context of what I've written.

It can be a bit of a challenge sometimes because he is a civil engineer, and the way I write is like the way I talk. As an engineer, he thinks it could be written a little differently.

I am the polar opposite of an engineer, whatever that is called. I don't really have a mathematical bone in my body, and honestly that used to make me feel inadequate.

When my boys came along, I realized that they are also math wizards. I started to see that really it didn't mean I wasn't smart, it just meant that I learn in a different way. The way my brain works is more on the emotional, feeling side of things. We are somewhat the same, but different.

Eventually, Grandma wrote her story and said, "Now that's all. I'm not going to write anymore. Ever."

And she didn't.

Mother said that she wished that she had written Grandmother's story. She would have included things that would interest us children that Grandma left out. At one time I well knew many of her old tales word for word. As she got older and would be stumped as to what happened next, I'd fill in for her. "Yes, that's right," she'd say and continue. But she forgot because she can't remember and I forgot more or less deliberately. Maybe it's better that way.

Don't we miss Downton Abbey and the engaging Tom Branson not the subject of my column this week! His comfor our timely topic.

Looking back over 248 years (this July 4th!) of eating habits in our country, I believe our American ancestors would be astonished to see that many Americans today must make some hard choices in their dietary and exercise habits in order to achieve a healthy life. After all, for the most part our ancestors did not have the ability to eat pretty much constantly by virtue of snacking and ready-to-eat dining options at their fingertips.

The typical 1776 diet of the colonists consisted of wild game, soups/stews, cabbage/root vegetables and breads¹ while the typical diet of the early-mid 19th century was made up mostly of salted cured meats, butter/ milk, and homegrown vegetables², and the early-to-mid 20th century diet was more varied with fruit and vegetables but mostly consisted of meat and potatoes, dairy products, and the introduction of convenience foods.³

The typical diet of the USA population from the mid-50s until today introduced soft drinks both regular and diet, chips and salty snacks, processed meats, and a myriad of pastries and sweets. Growing up in the 50s and 60s, I seldom recall eating between meals, and snacks were limited to special occasions. "Fast" food

Oh, but he is quote above this week to emphasize that for many it is quite difficult to sacrifice ment, however, rings true the salt, sugar, preservative-laden foods that are at our fingertips any time of day or night. Adding to this epidemic of obesity is the cable industry, offering hundreds of cable TV stations to choose from as we click the remote and video games that do not require movement from the sofa.

> The combination of our dietary habits and "couch potato" fitness regimen are causing us to lose focus on living a long and healthy life. Remember, too, that our American ancestors were in constant movement if they were able; "sitting" was not part of their daily regimen. Their activity levels used what they consumed. For the most part, their shorter life spans were due to maladies not yet curable and preventable by antibiotics and inoculations against disease.

> While no one has a guarantee on longevity, don't we owe it to ourselves and our loved ones to have a life that is worth living? Today's world is full of anxiety, stress, and the ability to make poor choices - let's choose a future that can be better shaped by a healthy, dynamic eating plan and the resolve to stay strong, flexible, and energetic.

WHO IS JESUS...

The Devil rebelled and with his lies deceived Adam and Eve and the whole world was broken

People gather at Christmas because of Jesus' birth to bring Hope and Joy.

Jesus' birth would mean nothing if He did not complete His mission of Good Friday and Easter

Jesus taught us to Love God and Love your neighbor as yourself.

Greater love has no man than this: to lay down ones life for his friend. John 15:13.

Not only did Jesus die for us, He overcame death and Satan. He rose from the dead and still lives! To those who believe in his name, He gave the right to become children of God.

This is the feast of victory for our God. For Jesus was sacrificed to set us free. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Westfield Lions help prep for Post Office Food Drive

Club members fold 1,000 bags for postal carriers

At the Westfield Lions Club's March 21 meeting, the members spent time folding 1,000 plastic bags that will part of the upcoming "USPS Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive" event that benefits the Open Doors Food Pantry. Over the past few weeks, Open Doors has been utilizing people in the community, along with the Westfield Lions Club, to fold approximately 60,000 plastic bags that will be delivered to homes by postal carriers around the Westfield/Carmel area. A post card will be attached to the bags that explains what the event is all about and encourages the public to put non-perishable food donations in the bags and leave them at their mailboxes for the postal carriers to pick up. The collection date for the food bags will be May 11.

Virginia Callahan Ewing September 2, 1942 - March 18, 2024

Virginia Callahan Ewing passed away into the loving arms of her Heavenly Father on Monday, March 18, 2024. Born on September 2, 1942, in Adair County, Ky., she was the daughter of the late Henry C. and Eva Wise Callahan.

After growing up in Kentucky, Virginia came to Sheridan and started working for Pickett's Poultry. Virginia spent many years working in electronics for Zaring Industries and then JB Electronics until they closed. On June 16, 1999, she started working for Goodwill Industries of Central Indiana. She retired in 2010 when she was diagnosed with breast cancer. In 2007, she was diagnosed with thyroid cancer. She was a true survivor, bravely fighting both cancers without complaints.

