Coach Bud Wright resigns

Go home & love your family

By RICHIE HALL

sports@readthereporter.com

Editor's note: Sheridan High School Football Hall of Fame Coach Bud Wright mailed his resignation to school officials on Tuesday afternoon. His first phone call to discuss this decision was to Hamilton County Reporter Sports Editor Richie Hall.

A long and successful era at Sheridan High School came to an end on Tuesday.

Larry "Bud" Wright, the head football coach of the Blackhawks for 58 years, announced that he had resigned that position. Wright told The Reporter that the SHS administration gave him an ultimatum: resign or get fired.

"Several players and parents oppose me to continue coaching," said Wright. "I turned in my letter of resignation today. Mailed it in today."

ing statement to The Reporter Tuesday afternoon: "During the 2024 season, Sheridan Community Schools worked with Coach Wright regarding his coaching future. After discussion and consultation with his family, Coach Wright agreed that this would be his final season."

Wright will step down as by far the winningest high school football coach in Indiana. He compiled an overall record of 464 wins, with 463 of them coming at Sheridan. Wright got his first win during his one season (1965) at Mt. Ayr, now part of North Newton High School.

There's an old Mother Teresa quote: "If you want to change the world, go home and love your family."

It's always struck me because it's simple, but also profound. So often we see people pour themselves into everything outside the walls of their own home and return with very little to give to their own families. We deplete ourselves with others and for others, who would replace us if something happened to us. We burn ourselves out to the point our flame is extinguished before we even have a chance to connect with our own family.

The holiday season is no different for many of us. We try so hard to plan and make things magical for our family that we are exhausted. We go to such great lengths to make it a memorable time for our family, but get so bogged down with the details that the joy can often be lost this time of year. The endless gifts, events, parties, and traditions are fun, but also tiresome.

This is the perfect time to pause and truly go home to love our own families. Stay in the pjs with an extra cup of coffee and just enjoy being home with each other. All of those decorations you went to so much trouble putting up, enjoy them. The presents you've bought, really look at your child's face when they open them. The same songs we've heard for so many years, pay attention to the words. It doesn't matter if the house is perfect or if you still have a pile of presents to wrap. Give yourself permission to just love your family and not succumb to the stress of this season.

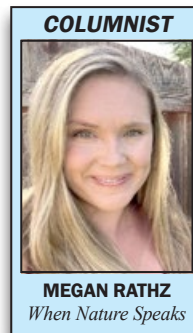

Your kids won't remember if there was dog hair on the floor or if you had the perfect place setting on the table Christmas morning. They will remember that you went to the effort to make the house festive and that they were loved.

How many of us are guilty of focusing on the to-do lists for this season and not being present in the moment to treasure the gift of time with our loved ones?

May we start peace in our own homes within the way we treat each other and the memories we create with our own families. May we allow ourselves to feel peace by loving our family and giving ourselves permission to rest. May our memories last for generations to come. It starts in our own homes.

May peace begin with each of us in our own home by the way we love each other. If you truly want to make a difference this holiday season and in the world, go home and love your own family.

Hamilton Heights freshmen among ACTS Class of 2024

Graduates will serve on boards of five local service organizations

The REPORTER

Eleven Hamilton Heights High School freshmen were among the 31 graduates of the Hamilton County A Chance to Serve (ACTS) Class of 2024.

This leadership program, created and sponsored by the Purdue Extension/Hamilton County, offers freshmen the opportunity to participate in five, day-long training sessions their first semester of high school. Graduates then get to apply those skills coupled with real-time learning experiences by serving as a member of a local board for two years.

Lori Watson, HHMS freshman guidance counselor, serves as the coordinator for the program. Illiana Bowyer, Ben Butor, Selah Heuer, Jubilee James, Fiona McDonald, Will Monnin, AJ Smucker, Quinn Thompson, Nora Trees, Aleah Trump, and Celeste Wiegman will begin their first year of board service for the following organizations: ACTS Impact,

Beef & Boards Dinner Theatre presents A Christmas Story, The Musical

Popular movie-turned-musical extended to Jan. 5

The REPORTER

The famous tale in the fictional town of Hohman, Indiana, is recreated on stage at Beef & Boards Dinner Theatre this holiday season as it presents A Christmas Story, The Musical. Now on stage with an extended run through Jan. 5, this Tony Award-nominated musical features all the fun and iconic scenes from the popular movie.

Set in the 1940s, the musical follows nine-year-old Ralphie Parker and his quest for the Holy Grail of Christmas gifts – an Official Red Ryder air rifle. Ralphie plots numerous schemes to achieve the coveted BB gun, in spite of repeated dismissive re-frames from the adults in his life.

Teddy Wiegand, an 11-year-old sixth-grader from Our Shepherd Lutheran School in Avon, makes his Beef & Boards debut in the starring role of Ralphie.

Reprising their roles in this production are Eddie Curry as Jean Shepherd (the narrator), and Don Farrell (Beautiful: The Carole King Musical, Mamma Mia!, Into the Woods) as The Old Man. Carrie Neal (White Christmas, Beauty and the Beast) plays Mother, Oliver Barszcz (The Wizard of Oz) is Randy, and Deb Wims (Legally Blonde The Musical, White Christmas) plays Miss Shields.

All the iconic scenes from the movie are featured, with a versatile score that ranges from gentle ballads to show-stopping full-ensemble numbers such as "Ralphie to the Rescue!," "A Major Award," "Sticky Situation," "Up on Santa's Lap," "Somewhere Hovering Over Indiana" and the inevitable "You'll Shoot Your Eye Out!"

