The REPORTER

Hamilton Southeastern (HSE) Schools announced the creation of its highest recognition, the Superintendent's Impact

This prestigious award honors students and staff who embody the district's core values of Honor, Scholarship, and Excellence through exceptional leadership, dedication, and contributions to their schools and community.

Superintendent Pat Mapes had the privilege of presenting the inaugural award to Fishers High School senior Sam Quagliaroli, a student whose extraordinary accomplishments both on and off the field exemplify the essence of this new honor.

'Sam Quagliaroli is a shining example of what it means to lead with honor, achieve with scholarship, and inspire through excellence," Superintendent Mapes said. "He represents the best of Hamilton Southeastern Schools, and we are thrilled to celebrate his achievements with this award."

Here's some food for thought: There are 32,160 food-insecure people in Hamilton County. At three meals a day, 365 days a year, that's 35,215,200 meals - a lot to comprehend.

The good news? Hamilton County Harvest Food Bank (HCHFB) isn't doing this on its own. Many friends and neighbors just need a little help; SNAP and other food assistance helps with a large amount. There is a tremendous food support network in Hamilton County.

This year, HCHFB provided 197,000 meals. This may seem like a very small portion of the total need, but consider how even just one healthy meal can make a difference.

That's HCHFB's goal: keep providing healthy meals, every day of the year, year in and year out. Over 1.5 million healthy meals have helped local friends and neighbors since HCHFB began.

. and maybe that one healthy meal that was provided today made all the difference.

GET AHEAD OF THE WEATHER WINTER IS COMING... ARE YOUR PIPES PREPARED?

When temperatures start to drop, freezing pipes become a serious problem for Hoosiers at home. A frozen pipe can burst, prevent water from flowing, and even disrupt your heating system.

To combat this icy threat to your comfort and safety, always prepare your pipes for the upcoming cold weather. The experts at Indiana American Water recommend taking the following precautions before the thermostat drops too low:

Turn outdoor faucets off for the season.

Schedule seasonal maintenance on your plumbing and heating systems.

Contact Indiana American Water to learn more about how to protect your pipes and other water infrastructure and resources this winter.

At Indiana American Water, we work hard year-round to ensure our customers have reliable access to clean, fresh water no matter what weather extremes come their way. Indy Jewish Community to light community Menorah each night of Chanukah

The Indianapolis Jewish Community will light the Community Menorah this year during each night of Chanukah (Dec. 25 to Jan. 1).

Each night, different Jewish community organizations sponsor the lighting. They will lead a brief prayer and light the Community Menorah, located on the Jewish Community Campus, 6701 Hoover Road, Indianapolis (located at the roundabout between Doors 1 and 3).

Chanukah begins tonight, Dec. 25, and continues until the night of Jan. 1. The last night of the candle lighting is on Jan. 1.

Community Menorah Candle Lighting Schedule

• First Night: 5 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 25 – Etz Chaim Sephardic Congregation

• Second Night: 5 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 26 -Hooverwood Living & Jewish Community Center ECE

• Third Night: 4:30 p.m. Friday, Dec. 27 - Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation & Jewish Community Relations Council

• Fourth Night: 6:45 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 28 -Hasten Hebrew Academy of Indianapolis

• Fifth Night: 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 29 - Congregation Beth Shalom & Congregation Shaarey Tefilla

• Sixth Night: 6:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 30 - Indianapolis Jewish Discovery Center

• Seventh Night: 5 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 31 - Jewish Federation of Greater Indianapolis & PJ Library

• Eighth Night: 7 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 1, 2025 -Congregation Beth-El Zedeck

Chanukah is the Festival of Lights, commemorating the rededication of the Temple in Jerusalem after a successful revolt by a band of Jewish fighters called the Maccabees against the Syrian-Greek empire that had attempted to destroy the Jewish faith. As part of the rededication, the victorious Jews needed to light the Temple's menorah (seven-branch candelabrum), but they only had enough oil to last one day, and it would take eight days to prepare more. Miraculously, the one-day supply of oil lasted for eight days, which is why Chanukah lasts for eight days.

