Get out there and vote

Is anyone interested in today's primary?

The REPORTER

Today is Primary Election Day. While voting is a right, it is also a responsibility, and Hamilton County's Hometown Newspaper is offering you as much information as we can so you can make an informed decision at the polls. Several candidates have ads in today's special edition and our thanks go out to them both for supporting local, independent news, as well as for engaging with voters.

The resources we have assembled to help you make your choice include:

- An abundance of candidate bios on Pages 3 to 7

- The complete list of polling locations on Page 9

- A list of every candidate on both the Republican and Democratic ballots, also on Page 9

According to Hoosier Weather Daddy Paul Poteet, today we'll see showers and storms, with some being severe by mid-afternoon. The high will be 78. Storms will continue into the evening, with a low of 63.

No more excuses. Get out there and vote, Hamilton County. Our republic needs you.

Today is Primary Election Day, but is anyone excited about it? I haven't found any excitement around Hamilton County.

This lack of interest comes despite the fact that county voters in the Republican primary may play a big part in choosing our representative in Congress, our Senator and Governor.

COLUMNIST

FRED SWIFT
The County Line

Hamilton County now has the fourth largest number of voters among the state's 92 counties, and probably the third largest number of Republican voters.

The primary races for 5th District Congress and governor have created a storm of TV advertising, mostly negative, but seem to have resulted in little interest for the average local voter.

This year is a presidential election year, but with Donald Trump and Joe Biden having their nominations seemingly locked up, today's vote lacks the interest that a presidential primary usually brings. It takes a burning local issue to generate wide interest for county voters. Primary voter turnout has been dropping to new lows in recent years partly because issues are lacking.

This year's primary features almost no contests at the county level where judges for Circuit Court, Superior Courts 1 and 6, County Auditor, Treasurer, Surveyor, County Commissioners in Districts 2 and 3 along with three County Council seats are on the ballot.

Republicans have only two contests for county office: a race for the treasurer nomination between incumbent Susan Byer and challenger Robert Bragg. Also, a race for County Council-at-large where incumbents Brad Beaver, Sue Maki and Steve Nation are challenged by Elizabeth Fouch. Three of the four will be nominated.

Both county party chairs agree: these billboards are bad politics

By STU CLAMPITT
news@readthereporter.com

A billboard campaign advocating for Democrats to decide which Republican candidates win the May primary has two party leaders in Hamilton County in agreement.

Both Democratic Party Chair Jocelyn Vare and Republican Party Chair Mario Massillamany told The Reporter they stand against this brand of election manipulation.

The billboards, which are reportedly coming to the borders of Hamilton County in the near future, read, "Even Democrats can vote in the Republican Primary." The billboards are paid for and authorized by ReCenter Indiana PAC.

The website ReCenterIndiana.org states, "Many races, including the governor, will likely be decided on May 7, not November 5. Participating in the Republican primary gives Democrats, Libertarians, and independents a say in selecting nominees who are likely to be elected."

The website goes on to point out six "key races to watch" when organizers believe participation in the Republican primary by non-Republicans could affect the outcome. Three of those races will be decided in whole or in part by Hamilton County:

Indiana House District 24, from which Donna Schaibley is retiring, House District 29, which is being vacated by Chuck Goodrich in his bid for Congress, and Indiana Governor.

The website lists all the candidates and provides links to some – but not all – of their campaign websites.

Vare told The Reporter she spoke with Massillamany and found they are in complete agreement in standing against the actions of this political action committee.

"I want Democratic voters to vote in the Democratic primary and Mario wants Republicans to vote in the Republican primary," Vare said. "We were in alignment when we had a conversation about how we want people to vote genuinely, but even before that, we want people to vote."

Massillamany told The Reporter he agreed.

"We want people to come out and vote," Massillamany said, "My main push is that people should take advantage of the ability to participate in one of the greatest countries' election processes and vote on May 7. We have so many important races that influence not only national, but also local levels. Republicans, Democrats, get out and vote. Democrats vote in theirs. Republicans vote in ours."

Vare

Vare said she wants people to vote genuinely.

"We want people to come out and vote for this primary," Vare said. "On top of that, vote genuinely, and not be influenced by tricky strategy or – I don't even know what to call it."

Massillamany called the tactics advocated for in these billboards deceitful.

"Hamilton County GOP is welcoming to everyone and we want everyone to become a Republican, but we want people to actually who identify with the Republican Party or believe that they identify with Republican values to vote in a Republican primary – not to try and somehow influence Republican primaries in some deceitful or nefarious way," Massillamany said.

