New YMCA to be Westfield community cornerstone

By AMY ADAMS
 news@readthereporter.com

A much-anticipated addition to Westfield, the Ascension St. Vincent YMCA officially opened its doors following a flag-raising and ribbon-cutting ceremony on Saturday, Jan. 4.

The state-of-the-art fitness and wellness facility at 874 Virginia Rose Ave. marks the 12th YMCA in greater Indianapolis, according to Shannon Marshel, executive director of the Ascension St. Vincent YMCA in Westfield. Not only that, it's the newest YMCA in the world!

Community members at the grand opening were among the first to tour the 54,000 square-foot facility. In addition to the Olympic-sized pool in the adjacent Westfield Washington Schools Aquatic Center, the new space boasts a gymnasium, an indoor track, free weight and cardio equipment, three large group exercise studios, a children's area, classrooms, a learning kitchen, and more.

"Today we reaffirm our commitment to nurturing the health, wellbeing, and potential of everyone who walks through these doors," YMCA of Greater Indianapolis President and CEO Gregg Hiland said.

Among others, Hiland thanked Ascension St. Vincent for whom the facility is named. "Ascension St. Vincent is proud to support the Westfield YMCA and to lift up the programs that they support that help develop the health and wellbeing of Westfield and Hamilton County families and, especially, their children," Ascension St. Vincent Chief Strategy Officer Stephen Masoncup said.

Masoncup described how the Daughters of Charity came to central Indiana in 1881 with a mission to care for people, especially the vulnerable. Masoncup said Ascension St. Vincent is glad to carry on this tradition.

"Through its many programs, the YMCA offers many ways to keep kids active, and that's just critical for a child's overall health and development," Masoncup said. "Physical exercise helps support strong bones and muscles, cognitive function, and the mental wellbeing of the children. All of this lays the foundation for a healthy lifestyle for later in life."

The Resolution Revolution

Now that the holidays are over and we're all fat and broke, we can begin to concentrate on the annual promises we make to ourselves for a few days in January. Yes, those yearly lies we call New Year's resolutions.

COLUMNIST

 Forty-something in Fishers

This is the glorious time when we blurt out everything we want to change about ourselves to Facebook and everyone who will listen. This is our chance to post to the world that we want to lose a bunch of weight, start exercising for 15 hours a day and read 2,000 books in the coming year. And doggone it, I'm sticking to it this time! Right?

Typically, by Jan. 10, we have forgotten all about our resolutions and moved on. It's not because we weren't serious about these goals. It's most likely because they were unrealistic or there were too many goals. We think of a list of a million things we want to change, improve or start doing that no human being could ever possibly live up to. Which is usually why our yearlong gym membership gets used twice.

So, because I know you are all on the edge of your seats, waiting to find out, here are my New Year's resolution posts, followed by reality:

Hi FB friends! I just wanted to let everyone know I'm kicking it into high gear for a new me in 2025!

I want as many "likes" as I can get.
 I'm joining a gym and starting a daily training routine.

I will do this two or three times because gyms are ridiculously crowded in January. I'm done by Feb. 1.

I'm going to lose 20 pounds by summer so I can get my beach bod.

I will lose 10 pounds and gain them back in a continuous cruel and evil cycle.

I'm cutting sweets and sugar and only eating healthy. I'm going to use a calorie counting app to keep me honest.

I will do this for a while but cheat the whole time. "Ah, it's only a Butterfinger and a Cherry Coke. I'm not going to count that against my daily points."

I'm going to get myself organized.
I have no idea what this even means, but it sounds good.

I'm going to start journaling.
I'm going to buy a journal and write my name in it, then never look at it again.

I'm going to budget my finances in order and stick to my budget.

Sheridan Community Schools invites public to State of the Schools address

Submitted by Sheridan Community Schools

Sheridan Community Schools Superintendent Dave Mundy will deliver the annual State of the Schools address at 6 p.m. Monday, Jan. 27 in the Sheridan High School Auditorium. This event allows community members, parents, and staff to hear directly from district leadership about the future of Sheridan schools.

This year's address has been scheduled later than usual to incorporate and evaluate the outcomes of the recent election regarding the town and township merger. Dr. Mundy will provide an analysis of how the merger will impact the schools, including the opportunities it presents for growth and collaboration.

Key topics to be discussed include:

- The impact of the town/township merger on the schools

the community in shaping the district's future.

"We are eager to discuss not only where we are today but where we're headed as

- Projected growth of the district
- Short- and long-range planning goals in areas such as facilities, finances, and academics

Dr. Mundy emphasized the importance of engaging a district," he said. "This is a chance to share our vision and hear directly from our parents and community."

Attendees will have ample opportunity to ask questions and participate in what promises to be an interactive and informative evening.

Make plans to join the conversation and help chart the course for the future of Sheridan Community Schools. The district looks forward to welcoming everyone to this important event.

Hamilton County honors employees for nearly 2,000 years of combined service

The REPORTER

Hamilton County is celebrating 131 employees for their service to the community. Each year the Board of Commissioners and Human Resources Department recognize and honor employees for long and meritorious service by presenting service awards at the end of each five years of employment.

