Noblesville Diversity Coalition seeks input from local students

Submitted by NDC

The Noblesville Diversity Coalition (NDC) announces the creation of two new student advisory board positions for the 2024-2025 school year. These roles are open to high school students (grades 9-12) who live in or attend school in Noblesville, including public, private, or homeschooled students. NDC is seeking young leaders passionate about fostering a more inclusive and welcoming community in Noblesville.

Selected student board members will provide fresh insights into youth-related issues, help shape NDC's programming, and serve as advocates for the coalition's mission. Their contributions will be vital in promoting and informing others about NDC's initiatives while participating in quarterly board meetings and events.

"Noblesville's youth are integral to our community's future," said Dana Randall, Advisory Board Chair of NDC. "By welcoming student voices to our advisory board, we're giving them a platform to advocate for the changes they want to see while also giving them invaluable leadership experience."

Students interested in applying must submit their applications by October 30, 2024. Application materials include a completed application form, a letter of interest to the selection committee, a recommendation letter, and a signed commitment agreement from the student and their parent/guardian.

NDC is excited to welcome students to its advisory board who demonstrate a commitment to community service, active participation in extracurricular activities, and a desire to contribute positively to Noblesville's future.

Running Berlin, part 2

Last I left off, we had just settled in for a very mentally taxing 26.2 miles (or 42.195 kilometers there) running the streets of Berlin, with about 58,000 other runners.

This marathon was different in so many ways for us. Different country, larger in size than any other (fun fact, we were part of setting a new world record with a record number 54,280 crossing the finish line that day!) While that may be a cool thing to have been a part of, for a duo bike team, it caused many challenges.

If you are not familiar with a marathon course, they have water stations along the way for those who do not run with their own water supply. My husband always has his own that I refill along the way, so we do not stop for water. We try to stay right down the middle of the water stations, which are on both sides of the road. It can be a very chaotic part of the course. Normally, the cups are paper, so when they are thrown after someone takes a quick drink, it does not hurt too bad if one slaps you in the face. In Berlin, the cups were a hard plastic. So, each time we passed through, I would take cover. That was a crazy experience in itself! I am pleased to say we made it through the water stations injury-free.

Sheridan Community Schools (SCS) invites all members of the community to attend a Community Safety Night at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 28 in the High School/Middle School Auditorium.

This open forum event will provide a chance for parents, students, and community members to learn more about the school district's safety protocols and the collaborative efforts with local authorities to keep students safe.

Attendees will have the opportunity to hear from several key figures involved in school safety, including:

- Chief Mike Nielsen, the newly appointed Chief of the Sheridan Police Department
- Sergeant John Perrine of the Indiana State Police
- Dave Mundy, Superintendent of Sheridan Community

- Members of the Sheridan Police Department and the SCS Safety Team

The evening will cover important topics related to student safety and the processes the school district follows in partnership with local law enforcement. While the forum will allow for open questions from the community, the event will primarily focus on the following key areas:

- The Threat Assessment Process: how the school safety team collaborates to evaluate and respond to potential threats.

- Handling Various Threats: from internal concerns to social media incidents and threats from other communities, learn how SCS addresses and mitigates risks.

• Safety Procedures: an overview of the district's safety steps for different situations to ensure student and staff safety.

- Online Safety: measures the school district takes to protect students in the digital space.

• Collaboration with Local Authorities: a closer look at how SCS works with the Sheridan Police Department and Indiana State Police to manage safety situations effectively.

Superintendent Mundy encourages all interested community members to attend.

"Our partnership with law enforcement is vital to ensuring the safety of our students and staff," he said. "This event is a great opportunity for the community to ask questions and learn more about the strategies and processes in place to keep our schools safe."

Don't miss this opportunity to engage in an important conversation about school safety and learn how SCS is working to protect its students both on-campus and online.

For more information, please contact the Sheridan Community Schools office at (317) 758-4172.

Hamilton County is booming. There are new apartment buildings and subdivisions seemingly everywhere. School districts are building a new school every year.

Hamilton County has increased in population by about 300,000 people since

I began the practice of law in Noblesville. Meeting a new friend or client often brings up the question, "Where are you from?"

That brings up a story from college. When I went to college "Where are you from?" was the first question I received after the initial inquiry about my name. There really wasn't any town close so I always replied that I was from Henpeck, Indiana, the nearest crossroads with a grocery store and church and maybe two homes. Of course, no one at Purdue had heard of Henpeck.

"Where is that?" I replied, "It is near Monroe." Where is that? No one had heard of Monroe, so I said I was from Decatur, the county seat of Adams County. Only one or two had heard of Decatur, so I began saying in response to "Where are you from?" with "I'm from Fort Wayne."

We have folks here in Hamilton County from Bethlehem, Millersburg, Strawtown, Atlanta, Jolietville, Mudsock, and Walnut Grove. Of course, there are also a few from Carmel, Fishers, Westfield, and Noblesville. We also have neighbors and friends here from more than 40 different countries.

Our firm has served clients in Bulgaria, Afghanistan, Germany, England, Japan, and Vietnam. Through the power of the Internet answers to where you from can come from anywhere in the world.

Where are you from? Ray Adler is a longtime attorney with offices at The Adler Building, 136 S. 9th St., Downtown Noblesville. He is also one of the owners of The Hamilton County Reporter Newspaper.

Hamilton County Election Office reporting significant participation thanks to early voters

The REPORTER

Early voting is underway in Hamilton County. Here are some preliminary statistics as of the end of business Wednesday, courtesy of the County Election Office:

- 14,037 early voters (also called "walk-in absentee")
- More than 19,000 absentee mail ballots requested

Using the number of registered voters in the May 2024 primary, that means approximately 12 percent of Hamilton County's electorate has either voted early or requested to vote by mail.

There are only 19 days left until Nov. 5, but Elections Administrator Beth Sheller said there is still time to request your mail-in ballot if you choose.

For this year's general election, your application to vote by mail must be received by the County Election Office in Noblesville (not just postmarked) by 11:59 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 24. The requirements for receiving a mail-in ballot can be found on the Indiana Secretary of State's website at this link.

No application is necessary to vote early in person,

Part of what I enjoy during the marathon is documenting and sharing the experience from my unique point of view. I often “go live” on social media because I know others enjoy seeing us in action along the course. This time, I just did not have much opportunity to document the experience in the same way. I was too busy ensuring that others, as well as my husband and I, stayed accident-free.

There was never a time of open road where we felt we could relax during our 3 hours and 24 minutes along the course. There were people dodging in, out and around the entire time. There were several near misses as people thought they could hop over the front wheel of the bike as we were moving. I would not recommend.

Another thing I enjoy is interacting with the crowds during the marathons. People get very enthusiastic when we come by in the bike. If I raise my arm and ring my cowbell in the crowds, they erupt in loud cheering and screaming. It sometimes gets a bit overwhelming for my husband as he is running. While it is awesome to hear and feel the support, ironically it can have the opposite effect on him. It gets VERY loud. The crowds for this marathon were nothing in comparison to New York, Chicago, and Boston. Those are hard to beat.

As we saw the Brandenburg Gate in our sights, we knew we had gotten close to the end. I felt a huge sense of relief as we finally crossed the finish line. My husband and I just embraced one another and cried for a moment. All our months of training had paid off. We completed our fifth marathon together as a team. Team Humbly Courageous.

Many would see us and think that my husband is just a pusher, doing all the hard physical work. Obviously, he is, but he would never want someone to see us that way. We have been a team from the beginning, and this passion of ours is no different. We support each other, encourage one another and step outside our comfort zones together.