One consideration in voting in an opposing party's primary is that it could block voters from later becoming candidates for their own party. In Indiana, in order to run for office as a member of either the Republican or Democratic parties, a person must have voted in a party's primary election each of the last two times that person voted. Otherwise, the individual must obtain and file a certificate from the appropriate county chair of the party declaring the individual's membership of that party.

"I know I know most people don't have aspirations to run for office," Vare said. "I also point out that coming out and voting genuinely helps in other ways. We see a desire for more political balance. This is a step to political balance in our county."

Massillamany said he would like to see more people become Republicans, rather than just vote to influence the Republican primary.

"I take my job seriously," Massillamany said. "While we are welcoming and want people to identify as Republicans and participate in the process as Republicans, we want to make sure that it's truly people that identify with the Republican Party and Republican values that are participating in our Republican primary."

In Hamilton County, if you call yourself a Republican or a Democrat, your party leadership encourages you to vote for your own party in the May 7 primary rather than being influenced by a PAC with no apparent ties to this community.

In my first term, I served the county through honesty, accountability, and impactful governing. I took tangible actions to fulfill the commitments I made. I was clear and transparent with my vision, and I delivered.

In my upcoming term, there remains important work to accomplish. As I have demonstrated previously, I will continue to fulfill my commitments and deliver on my promises.

COUNTY

Robert (Bob) Bragg

Republican for Hamilton County Treasurer

My objectives:

1. Maximize return on investments with minimal risk:

Hamilton County's rate of return was 3.95% in 2023 and 0.99% in 2022 compared to 5.30% and 1.48% for the State of Indiana's Investment fund (www.TrustIndiana.in.gov). Matching the state fund would have resulted in an additional $8.7 million in investment income over 2 years.

2. Adopt benchmarks to evaluate investment performance:

Currently, there is no stated benchmark for investment returns. I will adopt the US Treasury three-month Bill ETF (TBIL) and the "Trust Indiana" fund as our benchmarks to properly evaluate performance.

3. Increase transparency in investments:

Currently, there is no data on invested funds on the Treasurer's web page. I will post investment returns and investment composition every quarter.

4. Increase adoption rates for E-billing of property tax statements:

The Treasurer mailed 125,000 paper copies of property tax bills in 2023. E-billing has been available for 12 years but I do not believe it has been communicated effectively. I believe we can save over $50,000 a year by reducing paper statements.

I am a lifelong investor and a fiscal conservative with over 30 years' service to Hamilton County. I am a 1989 graduate of Taylor University.

Mark Heirbrandt

Republican for County Commissioner District 3

Throughout his tenure, Mark Heirbrandt has consistently demonstrated a deep-rooted commitment to making a positive difference at the local level. As a testament to his dedication and contributions during his time in office, Mark was honored with the prestigious title of "Commissioner of the Year" by the Indiana Association of County Commissioners in 2022 and earned the Indiana Association of Counties "Commissioner of the Year Award" in 2023.

As an active member on various leadership boards, Mark served as President of the Indiana County Commissioners (a statewide association supporting County Commissioners in Indiana), serves as a Board Member for the Humane Society for Hamilton County, the Hamilton County Community Foundation, and is a member of the Big Cicero Regional Board. Mark also serves as an Executive Board Member for the Metropolitan Planning Organization, and he was previously on the Westfield Public Safety Merit Board for six years.

Mark's campaign for re-election is multi-faceted in its approach, focusing on: public safety, road safety, cost savings, and communication & transparency. Connecting with Hamilton County residents has always been his most-valued part of serving. Mark looks forward to doing just that in the coming months to continue understanding the county's ever-changing needs.

Steve Dillinger

Republican for County Commissioner District 2

Steve Dillinger was inspired to run for the position of Hamilton County Commissioner because of his deep-rooted commitment to the growth and prosperity of the community. His passion for proactive planning and his dedication to staying ahead of the curve in anticipating and accommodating growth have been the driving forces behind his decision to seek re-election.

Steve's extensive experience in public service, coupled with his background as a successful business owner, has equipped him with the skills necessary to lead effectively. Over the years, Steve has demonstrated a knack for executing a vision, building consensus, and promoting teamwork to achieve tangible results. From spearheading major infrastructure projects like Lowe's Way and the Symons & Krause Drainage Project to bringing Ivy Tech Community College to Noblesville, his track record speaks volumes about his ability to deliver on promises and make strategic decisions that benefit Hamilton County.

