Cabela's Outdoor Fund gets Club Kids into great outdoors

Photo provided by Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville

Recently, the Tom & Soni Sheehan Boys & Girls Club of Noblesville was presented a generous $5,000 donation from Cabela's of Noblesville's Outdoor Fund. Funds were allocated to support summer camp scholarships for local youth. Thanks to the Outdoor Fund, thousands of kids nationally get the chance to participate in outdoor recreation opportunities they might not have the chance to experience such as fishing, hiking, wildlife observation, kayaking, archery, exploration, and more. AMY SHINNEMAN
 Disability in the City

I was first introduced to exercise when I was young through the form of swimming. It was a form of exercise that doctors told my parents would be safe and effective for me in supporting my muscles as well as I could. As I got older, I joined a swim team, and while I was not competitive, it kept me exercising, and my muscles working the best they could.

Doctors told my parents that I may not walk for long. They were determined to keep me walking as long as possible, and I was determined, too. I also was fortunate enough to be able to ride a two-wheel bike when I was younger. I rode it all the time which I am sure helped a lot with my muscles. I had a desire to be active, and I was. In college, I continued to want to eat healthy and exercise. I took an exercise class and learned how to lift weights. While I could not lift much, it was another way that I could keep my muscles as healthy as possible.

My driving force to adapt to different exercises and activities that keep me moving, continues to be the desire to keep walking as long as I possibly can. My disease is slowly progressive, so as I have gotten older, I have had to use my wheelchair some for getting around if I am overly tired and for going longer distances. I am an ambulatory wheelchair user.

My main form of exercise now is an underwater treadmill in my small therapy pool at my home. It is the type of pool where you can swim against a current, so I am able to swim and run in the water. Before we had this installed, I had never run before. My son who was 12 at the time taught me how to run because I did not even know how! After 44 years in and out of physical therapy, my husband and I decided to bring something into our home that I could safely and easily access and use often to stay active.

Another form of adaptive recreation that I have tried is skiing in Colorado. We were on a family vacation and wanted to take our boys skiing. I assumed that I would just be a spectator, but the lady at the Airbnb where we were staying told us about an adaptive ski program which just happened to be about 10 minutes from the house we were staying at. That is a day I will never forget. I only wish I had more than one day to ski. They packed as much training into that one day as they could, and it was exhilarating to fly down that mountain. I felt so free, and my four instructors were angels on earth!

Sheridan Communities Schools offers digital safety tips for new school year

Submitted by Sheridan Community Schools

Last year Sheridan Schools hosted a parent workshop on digital safety for parents through a grant from the Indiana Department of Education. As the new school year begins, Sheridan School Corporation is committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of our students—both in the classroom and online. With the increasing use of digital devices and online platforms in education, it's more important than ever for parents to be proactive about their children's digital safety. Below are some essential tips to help you guide your children in making safe and responsible choices online.

1. Set clear online boundaries

Establish rules about when and how your child can use the internet. Create a family agreement that covers screen time limits, appropriate online behavior, and which websites or apps are off-limits. Consistency is key, so make sure these rules are followed both at home and during school hours.

2. Monitor & discuss online activity

Regularly check in with your child about their online interactions. Review the websites they visit, the apps they use, and the people they communicate with. Encourage open conversations about what they encounter online and emphasize that they can always come to you if something feels wrong or uncomfortable.

3. Educate about privacy

Teach your child the importance of protecting their personal information. Make sure they understand not to share personal details such as their full name, address, phone number, or school name with strangers online. Remind them that once something is shared online, it can be difficult to remove.

RAY ADLER
 Ask Adler

Mom told this story. A few nights ago Dad worked late. I was tired and was so sound asleep, I didn't even hear him come home. What's so unusual about that? Nothing really. I never had much trouble sleeping if he had to be out at night as I knew where he was and I could depend on him being back when he said he would.

After you children were old enough to be out without parental supervision, I very seldom slept until I heard the steps creek as the last one went upstairs. Even the winter Grandma came to live here and Dad and I slept in the front room, there was never a night I didn't hear Theresa, no matter how quietly she came in.

One time Dad was staying nights at the hospital with Grandpa. I'd been about down with a cold; Theresa had been in the hospital only a few weeks before. The two older children had gone to a party. I didn't expect them home until after 12, but they had assured me they would come by 11. Theresa and I went to sleep.* (Mother wrote up and down at the side of the page—I awakened around 11:30 or so and of course, started worrying.) About midnight the older ones came home with a very reasonable explanation.