It is not easy to roll by in that giant bike with all eyes on you. We get all kinds of looks and comments. I doubt there is one we have not heard. Mostly, it is admiration, and what we hope most of all ... is that it raises awareness for Muscular Dystrophy and serves as a symbol of hope for others. Our favorite thing is when we pass by someone in a wheelchair and their face just lights up, as if to say, “hey, maybe I could do that too!”

While I may not be able to run on my own two feet, it is our humble courage that provides me with the closest I will ever get to running a marathon in this lifetime.

Next week, we will celebrate 25 years of marriage. While Berlin had many challenges, it was symbolic of our life together. There is always a way to get to the end. You just have to be willing to find it.

Until next time ...

Keeping little goblins & ghouls safe on their way through Carmel

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel's official hours of trick-or-treating will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 31. Homes welcoming trick-or-treaters should turn on their porch lights. If you do not wish to participate, or run out of treats, please turn off your porch lights.

While there are many neighborhoods and other organizations that hold their own Halloween events and celebrations, those who want to trick-or-treat door-to-door should use the city's official hours to do so. Earlier this year, residents who participated in a survey voted to keep Halloween on Oct. 31 as it has been in prior years.

The city would also like to remind residents of a few guidelines and proper safety procedures to follow for a safer celebration. While preparing for Halloween festivities, there are several important safety tips to keep in mind:

• Motorists should drive with extra caution and keep an eye out for “little goblins” roaming the neighborhood.

• Adults should always accompany their children and use a flashlight at night, staying within their own neighborhood and known homes. The use of glow sticks or reflective tape on costumes can also help with visibility.

• Watch for traffic before crossing any street.

• Avoid costumes that are long, which could cause tripping or costumes that have hard plastic or wood props like swords that could be a hazard.

• Face paint is often a safer alternative to masks that may obstruct vision.

• It is also important to inspect candy before allowing children to have it; dispose of any candy that is unwrapped.

Duke Energy supports fellow first responder agencies with grants for emergency preparedness

First responders statewide, including local police, fire, and emergency management agencies (EMAs) in central and eastern Indiana, will benefit from grants from the Duke Energy Foundation.

The funding, which totals nearly $215,000 for organizations across the state, will help public safety agencies increase their response capabilities during severe weather and other emergencies through advanced preparation, planning, equipment and training.

Among the grant recipients is Hamilton County EMA, which received $11,000 to purchase voltage detectors, portable impact drills and bit kits to assist with the proper establishment of electrical grounding, and to stock a community outreach trailer.

YMCA's Diabetes Prevention Program launches in Westfield

The REPORTER

Prediabetes threatens over one-third of American adults, and most don't even know they're at risk. The YMCA's Diabetes Prevention Program provides proven, community-based classes to help prevent or delay the onset of diabetes by over half.

Enrollment is open now and classes begin soon in Westfield.

The YMCA's Diabetes Prevention Program will be held from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

each Tuesday beginning Oct. 29 at the Westfield Washington Township Center, 174000 Westfield Blvd. There is no cost to attend that to Health First Indiana Funding through the Hamilton County Public Health Department.

To register, call (317) 269-6004 or email changelife@indymca.org.

About the YMCA's Diabetes Prevention Program

Offered in Indianapolis since 2006, the program emphasizes two primary goals:

reduce body weight by 7 percent and increase physical activity by 150 minutes per week.

In a classroom setting, a trained lifestyle coach helps participants change their lifestyles by learning about healthy eating, physical activity, and other behavior changes. Topics include: nutrition, getting started with physical activity, overcoming stress, staying motivated, and more. The program meets once a week for 60 minutes for four months, followed by bi-weekly and monthly sessions for up to a year.

“Lifestyle changes are key,” said Anna McIntire, Association Director of Community Health. “By taking practical, everyday steps, participants in the program can reverse prediabetes and reduce the risk for developing Type II diabetes, and associated dangers such as heart attack, stroke, blindness and even amputation.”

Learn more about the program at indymca.org.

The American Diabetes Association announces ‘State of Diabetes’

The REPORTER

The American Diabetes Association (ADA) will hold the first in-person State of Diabetes: Indianapolis on Nov. 20 during American Diabetes Month at the Ivy Tech Conference Center.

“The American Diabetes Association hopes to bring together employers with needed resources and answers on how they can help manage costs for diabetes and obesity and to best support their employees,” said Sarah Schmitz, executive director of the ADA's Heartland market.

In Indiana, approximately 636,700 of adults, or 12 percent of the adult population, have diagnosed diabetes. Each year, an estimated 31,200 adults in Indiana are diagnosed. The annual State of Diabetes event serves as a pivotal gathering, uniting employers, industry leaders, health care providers, and community experts. On a shared platform, professionals engage with an expert panel in critical discussions on how to leverage ADA resources and other strategies to address the contemporary landscape of diabetes and the financial impact on employers and employees.

With National Sponsor, Lilly, and Platinum Sponsors, Humana, Roche, and TrueRX Health Strategists, the ADA is ready to bring State of Diabetes to Indianapolis.

“The significant and varied costs of diabetes are growing, and it will take the efforts of all of us – industry, employers, health authorities, neighbors, family, and friends – to reduce the burden in Indiana and beyond,” said Antonio Verga, senior vice president of Core Lab and Near Patient Care at Roche Diagnostics North America. “As a global leader in diagnostics and an employer in Indianapolis, improving access to care so that all people with diabetes can afford and receive the support they need to manage their disease has been Roche's longstanding commitment. We continue to focus our expertise, capabilities, and resources in areas where we can make the most difference.”

“TrueRx Health Strategists is proud to sponsor the American Diabetes Association's State of Diabetes event, recognizing its immense value for employers,” said Eric Barker, RPh, chief growth officer at TrueRX. “This event provides essential insights into diabetes prevention and management, enabling employers to understand the financial impact on their workforce. As a fifth-generation, family-owned PBM, we're not just another industry player – we're health strategists dedicated to putting patients first. By supporting the ADA event, we align with our mission to offer valuable resources and personalized care, helping individuals manage diabetes effectively and achieve better overall health.”

“At Humana, we put health first – both for our members and the communities we serve,” said DaWana Stubbs, MD, regional vice president, health services for Humana in Indiana. “That means that we are committed to delivering integrated health care and to addressing the health-related social needs that impact those living with chronic conditions like diabetes. Our strong provider relationships ensure our members have access to regular screenings and chronic disease management, and we also invest in local organizations that provide fresh and healthy food choices. With our focus on the whole person and all the factors that affect our members' wellbeing, we can help our communities achieve their best health.”

Over 38 million Americans are living with diabetes, and obesity is a leading risk factor. Employers are searching for resources and key strategies to help their employees with diabetes and obesity and to prevent the disease for other employees. Just this month, $34 billion will be spent and $412.9 billion per year will be spent on diabetes care. Diabetes is now the most expensive chronic disease in the U.S. impacting employers and employees.

This year's esteemed panelists will share their expert perspectives on addressing the cost of diabetes and obesity on employers and the community.

Panelists include:

- Dr. Brian Ulmer, diabetologist, Roche
- Dr. Chelsea Durnil, director of clinical solutions, True Rx Health Strategists
- Dr. DaWana Stubbs, regional vice president and chief medical officer, Humana
- Dr. Virginia Caine, director and chief medical officer, Marion County Public Health Department

DNR awards community & urban forestry grants

The REPORTER

The Indiana Department of Natural Resources (DNR) Division of Forestry has awarded $238,000 in grants to 10 communities and organizations to support tree planting and maintenance, education, tree inventory, and management projects. Among the recipients is Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation.

The projects were selected by the DNR Community and Urban Forestry (CUF) program and are funded through the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Forest Service, Urban & Community Forestry program.