Winter Art Markets at Sun King Fishers Tap Room & Small Batch Brewery

The REPORTER

Fishers Arts Council (FAC) presents the Winter Art Markets at Sun King in Fishers on three Thursdays this month: Dec. 5, 12, and 19, all from 6 to 9 p.m.

The Winter Art Markets are now in their second year and have expanded to include 24 individual artists and artisans selling unique handmade items. Each date features a new set of talented folks, and every night will include fine art, jewelry, personal care items, books, and toys for the kids.

Outside at The Yard at Fishers District, folks can enjoy free photos with Santa, a hot cocoa bar, carriage rides and more – then bring the whole family inside to the second floor of Sun King. Adults can "sip & shop" the art market with a delicious Sun King brew or a holiday mixed drink while kids can make a free holiday craft. Fishers District free activities are available from 6 to 8 p.m. while the Art Markets are open from 6 to 9 p.m. Enjoy dinner downstairs at the Fishers Test Kitchen to make it a fun evening out for the entire family.

Hamilton County ranks No. 1 in nation in math abilities – including adult math

By SCOTT SANDER
WISH-TV | wishtv.com

Hamilton County tops all other U.S. counties in a specific gauge of math ability, but the state of Indiana as a whole falls well below average.

Those are the local headlines from a national study of “numeracy averages” from a spreadsheet and data analysis company called Excel Champs, based on figures compiled by the National Center for Education Statistics.

Numeracy is more than a direct reflection of test scores.

According to the Program for the Assessment of Adult Competencies, numeracy is “the ability to access, use, interpret and communicate mathematical information and ideas in order to engage in and manage the mathematical demands of a range of situations in adult life.”

The Excel Champs study takes the NCES numeracy scores and averages them for each state and county. The higher the average, the more proficient a community is.

Hamilton County's numeracy scores average

285.7 – higher than any other county in the country and 14.7 percent higher than the national mean. No other Indiana county appears in the top 50.

Top 5 average numeracy scores by county

1. Hamilton County – 285.7
2. Los Alamos County, N.M. – 285.1
3. Douglas County, Colo. – 284.8
4. Delaware County, Ohio – 283.3
5. Williamson County, Tenn. – 282.8

Top 5 average numeracy scores by state

1. New Hampshire 268
2. Minnesota 267.7
3. Vermont 264.9
4. North Dakota 264.2
5. Alaska 263.7

Indiana's overall average is far less impressive. At 251.5, the state's numeracy average is slightly below mid-pack, well behind the leading states.

WRIGHT

Wright began coaching for the Blackhawks in the 1966 season. He led Sheridan to incredible heights during those years, including nine Class 1A state championships. The ‘Hawks won their first title in 1980, beating North Judson 27-0. That would be one of four shutouts for Sheridan in a state title game.

The Blackhawks won state again in 1984 and 1987. Sheridan defended its title in 1988 with an unbeaten team that outscored its opponents 363-18 in six tournament games, culminating in a 59-0 championship victory over Bremen.

“Brett Law set six national records,” said Wright. The coach remembered that Ben Davis won the 5A game that year, and the Giants fans were chanting “We want Sheridan!”

The ‘Hawks were also state champions in 1992 and 1998. Sheridan then made a big impact in the 2000s, winning state titles during a three-year span (2005-06-07) and reaching the finals again in 2008, led by quarterback Nick Zachery, a starter for the Blackhawks during that entire run.

“That group of kids took us to the state championship four years in a row when they were freshmen, seven of them played in the state championship game as freshmen,” said Wright. “That was a really good group of kids.”

Wright said his first state championship and ninth state championship both “have a lot of special meaning.” He has also received national recognition: Wright was named the national Coach of the Year by the National Federation of High Schools in 2008. He was also named the Indianapolis Colts Coach of the Year in 2023, which nominated him for the NFL's Don Shula High School Coach of the Year.

Wright, who turns 84 on Dec. 13, graduated from Sheridan in 1959. He began playing football in sixth grade despite his small size. When he asked his mother if he could play football, she said yes, as long as he didn't use his size as an excuse.

Wright played for the Ball State University football team his freshman and sophomore years; he graduated from there in 1963. He was an assistant coach at North Miami in 1963 and 1964, then spent his one year at Mt. Ayr before coming to Sheridan.

Wright said his time coaching the Blackhawks have been “very enjoyable years. People told me in 1966 that I should not come back to my hometown to coach, but I decided to do it anyway. I've never regretted it.” At the same time, Wright emphasized that he is resigning, not retiring, and wants to stay involved in football.

In addition to coaching at Sheridan, Wright was also a health and physical education teacher and also a history teacher. He served as the longtime athletic director for SHS; he resigned from teaching and administration in June 2004.

Ky Ragsdale appointed Chief of Fishers Fire & Emergency Services

Ragsdale to succeed Chief Steven Orusa upon retirement Jan. 24

The REPORTER

Mayor Scott Fadness announced Tuesday the appointment of Battalion Chief Ky Ragsdale as the next Chief of the Fishers Fire and Emergency Services (FFES), effective Jan. 24, 2025.

Ragsdale, a fire service professional with more than 20 years of experience with FFES, brings a wealth of knowledge, leadership, and a deep commitment to the community.

"Ky is a dedicated public safety professional who cares deeply about the Fishers community," Mayor Fadness said. "The leadership Battalion Chief Ragsdale will bring to the department comes at an exciting time for the city, as the community continues to grow and evolve. His experience and commitment to service ensures that Fishers Fire and Emergency Services will continue to be a pillar of safety and reliability for all residents."

A Fishers resident since 2000, Ragsdale is a third-generation firefighter, following in the footsteps of his late grandfather, who served as fire chief in West Lafayette, and his late father, who served as assistant chief. Ragsdale's career in the fire service reflects his passion for public safety and his deep-rooted commitment to protecting communities.