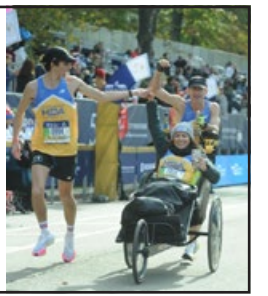

However, they were told in the future if they did not call, Dad would come looking for them. And if he happened to be away as he was that night, a policeman would come. Fortunately, they didn't test me. I was not making idle threats; someone would have come. I wonder when I go through the pearly gates, will I be able to rest until the last one is safely in.

A couple of years ago, my long-time best friend texted me about an opportunity to go adaptive water skiing, something else I had never been able to do. We went together and she cheered me on as I skied in a seated adaptive ski all around the lake. After several wipeouts, I finally got up. Once I did, it was incredible. I ended up loving it so much that I went back for day two so my husband could see it too. It was an incredible experience.

There have been so many obstacles to staying active along the way. One, it is just physically hard with muscular dystrophy, so you really must do the best you can with what you have. I try to just keep going, even if it is just the smallest thing. Gyms are not really set up with people with disabilities in mind, so that was always challenging, which was another reason to bring it into my home. I was able to modify it and adapt it to fit my needs.

Unfortunately, the world we live in does not always accommodate those with disabilities. In some ways it is getting better, but there will always be obstacles. I have had to be creative in staying active and adapt in a way that works best for me. I will continue to push through these obstacles with humble courage to keep exercising, staying as active as I can. That is the key to keeping my independence, which is so important to me. I am looking forward to what is next for me in adaptive recreation and continuing to challenge myself to stay as strong as I can.

Until next time ...

TIPS

4. Recognize & avoid online scams

Help your child recognize the signs of phishing attempts, fake websites, and other online scams. Discuss how to identify suspicious links and emails, and make sure they know not to click on anything unfamiliar. Remind them never to share passwords or click on pop-ups that seem too good to be true.

5. Encourage critical thinking

Encourage your child to think critically about the content they see online. Teach them to question the reliability of sources and to verify information before believing or sharing it. This skill will help them navigate the vast amount of information they encounter each day.

6. Promote responsible social media use

If your child uses social media, ensure they understand the importance of responsible use. Discuss the potential long-term impact of what they post, and remind them that not everything they see on social media is real. It's also important to talk about the risks of cyberbullying and how to respond if they experience or witness it.

7. Be involved in their digital life

Stay engaged with your child's online activities. Whether it's playing a game together or discussing a new app they've downloaded, showing interest in their digital world will help you stay informed about what they're doing online and create opportunities for ongoing discussions about safety.

8. Keep software & devices updated

Ensure all devices your child uses have the latest software updates and security patches. This includes installing reputable antivirus software and using strong, unique passwords for each account. Set up parental controls where appropriate to help monitor and limit online activity.

9. Stay informed about new trends

The digital landscape is constantly evolving, with new apps, games, and social media platforms emerging regularly. Stay informed about the latest trends and the potential risks they may pose. This will help you guide your child in making safe choices as they explore new digital spaces.

10. Model good digital habits

Children often mimic the behavior they see at home, so it's important to model good digital habits yourself. Practice what you preach by limiting your screen time, avoiding oversharing on social media, and maintaining a healthy balance between online and offline activities.

As we embark on this new school year, let's work together to create a safe and positive digital environment for all our students. By staying informed and engaged, we can help our children navigate the online world with confidence and security.

For more resources on digital safety, please visit scs.k12.in.us or contact the Sheridan School Corporation office. We are here to support you every step of the way.

Health Department launches interactive food inspection map

The REPORTER

The Hamilton County Health Department has launched an interactive food inspection map on its website. This new tool allows residents to easily access and review food inspection reports for over 1,200 food service establishments, including restaurants and food stores operating within the county.

The food inspection map provides a user-friendly platform where individuals can enter their location, view nearby food establishments, and click on specific restaurants to pull up detailed inspection reports.

“Food safety is a top priority for the Hamilton County Health Department, and we are committed to ensuring that our community has access to the most current and relevant information,” Hamilton County Health Department Administrator Jason LeMaster said. “This new feature allows consumers to make more informed decisions about where they dine or shop. By making these reports readily available, we hope to increase public awareness and encourage all food establishments to maintain the highest standards of food safety.”

The Health Department

conducts regular, unannounced inspections of food establishments based on a hazard risk assessment, and all inspection results are made public 10 days following the completion of an inspection. In addition to inspections, the department offers food safety training for establishments upon request, further supporting the community's health and well-being.