Each recipient will be given a service pin with the number of years on it.

"Our goal is to give the citizens and taxpayers of Hamilton County the most responsive governmental services possible," Human Resources Director Sheena Randall said. "Employing top quality people, providing them with meaningful work, and retaining their services helps serve the public efficiently and effectively."

Former auditor Robin Mills, Director of Human Resources Sheena Randall, Janet Hansen, an Administrative Assistant in the Surveyor's Office, and Peggy Nation, a Filings Deputy in the Clerk's Office, top this year's list of employees with the most longevity. They have each been with the county for 45 years.

"I am a Hamilton County born-and-raised gal," Mills said. "I started my county career right out of high school. I stayed all these years because Hamilton County is a great place to work and raise a family."

The effort to bring the YMCA to Westfield has been ongoing for nearly 20 years.

"The YMCA made several attempts to come to Westfield over the last decade and a half, and we just couldn't get the money, just couldn't make it work," Westfield Mayor Scott Willis said. "Timing is everything."

Willis went on to thank the Wheeler family, who generously donated the 10 acres on which the facility sits at the southwest corner of Wheeler Road and 181st Street. Willis said that without that donation, the building of the facility wouldn't have been possible.

Willis also thanked former Westfield Washington Schools Superintendent Sherry Grate, Hamilton County Commissioner and Westfield resident Mark Heirbrandt, and the former Westfield City Council members for their significant contributions to making it possible to bring the YMCA to Westfield.

Willis said it was Grate's vision of partnering with the YMCA that got the project off the ground. He described Heirbrandt as doing a lot of "heavy lifting" with the county to get the project underway, including a multi-year grant awarded by the Hamilton County Community Foundation. Finally, Willis highlighted how former Westfield City Council members, the late Joe Edwards, Scott Fry, Jake Gilbert, Mike Johns, Troy Patton, and Cindy Spoljarik, unanimously approved a $5 million donation for the project. The money came from the $9.8 million in federal funding provided by the American Rescue Plan Act intended to combat challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Mitch Frazier, chairman of the board for the Ascension St. Vincent YMCA in Westfield, said that COVID led to their fundraising efforts all but drying up. As a result, the board began looking at other opportunities for partnerships. They started imagining what it would look like to bring higher education opportunities to the area.

"What we see today is Westfield Washington School partnering with the YMCA to have the natatorium, of course, but also classrooms on site," Frazier said.

Frazier described high school classes as well as nursing classes and adult education classes from Indiana University Kokomo – all in a place where child-care already exists. He also talked about his delight at finally being able to provide a nice facility for the Westfield Police Department to work out.

"You see what is possible when community members come together," Frazier said.

Hiland echoed his words.

"Together, we're creating a space that empowers families, builds community connections, and inspires the next generation," he said.

Frazier said that the new YMCA will be a cornerstone of the community.

"There are going to be amazing stories of life change that happen here

SERVICE

"The county offers great benefits, too," Randall added. "Such as health insurance, paid holidays, and a 37.5-hour work week." This year, five employees will celebrate 40 years of service with the County, two will observe 35 years, five will mark 30 years, and 12 will observe 25 years. Another 14 employees will be honored for reaching the 20-year milestone with 14 marking 15 years, 27 celebrating 10 years, and 48 reaching five years of employment. The complete list is below.

RESOLUTION

I'm going to go to Costco for paper towels and leave with a full cart after spending $500.

I'm going to eat out less. They just opened a new Taco Bell down the street.

I'm going to read more books this year.

I'm going to buy more books this year, even though I never read the books I bought last year.

I'm finally going to clean out my garage.

I'm going to continue parking in the street.

I'm going to drink more water.

I'm going to Starbucks.

I'm going to learn to play an instrument.

Well, I learned "Hot Cross Buns" on the recorder in third grade. That's good enough.

I'm going to start taking the stairs.

I'll take the stairs down and the elevator up.

I'm going to spend less time on my phone.

Right after I check how many "likes" I got for this post.

Don't worry, Facebook nation. I will keep you updated on my progress with a picture of myself right before I spend two minutes on the elliptical machine, then realize how hard it is and go check out that new Taco Bell. Don't forget to hit the "like" button!!

The moral of the story is ... Goals are great! Just be realistic and know your limit. Because, really, no one is able to walk out of Costco for less than $500.

GET AHEAD OF THE WEATHER

WINTER IS COMING... ARE YOUR PIPES PREPARED?

When temperatures start to drop, freezing pipes become a serious problem for Hoosiers at home. A frozen pipe can burst, prevent water from flowing, and even disrupt your heating system.

To combat this icy threat to your comfort and safety, always prepare your pipes for the upcoming cold weather. The experts at Indiana American Water recommend taking the following precautions before the thermostat drops too low:

Check your pipes for cracks and leaks.

3.

Insulate pipes in unheated areas of your home.

2.

Turn outdoor faucets off for the season.