Communities and organizations receiving grants include:

- City of Plainfield: $25,000
- Carmel Clay Parks and Recreation: $25,000
- TREES Inc.: $25,000
- City of West Lafayette: $24,557

• Town of Nashville: $20,000

• Indiana Arborist Association: $14,650

• Indiana University (Indianapolis): $13,800

Additionally, the DNR awarded a Natural Disaster Recovery grant to Indiana University's Bloomington and Southeast campuses, each of which received $20,000 to plant trees after a tornado and other severe weather events.

Also, the DNR awarded the city of New Albany a State Urban Forest Resilience grant of $50,000 to treat ash trees for emerald ash borer (EAB) and to plant trees in locations where EAB killed ash trees.

Fishers woman facing federal charges for fraud & forging federal judge's signature

The REPORTER

A federal grand jury has returned an indictment charging Christi Lee Dodd, 51, Fishers, with wire fraud and forging the signature of a federal judge.

According to the court documents, Dodd first filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy in the Southern District of Indiana in January 2015. In April 2015, a federal bankruptcy judge issued a signed discharge order releasing Dodd from liability for any remaining debts not resolved in the bankruptcy proceedings.

In December 2019, Dodd again filed for Chapter 13 bankruptcy in the Southern District of Indiana, but later decided not to proceed and moved to have the 2019 case dismissed. In June 2022, the bankruptcy court dismissed Dodd's 2019 bankruptcy petition. The court did not issue a discharge order in the 2019 case, and none of Dodd's unpaid debts were resolved.

In 2023, Dodd allegedly created and forged a discharge order purporting to absolve her of debts related to her 2019 Chapter 13 bankruptcy petition. Dodd emailed the fraudulent document to a financial institution purportedly proving that she had received a discharge in her 2019 bankruptcy case so that she could obtain a line of credit to pay outstanding debts owed by the trucking business she owned.

The emailed document was purportedly filed in Dodd's second bankruptcy case with the heading, "DISCHARGE OF DEBTOR IN A CHAPTER 13 CASE." As alleged in the indictment, the forged document was in fact created by Dodd using the discharge order from her first bankruptcy under Chapter 7 and contained the forged signature of the judge who issued the 2015 discharge order.

"Protecting the integrity and efficiency of the bankruptcy system is an important priority of the Department of Justice," said Zachary A. Myers, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana. "Our office is committed to working closely with our partners at the U.S. Trustee Program to uphold the law and protect the interests of debtors and creditors."

"The filing of a fraudulent court order containing the forged signature of a bankruptcy judge strikes at the very core of the integrity of the bankruptcy system and will not be tolerated," said Nancy J. Gargula, United States Trustee for Indiana and the Central and Southern Districts of Illinois (Region 10). "We are grateful for U.S. Attorney Myers and our law enforcement partners for their commitment to protect the integrity of the bankruptcy process in the Southern District of Indiana, as demonstrated by this indictment."

The FBI and U.S. Trustee's Office is investigating this case in collaboration with the Southern District of Indiana Bankruptcy

Fraud Working Group. The United States Trustee Program is the component of the Department of Justice responsible for overseeing the administration of bankruptcy cases and litigating to enforce the bankruptcy laws. If convicted, Dodd faces up to 25 years in federal prison.

U.S. Attorney Myers thanked Assistant U.S. Attorney Adam Eakman, who is prosecuting this case.

An indictment is merely an allegation. All defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.

Empowering women’s health: “Nourish” Conference brings holistic healing to Indiana

Submitted by INANP

The Indiana Association of Naturopathic Physicians (INANP) will soon hold the “Nourish” Women’s Health Conference, set to take place on Nov. 2 in Fishers.

This one-day event is designed to empower women to take charge of their health, offering a unique focus on natural, holistic healthcare solutions that cater to the mind, body, and soul. The conference also serves as a vital fundraiser to support the INANP’s mission of securing licensure for naturopathic doctors (NDs) in Indiana.

At a time when women are seeking more comprehensive, personalized approaches to their well-being, the “Nourish” conference will bring together a diverse group of experts to share valuable insights on topics ranging from hormonal health and nutrition to stress management and mental wellness. Naturopathic doctors will present the latest research and natural approaches to healthcare, showcasing how their unique blend of modern science and traditional healing can significantly improve the lives of women.

Why naturopathic medicine?

Naturopathic medicine focuses on treating the whole person, identifying the root cause of illness rather than just managing symptoms. Naturopathic doctors are trained in accredited four-year post-graduate medical schools and specialize in natural, non-invasive therapies like nutrition, herbal medicine, homeopathy, and lifestyle counseling. Despite their rigorous training and commitment to patient-centered care, only 26 out of 50 states currently license naturopathic doctors, and Indiana is not yet among them.

Women in Indiana deserve access to naturopathic medicine as a regulated, safe, and effective option for their healthcare. With its focus on prevention, natural therapies, and individualized care, naturopathic medicine is particularly well-suited to address the complex needs of women’s health, from hormone imbalances and thyroid conditions to digestive issues and mental wellness.

Pushing for licensure in Indiana

The “Nourish” conference isn’t just about educating women on the benefits of natural health – it’s also a critical fundraiser for the INANP’s efforts to secure licensure for naturopathic doctors in Indiana. For years, Indiana naturopathic physicians have advocated for legislation that would regulate the profession, ensuring that only properly trained NDs can practice and offer safe, effective healthcare to Hoosiers.

Although licensure bills have been introduced in past legislative sessions, they have yet to gain traction. The INANP is committed to pushing these bills forward in the upcoming session, but doing so requires resources. The funds raised at the “Nourish” conference will help the INANP hire a professional lobbyist, whose expertise is essential in navigating the complexities of the state legislature and securing licensure for the profession.

Licensure would not only elevate the standards of healthcare in Indiana but also expand access to naturopathic care for women and families across the state. It’s time that Indiana women have the option to seek care from licensed naturopathic doctors who can help them address their health concerns naturally and holistically.

Attend the “Nourish” Conference

The “Nourish” conference promises to be an inspiring and informative event, bringing together women from all walks of life who are interested in learning more about natural health and self-care. In addition to engaging presentations from naturopathic doctors, attendees will enjoy healthy meals, wellness experiences, and gift bags filled with natural products.

Whether you’re passionate about women’s health, curious about naturopathic medicine, or simply want to support the advancement of healthcare options in Indiana, you are invited to the conference on Nov. 2. You can help nourish the future of women’s health and make naturopathic medicine accessible to all.

Tickets are available now, and all proceeds will directly support the INANP’s efforts to secure licensure for naturopathic doctors in Indiana. For more information on the conference, sponsorship opportunities, or how to get involved, please visit inanpnourish.com or email inanp2020@gmail.com.

Let’s come together to transform healthcare for Indiana women – naturally.

Noblesville teacher: vote Helvey for school board

Dear Editor:
I have dedicated my life to the students of Noblesville Schools. This is my 16th year of teaching, coaching, and sponsoring student-led clubs. What's best for the students is what drives me.
To continue doing what is best for the students, I need to see those on the school board as capable, driven, engaged persons who will provide the background support and strong foundations for the teachers and staff to best facilitate the growth and learning of Noblesville's youth.
There are six candidates for three seats on the Noblesville School Board. Brad Helvey is one of the clear choices to fill this board. He may be listed as part of a slate on the signs seen, but I would not vote for the slate – only Helvey and then two from the other slate.

Voters of Noblesville, please understand this. Your choice to vote for Brad Helvey does not mean you have to pick the other two on that slate.
I first met Brad as the parent of a student on a team I work with. I have seen him in action as one of the most involved parents that help move the opportunities forward for the growth of these athletes. Since then he and I have met over coffee to discuss the ins and outs of the school district. I left that conversation very excited about the possibility of seeing him in a decision-making capacity for this district.