He understands the intricacies of local governance and possesses a deep understanding of the needs and aspirations of residents. As a lifelong resident of Noblesville, his roots run deep, and he is committed to continuing to serve with integrity, dedication, and a steadfast focus on the well-being of the county.

Susan Byer

Republican for County Treasurer

Susan Byer is a lifelong Hamilton County resident who has served Hamilton County for over 18 years in the Treasurer's office. She is the current Hamilton County Treasurer. Along with her role as Treasurer she has continued to serve her community as the 4-h Horse & Pony Project Superintendent and Hamilton County Horsemen's Club President.

In the last 4 years as Treasurer Byer has changed print vendors for County Tax Statements that saved the county $15,150 in 2021.

Byer manages 35-40 accounts within state statute throughout the year with safety and liquidity as a priority. Her adept ability to invest have earned the County $19.7 million in interest income in 2023 alone. Her average of 3.95% last year includes all County accounts. Investment accounts ranged from 4.9%-5.69%, well above TrustIndiana's 2023 YTD average of 5.04%.

As Treasurer she completes a Monthly Treasurer's Report and an Annual Investment Report that is accessible to the public on the County's website.

Byer puts the public first and is always available and willing to answer questions. Her experience, integrity, and customer service makes her the best candidate this year.

Please cast your vote for Susan Byer for Hamilton County Treasurer on May 7th.

Todd Clevenger

Republican for County Auditor

Sue and I have called Hamilton County home for almost 30 years, living in both Carmel and Cicero. We raised our sons here, all three of which graduated from Hamilton Heights High School.

I began working in the Auditor's Office in March 2018 as the County Grant Administrator. In this position, I provide centralized oversight and management of millions of dollars in grant funding obtained by the county each year, ensuring compliance with federal, state and local regulations.

As a member of the Auditor's staff, I have developed strong, positive relationships with key elected officials and department heads. I have also gained practical, hands-on experience that will allow me to manage and administer the responsibilities of the office on day one, which is vital for a position so critical to the financial operations of the county.

Prior to serving in Hamilton County government, I served as a Legislative Chief of Staff, Nonprofit Administrator and a Senior Partner in a marketing and communications firm. I graduated from Indiana University, double majoring in Journalism and Criminal Justice. I hold an MBA from Indiana Wesleyan University and I am a graduate of the National Association of Counties High Performance Leadership Academy.

INTEREST

Democrats have no county contests, and only a lone candidate, Keely Gladieux, running for County Council, although the party has until the end of June to file more candidates.

As large as the county has become, it costs a lot of money to wage a county-wide campaign. Thus, most Republican candidates are expected to be elected in November without opposition.

So, it appears that the only hope for a respectable voter turnout lies with the GOP congressional and gubernatorial contests if the massive TV advertising has its intended effect.

Brandon "Brad" Beaver

Republican for County Council At-Large

I have had the honor of serving on the county council for many years. The reason I should be re-elected is my track record. As one of seven members of the council, which is the finance body of county government. We have been rewarded with a AAA bond rating. The highest in the state, which keeps our borrowing cost low. WE have balanced budget ,cash reserves, and have maintained a flat property rate for 10years, it even went down a few cents this year. We have well funded the sheriff and the jail,parks department and many hiway and bridge projects. I have been conservative with your tax dollars. Re-elect Brad Beaver to Hamilton County Council.

Steve Nation

Republican for County Council At-Large

Judge Steve Nation has dedicated his life to protecting and serving our community. In 1979, Steve became Prosecuting Attorney of Hamilton County and served four consecutive terms. In 1995, he became Hamilton County Judge and served four terms in office, and then retired in 2018. Steve's legacy and impact go far beyond the courtroom and extend far into the community.

Most notably, the conception of Hamilton County's Youth Assistance Programs started with Steve. Steve saw the common challenges that the community, schools, and families were having with youth. After several conversations within the community, it was clear that more needed to be done to help youth reach their highest potential. Westfield's Youth Assistance Program quickly began. Soon other school systems and local governments came together in Hamilton County to start their own programs. Today, Steve continues to support and work for families and children in Hamilton County.

Through Steve's leadership, he has been able to move programs forward that support mental health, child and victim abuse, and substance abuse. In his re-election bid, Steve is focused on public safety, mental health, collaboration, and completing the work that has been started.