"Serving the Fishers community is an honor, and I look forward to working with the men and women of Fishers Fire and Emergency Services to continue pushing the envelope to remain a national leader as a department," Ragsdale said. "I am dedicated to giving my best to the department and the Fishers community. Chief Orusa is leaving behind a legacy that developed our department to meet any challenge and protect those we serve and I'm dedicated to serving each day to deliver the results of that effort."

Ragsdale holds a Bachelor of Management degree and is a U.S. Navy veteran. His leadership and dedication while serving at FFES have earned him numerous commendations and experiences throughout his career. Currently serving as Battalion Chief, he serves as incident commander during emergency situations, oversees departmental operations, spearheaded FFES' Recruit Academy with more than 70 firefighters, and has served on specialized response teams including HAZMAT and Dive Rescue.

"Battalion Chief Ky Ragsdale has the knowledge, skill, ability, wisdom, and experience to lead Fishers Fire and Emergency Services into the future," FFES Chief Steven Orusa said. "He is the perfect choice to be our new fire chief."

Ragsdale lives in Fishers with his wife, Donna, and their son, Cole, a student at Fishers High School.

How INDOT reacted to slick roads & snow in central Indiana

By PARKER CARLSON
WISH-TV | wishv.com

Snow, slick roads, and slippery weather conditions led to multiple accidents in central Indiana Monday evening. Traffic slid to a standstill, ruining Hoosiers' commute home.

INDOT released a statement about how the snow impacted their plans to keep the roads safe.

"Due to higher-than-forecast precipitation rates and accumulation amounts, INDOT was forced to react to roadway impacts during yesterday's snow event," INDOT Public Relations Director Kyleigh Cramer said. "As snow lingered, crews pivoted to utilizing rock salt in impacted areas mid-to-late afternoon and throughout the overnight hours."

Even though it wasn't a heavy snow, it quickly made the roads slick.

"While accumulations were light, generally under a half inch, traffic allowed the light snow to melt from friction and then refreeze from sub-freezing temperatures," Cramer said.

INDOT urges drivers to reduce speeds and drive cautiously during any winter weather event.

It may not cure melancholy, but a good stretch has many benefits

"The best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud for all to hear." – Will Ferrell, Elf

Are you a singer? Of course you are! Just as I believe that we all have a writer within, so it is true that we all can sing on some level, although we may not all wish to "sing loud for all to hear" as Will Ferrell suggests in the fun holiday movie, Elf.

The holidays, as we know, can be festive, fun, and joyous. The holidays can also bring about a melancholy from any number of personal experiences. What the holidays do for us all, however, is change our schedules and often our responsibilities and expectations. Being mindful of the physical, emotional, and stressful changes that can occur will help us to get past some hurdles and find that we can practice good self-care and find joy in the season.

While I make no claim to providing therapy for melancholia, I do have some suggestions which may assist us in maintaining physical strength and energy during this busy time.

As we prepare our homes to celebrate the holiday season, we find ourselves on ladders climbing up and down to retrieve those often elusive decorations; on hands and knees searching for boxes and containers in back of closets; reaching up to the nether-regions of our pantries for items needed to cook and bake our goodies; shopping and wrapping gifts. The results of those activities, if we are not properly stretched and flexed, can be debilitating at a time when we need our energy resources. Make sure you go for that daily walk, that you stretch when you awaken, that you get those hand weights out and put them to good use, or put your fitness facility membership to work for you ... your body and your stress level will thank you! Additionally, it is well-known that the release of endorphins by virtue of physical activity will benefit your emotional health. Definitely a win-win!

In particular, I suggest that you focus on your stretching and flexibility. As mentioned in a previous column, one thing that all athletes have in common regarding their training regimens – they all begin with stretching and flexibility work. So begin your day, no matter your schedule or other activities, with a stretching routine. This will allow you to warm your muscles and prepare your muscle groups for lifting, reaching, and moving. While stretching, use that time to focus on being positive, peaceful, and calm.

On a completely different topic but one near and dear to my heart ... if you are considering a new pet please adopt a rescue; a special friend may be waiting for you right now. May you and yours experience a healthy, happy, and peaceful season ahead ... don't forget to sing!

Carmel's settlement agreement addresses short-term rental violations

Owner prohibited from pursuing future rental listings in city

The REPORTER

The City of Carmel has reached an agreement regarding reported violations of a city ordinance pertaining to short-term residential rentals.

The Nov. 21 settlement agreement with Vacation Homes LLC and its owner and sole member, Serena Burkard, prohibit either from listing the property on Singletree Court or any other properties within the city limits on any short-term rental platforms. As a result of the settlement, any short-term rental listing by the LLC or Burkard will result in a $5,000 per day per listing penalty and responsibility for any costs or fees incurred by the city.

On March 21 and again on May 31, Vacation Homes LLC, through Burkard, was issued notices of violation of the city's Unified Development Ordinance regarding the property's use as a short-term residential rental. The city then filed a lawsuit against Vacation Homes LLC and Burkard on July 11, citing the Singletree Court property as being illegally operated as a short-term rental.

The reached agreement effectively ends short-term rental concerns regarding the Singletree Court property going forward.

Residents who suspect that a property is being illegally operated as a short-term rental are encouraged to contact city code enforcement. Properties may be used as short-term rentals if the homeowner is granted a special exception by a hearing officer of the Carmel Board of Zoning Appeals. Homes may be rented for 30 days or longer without authorization from the city.

Making each dollar work

It struck me this Thanksgiving while enjoying family, food, and football, that it's been a minute since we wrote about our finances. As a federally recognized 501(c)(3) (not-for-profit), reporting to the government is required every year. Reporting to neighbors who contribute to the Feeding Team – all of you – is overdue. With that in mind, here are some important data points.