4.

Schedule seasonal maintenance on your plumbing and heating systems.

Sheridan Lions hard at work serving their community

Submitted by Chuck Godby

The Sheridan Lions Club closed out 2024 by giving back.

For Thanksgiving, the local Lions, with help from their friends, managed to feed more than 104 families and they helped brighten Christmas for nearly as many. The Lions joined forces with Sheridan Youth Assistance, Mama's Cupboard, and the Sheridan Methodist Church to serve their community.

The Lions will continue to raise funds for their service missions when they host their Lions Club Chili Dinner Friday night at Sheridan High School. Dinner will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. and the cost is a free-will offering.

The chili dinner is part of a huge night of high school basketball as the local Blackhawks host league foe Tri-Central in a girl-boy doubleheader that tips off at 6 p.m. The local ladies are steamrolling along with a 12-1 record and are undefeated in the Hoosier Heartland Conference. The local lads are 8-2 overall and also unbeaten in the conference.

Proceeds from the chili dinner are used to fund Lions Club projects throughout the year.

Generosity makes this work

In one sense we love this time of the year – the spirit of giving is everywhere, people are generally more cheerful, and a natural renewal of hope, priorities, and goals happen with the changing of the calendar to a new year.

MARK HALL
The Feeding Team Feature

In almost 65 years on this planet, nothing has reset my way of thinking more than the simple magic of the date, Jan. 1. Goals, hopes, and plans all seem to rotate around this magical first day of the first month of the new year.

As 2024 ended, 18 new pantries were placed in service during the year, some managed by hosts and some by our volunteers. Each pantry holds several hundred meals, and we have no accurate way to report meals that are donated by you, by pantry hosts or volunteers that donate food directly into a pantry. We do track the meals that Feeding Team volunteers place in pantries. Throughout 2024 over 100,000 meals have gone from volunteers into volunteer-managed pantries. It is safe to say that another 70,000 have gone from hosts into host-managed pantries. This does not include pet food, personal hygiene, and toiletries.

Contrast this with the opposing sense, fear, shame, the sense of need, of desperation and of hunger. In over two decades of doing food charity service, we have never seen the need at present levels. Other local food charities report that 2024 has been the highest need year in memory. With food costs up, distribution costs increasing, and demand skyrocketing, despair meets discouragement, and the smallest of hiccups in life force people to find alternatives to feed their families.

The generosity of our neighbors is on full display as together we continue to meet the needs of hungry neighbors. As an example, this week an errand driver on State Road 38 took out the mailbox at the Feeding Team office. Unfortunately, the driver left the scene and left us to deal with the damage.

But as Paul Harvey would say, here's the rest of the story.

Since we posted about the incident on our social media platforms, no fewer than 10 different neighbors offered to repair the damage or donate to have it done. Shout out to Dave Absher for his time and repair skills and to Lee Ackerman and the team at LA Landscapes for donating time to fix the mess. One local company even donated a big, bright, yellow industrial-size mailbox. Thank you Hammer MetalWerks and Derek Hammer. We love the color choice and will proudly display your work soon.

This month over a dozen groups from all over Hamilton County collected non-perishable food and donated it to us for general distribution or donated directly into multiple pantries. The incredible generosity of people is on display often. It is important to acknowledge that without all that you do, we could not help as many people and there would be more families going without.

If you find yourself in need – maybe occasionally you are like I was, a member of the working poor – then Feeding Team Pantry's are especially for you. They are here for you, 24/7/365. They are completely anonymous, with no shame and no guilt. We take no information and have no expectations of you other than you merely take only what you need please. Leave food for others that are also in need. Some future day, we hope that you consider giving what food you can and sharing your blessings with others that could use some help.

The Feeding Team launched pantry 76 recently, with location 77 already secured, it will be deployed in the coming weeks. We are grateful for the support of our community, volunteers, sponsors, and donors. Thank you.

With over 40,000 food-challenged neighbors in Hamilton County, FeedingTeam.org is a registered 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization that provides outdoor 24/7/365 no-questions-asked free food pantries throughout the county.

The pantries exist to meet the food insecurity needs of gap families, neighbors who may not qualify for public assistance and could use a few meals before payday. The pantries serve as many food-challenged neighbors as possible, and our hearts are with those who, like my family, could not always make ends meet.

Thank you for supporting the pantries. We love serving with so many neighbors across Hamilton County. In future columns, we will share more stories about how your generosity served neighbors in times of need. The face of hunger in Hamilton County is not what you may think.

In practical terms, this straightforward way to help neighbors is having real impact on lives, families, and our communities. Thank you. A few meals can change the course of a person's life. A can of green beans means so much more when you have nothing to feed your kids.

Would you like to get involved? Volunteer opportunities are available. We are evaluating new pantry locations. If you think you have a potential location, please contact us.

Carmel businesses weather winter storm

By CAT SANDOVAL
WISH-TV | wistv.com

Monday was a winter wonderland in Carmel with snow-covered trees.