Democrat for State Senate District 20

Joel was born and raised in Anderson, Indiana. He attended Anderson University where he met his wife Megan. After getting married they lived in Nashville, Tennessee from 2013-2020. Upon moving back home, they settled in Cicero, Indiana where they now live with their five year old son Mitchell. Joel's son currently attends the Little Hoskies Pre-K at Hamilton Heights.

Megan and Joel have always had a heart for healthcare. His wife is a nurse practitioner at Community Health. Joel is a pharmacy technician in the Coumadin Clinic and Outpatient Pharmacy at Riverview Health in Noblesville.

Levi is running for State Senate so that our children can live in the Indiana they deserve. This starts with our kids feeling safe at school. The simplest way to ensure this is with common sense gun laws.

If elected into the Indiana State Senate, Levi's top priority would be spearheading legislation so that Democrats and Republicans can join together to keep our Hoosier children safe. His goal is to reach across the aisle and find Republican legislators that believe in the Second Amendment, but that also believe in requiring background checks at gun shows and on third party sales.

Stephanie Jo Yocum

Democrat for State Representative District 88

Stephanie Jo Yocum was born and raised in Marion, Indiana and attended college at Hanover College in Hanover, Indiana. A daughter of a school teacher and a police officer, public service was a consistent feature of Stephanie Jo's upbringing. She proudly followed her parents' example, by joining AmeriCorps after college.

Stephanie Jo's career has centered around public service, with over 20 years in leadership roles for large non-profits focused on healthcare and education. Stephanie Jo is the Chair of the governor-appointed commission on volunteerism and service, Serve Indiana, and a member of Chief, a national network that connects and empowers women leaders. She currently resides on the northeast side of Indianapolis with her spouse, Jim and daughter, Betti.

Stephanie Jo is running for State Representative because she believes Indiana needs more balanced and fair representation in the Statehouse. Indiana's current representation reflects the most extreme ideas and beliefs of its harmful supermajority; it does not accurately reflect the people of Indiana. Stephanie Jo is dedicated to providing access for all to quality education and healthcare. She will work to strengthen reproductive rights and public safety. She will be a fair and honest voice for all Hoosiers.

Brad Chambers

Republican for Governor

Hoosier-born and raised and the only conservative candidate for governor who has never run for office before, Brad Chambers started a business to help pay his way through college at Indiana University. Over the past 40 years, he has grown that business from its first rental property into a multi-billion dollar real estate portfolio and employs hundreds of Hoosiers.

Brad recently concluded a two-year tenure as Indiana's Secretary of Commerce, where he stepped away from his business and crafted a strategic plan that ushered in unprecedented committed capital investment and tens of thousands of jobs paying wages 30% higher than any time in state history – for only $1 a year. As Secretary of Commerce, Brad also oversaw quality of life investments in communities across the state through the READI program and placed a renewed focus on entrepreneurship and small businesses. He and his wife, Carol, are parents to their son, Nick.

Suzanne Crouch

Republican for Governor

Suzanne will never forget or abandon our most vulnerable Hoosiers. She is co-founder of the Indiana Mental Health Roundtable and received the 2024 Mental Health America of Indiana Government Leader of the Year award.

As governor, Suzanne will work to secure the border, battle the fentanyl epidemic, and treat drug dealers like the murderers they are. She also will never turn her back on our law enforcement professionals.

Suzanne is the only gubernatorial candidate who has received the endorsement of more than 170 grassroots leaders in Indiana – including more than 25 law enforcement elected officials. Suzanne also received the endorsement from Indiana Right to Life and an "A" rating from the National Rifle Association.

Chuck Goodrich

Chuck Goodrich is a Conservative businessman who has built a career at Gaylor Electric. Goodrich began as an intern and worked his way up through the organization and eventually bought the company in 2014. Chuck lives in Noblesville, is married Trisha, and has 4 children.

We are experiencing an invasion at our southern border. As your next Congressman, Chuck will fight to secure our border. Without borders, we are not a nation & we must return to President Trump's immigration policies.

Chuck will work to cut reckless government spending. American families are living by the consequences of the Democrats reckless spending by paying higher prices in groceries, gas, housing, & everyday expenses. We must balance the budget & return to fiscal sanity.

Chuck will oppose blank checks to Ukraine. We have sent over $100B to Ukraine while neglecting to secure our border. This conflict is in Europe's backyard; It is time for European countries to step up & support Ukraine in its war against Russia.