The Interactive Food Inspection Map is now available on the Health Department's website at hamiltoncounty.in.gov/256/Food-Establishment-Program.

Hollywood or Bust!

Adam B. Shapiro presents "Songs of the Silver Screen"

The REPORTER

On Saturday, Sept. 21, Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael in Carmel welcomes award-winning performer and Indianapolis native Adam B. Shapiro as he performs his brand new show Hollywood or Bust: Songs of the Silver Screen.

Since the first talking picture in 1927, music has played an integral role in movies, and many songs have reached legendary status, being played and sung still to this day.

During Shapiro's show, you'll hear songs from the splashy movie musicals of the '30s, '40s, and '50s, to the instantly recognizable theme songs of movies from the '60s, '70s and '80s—from Judy Garland to Elvis Presley to Kenny Loggins, and certainly, a healthy dose of Disney. There's truly something for everybody, so grab your popcorn, sit back and relax. It's Hollywood or Bust!

Shapiro is an award-winning actor and singer who has performed all over the country and the world in both English and Yiddish. Most recently, he was Off-Broadway in the Drama Desk Award winning production of Fiddler on the Roof in Yiddish, directed by Tony and Oscar winner Joel Grey. Shapiro played the Rabbi and understudied Tevye and Lazer Wolf, going on several times for both roles.

In addition to Fiddler, Shapiro is a regular performer with the National Yiddish Theatre-Folksbiene, where he has appeared in The Golden Bride, The Megile of Itzik Manger, and Gimpel The Fool. He became a content creator for them during the pandemic, producing and directing a massive online Chanukah Spectacular in 2020 that featured such performers as Billy Crystal, Carol Burnett, Mandy Patinkin, and Mayim Bialik, among others.

Shapiro's other Off-Broadway credits include Bastard Jones, The Mikado-Reimagined, and the Drama Desk nominated production of Death of a Salesman in TV/Film. Audiences might remember Shapiro as the Cantor in The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel or from FBI: Most Wanted, Master of None, Friends from College, 30 Rock, Adam Sandler's The Cobbler, and as Bella in HBO's Emmy-winning film, The Normal Heart. Most recently, Shapiro appeared on AppleTV+ in Extrapola- tions alongside Judd Hirsch, David Schwimmer, Leslie Uggams, and Tony-Winner Daveed Diggs.

Shapiro is a MAC Award Winning Cabaret Artist and has performed in most of the top venues in New York City, including the Mabel Mercer Cabaret Convention at Lincoln Center. His debut EP, Let Love In, was released in 2021 and is available on all digital music platforms. He was delighted to make his debut at the Hotel Carmichael in 2022 and is always delighted to return to his hometown and perform at such a beautiful venue.

The Italian House on Park in Westfield named Diners' Choice for 2024

The REPORTER

The Italian House on Park, a well-known establishment on Westfield's "Restaurant Row," has been named OpenTable Diners' Choice for 2024. This newest recognition adds to the restaurant's growing list of accolades, which includes being named one of OpenTable's 100 Best Neighborhood Gems in America and Yelp's Top 20 Lasagnas across the country.

Scott Wolf, co-owner of the Italian House on Park, expressed his gratitude: "We're incredibly honored to receive this recognition. It's especially meaningful knowing that it is directly correlated to the feedback from our customers."

Wolf continued, "At the Italian House, we've always strived to create a warm, welcoming atmosphere where our customers feel at home. This award reinforces our commitment to providing exceptional homemade cuisine and personalized service. We're deeply grateful to our community for their continued support and for making the Italian House a special part of Westfield's culinary scene."

The Italian House on Park, which opened its doors in 2015, has been a cornerstone of Westfield's burgeoning "Restaurant Row" on Park Street. It stands alongside other exciting dining options, including the newly opened "Nyla's" and the upcoming "Swanky Mule," set to debut later this year on the north side of the street.

About the Italian House on Park

The Italian House on Park opened in 2015 and was one of the first anchors on "Restaurant Row" in Westfield. Owned and operated by Scott and Nyla Wolf, the Italian House is a part of the Wolfpack Restaurant Group family, along with Wolfies Grill, Nyla's, and the Broken Barrel. Westfield selects firm for Comprehensive Plan update

The REPORTER

Westfield city officials have announced the approval of Rundell Ernstberger Associates (REA) to lead the development of a new Comprehensive Plan, Economic Impact Study, and Infrastructure Plan for the city. This significant step is designed to enhance strategic planning and future growth in alignment with Westfield's vision for a vibrant, sustainable, and thriving community.