A chanukiah (ninebranch menorah - one candle for each day of Chanukah plus another candle, called the shamash, to light them) is lit each night, starting with one candle on the first night and adding a candle each day until the whole chanukiah is lit on the last night of Chanukah. The chanukiah is traditionally placed in a window facing the street, sharing the light and celebration with the world.

It is traditional to eat fried foods on Chanukah to commemorate the miracle of the oil. These include latkes (potato pancakes) and sufganiyot (jelly doughnuts), among others.

Visit jewishindianapolis.org/chanukah for holiday resources and all local events happening in the community this Chanukah.

financial solvency

As slate financial officers from across the country responsible for overseeing key elements of our slates' fiscal wellbeing, we have grave concerns regarding the $36 trillion national debt. In 2025, we urge President-elect Donald Trump and Congress to make restoring America's financial solvency a "Day One" priority for the sake of our states and the country.

We are calling on them to address the national debt by developing and implementing a plan to restore America's financial position by 2026, when we will celebrate the 250th Anniversary of our Declaration of Independence – and start taking action immediately.

We concur with Senate Resolution 600 and House Resolution 190, which declare our country's debt is "a national security threat" and that deficit spending is irrespon-"unsustainable, sible and dangerous." Furthermore, it gives us great pause that we are speaking in these ominous terms of our great nation, which serves as the beacon of freedom and opportunity for the world.

Balancing the budget and reducing spending are among the most difficult, yet essential, actions our president and members of Congress could take. That is why 36 state financial officers have come together to sign a letter that will be delivered to each of them to convey our support to deal with this problem that is on scale with, if not greater than, the border crisis.

The following facts are deeply concerning:

In fiscal year (FY) 2023, Lire federal government collected S4.5 trillion in revenue and spent $6.3 trillion;

The cost of servicing the debt in FY 2024 increased 30 percent from FY 2023 to over $1 trillion this year –

continued well beyond the public health emergency, has drastically accelerated the deterioration of our nation's fiscal position.

This is a crisis many decades in tire making, with responsibility shared by both parties. Solving it will be a generational challenge. Not solving the problem presents high risk that our creditors will question America's financial stability, the dollar will be replaced as the reserve currency, and we will lose our nation's status as tire global leader.

To prevent this looming day of reckoning, which could easily occur within our and our children's lifetimes, requires a commitment to begin addressing this situation now.

We write to ignite a much-needed sense of urgency. Our call to action includes the following:

1. Ensure total 2025 federal spending is less than in 2024;

2. Implement a concrete plan to put the federal government on a path to a balanced budget as soon as possible; and

3. Unleash economic prosperity by cutting red tape and Lapping into our nation's vast natural resources with a timeline for' reducing the debt that is empowered by a growing economy.

These three actions represent a powerful, disciplined, and promising path forward. By combining fiscal responsibility with our centuries worth of energy resources that leverage advanced clean technologies - we can produce a steady climb out of our massive pit of debt

As hard as our states work to be fiscally responsible and pass balanced budgets, we are vulnerable to the rapidly dissolving financial position of our country. We as citizens of the states

All your kids ever wanted to know as No Title Needed welcomes Santa

Submitted

No Title Needed is a podcast celebrating the passions that enrich our lives. This week, No Title Needed welcomed the Man of the Season: Santa Claus!

Have the kiddos tune in as Santa tells us where he's from and how he came to be. Hear about his goals and some words of wisdom for evervone.

Hear as he tells the details of his year, like when he starts making gifts, how he knows what kids will want, how he takes care of the elves and reindeer, and find out how his sleigh runs.

Do you think the Big Guy travels alone? Tune in to find out. Find out how his life has changed with the times (Hey, Google!) and how it has stayed the same (yep, cookies are his favorite food group).

Then, Santa asks the question of the week – hear the hosts' answers!

Tune in next week as No and Player FM.