We have no paid employees so that makes this easier. Our primary corporate sponsor, TalentLogistiX (tlxcorp.com), covers the salaries of two part-time staff and the cost of our facility, truck, and insurance. If you need staffing services, doing business with them helps us. Apart from that benefactor, we operate on less than $50,000 in donations annually.

Funding sources include corporations, grants, foundations, fundraisers, estates, individual donors, and civic organizations like the Noblesville Elks lodge. Large food donations come from individuals, families, food raisers at companies, churches, and other not-for-profits like Hamilton County Harvest. Interestingly, because of the Feeding Team's no-questions-asked model, we don't qualify for the larger brand-name food charities' free food programs. We are completing a new agreement with a large food charity that will allow us to purchase food at a discount over grocery store prices. Our plan is to purchase $1,000 worth of food per month to fill in any gaps in our supplies of vegetables and proteins.

Presently, through a volunteer army of amazing caring people, we stock over 13,000 meals each month in over 40 pantries. Pantry hosts stock and manage over thirty pantries independently of those where we supply food. Each pantry can hold hundreds of meals. If they run short on food supply, we back them up. We have no way to track what collectively these remarkable pantry hosts supply to hungry neighbors. Nor do we have any way to track what you and others place directly in pantries; we are just grateful for so many people's participation in providing meals for those in need.

Most of the food we supply is purchased from national wholesalers at about $800 for each pallet of food. The balance of food distributed is donated to us or directly into pantries. When we run short of something specific, off to the local grocery we go, and like everyone else, we pay retail.

Grocery deliveries are exciting around the Feeding Team office as we can get as many as eight pallets in a delivery. It's incredible to see the skill of semi drivers navigating a very narrow driveway to set up for delivery at our offices. I mention this because it costs us between $500 and $800 for each delivery. We don't have a forklift, so we pay extra for a liftgate truck to be able to drop the pallets off in the parking lot.

Each pantry costs about $1,000 to build when you account for signs, wood, plexiglass, paint, and trimming. Many of our pantries were built by donors, corporate sponsors, civic groups, and Eagle Scouts. Over the year's partnerships have developed where we provide the materials and volunteers will build pantries.

We are blessed to have Gaylor Electric as a corporate sponsor. Over 95 percent of Feeding Team pantries are picked up, transported to, delivered, and set up by Gaylor Electric associates using Gaylor Electric trucks. This saves hundreds of dollars for each pantry placed in service. When a pantry needs maintenance or repair, Feeding Team volunteers, Gaylor Electric staff, and frankly, kindhearted neighbors jump into action. We may incur materials costs, but people donate their time and talent to make sure each pantry is functional. We could not begin to calculate the dollar value of volunteers other than to say, if they weren't here, we wouldn't be able to do this.

The business model is simple: identify and secure a location, build a pantry, set up a location, get food, give food, and repeat. It's the cycle of service and the heartbeat of what we do. It is not cheap to execute, and we've spent years minimizing costs and improving efficiency. Every dollar possible goes into obtaining food and building pantries. If you'd like to donate, reach out to us directly or donations may be made through the website, FeedingTeam.org.

If you find yourself in need – maybe occasionally you are like I was, a member of the working poor – then Feeding Team Pantry's are especially for you. They are here for you, 24/7/365.

They are completely anonymous, with no shame and no guilt. We take no information and have no expectations of you other than you merely take only what you need please. Leave food for others that are also in need. Some future day, we hope that you consider giving what food you can and sharing your blessings with others that could use some help.

The Feeding Team launched pantry 75 recently, with location 76 already secured, which will be deployed in the coming weeks. We are grateful for the support of our community, volunteers, sponsors, and donors. Thank you.

With over 40,000 food-challenged neighbors in Hamilton County, FeedingTeam.org is a registered 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization that provides outdoor 24/7/365 no-questions-asked free food pantries throughout the county.

The pantries exist to meet the food insecurity needs of gap families, neighbors who may not qualify for public assistance and could use a few meals before payday. The pantries serve as many food-challenged neighbors as possible, and our hearts are with those who, like my family, could not always make ends meet.

Thank you for supporting the pantries. We love serving with so many neighbors across Hamilton County. In future columns, we will share more stories about how your generosity served neighbors in times of need. The face of hunger in Hamilton County is not what you may think.

In practical terms, this straightforward way to help neighbors is having real impact on lives, families, and our communities. Thank you. A few meals can change the course of a person's life. A can of green beans means so much more when you have nothing to feed your kids.

Would you like to get involved? Volunteer opportunities are available. We are evaluating new pantry locations. If you think you have a potential location, please contact us.

A bike restoration each day keeps the holidays jolly & gay

Submitted by Gary Blackburn

Volunteers from Recycled Cycles spent the day last week at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds doing final inspection on 365 restored bicycles.

The crew worked all year repairing donated bikes at its repair site at 310 E. Main St. (State Road 32), behind Big Hoffa's BBQ in Westfield.

The bikes will be offered to deserving families at the Good Samaritan Network's (GSN) "TOWER" partnership program with the Hamilton County Jail for transportation to jobs. Bikes will also be distributed to children at GSN's annual Christmas Distribution from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 14 at the Hamilton County Fairgrounds, 2003 Pleasant St., Noblesville.

Carmel artist Scott Osborne's sculpture "The Life Cycle of a Butterfly" is now back at home at the Carmel Clay Historical Society & Museum.

'The Life Cycle' sculpture finds new home at Carmel Clay History Museum's new location

Submitted

The Carmel Clay History Museum, which recently opened its new location, has also welcomed the return of "The Life Cycle of a Butterfly" sculpture outside of its new home.