Plow trucks and salt trucks regularly drove through the intersection of 116th and Illinois streets. The roads were clear. The winter storm didn't stop most businesses; a lot of them had "open" signs by their windows.

"We're really slow today," said Kylie Ash, manager at the Jimmy John's restaurant. "We're usually pretty busy. We do about 5,000 a day for lunch because of two hospitals in the area ... We're probably not even a thousand today."

The restaurant manager tells News 8 a few people called off work due to the road conditions. "A lot of people who called off live in Indianapolis, so the people here live in Noblesville, Westfield, and Fishers."

Robert Humphrey lives in Carmel so getting to work and Jimmy John's for lunch was easy. "Roads were pretty clear out. Mostly safe now that the parking lots are cleared out."

The roads were clear driving north on U.S. 31 to Westfield but not all businesses were open.

The coffee shop Rivet was closed due to the snow. One customer trekked through the freezing temperatures to get a sip of Rivet's mocha latte. He described the snow as "intermediate. This is nothing, compared to the big ones: 7, 8, 9, 12 inches."

Snow didn't stop Edward Endicott, and a closed coffee shop didn't either. He was determined to get that coffee. "I'm trying to go to Dunkin' Donuts," he said as he walked off.

Actors Theatre of Indiana's 20th Anniversary Season rolls into new year with "Whodunit" on Jan. 31

Submitted

Actors Theatre of Indiana (ATI) continues its 2024-2025 Season on Jan. 31 with Whodunit ... The Musical by longtime Broadway actor & playwright Ed Dixon and directed by Dr. Julie Lyn Barber, head of Musical Theatre at Purdue Ft. Wayne.

Brace yourself for this farcical musical mystery based on The Circular Staircase and The Bat by Mary Roberts Rinehart, often considered "America's Agatha Christie."

Whodunit ... The Musical runs Jan. 31 to Feb. 16 and features two Thursday night shows and two Sunday afternoon matinees in addition to regular Friday and Saturday evening shows inside The Studio Theatre on the campus of the Allied Solutions Center for the Performing Arts.

A wealthy socialite, a Miss Marple in the making, and her cockney maid rent a beautiful Connecticut summer home in 1931. When they arrive, all the help has quit, except for a very odd butler who warns that something strange is going on.

They are soon joined by the socialite's niece who's brought a friend ... a "friend" who turns out to be a young man! Heavens! After a night of attempted break-ins, the sound of gunshots, and the discovery of a dead body – or two – the detective arrives and things get REALLY strange as the detective, led by a pair of hilarious would-be sleuths reminiscent of Lucy and Ethel trapped in a haunted house, attempts to solve the crimes. Whodunit is a tuneful, riotous romp that's part mystery, part drawing room farce, and all musical comedy.

Get your tickets by calling The Center for the Performing Arts Box Office at (317) 843-3800 or by visiting ATIstage.org. The folks at ATI can't wait to see you soon to be a part of the 20th Anniversary Season.

Study: Indiana migration balanced for the first time in nearly 30 years

By KYLA RUSSELL
WISH-TV | wistv.com

Migration in Indiana is balanced for the first time in nearly 30 years, according to a new study released by Atlas Van Lines.

The Indiana-based moving company uses shipping data to analyze global moving patterns every year. The nearly 30-year study gathers Indiana data.

"We measure all moves globally," said Lauren Piekos, vice president of business development at Atlas. "So that's interstate, in between states, in between provinces and Canada, and in between countries."

The team then uses those numbers to look at two factors: how many people moved out of each state or area and how many people moved to each state and area.

If a higher percentage, or over 55 percent, moved out of the state, it is considered "outbound." If a higher percentage moved to the state, it is considered "inbound." Areas with a similar percentage for each are considered "balanced."

By looking at data gathered between Nov. 1, 2023 and Oct. 31, 2024, the team determined Indiana's migration was balanced. Atlas says the state has not been balanced since 1995.

"This is a change because historically, Indiana has been an outbound state," Piekos said.

The findings align with data from the Census Bureau, Atlas says. The change is not unique to Indiana.

"What is interesting this year is that we have the most amount of balanced states across the country,"

Piekos said. "There's actually only six outbound states, and the six outbound states have been pretty consistent, namely, some of the more populated states, California, Illinois, and New York. Those consistently remain on the outbound list, but, for the most part, a lot of states are balanced and that's historically more than what we've seen."

The company surveyed several consumers that chose to move in the past three years.

In Indiana, many people chose to move to the Carmel and Anderson areas. Experts say that choice is mostly due to the affordability the areas offer as opposed to some of their neighbors.

"When we look at Illinois, which is a neighboring state, they are consistently an outbound state," Piekos said. "When you dig into other data sources, we know that 44 percent of people from Illinois that are moving out are coming to Indiana and we think it's really based on affordability."

• Brooke Thoren, Carmel, College of Letters and Science

IHA names Shawn McCoy 2025 Board Chair

The REPORTER

The Indiana Hospital Association (IHA) has named Shawn McCoy its board chair for 2025. McCoy serves as chief executive officer (CEO) of Evansville-based Deaconess Health System where he began his career more than 30 years ago.