Title Needed welcomes Andres Brezins and learn about his passions, one of which is his work with Carmel's International Sister Cities and his journey to where he is today. * * *

Plan to join No Title Needed every week as Scott Osborne and Cindy Collins welcome a new guest and explore what fuels people and passions beyond the 9-to-5 grind.

Each week, the podcast is recorded inside Feinstein's at Hotel Carmichael and airs at 8 a.m. Mondays. Follow the podcast on Facebook, on Instagram, and on YouTube.

Federal ABLE Act reaches milestone Indiana Treasurer Daniel Elliott celebrates 10 years of empowering people with disabilities with ability to save

Submitted

Last Thursday marked the 10th anniversary of the Stephen Beck, Jr. Achieving a Better Life Experience Act (ABLE Act).

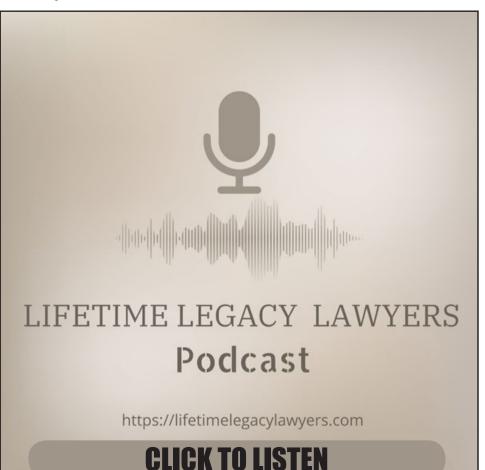

Congress passed the ABLE Act on Dec. 19, 2014, which enabled States to establish tax-advantaged ABLE accounts that make it possible for people with disabilities and their families to save and invest money for qualified expenses without losing vital public benefits, such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Medicaid.

Many people with disabilities experience increased financial insecurity, and before ABLE, had minimal options to save for their or their loved one's future. Since ABLE, more than 187,000 account owners across the country have saved over $2 billion in ABLE accounts - helping account owners to build financial resilience. Money in ABLE accounts can be spent on many of the expenses that come with living with a disability, such as assistive technology, therapies, specialized equipment, transportation, job coaching, health care, education, and more.

proudly Indiana launched its ABLE program, INvestABLE Indiana, on July 27, 2017.

than 2,100 Hoosiers living with disabilities have saved more than $12.1 million, allowing them to experience greater financial empowerment.

"The Federal ABLE Act has made a real difference in the lives of Hoosiers with disabilities, giving them a way to save and invest without risking the benefits they rely on," Indiana Treasurer of State Daniel Elliott said. "Over the last several years, INvest-ABLE accounts have helped individuals gain more independence and take control of their financial future.

Since then, more This anniversary is a great reminder of how far we've come and Indiana's ongoing commitment to supporting these opportunities.'

For more information or to open an INvestABLE Indiana account, visit in.savewithable.com.

About INvestABLE Indiana

Indiana taxpayers are eligible for a state income tax credit of 20 percent of contributions to an INvestABLE Indiana account, up to $500 credit per year. This credit may be subject to recapture from the account owner (not the contributor) in certain circumstances, such as distributions made from an account that is terminated within 12 months, rollovers to another state's ABLE plan, or rollovers to a 529 plan other than a 529 plan established by the State of Indiana.

INvest*ABLE* Indiana offers seven investment options, including a checking account option with a debit card. Up to $18,000 per year can be saved in an account, with a maximum account balance of $450,000. For individuals receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI), they can save up to $100,000 in their INvestABLE Indiana account and not risk losing their monthly benefit.

Money can be withdrawn and spent on qualified expenses or INvestABLE Indiana account owners can choose to grow their finances and create long-term savings with tax-free earnings. Contributions and earnings in INvestABLE Indiana accounts are not subject to federal or state income tax if spent on qualified expenses. Contributions are made with post-tax dollars.