"The Life Cycle," a favorite among travelers along the Monon Trail, was designed by Carmel artist Scott Osborne and made its debut in 2020. With the construction around the old location of the Historical Society's Museum, the sculpture was stored away to keep it safe. With the 'metamorphosis' of the new museum, the sculpture will also emerge in a fresh and new location, ready to once again inspire visitors.

"We are very excited to welcome back this unique artwork. Scott Osborne's creation both enhances our landscape and educates children about the metamorphosis of butterflies with amazing, detailed metalwork," Carmel Clay Historical Society Executive Director Deborah Gangstad said.

The project was funded by the City of Carmel's Art Grant committee.

Osborne, who works out of his studio - Brown Hound Studios - has had several pieces commissioned in Carmel and Indianapolis. His focus in art is on larger-than-life sculptures that feature metal and other materials.

His original inspiration for "The Life Cycle" was to make a sculpture that symbolized the development of youth. His goal for the sculpture was that it would become a visual, thought-provoking and educational sculpture for all to see and enjoy.

"I wanted to create something that spoke to how beautiful life is at every stage, even if it can look very different depending on where you are," Osborne said. "Just like with a butterfly starting as an egg and growing into a butterfly, sometimes time and difficult changes can create the most beautiful life."

The Carmel Clay History Museum is now open. The museum is the perfect place for any historian, but especially those who share a passion for Carmel History. The museum is committed to preserving Carmel history and ensuring that future generations will have the opportunity to learn and appreciate the stories that shape the Carmel community. You can visit the new museum Wednesday to Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 5 p.m. Admission is free and all ages are welcome.

Be sure to stop by on your way in to pose with the various stages of the butterfly in "The Life Cycle."

About Scott Osborne

Scott Osborne is a Carmel native who has spent his entire life in the city. After graduating from the Herron School of Art and Design in 2019, he began to explore creating art in almost every medium imaginable before finding his love of using found objects to create large, dynamic sculptures. He is especially fond of incorporating wood and metal into his art. He integrates functionality and is always influenced in some way by the number three - born in the third month and the third child in his family. The best thing about art in Osborne's eyes is that it can share a message and a purpose, or it can simply be appreciated for the sheer beauty of its existence.

Kroger's '12 Merry Days of Deals' now underway

The REPORTER

Kroger announced on Monday a new savings event for the holiday season. The grocer invites customers to enjoy the 12 Merry Days of Deals starting today through Dec. 15. They can clip a new hot digital deal each day for redemption by Dec. 17.

"We're eager to surprise customers with new ways to save big this holiday season," Kroger Central Division President Colleen Juergensen said. "We hope customers have as much fun discovering the offers as our team did creating the list of festive deals to help them save money during the busiest time of the year."

Through the 12 Merry Days, Kroger will reveal a deal every day. Each daily offer will be available to clip for one day only at Kroger.com or the Kroger app and can be redeemed through Dec. 17. Offers may be redeemed up to five times each in a single transaction. Customers can look forward to a surprise deal every Merry Day from Dec. 4 to 15 on products across the store, including items such as goods for holiday hosting, seasonal merchandise, fresh and more! Check back each day for a hot deal. Click here to save big and learn more.

How to participate

- Visit the Kroger app or site each day from Dec. 4 to 15
  - Log into digital account
  - Clip the featured digital coupon each day; only one coupon will be available each day for 12 days
  - In store, customers must enter their Rewards Card number at checkout to ensure the deal is applied to their purchase
  - Redeem all participating digital coupons by Dec. 17
- Deals can be redeemed in-store or through Kroger Pickup and Delivery, offering the same products at the same low prices no matter how customers shop.

A show done so well they had to add extra run dates

'Tis the season – and Beef and Boards Dinner Theatre complements that holiday feeling with A Christmas Story, The Musical.

Based on Jean Shepherd's well-known story of his boyhood Christmas campaign for a Red Ryder Carbine Action 200-shot Range Model air rifle, many of us are familiar with the non-musical film version starring Peter Billingsley as the boy, Ralphie Parker, and Darren McGavin as The Old Man.

This musical adaptation by Joseph Robinette, Benj Pasek, and Justine Paul is directed with a deft hand by Jeff Stockberger and is filled with wonderful performances. Narrated by Eddie Curry as Shepherd, 11-year-old Teddy Wiegand takes the Ralphie role, alongside Don Farrell as The Old Man, Carrie Neal as Mother, and nine-year-old Oliver Barszcz as little brother Randy. Farrell and Ms. Neal are matchless in their portrayals – each taking the spotlight in turns such as Farrell's grand celebration, "A Major Award," and Ms. Neal's sweet "What a Mother Does."

The boys are outstanding in their roles, especially young Mr. Wiegand who takes on the lead character with a very professional proficiency. Teddy and Oliver are solid in their acting scenes and also (accompanied by an impressive cadre of young performers) in an array of production numbers. A spectacular tap-dancing number celebrating teacher Miss Shields' wisdom and featuring the kid cadre is a show-stopper. (Special nod to choreographer Sally Scharbrough.)

The show carries a feeling of holiday joy throughout, punctuated by some noteworthy performances: Brett Mutter is a perfectly disgusted Santa Claus, Deb Wims plays Miss Shields to the hilt, and the ensemble of players and dancers cover all the neighbors, parents, elves, villains, and first responders with polished energies. Musical director Kristy Templet leads the B&B orchestra.

Bottom line: If you are looking to launch your holiday spirit, Beef and Boards is offering just the ticket. It's all there: the stuck tongue, the bunny suit, the department store Santa, the flat tire. Seats are dear (a performance has recently been added) so if you care to catch this great show, go to BeefAndBoards.com and find your table!