After a rigorous selection process, the Westfield Board of Public Works signed the contract on Wednesday. This decision follows an extensive evaluation of proposals from city leaders and interviews with potential candidates. REA's team includes several national and local firms specializing in various areas, including:

- Orion Planning and Design from Missoula, Mont., specializing in land use scenario planning

- Urban 3 from Asheville, N.C., specializing in economic development and fiscal impact

- Lochmueller Group from Indianapolis, specializing in civil and transportation engineering

- Shannon Z. Creative from Indianapolis, leading the project branding

"We are excited to work with REA and their team to update and refresh our comprehensive plan," Mayor Scott Willis said. "This update is crucial for guiding Westfield's growth, addressing emerging challenges, and capturing new opportunities. We believe that REA's extensive experience and innovative approach will help us achieve our long-term goals and improve the quality of life for all our residents."

The comprehensive plan update will focus on several key areas, including:

- Land use and zoning: Reviewing and updating zoning codes and land use policies to support balanced development.

- Transportation and infrastructure: Enhancing transportation networks and infrastructure to accommodate future growth and improve connectivity.

Willis

development: Identifying strategies to stimulate economic growth, support local businesses, and attract new investments.

- Sustainability and environment: Integrating sustainable practices and environmental considerations into planning to ensure long-term resilience.

- Community engagement: Encouraging active community participation to reflect the needs and desires of Westfield residents.

"We are honored to be selected for this important project," Cynthia Bowen, FAICP from REA, said.

"Our team is committed to collaborating closely with the City of Westfield, local stakeholders, and the community to create a comprehensive plan that is both visionary and actionable. Our goal is to help Westfield achieve its aspirations while addressing current and future challenges."

The update process will involve in-person public meetings and workshops, and online activities through a 24-7 portal to gather input from residents, business owners, and other stakeholders. This collaborative approach ensures that the final plan reflects the community's values and aspirations. A more detailed schedule and information will be released as it becomes available.

City officials anticipate the comprehensive plan update to begin in September 2024 and be completed by spring of 2026 with periodic updates and opportunities for public involvement throughout the process.

Nordstrom Rack to hold hiring event in Noblesville

The REPORTER

Are you looking for a job? Plan to attend a hiring event for the new Nordstrom Rack store set to open this fall in Hamilton Town Center.

The hiring event will take place from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Aug.

31 at Wyndham Hotel, 13500 Tegler Drive, Noblesville. Parking is free. Please proceed to the Conner Hall Room where the interviews will take place.

The new Nordstrom Rack location will need to fill a variety of positions in sales, cashiers, and stock departments, with hourly pay ranging from $15.45 to $16.05. Attendees should bring a resume and be prepared for immediate interviews.

Nordstrom Rack offers a variety of benefits including employee discounts.

What's new & what's coming soon to Hamilton Town Center

By GREGG MONTGOMERY
 WISH-TV | wishtv.com

A furniture store, an art shop, and an expanded clothing retailer have opened at Hamilton Town Center shopping mall.

Plus, four more stores are "coming soon," according to a news release sent to News 8 from a Chicago marketing agency.

The store that may attract the most shoppers is Nordstrom Rack. The off-price department store is a sister to luxury department store Nordstrom. Nordstrom and Nordstrom Rack have locations on the north side of Indianapolis, but the Noblesville store will be the brand's first entry into Hamilton County north of Indianapolis.

The Nordstrom Rack in Noblesville was first announced in December. The store will be next to McAlister's Deli. No date for the opening was announced, but the initial announcement said the store would open in fall 2024.

Two other "coming soon" retailers will have sports fashion and merchandise.

JD Sports will open in the fall. The England-headquartered retailer with 3,400 stores worldwide sells brands including Adidas, Fila, Hoka, Nike, New Balance, and On Cloud.

JD Sports will be located next to Three Dog Bakery, a dog treat maker.

Next, Rally House specialty sports store will open in September. It sells hats, T-shirts, jerseys and other merchandize for NCAA, NFJ, NBA, MLB, NHL and MLS teams. Brands include BreakingT, Junk Food Clothing Co., Mitchell & Ness, and Tommy Bahama.

The retailer already has four Indianapolis locations, and at least six additional stores in Indiana.

The Noblesville location will be next to Maurices clothing store.

The fourth entry on the "coming soon" list is The Soap Factory. It'll be the first expansion of its stores beyond Arkansas and Tennessee. Its website says, "The Soap Factory is proud to offer high-quality handcrafted bath, body and home products, featured in timeless fragrances and made with plant based ingredients. We stock our shelves with clean, simple and effective goods that outperform big box brands and our competitors."