McCoy

"Shawn has been an integral member of IHA's board since 2017 and understands the critical issues facing hospitals and the patients they serve," IHA President Scott B. Tittle, JD said. "I look forward to working under Shawn's leadership in the coming year as we help Indiana's hospitals navigate those issues and the ever-changing health care landscape."

As IHA board chair, McCoy will oversee board meetings and play an active role in setting the priorities and goals for the association, which is made up of more than 170 acute care, critical access, behavioral health, and other specialized hospitals in Indiana.

"It's an honor to be elected as IHA Board Chair for 2025," McCoy said. "Strong communities depend on strong hospitals, and we have an opportunity to strengthen both by protecting access to high-quality care that's affordable and close to home, especially for Hoosiers in rural communities."

Among IHA's top legislative priorities is an increase in the state's low Medicaid reimbursement for hospitals, which has remained the same since 1991. As a result, hospitals must cover $2.7 billion in unpaid health care costs each year, straining facilities financially and making it difficult to maintain access to much needed services.

"Continuing to underfund Medicaid at base rates that haven't been raised in 34 years is a threat to access for every Hoosier across the state," McCoy said. "It's simply unsustainable, and this year is our opportunity to address it for our hospitals, our communities, and the patients we serve."

Under McCoy's leadership, Deaconess has grown to 15 hospitals serving Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky, all while maintaining its status as an independent, not-for-profit health care system.

Before becoming CEO of Deaconess, McCoy held several key roles in the health system, including Vice President of Facilities and Ancillary Services and Chief Operating Officer. He earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management from Purdue University and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Indiana University.

Keep your letter carrier safe by clearing paths of snow & ice

The REPORTER

The United States Postal Services reminds customers of the importance of keeping walkways, sidewalks, and areas around mailboxes clear from snow and ice so letter carriers can provide safe and timely mail delivery.

Snow and patches of ice in front of mailboxes can make it difficult for letter carriers to safely deliver the mail. Residents maintaining a clear path to the mailbox – including steps, porches, walkways, and street approach – will help letter carriers maintain consistent delivery service. Customers receiving curbside delivery should also ensure clear access to their mailboxes for letter carriers who deliver from the street.

Postal employees make every reasonable effort to deliver mail in many difficult weather conditions.

With your help, letter carriers, your neighbors, and your property can be kept safe.

Thank you for protecting letter carriers as the Postal Services continue to bring packages and correspondence to your door each day.

Indiana challenges new federal rule that pushes Hoosiers further away from owning their own home

Submitted by Office of the Attorney General

Indiana Attorney General Todd Rokita is partnering with 15 states and the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) to challenge new energy standards that they say will make the American Dream of homeownership unattainable for many hardworking Hoosier families.

According to the NAHB, new standards from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) can add up to $31,000 to the price of a new home and take up to 90 years for a home buyer to realize a payback on the added cost of the home. For every $1,000 increase in the median price, more than 100,000 American households are priced out of being able to buy that home.

Even the agencies concede that by requiring all HUD- and USDA-financed new single-family home construction to meet the 2021 International Energy Conservation Code (IECC) and ASHRAE 90.1-2019, they will drive down production of affordable housing at a time when lower- and middle-class families are finding homeownership out of reach.

"As a conservative, I love efficiency and would note that one cannot be a true 'conservative' without being willing to 'conserve' God's green earth," AG Rokita said. "But over-regulation, that doesn't yield meaningful results and comes with wild costs, is a bad deal that common sense Hoosiers should reject. In their name, we are rejecting this latest liberal crackpot whim with this lawsuit that if successful will help keep already terrible home ownership and rental costs from going through the roof. We're seeing it more and more. We will continue standing up for homeowners and renters and fighting back against federal overreach."

AG Rokita thanked the Indiana Builders' Association (IBA) for bringing this issue to his office. Rick Wajda, CEO of the IBA, said this ill-conceived policy will act as a deterrent to new construction at a time when Indiana and the nation desperately needs to boost its housing supply to lower shelter inflation costs. It is also in direct conflict with the current energy codes in the majority of jurisdictions around the country.

"At a time when Hoosiers are struggling to qualify for a mortgage or make a rent payment, this federal policy is the last thing our potential customers need," Wajda said. "For every $1,000 increase in the cost of a house in Indiana, over 1,900 Hoosier households are priced out of the market. We need to reduce barriers to housing, not increase them. The Indiana Builders Association appreciates the efforts of Attorney General Rokita to stop these onerous costs being put on Hoosier homebuyers and renters."

Discount of cover crop premium available for Hamilton County farmers

The REPORTER

The Indiana State Department of Agriculture (ISDA), The Nature Conservancy, Indiana Agriculture Nutrient Alliance, and the United States Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Risk Management Agency have joined forces to implement the Cover Crop Premium Discount Program for the fifth year in a row.

This program will reward farmers who plant cover crops by providing a reduced premium on their crop insurance. The discount program was designed to promote planting additional acres of cover crops that are not covered by other state or federal incentives. This program is eligible for 50 out of the 92 counties in Indiana.