AG Rokita wins victory for Hoosier consumers in MV Realty litigation

Positive changes made to Indiana's law as a result of investigation

Submitted by Office of the Attorney General

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita has prevailed in a lawsuit against a Florida-based real estate company that negotiated contracts with Hoosiers that allegedly violated Indiana law.

After soliciting customers via thousands of robo-calls, MV Realty unfairly locked Hoosiers into broker services contracts for a term of 40 years in exchange for modest up-front cash payments. Memoranda of these contracts were filed in each homeowner's chain of title in county recorder offices – thus creating problems for homeowners who wanted to refinance, obtain second mortgages, or undertake other transactions.

"Hardworking Hoosiers face burdens enough in financing housing costs without the added headache of dealing with deceptive schemes," AG Rokita said. "By successfully putting a stop to these predatory practices and voiding unfair contracts, we have spared hundreds of homeowners from difficult and unfair circumstances. Our team will continue our work protecting Indiana consumers."

As part of a consent judgment, MV Realty and its principals have agreed to the following conditions:

- To file a release of all homeowner benefit agreements attached to the property of more than 300 Hoosier homeowners within 30 days of entry of the judgment.

- That MV Realty would relinquish all rights to the agreements and that they are void and unenforceable.

- That defendants would not advertise or offer services as real estate brokers or broker companies in the State of Indiana for at least five years.

AG Rokita's team will notify each homeowner of the settlement by letter. Any questions from consumers about the judgment can be directed to HPU@atg.in.gov.

In the lawsuit, the State of Indiana alleged that agreements with MV Realty signed by Hoosier homeowners were equivalent to high-interest mortgages, backed by the recording of the contracts against their real property. The resolution resolves more than $800,000 in expected future receivables for MV Realty, which have now been forfeited by the company.

Following AG Rokita's lawsuit against MV Realty, the Indiana General Assembly enacted legislation outlawing similar contracts.

AG Rokita expressed gratitude to staff members who worked on achieving this successful resolution, including Deputy Director of Consumer Protection Steven Taterka, Homeowner Protection Unit Section Chief Chase M. Haller, Deputy Attorney General Jennifer Linsey, Homeowner Protection Unit Investigator Molly Jefford, and Data Privacy Investigator Victoria Hardcastle.

Indiana Republican Party Chair Randy Head abruptly announced his resignation Monday after just over five months on the job.

According to a news release from the party, Head informed the Indiana Republican State Committee of his decision over the weekend, citing his full-time responsibilities at the law firm of Krieg DeVault. Party officials said Vice Chair Erin Lucas will serve as interim chair pending the election of a new chair.

Head is the second chair of the party to step down this year. Anne Hathaway stepped down just 10 months into the role, immediately following this summer's state party convention in which delegates nominated pastor Micah Beckwith for lieutenant governor, breaking with a long tradition of party delegates deferring to the party's governor primary winner when it comes to selecting a running mate.

Head said in a statement he plans to continue his work on the state Republican committee. He said he was proud of his success in last month's election in which Republicans swept all statewide races and maintained their supermajority in the General Assembly.

"I want to thank Governor-elect Mike Braun for trusting me with this role," Head said. "It has truly been an honor. I also want to thank Krieg DeVault for allowing me to step away from my professional responsibilities to serve the party during this crucial time. Finally, I want to extend my gratitude to the hardworking staff at Indiana GOP headquarters. Their dedication and effort made it possible for us to exceed every fundraising benchmark and deliver these historic results."

Gov.-elect Mike Braun thanked Head for his work and his ability to bring people together.

"Randy has also been a great partner in our gubernatorial transition, offering his expertise and leadership to ensure a smooth and successful process as we prepare to move forward," Braun said. "I look forward to working with the Indiana Republican State Committee to select a new chair who will build on the strong foundation Randy has established."

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

THE TABERNACLE

"Make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim woven into it by a skilled worker. Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases. Hang the curtain from the clasps and place the ark of the covenant law behind the curtain. The curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place. Put the atonement cover on the ark of the covenant law in the Most Holy Place. Place the table outside the curtain on the north side of the tabernacle and put the lampstand opposite it on the south side.

"For the entrance to the tent make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer. Make gold hooks for this curtain and five posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold. And cast five bronze bases for them.

Mary Helen Bouse

May 5, 1926 – November 22, 2024

Mary Helen Bouse, 98, passed away peacefully at her home in Sheridan, surrounded by her loving family and caregivers, on Friday evening, November 22, 2024. Born on May 5, 1926, in Otterbein, Ind., she was the daughter of Elzer and Edna Faye (Holder) Read.

Mary was a 1944 graduate of Lebanon High School. She spent most of her career working in a secretarial and office manager capacity for various companies in the Lebanon area, including Commercial Filters, Economy Insurance, and several accounting firms in town.

When she had some time to herself, she loved getting lost in the pages of a good book. However, watching Jeopardy! was the next best thing. She also enjoyed a few sports on TV, including golf (as long as Tiger Woods was playing) and watching the Kansas City Chiefs.

Mary was a woman of strong faith and devotion to her family. She was a wonderful cook, and there was nothing she enjoyed more than cooking for her family. She was still preparing family dinners well into her 90s. Traveling, especially to warmer places, was also another fun family adventure. The beaches of Florida were among her favorite destinations.

Mary is survived by her three sons, Michael McLaughlin (Sharon) of Bradenton, Fla., Jeff McLaughlin (Robin) of Lebanon, and Steve McLaughlin of Sheridan; daughter, Linda McLaughlin of Frankfort; grandson, Ben McLaughlin of Chicago; great-granddaughter, Elle McLaughlin of Lebanon; brother, Jack Read (Alice) of The Villages, Fla.; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Elzer and Edna Faye (Holder) Read; sister, Virginia Cory; grandson, Curtis McLaughlin; and daughter-in-law, Denise McLaughlin.