The Soap Factory will be next to Hawaii Fluid Art, one of the newest stores at Hamilton Town Center.

Hawaii Fluid Art calls itself "A Place to Create!" The franchise provides art instruction and sells art from its studio. It serves couples on date nights, employees on corporate retreats, and walk-ins who want to learn a new craft. The studio is next to the Loft clothing store.

Next on the newly opened list, furniture retailer Lovesac creates sectional seating, bean bags and "Pillow Sac" accent chairs. It's between the Victoria's Secret lingerie store and the White House Black Market clothing store. Lovesac already has Indiana locations in Carmel, Fort Wayne, Greenwood, Indianapolis, and South Bend.

Finally, Buckle clothing store expanded and renovated its store, which is now next to the food court and Versona clothing store. Buckle has about a dozen stores in Indiana.

Hamilton Town Center is off Interstate 69 at the just northwest of the interchange for Campus Parkway and Southeastern Parkway. The outdoor shopping center opened in 2008. Indianapolis-headquartered Simon Property Group manages the place and owns half of it.

Joanne Sue Dick November 12, 1941 – August 27, 2024

Joanne Sue Dick, 82, Noblesville, formerly of Moline, Ill., passed away on Tuesday, August 27, 2024, at Prairie Lakes Health Campus in Noblesville. She was born on November 12, 1941, to Frank and Freida (Elliot) DeVries in Des Moines, Iowa.

Joanne was a 1959 graduate of North High School in Des Moines, Iowa, and attended Bethel College in St. Paul, Minn. Through the years she worked for the Des Moines Register, John Deere Insurance, Bethany Baptist Church, and Dr. Ben Shnurman as a secretary and transcriptionist. Joanne was a member of First Baptist Church in Silvis, Ill. She enjoyed sewing, knitting, crocheting, cross-stitch, crafting, cooking, reading, and playing the piano. Joanne liked to watch the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Cubs, Clemson University sports, and University of Illinois sports. She loved playing games with her grandson.

She is survived by her sons, Jeffrey (Lisa) Dick and Steve Dick; grandchild, Michael Dick; sister, Marilyn (Dick) Winn; and brother, Larry (Barb) DeVries.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband of 32 years, Robert Dick.

The family would like to extend their appreciation of gratitude to Heart to Heart Hospice and Prairie Lakes Health Campus for their loving care of Joanne the last several years.

Inurnment will take place at a later date at Rose Lawn Memorial Cemetery in Illinois.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Susan G. Komen, Attn: IN300 13770 Noel Road, Suite 801889, Dallas, TX 75380 (komen.org/community/indiana).

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

THE PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS

Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the Lord your God and against you. Now forgive my sin once more and pray to the Lord your God to take this deadly plague away from me."

Moses then left Pharaoh and prayed to the Lord. And the Lord changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which caught up the locusts and carried them into the Red Sea. Not a locust was left anywhere in Egypt. But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

THE PLAGUE OF DARKNESS

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky so that darkness spreads over Egypt—darkness that can be felt." So Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and total darkness covered all Egypt for three days. No one could see anyone else or move about for three days. Yet all the Israelites had light in the places where they lived.

Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "Go, worship the Lord. Even your women and children may go with you; only leave your flocks and herds behind."

But Moses said, "You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to the Lord our God. Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof is to be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshiping the Lord our God, and until we get there we will not know what we are to use to worship the Lord."

But the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was not willing to let them go. Pharaoh said to Moses, "Get out of my sight! Make sure you do not appear before me again! The day you see my face you will die."

"Just as you say," Moses replied. "I will never appear before you again."

Greyhounds pick up another win, this time over Pendleton Heights

The REPORTER

The Carmel girls soccer team won a home game Wednesday night, beating Pendleton Heights 4-0 at Brian Murray Stadium.

The Greyhounds got on the board in the seventh minute with a goal from Olivia Cebalo. Carmel added a second goal with 22:44 left in the half when Halle Wellman scored off an assist by Emma Ehret. Vaughn Rohrbacher put in the Greyhounds' third goal with under two minutes to go in the half; Addison Smith made the assist.

"We were working on a lot of things and we have been for the past week," said Hounds coach Frank Dixon. "And it was good to see of the things come in the first part of the game that we did things correctly, did what we wanted."

Freshman Ella Sarson scored Carmel's fourth goal in the second half; Dixon said that was Sarson's second goal of the season. Goalkeeper Lillian Bose deflected a penalty kick attempt by the Arabians during that half as well.

