton Heights' Camryn Runner and Noblesville's Reagan Wilson were among the players voted to the 2024 IBCA/Franciscan Health Supreme 15 Senior girls' team. The other players are, listed alphabetically: Payton Benge, Plainfield; Ani-

Fishers girls basketball coach endures years-long recovery with ulcerative colitis

In the other photo is that same young woman. She is at a healthy weight and her face has no mask, only a big bright smile as her team is seconds away from winning a sectional champion-

That woman is Lauren Votaw. The first picture is from 2021, when she was battling a case of ulcerative colitis, for which she would soon have surgery to remove her colon and get an ileostomy. After a lengthy recovery, Votaw is going full speed ahead with her life – raising a family, coaching basketball and spreading awareness of ulcerative colitis and ileostomy, the latter of which she believes has enhanced and saved her life.

"It was just a long ordeal," said Votaw. "But now looking back on it, I'm like, 'Why did we wait website says that cortico- Fortune, which is on at 7 so long to have it done?' Because my life is just so much better."

Votaw said she began noticing the symptoms "around 2011, 2012." They continued to get progressively worse over the next nine years.

"When I started having symptoms, I was diagnosed approximately, probably ulcerative colitis," Votaw. There's no cure for ulcerative colitis, but medications can put the disease into remission.

"I would go stretches young woman with her hair where medicines would work, but then the further we got, the harder that became to keep it under control," said Votaw.

> "For nearly 10 years we had watched the highs and lows that this disease created for Lauren," said Ann Vail, Votaw's mother. We witnessed periods of intense flares that really knocked her down, times when new therapies improved her condition and helped her feel much better, and other times when the drug therapies caused new, uncomfortable side effects.

After years of dealing with the symptoms and side effects, Votaw met with her gastrointestinal doctor in November 2020 about having her colon removed. At that point, Votaw had been on a 60-milligram dosage of the corticosteroid prednisone "for way too long," she said, also pointing out that a regular dose of prednisone is 20 milligrams.

Part 2: Votaw embraces fewer limitations, new addition to family

By RICHIE HALL

sports@readthereporter.com

The story of Fishers girls basketball coach Lauren Votaw's ulcerative colitis and ileostomy journey didn't end because they're scared of the finding out they were going with her February 2021 surgery to remove her colon.

In fact, some parts of the story are still in the first chapter. That includes the part where Votaw talks about how much her life has improved after years of suffering from colitis as well as the part where she and her husband Jeremy welcomed a new addition to their family.

Votaw was in the hospital for 70 days after the surgery due to several complications, and she admitted there were times that were not easy. (Votaw posted about her journey on her Facebook page, which you can find at facebook.com/lauren.vail.18.) But once she was out of the hospital, she was on her way to a much-improved life.

An ileostomy is a stoma, or surgical opening, formed when the end of the small intestine (ileum) is brought onto the surface of the skin. Waste product then leaves the intestine and stoma, where it is deposited into a bag.

It is necessary to empty the bag throughout the day, but Votaw said in a Facebook post on about Inflammatory Bowel Diseases that it takes "approximately one minute" to empty it - which again is a perfect example of how her life has improved.

"I thought my life was going to be limited when in reality, it's the complete opposite," said Votaw. "I have way fewer limitations now on what I can eat, when we can travel. I don't have to worry about where a bathroom is. I can exercise more because my body is healthier."

Votaw is sharing her story with the hopes that she can "take some of the stigma away from stomas and ileos-

"Lauren worked tirelessly to manage this disease and continue to participate in all matched to adopt a baby the activities a young adult wants to experience," said "She made so many adjustments to her daily routine just so she could do the things she really wanted to do. Very few people realized how challenging her daily life had become. After the surgery, not only did she feel significantly better than she had for 10 years, many other aspects of her daily life improved and she had more time and energy for her personal and work activities.'

Votaw also wants to being general awareness of bowel diseases. She estimated that she had gone through "12, maybe 13 colonoscopies in that entire time," when most people will have five in their entire lifetime.

"I was having to miss school a lot and the students would ask why," said Votaw. "One of the things that I would try to do was be open and honest about what was going on. Colon cancer is a very curable cancer if they find it early and a lot of people are scared of colonoscopies."

Votaw wants to help her students understand that it's okay to talk about topics like that, and it's not something to avoid.

"If they're ever in a situation, they know it's okay to do that," she said.