"Our agency is thrilled that we were able to roll out this program again thanks to the support from USDA and The Nature Conservancy," ISDA Director Don Lamb said. "Last year this program was available to 26 counties and we have nearly doubled that for 2025. Cover Crops provide numerous benefits for soil health, but they come at a cost, so this program is key to ensuring farmers have the support necessary to build up their soil health."

Over the last year, this program has had great success with 101 farmers participating, resulting in more than 30,000 acres of cover crops on Indiana farmland in the watershed.

This program will provide farmers with a unique opportunity to receive financial incentives for implementing cover crops on their operation. Farmers who plant cover crops on owned or rented acres will receive a $5 per acre crop insurance premium discount. Farmers who planted cover crops in the fall of 2024 are eligible to apply.

Qualifying counties in the project area include Bartholomew, Boone, Brown, Clark, Crawford, Daviess, Dearborn, Decatur, Delaware, Dubois, Fayette, Floyd, Franklin, Gibson, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Jackson, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Knox, Lawrence, Madison, Marion, Martin, Monroe, Morgan, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Perry, Pike, Posey, Randolph, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Spencer, Switzerland, Tipton, Union, Vanderburgh, Warrick, Washington, Wayne.

Cover cropping has many benefits including increased organic matter, improved soil biology as well as better water infiltration and water-holding capacity. This practice also prevents nutrients and sediment from running off the farm, keeping them out of nearby waterbodies and streams. Hoosier farmers planted a record 1.7 million acres of living covers in 2023 and, apart from corn and soybeans, are planted on more acres than any other commodity crop in Indiana.

Seeding of cover crops must follow best agronomic practices in terms of appropriate seeding rates, seed mixes, and seeding dates to ensure objectives of the cover crop are being met. To ensure the practice provides the best results, termination must be completed in the spring. Enrollment is first-come, first-served and there is a 750-acre cap. This program is also only available to fields not enrolled in other conservation programs.

Larry Clemens, the Indiana State Director of The Nature Conservancy, said, "We are excited to again support the Cover Crop Premium program and offer an additional option to Indiana farmers that are nationally leading the way in the adoption of soil health practices. The Cover Crop Premium program jumped from 26 Indiana counties last year to 50 this year, giving more farmers flexible solutions to continue and expand the use of cover crops outside of other programs. Cover crops improve soil health, water quality, water holding capacity of soils, and they can sequester carbon, decrease weed pressure and reduce the cost of inputs."

The program is funded by a Clean Water Indiana grant and support provided to The Nature Conservancy by the Cummins Foundation and CenterPoint Foundation.

Applications are due March 15, 2025, or when available funds are exhausted. Learn more and apply here or visit isda.in.gov.

Richard Allen LawFebruary 18, 1938 – January 2, 2025

Richard Allen Law, 86, Ekin, Ind., passed away on Thursday morning, January 2, 2025, at Sunrise of Old Meridian in Carmel. Born February 18, 1938, in the family home in Ekin, he was the son of the late Donel Richard and Marjorie Pauline (Partlow) Law.

He was a 1956 graduate of Sheridan High School, where he was a dedicated athlete, as well as an active member of the Future Farmers of America (to which he later became a lifetime alumni member). Following graduation, Richard proudly and honorably served in the National Guard. He was a member of the East Union Christian Church (where he served as an Honorary Deacon), Pickard Lodge F&AM 690, and the Ekin Odd Fellows Lodge.

A lifetime resident of Ekin, Richard was the unofficial historian of the community. He knew and shared the tales (quite a few of them very, very, tall) of the colorful characters who called Ekin home.

Richard was a dedicated farmer throughout his life, truly embodying the spirit of a steward of the land. Growing up on the family farm, Richard, being the oldest of five children, usually got the short end of the chore stick. Those early years growing up on the farm, following in his father's footsteps, caring for the animals and attending to the crops, instilled in him a love for the land and a passion for farming. One of his first jobs off the farm was working for Chrysler in Kokomo. Even though that was steady work at the time, that wasn't where his heart was at. Richard eventually left Chrysler and returned to the farm to work alongside his father, learning the best way a young farmer can – by doing, and learning from those who share the same passion for agriculture. As the farm operation started to grow, Richard was joined by his younger siblings. Together, John, Donnie, and Richard worked tirelessly to build Law Brothers Farms into what it has become, and what it stands for – dedication and family.

Looking out his window over the farm, or on one of his many walks to work, the whole operation was more than Richard could have ever imagined all those years ago, yet at the same time was exactly what he dreamed it would become. To Richard, the farm was more than a livelihood, it was a legacy that was built around generosity, pride, and a labor of love that connected multiple generations. One of his most humbling moments was when he was awarded the Indiana Prairie Farmer's Master Farmer Award.