Having watched the School Board candidates' panel has further solidified my confidence in Brad Helvey's capacity to keep this district strong and moving in the right direction. I encourage everyone with a stake in Noblesville Schools to watch the panel. You will see how deep Brad's knowledge of this district is. It's clear he has had coffee chats with many folks and done his part to understand the needs and inner workings of the district.
Brad Helvey is poised to be a very engaged and effective member for the district!

Carmel voters strongly support Joel Levi for State Senate

Dear Editor:
We strongly support Joel Levi for State Senate District 20.
Joel is a family man and public servant who is running to build a safer and more inclusive Indiana for all Hoosiers. He is not a “professional politician” but a man who is driven by his conviction that we must do better for Indiana.
Joel wants our children to feel safe at school. He fully supports the Second Amendment but advocates for sensible gun laws, such as requiring background checks on private gun sales.

Joel is an advocate for freedom, specifically a woman's right to make her own health care decisions.
Joel recognizes the crisis in affordable housing in Indiana, including Hamilton County. He believes that if you work here, you should be able to live here.
Finally, Joel is man of moral character and great empathy. He cares deeply about the well-being of all Hoosiers. To that end, he is committed to working across the aisle, building collaboration on the issues that matter to all of us, regardless of party affiliation.

Let's stop the divisive rhetoric and vote for the principles that unite us over the parties that divide us.
Kirk and Kate King

Letter to the Editor

Reader asks which party is truly investing in Hamilton County

Dear Editor:
Who is investing in our community?
It's a simple question with an equally simple answer: Democrats in Congress are investing millions in Indiana while local Republicans pose for groundbreaking and ribbon cuttings for projects funded with money their party opposed in Congress.
In 2021, the American Rescue Plan Act provided economic relief during the pandemic that our local officials used on new and existing projects: $205 million for broadband and trail expansions, and $25 million in grants for land preservation.
Our communities have greatly benefited from the Democrats' investment:

• $20 million to White River restoration
• $25 million to expand water & sewer utilities along U.S. 31 to Bakers Corner
• $2.8 million to wastewater improvement projects in Arcadia
• $6.3 million to the new arts & municipal complex in Fishers
• $7.6 million to the Nickel Plate Trail in Fishers and Noblesville
• $2.1 million to the Monon Trail in Sheridan
• $5 million to the new YMCA in Westfield
• $500 thousand to Westfield non-profits

• $2 million for broadband expansion in Boone County
• $3 million to the Carpenter Nature Preserve in Zionsville
• $400 thousand to updating Zionsville's comprehensive plan
Under Indiana's current Republican supermajority, our public schools are being defunded, support to families through Medicaid is being slashed as a result of fraud, and our rights are being stripped away. So, once again, we have to ask ourselves a simple question:
Who is investing in our community?

Letter to the Editor

Reader: Dawson, Helvey & Hanley will provide “conservative oversight” of Noblesville School Board

Dear Editor:
I'm a follower of Christ and a mom, a Nana, a wife, a volunteer, a civic leader, a business owner, lead a charity, a taxpayer, and a voter.
Wearing all these hats and objectively looking at the school board election data, there is only one conclusion to arrive at. I support Dawson, Helvey, and Hanley for the three open school board openings, and I am asking you to join me in supporting them, too.

As a conservative Christian, I am called to pray over those in leadership, but I'm also called to pray over how I cast my vote. In doing so I can't in good conscious vote for a candidate with a history of liberal positions and a history of donating heavily to liberal PACs, causes, and candidates, even if they are nice people. We see the world differently.
I support conservative oversight when it comes to our children, grandchildren, and teachers. Please vote like you would if you were hiring someone to watch your baby – because you are. I choose new people who I know will watch our kids like they were their own and watch our tax dollars for all of us.

Please join me and vote for Dawson, Helvey and Hanley.

Shaffer: don't be a clown ... go vote!

Dear Editor:
Voting is a deadly serious activity. Having lived in the Chicago area and watched the Windy City blow it, I recall one reason why. A neighbor explained why he didn't vote. “Things are bad,” he said.
I said, “They are because clowns like you don't vote.”
I think I lost a friend but you get the point.

Money often trumps outcomes in senior rehab services – a Carmel facility is changing that

Submitted

Third-party rehabilitation services in senior care facilities are an industry-wide practice. While widely accepted, the competing goals of billable therapy minutes and what’s best for each senior can lead to less than optimal outcomes and nearly impossible workloads for therapy services staff.

Known for intimate, homelike settings and an approach that reimagines what senior care can be, the Restoracy sought to further improve the rehabilitation outcomes for their long-term care, rehabilitation, and memory care residents by launching their own rehabilitation services, Restore Rehab.

Seniors taking advantage of rehabilitation services with Restore Rehab now have access to pain management tools such as Dolphin Neurostim and Avazzia, which provide non-medication options for pain management – an essential part of rehabilitation success. Focused on the best outcomes, Restore Rehab leverages VitalStim, a tool used to support patients with dysphagia (trouble swallowing).

“We’re focusing on outcomes and quality, not minutes and dollars,” said Molly Shulz, Director of Admissions at the Restoracy. She adds that the uneasy alliance senior care and rehab companies form make it difficult to align goals on an important aspect of senior care. With Restore Rehab, all residents of the Restoracy gain access to a nimble, talented, and motivated team of hand-picked rehabilitation specialists and support staff including a physiatrist (a medical doctor specializing in rehabilitation and pain management) and a nurse practitioner focusing on physiatry.

“The experience of the professional teams providing rehabilitation services is equally important to us as the quality outcomes our seniors experience,” added Dan McKinzie, OTR, MPP, Restore Rehab’s Chief Operating Officer. Working as a team with the Restoracy’s staff and residents and the opportunities Restore Rehab provides for their team to innovate in the therapy space is already attracting top talent to the company.

Rehabilitation encompasses physical, occupational, and speech therapy with each patient’s plan personalized for specific outcomes. Seniors seek rehabilitation services after illness or injury requiring hospitalization. With falls leading as the number one cause of injury deaths in adults 65 and over, they’re also the most common reason for seniors to enter rehabilitation. But seniors also use rehab services for pain management and to prolong independence and quality of life when living with chronic conditions such as Parkinson’s disease.

Seniors who live independently and return home after hospitalization and rehab aren’t the only ones who benefit from services. Residents in long-term and memory care facilities often encounter rehab needs specific to living in these settings, including reducing fall risk and incontinence. Approximately half of senior care facility residents experience falls and the same is true of incontinence-related infections and complications. A number of factors – including the advanced age of residents, staffing ratios, and availability of interventions – contribute to these statistics.

When the pressure to bill a certain amount of therapy minutes leaves little time for assessment, planning and adjustment for rehab interventions, therapy staff find themselves under pressure to maximize billable minutes at the expense of adequate time for other tasks and often complete these tasks on their own time. This contributes to a cycle that can lead to burnout, turnover, and slower progress for seniors in rehab.

Redefining what senior rehabilitation care looks like with Restore Rehab provides seniors and their families a unique option for rehab. The Restoracy and Restore Rehab encourage seniors and their families to schedule a tour and see the difference firsthand.

About Restore Rehab

Launched to buck the industry trends holding patients and rehabilitation teams back, Restore Rehab’s core rehabilitation philosophy re-imagines what it means to provide exceptional care to seniors. Restore Rehab provides individualized and holistic care and restores health and dignity in an environment that fosters independence while focusing on quality outcomes.