Votaw and the Fishers girls basketball team has gotten involved with the Crohn's and Colitis Walk at Conner Prairie. They participated in the walk in 2022, and also helped with the event set-up.

"It means a lot to me that they come and participate in that," said Votaw. This year's hide the bag because I want Indiana Take Steps Walk is people to ask about it. I scheduled for June 8 at Con-

A few days before the state title game, the Votaws received an email asking if they wanted to show their profile to the mother. They said yes. The mother contacted the couple the Wednesday before the state championship, and a phone conversation followed.

The next Monday, Votaw reached out to the mother. She replied with an email that had the adoption contract.

FIRE CUMULATIVE CAPITAL FUND Notice is hereby given to the taxpayers of the City of Noblesville, Hamilton

County, Indiana, that the City of Noblesville Common Council will consider at 16 . 10th Street at 7:00 p.m. on March 12, 2024, the re-establishment of a maximum authorized property tax rate for the Fire Cumulative Capital Fund under the provisions of Indiana Code 36-8-14-4 for the purposes as follows:

The tax will be levied on all taxable real and personal property within the taxing district and will not exceed $0.0333 per $100 assessed valuation for taxes due and payable in the year 2025. Since this levy is included and constrained by the City's statutory maximum property tax levy limit, under IC 6-1.1-1.5-24, the ax rate set for this fund does not increase the City's total allowable property ax levy for taxes due and payable in the year 2025. Furthermore, the Common Council annually establishes a self-imposed maximum City property tax rate limit, currently set at $1.10 per $100 assessed valuation for taxes due and payable n 2024, and the tax rate for this fund is also included within and constrained by the self-imposed maximum City property tax rate limit to be set for taxes due and ayable in 2025.

Taxpayers appearing at such hearing shall have the right to be heard thereon.

The proposal for establishment of the Fire Cumulative Capital Fund maximum rate is subject to approval by the Department of Local Government Finance. Within 30 days after the date of the adoption of the cumulative fund by the Common Council, the City of Noblesville will publish a Notice of Adoption. Upon publication of the Notice of Adoption, 10 or more taxpayers in the taxing district may file a petition with the County Auditor not later than noon 30 days after the publication of the Notice of Adoption setting forth their objections to the proposed fund. Dated this 14th day of February, 2024.

ARCADIA

TOWN OF ARCADIA PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

On or about June 28, 2024, Town of Arcadia intends to apply to the Indiana Office of Community and Rural Affairs for a grant from the Office of Community and Rural Affair's Community Focus Fund of the State Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. This program is funded by Title I of the federal Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended. These funds a to be used for a community development project that will include the following activities: Stormwater Improvements for the Town of Arcadia involving the Wilson-Nagle Drain and West Arcadia Drain. The total amount of CDBG funds o be requested is $574,800.00 (4.2% reduction in CDBG funds). The amount of CDBG funds proposed to be used for activities that will benefit low- and moderate-income persons is $312,461.00. The Applicant also proposes to expend an estimated $6,650,000.00 in non-CDBG funds on the project. "These con-CDBG funds will be derived from the following sources: the process to fund tregulated drain reconstruction projects dictated by State statute and the Hamilton County American Recovery Program (ARP) funds."
Town of Arcadia will hold a public hearing on March 18, 2024, at 6:00pm, in

Arcadia Town Hall (Community Room), 208 W Main Street to provide interested parties an opportunity to express their views on the proposed federally funded CDBG project. Fishers outlasts Southeastern for shot at sectional championship

By CRAIG ADKINS

For The Reporter

 $\label{eq:NOBLESVILLE} NOBLESVILLE - The$ second semifinal at Class 4A Sectional 8 last Friday ended up a closer outcome than the first game. The No. 1 Fishers Tigers and Hamilton Southeastern Royals duked it out once again in the postseason.

The Tigers found ways late in the game to make moves to outlast the Royals to move on to the title game, 54-44.

The top three ranked teams in Class 4A are in the Sectional 8 field and that becomes a motivational factor.

"We heard all week it was 1-2-3 and I think we were kind of an afterthought," said Hamilton Southeastern head coach John Ashworth." Our kids were pretty motivated by that and wanted to make sure that people respect our program as well."

It would be HSE that jumped out first. After Keenan Garner tied it 2-2, the Royals got four straight from Braeden Totton to make it 6-2.