"We're getting her playing time on the JV, but she's been with us on the varsity, on the bench the whole time through."

With the victory, Carmel improved to 3-1 for the season. The Greyhounds will host their own invitational on Saturday, playing against Fishers at 10:30 a.m. and Brownsburg at 3 p.m.

"We're improving each game, so that's good," said Dixon. We're going to get to where we want to get to by the end of the 16 games."

Carmel's Emma Ehret (11) made an assist during the first half of the Greyhounds' Wednesday win over Pendleton Heights.

Hamilton Southeastern picked up a Hoosier Crossroads Conference win Wednesday, beating Brownsburg 2-0 at home.

The Royals scored both goals in the second half. Sydney May put in the first goal, with Sloane May making the assist. Margaux Henning got the second goal. Meanwhile, Southeastern held the Bulldogs to one shot for the entire game.

Royals coach Greg Davidson gave a long list of players who contributed "great defensive play," including goalkeeper Hannah Dodge, Kate Noel, Abby Straus, Sydney Cook, Blair Satterfield, Bailey Sapp and Lauren Kutoloski. Davidson named Cole Lance the player of the game "for her work in the midfield and controlling the tempo of the game," he said.

Southeastern is 2-0 in conference play and 5-0 overall. The Royals travel to Noblesville Saturday for another HCC contest.

Westfield also triumphed in an HCC game Wednesday, cruising past Franklin Central 7-0.

Reese Sargent scored the Shamrocks' first goal seven minutes into the game, then Coltie Carson and Kate Malin put in late goals to give Westfield a 3-0 halftime lead. The Rocks kept things going in the second half, with Malin adding two goals; she had three total. Sargent scored a second goal in the second half, then Kylie Ipsen added a late goal.

Westfield is 1-1 in conference play and 2-1 overall. The Shamrocks play a tournament this weekend in Evansville, taking on Highlands from Fort Thomas, Ky. Friday night before playing games against Castle and Lexington Catholic on Saturday.

Hamilton Heights scored a 6-2 Hoosier Conference win over Western on Wednesday.

Sarah Toll and Natalie Marcum both put in two goals, while Savannah Deetz and Lizzy Smith each added one goal. Smith also dished out two assists, with Deetz, Addyson Ferguson and Marcum all handing out one assist each. Goalkeeper Audrey Lang made 14 saves.

The Huskies are 2-0 in the conference and 2-1-1 overall. Heights' next game is Saturday morning at Yorktown.

Noblesville defeated Avon 1-0 Wednesday to collect a victory in its HCC opener.

The Millers dominated time of possession and shots on goal, but the game went into halftime tied 0-0. Noblesville came out in the second half and immediately began pressing to score but the game remained tied 0-0 until the 5:34 mark when Kaydence Fleck was taken out in the box. That gave the Millers a penalty kick opportunity, and Meredith Tippner stepped up and put it in the back of the net.

Bella Wyatt earned her third shutout of the season.

Noblesville is 3-0 and hosts Hamilton Southeastern Saturday night in another conference game.

Fishers dropped a 3-0 HCC contest to Zionsville on Wednesday.

The Tigers are 1-1 in conference play and 3-1 overall. Fishers plays Saturday at the Carmel Invitational, playing the Greyhounds at 10:30 a.m. and Cathedral at 1:30 p.m.

Track & Field state finals move to North Central

The REPORTER

The Indiana High School Athletic Association announced that the IHSAA Boys, Girls and Unified Track & Field State Finals will be contested at North Central High School in Indianapolis next June.

The move was reported Tuesday during the school year's first meeting of the IHSAA Executive Committee.

The dates for next spring's state finals are Friday, June 6 (Boys) and Saturday, June 7 (Unified, Girls), 2025. The events will run concurrently with the Girls Tennis State Finals which also will be played at North Central's Barbara Wynne Tennis Center.

The recently renovated stadium features a 10-lane track, videoboard, two-story press box, and seating for 4,000 spectators. And all field events are encompassed within the confines of the stadium.

The Track & Field State Finals were last held at North Central in 1997 for one year and was the site of an 11-year run from 1972 to 1982.

The events had been contested at Indiana University in Bloomington in 19 of the last 21 years with Ben Davis High School hosting in 2021, one year after the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of the 2020 spring season.

Girls lacrosse to become Emerging Sport

In other news from Tuesday's Executive Committee meeting, the sport of girls lacrosse will be added to the Emerging Sport Process for the 2025-26 school year.