About The Restoracy

The Restoracy, locally owned and operated, provides “senior care re-imagined” by prioritizing a superior living experience and personalized care delivery. Their commitment to residents is reflected in the industry’s highest caregiver-to-patient ratio, ensuring individualized attention in a home-like setting. Unlike large institutional facilities, their homes accommodate specific rehabilitation, long-term care, or memory care needs, featuring private rooms with common living areas. The heart of their approach lies in their kitchen/dining area, fostering familiarity and warmth with meals served directly from the dinner table. Shonkwiler endorsed by public safety organizations

Submitted

Alaina Shonkwiler, Republican nominee for Indiana House District 29, has recently been endorsed by several public safety organizations, including the Indiana Fraternal Order of Police, Noblesville FOP Lodge 198, Hamilton County FOP Lodge 103, the Indiana State Police Alliance, and the Professional Firefighters’ Union of Indiana.

highlight Shonkwiler’s broad support among the public safety community and their confidence in her to lead as District 29’s next State Representative.

“I am honored to have the endorsement and support of public safety professionals in our community and remain committed to supporting those on the frontlines as they work to keep our communities safe,” Shonkwiler said. “Our police officers and state troopers, sheriff deputies, firefighters and EMTs put themselves in harm’s way to protect us, our families, and our property, and they deserve the very best. Every Hoosier deserves safe communities, streets, and schools, and I will always work to support those who serve and ensure they have the resources and tools they need to do their jobs safely and efficiently.”

Alaina Shonkwiler lives in Noblesville along with her husband, Jason, a Sergeant with the Noblesville Police Department and current High School Resource Officer, and their two school-aged children, Hannah and Kyle.

AG Rokita defends states’ authority to ban sex-change procedures for minors

Submitted by Office of the Attorney General

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita is taking action to protect states’ authority to prohibit sex-change procedures from being performed on minors – co-leading a 22-state brief to the U.S. Supreme Court aimed at thwarting the Biden-Harris administration’s efforts to override state laws.

“The Biden-Harris administration will stop at nothing to impose its radical transgender ideology on all Americans,” AG Rokita said. “But Hoosiers elect state lawmakers to represent their values, and the Indiana General Assembly has passed a law forbidding medical practitioners from performing surgery or administering drugs to children under 18 to ‘transition’ them to live as members of the opposite sex.”

In the amicus brief, the attorneys general support the State of Tennessee’s authority to enforce a law that – similar to Indiana’s – prohibits medical interventions before age 18 intended to alter boys’ or girls’ physical appearances so that they resemble members of the opposite sex.

“The Constitution leaves to states the right to make decisions about how best to protect children from unproven and risky interventions,” AG Rokita said. “Here in Indiana, we have laws rooted in common sense, common sense, compassion, and science.” That lack of authority did not prevent the federal government from supporting a lawsuit against Tennessee that claims the Tennessee law violates the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment.

“Nothing in passing the Fourteenth Amendment,” the amicus brief states, “remotely suggests that the Equal Protection Clause was meant to override the States’ traditional role in regulating medicine.”

Joining AG Rokita in leading the amicus brief are the attorneys general of Arkansas and Kentucky.

“In our federalist system,” the brief further observes, “the States get to decide within their borders what interventions are available for boys and girls suffering from gender dysphoria. Tennessee gets to decide that using puberty blockers and hormones ... is not sufficiently safe or beneficial – that long-term it will do more harm than good. No equal-protection challenge can change that.”

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

"These are the laws you are to set before them:

HEBREW SERVANTS

"If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free, without paying anything. If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go with him. If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.

"But if the servant declares, 'I love my master and my wife and children and do not want to go free,' then his master must take him before the judges. He shall take him to the door or the doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.

"If a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as male servants do. If she does not please the master who has selected her for himself, he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, because he has broken faith with her. If he selects her for his son, he must grant her the rights of a daughter. If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing and marital rights. If he does not provide her with these three things, she is to go free, without any payment of money.

Girls Soccer Regional Semifinals

Millers beat Harrison, Hounds edge Brownsburg to advance to finals

By RICHIE HALL

sports@readthereporter.com

NOBLESVILLE – The Noblesville girls soccer team advanced to the regional final on Wednesday with a 5-0 semifinal win over Harrison at Hallmark Orthodontics Soccer Complex.

The Class 3A No. 2-ranked Millers got on the board quickly. Meredith Tippner put in Noblesville's first goal during the sixth minute. The Millers steadily added to their lead in the first half to go up 4-0 at halftime.

Sophie Hedges scored Noblesville's second goal in the 14th minute, then Brooklyn Gibbons found the net in the 25th minute, with Tippner making the assist. Corynn Fleck scored in the 39th minute, then scored again during the second half off an assist by Katelyn Keenan.

"We knew what was on the line this evening and we knew we'd see a different Harrison team than we saw earlier," said Millers coach Mike Brady. Noblesville played Harrison Sept. 14 and won that game 3-0.

"But we came out and played like we were capable of," said Brady. "We still have things to work on and get better for Saturday. But I thought every player that got in the game put forth the effort and we made that step in the right direction this evening."

The Millers improved to 16-0-2 for the season. Noblesville travels to Kokomo on Saturday for the regional championship game where it will face No. 8 Homestead for the title at 2 p.m. The Spartans beat Fort Wayne Carroll 4-0 Wednesday in the other semifinal.

Third-ranked Carmel won its Class 3A regional semifinal game on Wednesday, beating Brownsburg 1-0 at the Bulldogs' field.

Olivia Cebalo scored the Greyhounds goal with 12 minutes left in the first half. Vaughn Rohrbacher made the assist.

Carmel is 15-3-2 and hosts the regional championship on Saturday. The Greyhounds will play No. 12-ranked East Central at 2 p.m.; the Trojans beat Franklin Central 4-0 in Wednesday's semifinal.

Week 9 high school football previews: Part 1

By CRAIG ADKINS

For The Reporter

The regular season has flown right by and we're ready for the state tournament to start. But before that can happen, regular season finales are the focal point this week, despite teams now knowing who their first-round opponent is in sectional play.

Brownsburg has the Hoosier Crossroads Conference all but sealed up. Hamilton Southeastern could help Westfield out with a win over the Bulldogs, although the Rocks have a tough Franklin Central squad coming to town. Sheridan heads up to Carroll for a crucial Hoosier Heartland Conference battle and Hamilton Heights looks to continue its late season swing heading toward sectional play.

6A No. 1 Brownsburg (8-0, 6-0) at

6A No. 13 Hamilton Southeastern (5-3, 3-3)

The Royals and Bulldogs both have a lot to play for in the regular season finale. Brownsburg's looking for the outright HCC title and Southeastern is looking to get on a roll heading into the playoffs. The first 25 meetings have HSE with a slight 14-11 edge. The Bulldogs won last year, 21-14.

Last week, Brownsburg captured at least a share of the HCC title with a comeback win at home over Noblesville, 22-18.

Hamilton Southeastern dropped a tough one on the road at Franklin Central, 14-10. In the Royals' three losses, they are a total of 13 points from being 8-0. That's the craziness of the Hoosier Crossroads Conference.

Chandler Weston has passed for 995 yards, completing 84 of his 140 passing attempts. Carter Reed has rushed for 662 yards on 121 attempts for a 5.5 average with 10 touchdowns. Vaughan Johnson (318) and Weston (317) have been solid in picking up yards on the ground.

Kendrick Pennybaker leads the receiving corps with 381 yards and six TDs, while Liam Boyd is tops with 26 receptions and 220 yards.

Hugo Belmonte is 23 for 24 on extra-point kicks and has made six of eight field goal attempts, with a long of 39 yards.