Chuck is proudly pro-life & fought to make Indiana one of the most pro-life states in the nation. Chuck has an A rating with the NRA and voted to make Indiana a Constitutional Carry State.

Ryan believes we need to lower costs for working families and recruit high paying jobs to our district. He is committed to keeping our promises to seniors and ensuring social security is protected for the future. Victoria Spartz

Republican for Fifth Congressional District

Victoria is a natural leader who has a proven track record in the business world, civic organizations and the public sector.

In many ways, she embodies the American Dream: born overseas, immigrating to the United States over 20 years ago after meeting her husband, a born and raised Hoosier, on a train in Europe, becoming a US Citizen, and working her way up from bank teller to a CPA, finance executive and successful business owner.

Growing up in socialist-controlled Ukraine, she experienced firsthand the dark side of socialism. Living through this molded her conservative political philosophy: limited government is always better, and financial and healthcare decisions should be made by individuals in the free market, not bureaucrats and special interests.

In 2020, she was elected to Congress from Indiana's 5th District. Re-elected in 2022. In an era of politicians with sound bites, Congresswoman Spartz is a policy leader who is already make a legislative difference even in her first two terms – 12 bills signed into law and many policies developed from scratch.

Dr. Valerie McCray

Democrat for United States Senate

My name is Dr. Valerie McCray and I'm working hard to become your next U.S. Senator representing Indiana.

As a Psychologist, I've witnessed how U.S. policies profoundly affect the mental well-being of our people. I've worked directly with veterans struggling with PTSD, incarcerated individuals in desperate need of support and rehabilitation, and youth struggling to overcome the effects of violence. It's clear that mental health must be a national priority and we cannot address our nation's challenges one crisis at a time. That's why I'm running for U.S. Senate.

Relentlessly, I will fight for beyond-subsistence wages, unions, healthcare for all, women's rights to choose, equal rights for everyone, strengthening public education, and repealing Citizens United so people (not corporations) can be truly represented. In addition, I will champion student loan debt reduction, closing the wealth gap, and funding environmental restoration efforts.

I am both compassionate and fierce, and can relate to the struggles of working class Hoosiers. I will break barriers and build a brighter future for Indiana. Together, we can build a movement for change – one that prioritizes mental health and ensures every individual has access to resources needed and policies that help us thrive.

CHUCK GOODRICH

FOR CONGRESS

GO WITH CHUCK GOODRICH.COM

IT IS TIME WE PUT AMERICA AND INDIANA FIRST — CHUCK GOODRICH IS A PRINCIPLED CONSERVATIVE WHO WILL WORK FOR US.

Washington DC has failed. Indiana deserves a stable, consistent, respected, conservative leader who will secure the southern border, control reckless spending, and focus on issues Hoosiers care about.

Chuck Goodrich's #PeopleFirst Plan

■ Southern Border

Congress and the Biden administration have failed to secure the border, leading to an invasion of over 10 million illegal immigrants since Biden took office.

Chuck's plan: We must finish the wall, send back all illegal immigrants, and implement stricter border control measures to protect America from crime and illegal drugs.

■ Women's Sports

Decades of women fought for the right to play freely and fairly. Chuck won't stand by while the radical left strips this right away. It's why he voted in favor of the bill to protect girls' sports.

Chuck's Plan: Back bills to prevent biological males from participating in women's sports and oppose federal funding for institutions supporting such practices.

■ Reckless Spending Driving Inflation

High inflation due to reckless government spending under Bidenomics is threatening Americans' financial stability and putting the tab on future generations.

Chuck's Plan: Back true, fiscally conservative policies that put people first to reduce the national debt, we must stop sending blank checks to foreign countries.

■ Election Integrity

Election integrity is a basic concept that's fundamental to safeguarding our republic, and it faces a significant threat from the radical left's agenda.

Chuck's Plan: Support stronger federal voter ID laws, bring decency to the ballot box and ensure fair and transparent elections, using Indiana's election security as a model. Keep the federal government out of running elections. States should administer elections.

Chuck Goodrich's CONSERVATIVE Record

- ✓ Blocked legislation from democrats, liberal republicans, and corporate special interests issuing driver's license cards to illegal immigrants.
- ✓ Voted to ban CRT in schools and expand school choice for parents.
- ✓ Voted to ban biological men from competing in women's sports.
- ✓ Voted to ban foreign countries, including China and Iran, from owning farmland and any property next to military bases.
- ✓ Voted to make Indiana one of the most Pro-Life states in the country.
- ✓ Received an A rating from NRA.