Sheridan is where she met the Love of her life, Burlin C. Ewing. They were married on November 23, 1963, in Noblesville and celebrated 59 wonderful years together.

Virginia never met a stranger, and her infectious smile and easygoing sweet spirit could instantly put you at ease. Her heart always gravitated toward children, the elderly, and animals. She was always willing to help those in need, even if she didn't have much herself.

She loved being with her family, and ALL holidays were spent at her house. She loved baking, and especially loved making desserts. She enjoyed sharing them with anyone who stopped by, and always found a way to send some home with everybody. When you went to her home you were always offered something to eat. Her son-in-law, Steve, affectionately named her "food pusher."

Virginia enjoyed reading the Bible, and leafing through cookbooks, as well as hand quilting, gardening, and canning vegetables (which would become a summer tradition with her daughters). Making jelly was another one of her specialties. She and her daughter Trena made jelly for Christmas gifts last year. Another one of Virginia's talents was crocheting; one summer she crocheted 100 hats that were given to the homeless for the winter.

Virginia had a passion for music and loved to sing. In 1977, she purchased a piano and enrolled all her children in piano lessons. Her children played and sang in church for many years at The Kirklin Assembly of God, where she was a member. She loved working with her children, teaching them harmony, and always telling them to "sing it with feeling!" She herself could play guitar and banjo. Eventually, her son Brian started playing guitar, her daughter Trena drums, and Tina was always on piano.

Virginia was a constant caregiver, caring for her sister Margaret until her death on August 24, 2022, and later for her own husband, Burlin, during the last years of his life. Burlin passed away on March 26, 2023. After his death, Virginia found peace in helping her granddaughter look after the newest addition to the family, baby Eber, who was born one week after her Burlin's passing. She continued to Representatives. According help care for her great-grandchildren, Eugene, and Eber, on a nearly daily basis. They lovingly called her GiGi.

She loved Jesus, her husband, and her family with her whole heart! She loved spending time with her seven grandchildren, who her husband Burlin called "The Magnificent Seven." She was loved by her entire family, leaving them truly heartbroken.

Virgina is survived by her three children, Tina (David) Kalman of Kirklin, Trena (Stephen) Hunt of Kirklin, and Brian (Rachelle) Ewing of Cicero; seven grandchildren, Kaitlyn (Brandon) Pickett of Sheridan, Wesley Malbone of Katy, Texas, Kristina Kalman of Sheridan, Ciara (Nick) Halbert of Noblesville, Taylor Ewing of Cicero, Christian Ewing of Cicero, and Ella Ewing of Cicero; special grandchild, Drew (Laurie) Hunt of Kirklin; great-grandchildren, Eugene Bennett Pickett, Eber Bailey Pickett, James Tyson Hunt, and Emma Lee Hunt; brother, Bradley (Linda) Callahan of Elk Horn, Ky.; sister-in-law, Stella Callahan of Knifley, Ky.; several nieces and nephews; and her feline, "The 8th Street Cat," Coco.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry C. and Eva Wise Callahan; sisters, Margaret Stultz, and Mattie Bell Callahan; brothers, Herol, Eddie, and Coy Callahan; and by the love of her life, Burlin C. Ewing.

Services will take place at 1 p.m. on Monday, April 1, 2024, at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan. Burial will follow at Spencer Cemetery in Sheridan. Virginia's son-in-law, David Kalman, will be officiating. Visitation will take place from 4 to 8 p.m. on Sunday, March 31, 2024, at Kercheval Funeral home in Sheridan.

Mike Braun signs Term Limits Convention pledge

Submitted

U.S. Term Limits (USTL), the leader in the national, non-partisan movement to limit terms for elected officials, is gathering support from state lawmakers across the nation. Its mission is to get 34 states to apply for an amendment proposal convention specific to term limits on Congress.

gubernatorial Indiana candidate and U.S. Senator Mike Braun has committed support for term limits on Congress by signing the Term Limits Convention pledge.

"Mike's support of term limits shows that there are individuals who are willing to listen to the majority of voters who want term limits," USTL President Philip Blumel said. "America needs a Congress that will be served by citizen legislators, not career politicians."

The U.S. Term Limits pledge is provided to candidates and members of state legislatures. It reads, "I pledge that as Governor, I will support the U.S. Term Limits resolution applying for an Article V convention for the limited purpose of enacting term limits on Congress.'

In the 1995 case, Thornton v. U.S. Term Limits, the Supreme Court of the United States opined that only a Constitutional Amendment could limit the terms of U.S. Senators and House to USTL Executive Director Nick Tomboulides, the best chance of imposing term limits on Congress is through an Article V Proposal Convention of state legislatures.

"The Constitution allows for amendments to be proposed by either two-thirds of Congress or two-thirds of the states," Tomboulides said. "While we'd like for Congress to take the high road and propose term limits on itself, our goal is to trigger the latter, cifically for a term limits from state legislators."

Once proposed, the amendment must be ratified by 38 states.