Private family services are being planned. Mary will be laid to rest at Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan.

Paul Phillip "Cap" Walton

June 16, 1939 – November 27, 2024

Paul Phillip "Cap" Walton, 85, passed away unexpectedly at his home in Terhune, Ind., on Wednesday morning, November 27, 2024. Born June 16, 1939, in Sheridan, he was the son of the late James and Opal Mae (Stroup) Walton.

Cap was a mixture of tinkerer and work-a-holic, combined with enough ornery to keep things interesting. Cap truly made a mark on the community. He attended Sheridan High School, and soon after went to work for Jerry Childers Construction Company in Sheridan. For 40 years, if Jerry's crew was on a jobsite, Cap was there too. He'd probably forgotten more about building things than most people will ever come to know. Though many tinkerers have a shop where visitors can see their handiwork, or scrapbooks full of pictures of their creations (both good and bad), for Cap, his work takes a little more effort to show. His legacy of work IS our community. The buildings that our businesses call home, the houses we see every day, and the places that when you see a picture of them, you blurt out "hey, I know where that is," all have a little bit of Cap Walton (and Jerry Childers Construction) in them. He was very proud of his work, and loved pointing out the churches, houses, and businesses (including Kercheval Funeral Home) that he had the pleasure of working on over his career. Cap was part of a generation that valued quality and craftsmanship above anything else. In addition to his years in construction, he worked as a machinist with Exide Battery in Frankfort for 14 years.

An avid outdoorsman, Cap loved spending his free time camping, hunting, fishing, and generally being in nature. He also enjoyed following the Sheridan Blackhawks. When working and playing hard wore him down, Cap found the best way to relax was to plop down in front of the TV and watch some old westerns or action movies.

Of the many interests he had in his life, his true passion was his family. He never tired of following his grandchildren's adventures. And as proud as Cap was of his family and their accomplishments, teaching his son-in-law "everything he knows" most definitely tops the list.

Cap is survived by his loving wife, Viola (Cooper) Walton. She and Cap were married on November 17, 1962. Also surviving are his son, Paul Wayne Walton (Jennifer) of Scircleville, Ind.; two daughters, Lisia Lynn Johnson (Lonnie) of Terhune and Teresa Ann Walton of Noblesville; eight grandchildren, Brandy Gregory, Jerry Johnson, Ashley Walton, Cody Walton, Amber Brown, Aubrey Blount, Devin Walton, and Brooke Walton; 14 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Vicky Moore (Charles V.) of Sheridan and Mary June Snodgrass (Fred) of Pickard; sister-in-law, Coleen "Cookie" Walton of Sheridan; and many, many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James and Opal Mae (Stroup) Walton; two brothers, James Junior Walton (and wife, Edith), and George William Walton; and three sisters, Ruth Hancock (and husband, Glen), Betty Doty (and husband, Marvin), and Gloria Devol (and husband, Ronnie).

Services will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday, December 5, 2024, at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan, with visitation from 4 p.m. until the time of service. Pastor George Cooper will be officiating.

Marilyn June Welch

September 14, 1938 – November 24, 2024

Marilyn June Welch, 86, Sheridan, passed away on Sunday morning, November 24, 2024, at Copper Trace of Westfield. Born on September 14, 1938, in Columbus, Ind., she was the daughter of the late Ransom and Bertha Waltz.

Marilyn had both an incredible work ethic and a true love for people. Throughout her life she was blessed to be able to be a part of many wonderful groups. During harvest time, she helped bag seed corn at Cooperative Seeds; when it started getting busy out at Stuckey's Farm Market, she'd head there for the season. In between, she would clean houses. Marilyn was an excellent seamstress and was the go-to person for alterations and mending around the Sheridan community.

She attended Six Points Church in Sheridan. Her faith guided every facet of her life. She was also a member of the Sheridan Jr. Women's Club and the Red Hat Society. For many years, Marilyn was an active member of the Sheridan Adult Booster Club. During her tenure with the booster club, she made all the banners that hung in the old gymnasium. This was no small task, as there was much banner hanging done during those years.

No matter how busy life got, Marilyn always made time for family. When there was an important family moment, the gathering spot was wherever Marilyn happened to be. She loved being the host for any occasion. It gave her a reason, not that she ever needed one, to cook for those she loved. She loved to bake and decorate cakes (especially birthday cakes). When the boys were young, she was a cub scout leader, and when she became a grandmother, it became all about the grandkids. She loved following everything that they were involved in.

Marilyn had many loves in her life (like butter pecan ice cream), but cold weather was definitely NOT one of them. She and her husband were snowbirds who welcomed their trips to Florida with open arms. No matter where they were located during the year, Marilyn could always keep a close eye on her favorite programs. IU and Pacers games were always at the top of the list, but nothing, absolutely nothing, got in the way of her game shows. The day's schedule was set by The Price is Right, Wheel of Fortune, and Jeopardy!. She also enjoyed watching golf and racing. She was an avid cat lover and never tired of watching the birds come and visit the homeplace. The hummingbirds and finches were her favorites.

Marilyn is survived by her two sons, Greg G. Welch of Sheridan and Chris L. Welch (Vicy) of Sheridan; eight grandchildren, Nick Welch (Brenda), Doug Welch (Amber), Garrett Welch, Owen Welch, Hannah Adams (Jack), Kathryn Topalian (Jonathan), Brittany Waitt (Jack), and Cooper Welch; nine great-grandchildren, Nicholas Welch, Aaron Welch, Adryan Welch, Caliegh Welch, Kami Dinius, Taylan Dinius, Wheldyn Welch, Sullivan Topalian, and Theodore Topalian; several nieces and nephews; and by her feline BFF, Baby.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Ransom and Bertha Waltz; son, Dean Welch; daughter-in-law, Beth Welch; granddaughter, Adrienne Welch; seven siblings, Miriam, Bryon, Peggy, Leroy, Russell, Lila, and her infant sibling; and by her husband, Robert Eugene Welch on March 30, 2004. Together they were wed on July 17, 1954.