6A No. 10 Franklin Central (5-2, 4-2) at 6A No. 3 Westfield (7-1, 5-1)

Friday will be just the seventh meeting between the Flashes and Shamrocks. Westfield is 6-0 in the first half dozen and plans to make it seven. The Rocks won a tight battle last year, 28-19.

Last week had the Flashes upending HSE at home, 14-10.

Westfield won a statement game on the road at Fishers, 46-13. The Shamrocks only have a 17-13 road setback that keeps them from being 8-0. Outscoring Avon and Fishers in the last two games 91-25 has them primed for the state tournament.

Carsen Melvin has grown in his quarterback role. So far, he's thrown for 1,159 yards, going 93 for 143 for 65 percent with nine touchdowns and three interceptions.

Deacon King has burst onto the scene with 743 yards on 125 carries and scored nine touchdowns. Mikeah Webster has rushed 64 times for 289 yards and has four TDs. Gabe Arambolles is having a steady season with 36 catches for 483 yards and has five scores. Beau Braun has 20 receptions for 239 yards.

Owen Wright is 23 for 26 in extra-point tries and has made seven of eight field goals.

Sheridan (4-4, 4-2) at 1A No. 3 Carroll (Flora) (8-0, 6-0)

The Blackhawks and Cougars have met in HHC play 16 times now with Sheridan going 10-6. Last season, Carroll won 24-0.

Carroll beat Clinton Prairie 42-0 at home last week to wrap up the HHC championship.

Sheridan lost at home last week to Eastern (Greentown), 38-23. The Hawks led 23-22 late in the third, but Eastern rattled off 16 unanswered points in the fourth to stun Sheridan. They have lost two of their last three after winning three in a row.

Owen Bell and Brock Hagan have seemingly split time at quarterback. The two have combined to go 34 of 75 for 458 yards through the air for seven TDs and seven interceptions.

Alex Cravens has the bulk of the carries, rushing 149 times for 653 yards and seven touchdowns. Jaylen Arnold isn't far behind with 81 rushes for 500 and three TDs. Caleb Alexander has caught eight passes for 194 yards, three of those for scores.

Bell has converted 18 of 18 extra points and put four of seven field goals through the uprights.

3A No. 16 West Lafayette (5-3, 2-1) at Hamilton Heights (3-5, 2-1)

The Huskies have met up with the Red Devils 12 times previously on the gridiron. West Lafayette has a 9-3 record against Hamilton Heights, but Heights won last year's epic battle, 26-23, for the outright Hoosier Conference championship.

The Red Devils took down Twin Lakes last week, 49-21.

Heights was able to edge out their neighbors to the north in the Tipton Blue Devils, 14-13. Joey Sigler went 12 of 22 for 324 yards and two TDs. Tyler Champion caught five for 185 and Nick Bichey four for 95, each scoring a TD.

Hamilton Heights has won three of its last four games since they started out 0-4.

Drew Woodruff threw for 931 yards, going 77 of 168 and been the quarterback for a majority of the season. Joey Sigler has come on of late, going 26 of 45 for 568 yards and five TDs.

Champion has caught 38 for 843 yards and six touchdowns. Keaton Weaver has 21 receptions for 260.

Boys Soccer Regional Semifinals

Royals taking on Harrison, 'Hounds head to Lawrence North for semifinals

The REPORTER

The Hamilton Southeastern boys soccer team will take on a fellow top five team tonight in a Class 3A regional semifinal game.

The No. 2-ranked Royals host No. 4 Harrison, with the game beginning at 6 p.m. The teams played each other early in the season at the Raiders' field; the Sept. 5 contest finished in a 1-1 tie. It will be a clash of unbeaten teams, as Harrison is 15-0-4 and Southeastern is 13-0-5.

The Raiders won their own sectional last week, starting with an 8-0 victory over Lebanon in the first round. Harrison beat McCutcheon 2-1 in a semifinal game, then defeated Lafayette Jefferson 3-0 in the championship.

Junior Ivan Gutierrez is by far the scoring leader for the Raiders, with 27 goals and 13 assists to his credit. Sophomore Timmy Schneider is Harrison's goalkeeper; he has made 30 saves and a 0.545 goals against average (GAA).

The Royals also triumphed at their own sectional last week. Southeastern began with a 4-2 win over Pendleton Heights in the first round, defeated Mount Vernon 4-2 in the semifinals, then beat rival and No. 9-ranked Fishers 1-0 to claim the championship.

Senior Ameer Abu-Salih leads HSE in goals scored with nine, while senior Jack Anderson has 12 assists for the season. Another senior, Cam Joniec, has had a solid goalkeeper season with 37 saves and a GAA of 0.727.

Carmel at Lawrence North

Carmel heads down to Lawrence North tonight for a 6 p.m. regional semifinal game.

The Wildcats are 12-4-1. Lawrence North won Sectional 10 last week, starting with a 4-0 first-round win over Herron. The Wildcats then edged out Warren Central 1-0 in the semifinals, then upset No. 8-ranked Cathedral 2-1 in penalty kicks to claim the trophy.

Senior Nahum Mendez is the scoring leader for LN, with seven goals and 11 assists. Senior goalkeep-er Guillermo Folgar has 41 saves for the season.

The Greyhounds are 7-7-3 for the season, and won their own sectional in the toughest way possible, with two penalty-kick games after receiving a first-round bye. In the semifinals, Carmel edged out Brebeuf Jesuit 2-1, winning the PK round 5-4. That moved the Hounds into the championship, taking on No. 1-ranked and three-time defending state champion Noblesville. After a scoreless regulation and overtime, the game went to PKs, with Carmel winning 5-3.

Juniors Curtis Droste and Owen Price both have five goals for the season, with senior Tyler Schilt and Mikey Kubek each making five assists. Sophomore goalkeeper Aidan Gos-tomelsky has been playing well as of late, making a crucial stop for the Greyhounds in the PK round against Noblesville that helped Carmel win the sectional title.

WFA Indiana to host pro women's tackle football combine at Mojo Up Sports Complex

The REPORTER

Indianapolis' newest pro sports team is excited to announce its first ever combine, taking place on Saturday as part of the Women's Football Alliance (WFA) National Tryout Day. The event will be held at the Mojo Up Sports Complex, 16289 Boden Road, Noblesville, starting at 9 a.m.

With over 170 women from across the state registered to participate, this combine offers an incredible opportunity for aspiring athletes to showcase their skills, strength, and football knowledge. Players will compete in professional-level drills and tests, giving them the chance to earn a spot on the team's inaugural roster for the 2025 season.

Kristian Aleixo, founding owner of WFA Indiana, shared his excitement.

"We're blown away by the level of interest and enthusiasm for women's football here in Indiana," Aleixo said. "This organization is committed to building a strong, competitive team, and we're eager to see the talent that will be on display at the combine. This event is a huge step forward for women's sports in our state, and we're proud to be part of Indianapolis' broader goal to become the Women's Sports Capital of the World by 2050."

WFA Indiana's participation in WFA National Tryout Day highlights their dedication to growing opportunities for women in football. The WFA is the longest-running and most competitive women's tackle football league, featuring 60 teams nationwide, TV coverage on ESPN2 and championship games held at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

The combine is a private event but will be open to the media.

Meet the Candidates

Dear Readers,

The general election is just around the corner, and we have a fine selection of local candidates for you to get to know.

In these pages you will read all about the candidates who have chosen to respond to The Hamilton County Reporter's request to share their information and help you make an informed decision at the polls on or before Nov. 5.

Candidate information is presented as it was submitted. The Reporter takes no responsibility for any typographical, grammatical or factual errors. These are the

Any candidates vying for the same office are grouped together in a shaded box.