The Emerging Sport Process, known as Rule 1-4 and approved by the IHSAA Board of Directors in 2021, helps pave a way for those sports and participation to continue to grow with an eye toward eventually becoming a recognized sport and sponsorship of an official state tournament.

Girls lacrosse, a spring sport, is the third to earn the designation following boys volleyball and girls wrestling, which were approved for full sponsorship last April.

By earning the designation as an emerging sport, the IHSAA will provide rule books, conduct coaches rules meetings, and provide coverage in the IHSAA's Catastrophic Medical program. Beginning with the 2025-26 school year, the sport will be subject to all IHSAA rules and policies, including General Eligibility Rules.

For a sport to become officially recognized and an IHSAA state tournament to be sponsored, 100 schools must be participating in the sport. The IHSAA currently has 409 member schools.

Representatives of the Indiana Girls Lacrosse Association submitted requested information including data on participation in Indiana as well as other states, suggested playing rules and potential practice seasons as well as letters of commitment from member schools that either currently sponsor or intend to sponsor a program.

According to the data submitted from the coaches association, in 2023, there were 39 schools around the state with a school-sponsored varsity or club program. The IGLA has sponsored its own state tournament since 2000.

KIPP Indy Legacy gains full membership

Also, the Committee officially approved KIPP Indy Legacy High School in Indianapolis for full membership and state tournament participation immediately this fall.

KIPP Indy Legacy offers the sports of boys and girls basketball, boys and girls cross country, boys soccer, boys and girls track and field, girls volleyball and boys wrestling.

The school, located in the Martindale-Brightwood neighborhood at 2255 Ralston Avenue on the near east side of Indianapolis, was first admitted as a provisional member school in 2020.

There are 406 full member schools with three current provisional members for a total of 409.

Sheridan's Kenzie Garner makes a hit for the Blackhawks during their win over International on Wednesday.

Sheridan & Noblesville achieve three-set sweeps

The REPORTER

The Sheridan volleyball team used a total team effort to sweep International Wednesday.

The Blackhawks won 25-13, 25-12, 25-11. Trinity Parkin hit 15 kills in the match, with Kenzie Garner and Lainey Mendenhall both putting down 10 kills. Adria Jump handed out 25 assists while Nova Cross dished out nine.

Jump served seven aces and Meredith Krupp had six aces. Cross and Ali Pickard both collected seven digs, with Garner getting five. Cross and Garner each had one block assist.

Sheridan is 4-3 and plays Tuesday at Herron.

Hamilton Heights was swept by New Palestine in a Wednesday away match, 25-14, 25-15, 25-19.

Kennedy Cherry played solid defense for the Huskies, including four digs in the second set.

Heights is 9-2 and returns home tonight to play Lawrence North.

Noblesville swept Guerin Catholic Wednesday in an all-county match, 25-18, 25-21, 25-13.

The Millers are 4-0 and play a Hoosier Crossroads Conference match tonight at Avon. The Golden Eagles are 1-4 and play a Circle City Conference match tonight at Bishop Chatard.

Noblesville won a four-set match over Pendleton Heights on Tuesday, 25-20, 25-19, 21-25, 29-27.

Chloe Macias blasted 23 kills for the Millers, with Kennedy Lutz serving four aces. Macias also made two solo blocks. Madison Brown dished out 45 assists. On defense, Maggie Hall and Piper Endris both collected 14 digs, with Lutz getting 13 digs.

IHSAA announces sectional pairings for baseball & softball

The REPORTER

The IHSAA announced the baseball and softball sectional assignments for the 2025 and 2026 post-season tournaments.

In Class 4A, Hamilton County's baseball and softball teams will continue to play in Sectional 8. Those schools are Carmel, Fishers, Hamilton Southeastern, Noblesville and Westfield; they will be grouped with Zionsville.

In Class 3A, Hamilton Heights's baseball and softball teams will both play in Sectional 24, along with Connersville, Delta, Jay County, New Castle and Yorktown. Guerin Catholic's baseball team will compete in Sectional 25, with Brebeuf Jesuit, Crawfordsville, Danville, Frankfort, Lebanon and Tri-West.

As for the Golden Eagles' softball team, it will also play in Sectional 25, but with one less team. Guerin is grouped with Brebeuf Jesuit, Crawfords-ville, Danville, Frankfort and Lebanon; Tri-West has been moved up to 4A.

In Class 2A, Sheridan will play in Sectional 39 for both baseball and softball. The Blackhawks are grouped with Elwood, Frankton, Lapel, Taylor and Tipton. University will compete in Sectional 42, also for both baseball and softball. The Trailblazers will compete with Covenant Christian, Cardinal Ritter, Monrovia, Park Tudor and Riverside.