When the days (and nights) warmed up, the daytime was reserved for farm work, but the evenings were reserved for pitching horseshoes. Richard was a member of the American Horseshoe Pitching Association, pitching at Biddle Park in Sheridan for over 40 years. Be it skill, luck, or holding his mouth just right, he earned a well-deserved spot in the Horseshoe Pitching Hall of Fame. He also enjoyed several family hunting and fishing trips, and loved to be on the water, whether boating, water skiing or fishing.

Family was always at the center of Richard's life. On May 29, 1959, Richard married Marianna McKinney, and together they raised two children, Kimberly Sue (born in 1959) and Mark Allen (born in 1964). They shared a loving and strong family bond until Marianna's passing in 1984. Richard continued to cherish the family they built together. Richard was lucky enough to find love twice in his life. In February of 1985, he married Nancy Bankert, and they enjoyed many happy years together until her passing in 2011. Richard was again blessed to share his life with his devoted partner, Louella Stanley. Their bond was one of deep affection, and their love and companionship brought Richard great strength and happiness. While they weren't married, the bond they shared was clear to all who knew them.

Richard is survived by his children, Kimberly (Roger) Rudolph and Mark (Melissa) Law; his beloved siblings, Bernetta (Larry) Scott, John (Chris) Law and Donnie (Susie) Law; and his brothers-in-law, Larry McKinney and Mike McKinney. His legacy lives on through his grandchildren, Matt Rudolph, Kristin Ray, Claire Law, Wyatt Law, John H. Law, Boone Law, and Ellery Law, as well as three great-grandchildren, Logan Ray, Granger Ray, and Kolt Ray. They brought him great joy and pride. He was deeply loved by his family and friends, and his memory will be held in their hearts forever.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Donel Richard and Marjorie Pauline (Partlow) Law; sister, Betty Moore; brother-in-law, Kenny Moore; his first wife, Marianna (McKinney) Law on July 28, 1984; and by his second wife, Nancy Berniece (Bankert) Law on November 28, 2011.

Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, January 11, 2025, at Kercheval Funeral Home, 306 E. 10th St., Sheridan. Burial will follow at Union Cemetery in East Union, Ind. Pastor Rex Dunning and Pastor Mark Knapp will be officiating. Visitation will take place from 4 to 8 p.m. on Friday, January 10, 2025, at Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan, with Masonic services taking place at 7 p.m.

Ivan "Sonny" Lothair ShermanMarch 12, 1931 – December 25, 2024

Ivan "Sonny" Lothair Sherman, 93, lifelong resident of Hamilton County and recently of Fort Wayne and Lafayette, Ind., passed away at his home surrounded by family early in the morning of December 25, 2024.

Ivan was born March 12, 1931 in Marion, Ind., to Paul and Alice (Lowe) Sherman. Farming became his passion early as he first learned to drive a tractor at age 10 and began helping on his grandfather's farm in Fall Creek Township. In answer to a recent inquiry, Ivan proudly recalled that he officially began farming when his grandfather gave him his first hog. Involved in FFA in high school, he nurtured his entrepreneurial interests by trying his hand at growing tomatoes and hiring a harvesting crew. Although he raised hogs and Angus and Brahman cattle in his youth and early adult life, he mainly grew corn and soybeans for the entirety of his career until retiring in his 60s. For the remainder of his life, he continued to stay up to date with agricultural news and technology and treasured creating a legacy of farming through acreage in Illinois.

Ivan graduated from Noblesville High School in 1949 and married his high school sweetheart, Delores Jean Wiggins, on June 26, 1953. They were blessed with two daughters and shared 29 wonderful years of marriage until her passing in 1982.

Ivan enlisted in 1954 and served five years in the 738th Ordinance of the United States National Guard as a helicopter mechanic at various bases including Fort Riley, Kan.; Fort Sill, Okla.; Fort Knox, Ky.; and Stout Field, Indianapolis. He still farmed while on active duty and even throughout the 12 years he worked as a mail carrier for the United States Postal Service driving a delivery route out of the Broad Ripple Post Office.

Marrying in 1989, Cleatus Catherine "Cathy" DeLong brought light back into his life and they were married for 34 years. Together, they traveled all over the United States while he worked for Econoway-Overland Motor Coach driving tours, buying and selling motor coaches, and attending conventions. He was able to visit nearly all 50 states, only missing Oregon and Hawaii. He and Cathy shared a love of history and exploration and their house was a meeting point for their blended families to share conversations while viewing home videos, auto races, and football or basketball games.

Ivan was a dedicated husband, father, and grandfather. He was often seen videotaping family gatherings, grandchildren's sporting events or recitals, and his many travels, ensuring each family member received a copy of the DVDs he made for them. Ivan had an appreciation for Indian motorcycles, trains, Chinese food, and couldn't pass up good deals on used cars, especially Cadillacs. Known for taking family members on impromptu and often unsolicited "Ivan Tours," he would drive down country roads looking at crops, farming equipment, elevators, and anything else off the beaten path. One memorable year, he surprised his extended family with a particularly fun ride in his motor coach to see the Reynolds Farm Equipment's light display and all joined in to sing Christmas carols over the loudspeaker.