SCHOOL BOARDS

Christi Crosser

Candidate for Noblesville School Board, At Large

I am the current Noblesville School Board President. My husband Craig and I have lived in Noblesville for 25 years. Both of my children graduated from Noblesville High School. I'm a small business owner in Noblesville and I serve on nonprofit boards in our community. I am extremely proud of the accomplishments of Noblesville Schools over the past four years. The fiscal responsibility of Noblesville Schools is essential. The S&P rating has increased two times over the past four years. The current rating is AA and Noblesville Schools are only one of four school districts in the state with this rating. Noblesville Schools have lowered their tax rate for five consecutive years and are on track to be lower for a sixth year. I champion meeting students' needs to be successful after graduation. This includes college, workforce and military. The expansion at Noblesville High School will add STEM programming through a bond with no increase to the tax rate. I support teachers and staff of Noblesville Schools. They need to be paid well, have the benefits that they deserve and be treated as the professionals that they are. Noblesville Schools was named in Forbes Magazine as one of America's Best Midsize Employers.

David Dawson

Candidate for Noblesville School Board, At Large

An educated citizenry is a vital requisite for our survival as a free people. Thomas Jefferson

I'm Dave Dawson and I want to be one of your representatives on the Noblesville School Board

Lived in Noblesville since 1998. Lifetime Hamilton County resident

Both of my children graduated from Noblesville

I am a fiscal and social conservative

30+ years of commercial real estate management. Have worked with multiple 50+ million dollar budgets at any one time, including 100+ million dollar budgets as a contractor at Eli Lilly. This qualification lends to the fiscal responsibility that every School board member must adhere to when answering to the taxpayer

Ivy Tech Graduate with a degree in business management and I am a graduate of vocational training in HVAC. This will guide me in working to increase the availability and all types of vocational training.

I coached Noblesville boys and girls sports for 9 years and loved every minute of the growth I saw in student athletes.

Fiscal responsibility, Education and Transparency will dominate my term. I do not intend to be just a cheerleader for the administration. The board must take an active role in all aspects of the operations of Noblesville Schools.

Alison Hanley

Candidate for Noblesville School Board, At Large

Alison is a wife and mother to triplet girls who attended Noblesville High School. She is a Speech-Language Pathologist with 35 years experience treating children with speech/language delays and adults/seniors with communicative-cognitive impairments. Alison loves the performing arts and enjoyed watching her daughters perform in choral concerts, piano recitals and dance performances with the Miller Girls at NHS.

Alison believes a strong academic foundation is vitally important to prepare children for adulthood. She feels increased focus on academic achievement is needed due to a high percentage of students (roughly 40-50%) not performing at grade level in reading/writing and math (2024 iLearn scores on IDOE website), putting them at risk to fall further and further behind. With her work experience plus her own daughters' learning struggles, Alison knows how these challenges can impact every area of a child's life.

Alison also wants to see more support for teachers as they face tough challenges in the classroom such as growing numbers of ELL learners and larger class sizes.

Alison believes a renewed focus on academic excellence, transparency with parents/the community, and careful use of tax dollars will help Noblesville Schools continue their excellent reputation for generations to come.

Brad Helvey

Candidate for Noblesville School Board, At Large

Brad Helvey and his family have been Noblesville residents since late 2011. All three of Brad's children are current students in Noblesville Schools. Brad and his wife, Selena own Tenpenny Houseworks, Inc, a construction and remodel company primarily serving Hamilton and Boone Counties. Brad earned his teaching degree from the University of Alaska Anchorage in 2002, and taught in Lawrence Township before moving to Colorado in 2004. Brad currently volunteers with the Noblesville High School Gridiron Club through the Miller Backers organization. Brad is an avid supporter of public education and will press to help Noblesville Schools achieve greater heights in Academic Excellence, Fiscal Management and District Communication.

Stephanie Lambert

Candidate for Noblesville School Board, At Large

Stephanie is running for re-election to the Noblesville School Board where she currently serves as vice president. She has lived in Noblesville with her husband, Nate, for 13 years. They have 3 children-a son at Purdue majoring in mechanical engineering, a senior at NHS and an 8th grader at Noblesville West.

She has been a Forensic Scientist with the Indiana State Police, a substitute teacher in the district, a Hamilton County CASA and is the current Republican Precinct Committeeman at Grace Church. Stephanie has a record of supporting all students-no matter their path, including voting yes to a NHS expansion project that will increase Career and Technical Education opportunities like welding and construction management. She also has supported a collaboration with IU Kokomo for a College Core certificate that will give students 30 credit hours of college credit when they graduate-potentially saving families thousands of dollars in college expenses. Stephanie is fiscally responsible and has worked hard to decrease the school tax rate and the district's overall debt every year she has served on the board-while maintaining state of the art facilities and top tier educational opportunities.

Bret Richardson

Candidate for Noblesville School Board, At Large

Bret Richardson is the Board Chair of the Noblesville Schools Education Foundation, was a swim and dive coach and volunteer for almost 20 years, is mentoring a student at North Elementary, and completed the Noblesville Schools Miller Ambassadors program.

"I am running for the school board to ensure we stay on the path of continuing our excellence in education. While carefully overseeing our tax dollars, I want to be sure Noblesville School continues to build a strong future for our community."

In addition to his support of the schools, Richardson is a longtime leader in the Noblesville community. He has been on numerous boards including the Noblesville Chamber of Commerce, Noblesville Main Street, Noblesville Preservation Alliance, Noblesville Swim Club, and the Noblesville Noon Kiwanis Club. Bret served on the Hamilton County Sheriff's Department for 10 years, as a road officer and Reserve Division Captain and was also the co-chairperson for the City of Noblesville Bicentennial Committee.

Richardson and his wife Tammy have three daughters who graduated from Noblesville High School and three grandchildren in Noblesville Schools. Tammy is a former NHS teacher and has worked as a secretary for 20 years at Noblesville East Middle School.

Latrica Schooley

Candidate for HSE School Board, Fall Creek Twp.

I am a dedicated mother of four and have been happily married for 31 years, all while running my own small business. Like many families, one of our motivations for relocating here was the quality of the schools. I have found immense satisfaction in volunteering within our schools and the broader community.

These opportunities have enabled me to collaborate with educators, parents, and community members.

Being married to an educator has given me a profound understanding of the challenges that teachers and their families encounter. I am honored to have the endorsement of the Hamilton Southeastern Education Association (HSEA), which represents more than 60% of our district's teaching staff, highlighting my commitment to supporting the educators who play a crucial role in guiding students toward success.

My experience in the insurance benefits sector equips me with essential skills to manage human capital costs for our school district, ultimately benefiting our employees and ensuring effective resource allocation. Additionally, my participation on various professional boards has enhanced my knowledge of governance and strategic planning.

As a mother of a child with special needs, I am dedicated to ensuring that our district fulfills its educational promise to serve all students.

Suzanne Thomas

Candidate for HSE School Board, Delaware Twp.

As a dedicated mother of four, longtime Fishers resident, and active community leader, Suzanne Thomas brings over two decades of passionate involvement to HSE Schools and is the current HSE Board Secretary. Her four children matriculated through HSE Schools (both FHS and HSE grads), college and Marines, and the youngest entered Purdue this Fall.

As an HSE School Board Trustee since 2021, she led initiatives such as reinstating "Academic Excellence" into the district's mission statement and revising the student handbook to improve conduct and classroom environments. Her advocacy for the implementation of the Science of Reading reflects her dedication to advancing literacy education. Suzanne is Chair of the HSE Facilities and Maintenance Committee. She spearheaded the Fishers Elementary School renovation, saving the district $15 million. She also serves on the Hamilton Southeastern Foundation Board, supporting scholarships, grants, and community initiatives that directly benefit students and educators. As a business owner-realtor, youth coach, and active board member of Fishers Rotary, her leadership spans a wide array of civic and educational arenas. With a history of serving on PTO boards, sports boards, and local charities, she remains committed to improving HSE Schools and ensuring every student receives a high-quality education.