Week 2 football preview: A look back at Week 1, ahead to this week

By CRAIG ADKINS
For The Reporter

Westfield showed its worth against Center Grove in a top 10 matchup on the road and came out on top after a hefty comeback. Fishers, Hamilton Southeastern, Carmel, Noblesville and Guerin Catholic all six showcased their high-scoring offensive power, each scoring 30-plus en route to victories.

Among the Class 6A schools, Westfield jumped to No. 1 in both the IFCA (coaches) and USA Today polls. Carmel also moved up in the IFCA poll to fifth and ninth in the USA Today, while HSE sits at seventh in the coaches and No. 5 in the USA Today. Fishers is No. 11 in the USA Today and Noblesville is 13th in the coaches.

Carmel (1-0) at Westfield (1-0)

The No. 1 Shamrocks posted the biggest win in the county with a 34-28 comeback at then-No. 2 Center Grove.

Down 14-0 and 21-6 in the first half, then they came back. Gabe Arambales connected with Parker Knott for a double pass touchdown and Carsen Melvin rushed for two for a 27-21 halftime edge.

Aramboles would then catch a 60-yard touchdown pass from Melvin for a 34-21 lead in the third, allowing Westfield to hold on for a 34-28 win after a late Center Grove score.

Westfield hosts the Carmel Greyhounds in a clash of state powers. Carmel holds a 13-6 record, with Westfield winning the last two years. The two met yearly (excluding 1957) every season from 1950 to 1964 before halting the regular season meeting. Carmel won 10 of those 14 in that time span.

Lukas Krishtanmoorthy booted a field goal to tie it 3-3. The tie broke on two Anthony Coellner touchdown passes to Ozzy Pollard and Nate Williams to end the half up 17-3.

Drew Cannon ran back an interception and running back Andrew Pemberton had a 53-yard rushing TD, sandwiching another Krishtanmoorthy field goal for the 34-10 final. Pemberton ran for 108 on 10 carries, while Coellner passed for 113 yards and two touchdowns.

North Central (0-1) at Hamilton Southeastern (1-0)

The No. 7 Royals hit the road to open the season at Fort Wayne Carroll with a dominating 45-21 win.

AZ Wallace tied it 7-7, then Royals jumped out to a big 28-7 lead at the half with a dominating second from Wallace, where he scored the other three of his four touchdowns.

Kendrick Pennybaker caught a Chandler Weston pass for a TD and Carter Reed rushed for the final score in the 24-point rout of the host Chargers. Hugo Belmonte also booted a 28-yard field goal in the fourth.

Wallace carried 25 times for 112 to go with his four touchdowns. Brennan Baker and Weston each ran for 67 yards. Weston also threw for 129, completing 17 of 24.

The Panthers fell at home to Fishers, 49-35. Over the last 10 meetings, HSE is 6-4, including three straight wins by a 30-point margin of victory.

Pike (1-0) at Fishers (1-0)

The Tigers will host the Pike Red Devils for the 13th meeting overall between the two red clad squads. Fishers owns a 9-3 record in the all-time series. Fishers got off to a rapid start last Friday at North Central. Ryan Thembulembu and JonAnthony Hall both caught Gage Sturgill TD passes. Nathan Ash picked off a pass and ran it back 30 yards for a TD for 21-0 and there was still 4:29 left in the first.

The Tigers finished their scoring to go up big at halftime 49-14. Sturgill threw four more TD passes, three to Hall and another to Thembulembu. Sturgill finished 14 of 21 for 224 yards and six touchdown passes. Hall had 151 yards on nine grabs, while Thembulembu caught four for 65 and also ran for 24.

The Red Devils won at home over neighboring Zionsville last week, 31-20.

Triton Central (0-1) at Hamilton Heights (0-1)

Friday night's home opener for the Huskies features a pair of teams that will be hungry for their first win. Triton Central lost its opener at home to Batesville, 21-14 and Hamilton Heights came up short in a hard-fought battle at Lapel, 29-20.

Heights leads the all-time series (7-0) with the Tigers and hopes to make it eight on Friday.

Sophomore quarterback Drew Woodruff threw for 290 yards and a pair of TDs and also rushed one in.

Tyler Champion led with six catches for 114 yards. Keaton Weaver had seven for 105 and a TD, while Cam Fleming caught four for 56 and a score.

Previews for Friday's Guerin Catholic, Noblesville and Sheridan games will appear in Friday's edition of the Reporter.