^{News} 9 Santa brings Christmas cheer to NICU

Neonatologist dons red & white to bring smiles to pint-sized PMCH patients

The gift of joy was recently delivered to some of the youngest patients at Peyton Manning Children's Hospital. Santa Claus (a.k.a. Dr. Jonathan Buechler) made a special early stop to the neonatal intensive care unit to visit with patients and their families. The heartwarming visit gave families the opportunity to take photos with Santa, many of whom were dressed in their festive best as well, and share a moment of Christmas cheer. Families with babies in the NICU may not be spending the holidays in the way they had hoped, making it all the more important for Peyton Manning Children's Hospital to sprinkle a bit more holiday spirit. TODAY'S BIBLE READING CONSECRATION OF THE PRIESTS

"This is what you are to do to consecrate them, so they may serve me as priests: Take a voung bull and two rams without defect. And from the finest wheat flour make round loaves without yeast, thick loaves without yeast and with olive oil mixed in, and thin loaves without yeast and brushed with olive oil. Put them in a basket and present them along with the bull and the two rams. Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the tent of meeting and wash them with water. Take the garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself and the breastpiece. Fasten the ephod on him by its skillfully woven waistband. Put the turban on his head and attach the sacred emblem to the turban. Take the anointing oil and anoint him by pouring it on his head. Bring his sons and dress them in tunics and fasten caps on them. Then tie sashes on Aaron and his sons. The priesthood is theirs by a lasting ordinance.

"Then you shall ordain Aaron and his sons. Exodus 29:1-9 (NIV)

Battle for a Cause" pickleball event

The REPORTER

Westfield Youth Assistance Program (WYAP) will hold its first pickleball event on Friday, Dec. 27, "Paddle Battle for a Cause," at the Grand Park Event Center.

The family-friendly event will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and is open to families and individuals of all skill levels.

WYAP serves youth ages 3 to 17 who are facing challenging life circumstances, connecting them with resources in the community. The "Paddle Battle for a Cause" event aims to be family-friendly to reflect the population that WYAP serves. Families are encouraged to participate together, and while there is no age limit, it is recommended for participants to be six and older. The event opens with an hour-long clinic hosted by Indiana University Pickleball Coach Timber Tucker. Registrants will receive a free lunch, which will be followed by gameplay to utilize their new skills.

"The 'Paddle Battle for a Cause' is more than just a pickleball event-it's a chance for families to come together, stay active during the holiday break, and support an incredible cause," WYAP Board Member Rachel Nelson said. "Every paddle swing and every laugh shared on the court helps us continue to serve Westfield's youth and their families, making a lasting impact in our community."

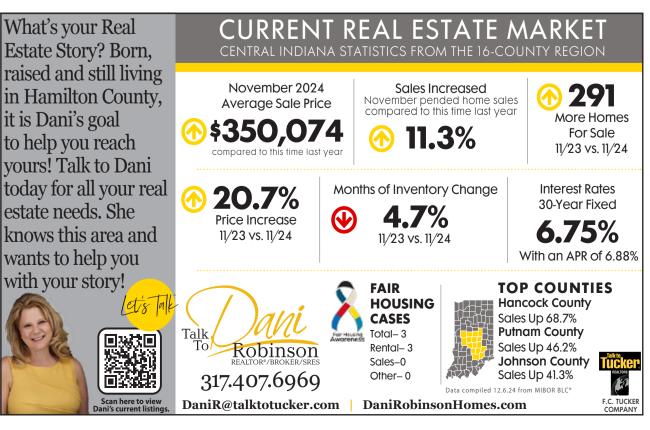

There are three different pricing tiers based on the number of registrants. A familv four-pack is priced at $200 (four players of any age), a two-pack is priced at $110 (two players of any age), and an individual registration is $60 per person. More information and registration are available at this link.

Cause" is sponsored by Automatic Pool Covers. Inc. and Westfield Rocks Referrals Group. Proceeds from the event will benefit WYAP, serving youth in the Westfield community. To learn more about WYAP's mission and services, please visit youthas-