Scott Baldwin

Republican for State Senate District 20

Noblesville native Scott Baldwin is a U.S. Marine Corps veteran with more than 25 years of military and law enforcement experience, an entrepreneur, husband and father of three.

Scott served in the U.S. Marine Corps during Operation Desert Storm and returned to Afghanistan when Operation Enduring Freedom began to assist Marine Corps personnel. He also served with the Indiana Department of Corrections and as a patrol officer, field training supervisor and detective supervisor with the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department (IMPD) for more than a decade where he earned two Medals of Bravery and a Medal of Valor. Scott later volunteered as a reserve detective with the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office.

In the state Senate, Scott has championed fiscal responsibility, supported balanced budgets and cut taxes for Hoosiers. He's also worked to ensure Hamilton County families and students can access high quality education, and to strengthen public safety and support our military and first responders.

Scott is a successful entrepreneur and local business owner. He's also a member of the Noblesville Lions Club, the American Legion and a lifetime member of the VFW and the NRA. He recently created a non-profit hunting and fishing show supporting veterans with PTSD called "Darkhorse Expeditions."

Joel Levi

Democrat for State Senate District 20

Joel was born and raised in Anderson, Indiana. He attended Anderson University where he met his wife Megan. After getting married they lived in Nashville, Tennessee from 2013-2020. Upon moving back home, they settled in Cicero, Indiana where they now live with their five year old son Mitchell. Joel's son currently attends the Little Huskies Pre-K at Hamilton Heights.

Megan and Joel have always had a heart for healthcare. His wife is a nurse practitioner at Community Health. Joel is a pharmacy technician in the Coumadin Clinic and Outpatient Pharmacy at Riverview Health in Noblesville.

Levi is running for State Senate so that our children can live in the Indiana they deserve. This starts with our kids feeling safe at school. The simplest way to ensure this is with common sense gun laws.

If elected into the Indiana State Senate, Levi's top priority would be spearheading legislation so that Democrats and Republicans can join together to keep our Hoosier children safe. His goal is to reach across the aisle and find Republican legislators that believe in the Second Amendment, but that also believe in requiring background checks at gun shows and on third party sales.

Jennifer McCormick

Democrat for Governor

Jennifer McCormick is a lifelong educator and multi-generational Hoosier from New Castle, Indiana. She has spent decades serving Indiana as a teacher, principal, and most recently, state superintendent of public instruction. While superintendent in rural Indiana, Jennifer fought to protect local control of school districts to ensure parents, teachers and administrators could make the best decisions for their children. As state superintendent, she was a powerful advocate for teachers and students ensuring they had the resources they needed to succeed while also protecting the taxpayer dollar by demanding transparency and fiscal accountability. Jennifer believes it's time we elect a public servant leader who demands excellence and empowers Hoosier voices so, together, we can make Indiana an attractive state in which to live, work and thrive.

FEDERAL

Robby Slaughter

Independent for Fifth Congressional District

To earn a spot on your ballot this November as an independent candidate, I spent a year traveling our district and collected over 6,000 signatures. I also met nearly everyone else in this section of the paper who is running for office. I believe they are good people. But as the old saying goes, "A bad system will defeat a good person every time." We all know that our current system---one of political parties and special interests---is no longer helping our country. Polarization, extremism, and the wealthy donors behind them are in control instead of everyday Americans.

The biggest problem we face in our country is not education, it's not the border crisis, it's not the economy or injustice. It's that we, the people, no longer trust our politicians. Without trust, nothing is possible. And the only way to earn trust again is for politicians to give up power through term limits, through radical financial transparency, and by actually spending time with voters regardless of their political party. My goal is to earn your trust. Have questions? Want to help? Call me at 317-670-4563.

Dr. Chris Hartig

Democrat for State Representative District 29

Dr. Chris Hartig was raised by a Vietnam Veteran Marine who taught him that "you must put in the work to get the results," and a mother who gave him the values to "do the right thing, especially when it seems like a hard choice." He is ready to put in the work as the Democratic candidate for Indiana House Representative, District 29 (Noblesville and part of Fishers).

Dr. Hartig worked 15 years in the mortgage and finance industry and spent the last decade as a Management and Leadership professor at WGU Indiana, supporting working Hoosiers to upskill to earn training and certifications to improve their lives. He earned a Doctor of Education in Organizational Leadership from Northcentral University, an MBA in Management and Strategy from Western Governors University, and a BA in Economics from Ball State University.

His legislative priorities are to serve as a guardrail against the unchecked extreme supermajority, protect personal freedoms, and support public schools.

Stephanie Jo Yocum

Democrat for State Representative District 88

I love Indiana and all my fellow Hoosiers who call Indiana home. I was born and raised here. I have watched firsthand as extreme policies have emerged from the Statehouse causing Hoosiers to face many unfortunate challenges.

As Indiana State Representative for District 88, I will work to make Indiana a place where people choose to live, businesses operate, and all thrive. My priorities include ensuring public school funding, educator empowerment, and preschool access. I will fight to protect workers' voices, rights, and safety. I will work to raise the minimum wage and support small businesses, creating economic prosperity for all. It is imperative that we restore reproductive freedom in Indiana. No one should be victimized because of a broken system.

My experience and passion will enable and guide me as State Representative. I am an established public servant with 20 years leading large healthcare and education non-profits. My commitment to service began in AmeriCorps managing programs for diverse groups of students. My commitment continues in my career and as a volunteer. I am an advocate for cancer research and supporter of local organizations. I serve as Chair of Serve Indiana, our state's governor-appointed commission on volunteerism and service.

Democrat for State Representative District 24

Josh was born and raised in Martinsville, Indiana. He attended Indiana University where he met his wife, Alexis. He then pursued his childhood dream of becoming a professional wrestler, before settling down and attending law school. Josh spent five years as a Deputy Attorney General practicing constitutional law, where he defended state agencies such as the Department of Child Services and Indiana State Police. Josh has argued in front of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals and conducted jury trials.

As your representative, Josh will advocate for:

- Reproductive rights
- Empowering teachers
- Thriving local economies
- Investment in childcare
- Protected environment

Josh and Alexis moved to Westfield in 2009, where Alexis grew up. Alexis's family has lived in Westfield for generations and she is currently the president of the Westfield Alumni Association.

Josh and Alexis have fostered 12 kids, 5 of which they adopted. When not driving one of his children to practice or work, they enjoy staying active, playing basketball and volunteering with community organizations like the Lions Club of Westfield, Kiwanis of Westfield, the Humane Society and Westfield Youth Assistance.

Victoria Garcia Wilburn

Democrat for State Representative District 32

Dr. Wilburn is an associate professor at Indiana University-Indianapolis where she partners with organizations to solve pressing issues that impact central Indiana residents, which inspired her to run for State Representative. She was first elected to the Indiana House of Representatives in 2022 and is a member of the Family, Children, & Human Affairs Committee, Employment, Labor, & Pensions Committee, and the Judiciary Committee.

In 2022 she passed groundbreaking legislation in Public Law 139, providing mental health and resiliency training to public safety professionals statewide. Her dedication to the disability community was recognized as Disability Advocate of the Year (2024) and she helped carry signature legislation for Mental Health America. She is committed to people over politics.

Dr. Wilburn's most notable accomplishments include induction to the Indiana Latino Leadership Circle, Junior Achievement Best & Brightest, Outstanding Woman Leader by Indiana University Office of Women, and selected by the White House as part of the Inaugural Office of Gun Violence Prevention.