"More than 87 percent of Americans have rejected the career politician model and want to replace it with citizen leadership," Tomboulides said. "The way to achieve that goal is through a congressional term limits amendment. Mike knows this and is willing to work to make sure we reach our goal."

According to the latest nationwide poll on term limits conducted by Pew Research, term limits enjoy wide bipartisan support. Pew's analysis states, "An overwhelming majority of adults (87%) favor limiting the number of terms that members of Congress are allowed to serve. This includes a majority 56% who strongly favor this proposal,

Mary Caroline Savitsky March 6, 1930 - March 20, 2024

Mary Caroline Savitsky, 94, passed away peacefully at her home in Westfield, surrounded by her loving family, on Wednesday morning, March 20, 2024. Born March 6, 1930, in Shenandoah, Pa., she was the daughter of the late Joseph and the late Elizabeth (Gorski) Zynel.

After graduating from J.W. Cooper High School, Mary worked as a store clerk and as a secretary for an insurance company before embarking on her primary vocation as a homemaker. She was an amazing wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Mary was also a meticulous housekeeper and superb cook and baker. Her many recipes are cherished by her children and grandchildren. Mary enjoyed gardening, traveling, doing word and Sudoku puzzles, and going to the casino.

A 36-year member of Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church in Harrisburg, Pa., Mary was involved in a number of parish activities. After moving to Westfield, she became an active member of St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church. Mary was a devout Catholic and often attended daily Mass. In her later years she spent several hours a day in prayer, reading Scripture, saying the Rosary, and praying for loved ones both living and deceased. We are comforted that she will now be an intercessor for our family and friends.

Family was always the most important thing in Mary's life. She was preceded in death by her best friend and the love of her life, Wallace Ralph Savitsky. She and Wallace were married on January 13, 1951, and their 66 years of marriage were, and will continue to be, an inspiration to their children and grandchildren. Surviving are her son, Robert J. Savitsky (Julia) of Sheridan; her two daughters, Mary Savitsky-Ulowetz (Joseph Ulowetz) of Northbrook, Ill., and Patricia Hinrichs (Donald) of Westfield; her six grandchildren, Allison Brockley (Travis) and Devin Fetterhoff of Westfield, Andrew Savitsky of Washington, D.C., Matthew Savitsky of Chicago, Ill., Christina Ulowetz (Nina Fichera) of Ardmore, Pa., and Kathy Ulowetz of New York City; her great-grandchildren, Genevieve and Eloise Brockley; and many nieces and nephews. Mary was also preceded in death by her parents; four sisters, Mary Ann Zynel, Josephine Yanchulis, Genevieve Gilpin, and Theresa Kelly; and three brothers, Victor Zynel, Edward Zynel and Vincent Zynel.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

THE CUPBEARER AND THE BAKER

Some time later, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt. Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined. The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them.

After they had been in custody for some time, each of the two men—the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison—had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected. So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were in custody with him in his master's house, "Why do you look so sad today?"

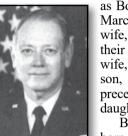

"We both had dreams," they answered, "but there is no one to interpret them.'

Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams."

NOBLESVILLE – An all-county boys lacrosse game went Hamilton Southeastern's way on Wednesday

The Royals played at Guerin Catholic and won 14-1. Southeastern scored its first goal right away, with John Pauls scoring off an assist from Max Kemp just 44 seconds into the contest.

The Royals put in five goals in both the first and second quarters, leading to a 10-0 advantage by halftime. Southeastern's four other first-quarter goals were unassisted: Kyle Perkins found the back of the net, followed by Kemp. Pauls added his second goal, then David Gould scored with 16 seconds left in the period.

Kemp provided more offense in the second quarter, scoring twice and assisting with two other goals. Both of those assists came on quick goals during the last 23 seconds of the half; Pauls scored, then Gould scored just nine seconds later.

Pauls assisted Kemp's second goal of the half, while Nicholas Weber also got a second-quarter score.

"Really proud of how we battled the faceoff X," said Southeastern coach Scott Beesley. "Nick Weber's a junior for us and has done a really good job of controlling the tempo of the games by the way he wins faceoffs, so I really thought 16 had a tremendous effort for us tonight.

"Then offensively, I thought we were really patient when we the ball. I didn't think we tried to rush any shots. We really valued possessions and shared the ball very well as a team."

Trey Boysen scored at the 3:36 mark of the third quarter. Kemp assisted that one, and then he scored his fourth goal of the game with 17 seconds left in the period.

Ethan Ducey added the Royals' 13th goal of the game with 7:44 left in the fourth quarter, then Lukas Kress finished the HSE scoring with 1:40 left. Both goals were assisted by Kemp, giving him six for the game in addition to four of his own goals.

"We're a pretty young team on offense," said Beesley, whose team is now 5-0 for the season. "We've got some great senior leaders on defense, so it's fun to see the offense clicking this early were going to have a few more growing pains than Carmel was to play Plainfield on Wednesday, but the meet was canceled. The Greyhounds are off until Tuesday, April 9, when they host Delta.