Services were held Monday, December 2, 2024, at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan, with visitation from 10 a.m. until the time of service. Burial will follow at Wright-Bethel Cemetery in Waugh, Ind. Pastor Scott McDermid will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be presented to the Nicaragua Resource Network, 16162 Carey Road, Westfield, IN 46074.

“Locked in & focused” Blackhawks race past Frankfort in home game

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

SHERIDAN – The Sheridan girls basketball team took care of business Tuesday night, winning a home game over Frankfort 82-11.

The Blackhawks were in control for all 32 minutes, leading 29-3 after the first quarter and 53-6 at half-time. The entire second half was played under a running clock.

“We really emphasized to the girls taking care of business, getting the job done and not being loose, making sure we were locked in and focused,” said Sheridan coach Jaidlin Bradshaw. “Regardless of who we’re playing, we need to be locked in and focused and making sure we’re doing our job.”

Kenzie Garner scored 23 points to lead Sheridan, including 12 points in the third period. Cecilia Timme dominated the first quarter with 12 points; she would finish with 20 for the game.

Besides the win, Bradshaw said she hoped her senior players got a chance to “have a little fun” during the game. The Blackhawks ran their record to 5-1 after the victory.

“It’s easy to get caught up in wins and losses, but it’s awesome to see the girls smiling on the floor and having fun and just enjoying each other,” said Bradshaw. “It’s not often that they get to truly enjoy each other on the floor.”

Brielle Garner added nine points, while Sadie Timme and Shelby Eaton both scored eight points.

Blazers bounce back in tight game over Monrovia

The REPORTER

The University girls went on the road to Sectional 42 host Monrovia Tuesday night and picked up a come from behind 70-64 win.

Taylor Seay scored a career-high 24 points to lead the Trailblazers. Gabby Culp had 13 points, 14 rebounds and six assists as University rallied from a 35-27 early third quarter deficit.

Six different Trailblazers scored in the third quarter as crawled back in the last three minutes of the period. Trailing 44-37 Gabby Culp made a free throw and scored off an assist from Anyah Turley. After a Monrovia basket, buckets by Meg Rohloff and Turley cut the lead to two. The Bulldogs added a basket with 12 seconds left but Mack Feeney had a rebound bucket at the buzzer to pull University within 48-46 after three.

Seay tied the score at 48 early in the final period off a Turley assist, but Monrovia ran out to a 56-50 lead with 6:21 left. University turned up the defensive intensity to drive a 9-0 run over the next 2:07 to take a 59-56 lead and the Blazers never trailed again. Sydney Culp got things started with University’s only three-pointer of the game. Seay made two foul shots then Gabby Culp scored a rebound basket off a University steal to give the Blazers their first lead since the middle of the second quarter at 57-56 with 5:04 left. Leah Norvell made two free throws to complete the 9-0 run.

Norvell had University’s next four points with the second of her two baskets putting University up 63-60 with 2:08 left. After a Sydney Culp field goal, the Bulldogs pulled within 65-

64 then forced a 10-second violation by the Blazers with 59 seconds left. The Blazers defense stepped up holding Monrovia scoreless the rest of the game and University made enough free throws to close out the win.

Norvell and Sydney Culp had 10 points each to give University four players in double figures. Norvell pulled down seven rebounds. Feeney hit the stat sheet in all categories, finishing with 11 rebounds, six assists, five steals and four blocks. University had 19 offensive rebounds, with Feeney grabbing eight and Gabby Culp seven.

The win was University’s second in a row after opening the season with three losses. The Trailblazers open Pioneer Academic Athletic Conference play Thursday night at Anderson Preparatory Academy. Tip time is 6:30 p.m.

Monrovia falls to 2-3 on the season.

Guerin Catholic pulls through in fourth quarter

The REPORTER

Guerin Catholic pulled away in the fourth quarter during its game at Shortridge Tuesday, returning home with a 43-36 victory.

The Golden Eagles led 13-9 after the first period, with Ava Bills pouring in nine points. Guerin Catholic held a 29-23 advantage at halftime; Bills and Dana Dues both added seven second-quarter points. The Blue Devils came back to tie the game at 33-33 heading into the fourth period, but GC outscored Shortridge in that period by a 10-3 margin.

Bills scored another seven points in the fourth, bringing her total to a game-high 27 points.

The Golden Eagles are 4-3 and host Covenant Christian Saturday afternoon.

Tigers command fourth quarter to beat North Central

The REPORTER

Fishers pitched a fourth-quarter shutout against North Central on Tuesday, and that led the Tigers to a 43-36 victory at the Tiger Den.

Fishers led 14-11 after one quarter. Nevaeh Dickman poured in eight points during that period. The Panthers came back to take a 26-21 halftime lead, then held a 36-32 advantage after three quarters. But the Tigers did not allow NC any points in the fourth quarter, rolling through that period 11-0. Dickman added another seven points in the fourth.

Dickman scored in every quarter on her way to 25 points. Allison Scheu and Natalie Thomas both added six points. The Tigers were helped out by perfect free-throw shooting in the fourth, going 5-for-5 as a team.

Fishers is 7-2 and travels to Evansville North this weekend to play two Saturday games. The Tigers take on Floyd Central at 11 a.m. and Gibson Southern at 6 p.m.