A member of First Christian Church, Noblesville, Ivan was a 33rd Degree Mason with Hamilton Lodge #533 and a Past Worthy Patron of both Fishers Chapter #446 and Radiant Chapter #200 (Noblesville) Order of the Eastern Star. He was also a member of Scottish Rite, Murat Shrine, and the Fishers Lions Club. Generous with his time to these organizations, he was also quick to lend a hand to his friends, fellow farmers, and family. Ivan was slow to anger, an ardent listener, and chose his words carefully. Many have described him as one of the nicest guys around.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, parents, first wife, Delores Jean Wiggins Sherman, second wife, Cleatus Catherine DeLong Meyer Sherman, and sister, Sandra Leticia Sherman Lees, as well as numerous other family and friends.

Surviving are daughters, Cyndi (Mike) Renn of Plain City, Ohio; Nancy (Mike) Ireland of Lafayette, Ind.; stepsons, Lonny (Shirly) Meyer of Danville, Ind.; Brian (Peggy) Meyer of New Haven, Ind.; eight grandchildren, Katie (Kyle) Feucht of Marysville, Ohio; Jackie (Cole) Heissel of Remsen, Iowa; Colby (Mallory) Ireland of Hillsboro, Ind.; Hannah (AJ) Bursott of Lafayette, Ind.; Kellen Meyer of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Elizabeth (Tyler) Webb of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Payton Kubelsky of Danville, Ind.; and Kaiden Ortega of Danville, Ind.; six great-grandchildren, Emery, Harper, Grace, Elliot, Julia, and Elena; and one great-grandson on the way.

Surviving extended family includes brother-in-law Julius K. Lees of Midwest City, Okla.; nephews, Rod (Cathy) Lees of Midwest City, Okla.; Norman (Evelyn) Lees of Noblesville; Eric (Stephanie) Lees of Plainfield, Ind.; sister-in-law, Myra Wiggins of Noblesville; nieces, Kathy (Perry) Williams, Christy Wiggins and Vickie (Tom) Wright, all of Noblesville; and nieces Cheryl (John) Parks of Laytonsville, Md., and Mary Sue (Chuck) Whitlock of Lafayette, Ind.; sister-in-law, Martha (Melvin) Steury of St. Joe, Ind.; brother-in-law Dennis Keller of Butler, Ind., and many additional nephews and nieces.

We extend a special thank you to the wonderful staff at Guardian Angel Hospice, Elara Care, and Betz Nursing Home. Your expertise, kindness, and unwavering commitment to Ivan's comfort and dignity in his final days were truly remarkable. We are forever grateful for the support and care you provided.

Friends are invited to join family for A Celebration of Life from 2 to 5 p.m. March 23, 2025, at the Hamilton Masonic Lodge in Fishers. Masonic Services will begin at 4:30 p.m. and Eastern Star services will follow. Hamilton Masonic Lodge #533 is located at 11500 Oak Drive, Fishers.

TODAY'S BIBLE READING

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE

"Make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense. It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high—its horns of one piece with it. Overlay the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold molding around it. Make two gold rings for the altar below the molding—two on each of the opposite sides—to hold the poles used to carry it. Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. Put the altar in front of the curtain that shields the ark of the covenant law—before the atonement cover that is over the tablets of the covenant law—where I will meet with you.

Royals take down Millers in close all-county match

By RICHIE HALL
sports@readthereporter.com

NOBLESVILLE — The Hamilton Southeastern boys wrestling team won an all-county match over Noblesville 41-31 at The Mill.

The Royals took eight of the 14 matches, jumping out to an 11-0 win after Landon Hicks got a pin at 157 pounds and Cohen Davis picked up a technical fall at 165. Nick Anderson would later get another pin for Southeastern, at 120 pounds.

The Royals totaled four tech falls for the meet. In addition to Davis, Evan Lawhead (at 215), Matt Billet (at 138) and Chris Casler (at 144) all won their matches by tech fall, which means they outscored their opponent by 15 points during their match. Parker Culp won a decision at 132 pounds, while Will Lakes won the 113-pound match by injury default. "We wrestled pretty well," said HSE coach Nick Brobst. "I thought our seniors did a great job of doing their job and winning the matches and dominating the way they needed to. Our younger guys are still struggling to come back with what we need, so we're going to have to improve there. But I thought our older guys were exactly where we wanted them to be."

Noblesville's Kai Kaohi came back to get a win in the 106-pound match.

The Millers got four pins, starting with back-to-back falls for Ian Wilson at 175 and Yan Tioua at 190. Zack Nikolite won at 126 pounds by pin, and Mason Presits finished the match with a fall at 150. Kai Kaohi came back to win the 106-pound bout by a 12-3 major decision, this after Jackson Apple won a 3-2 decision at 285.

"It's a tough year," said Noblesville coach Michael Weimer. "But I'm proud of the kids' fight. It's all I ask is they keep fighting, and that's what they keep doing."

Short-handed Trailblazers don't let high-riding Patriots stop them

The REPORTER

A short-handed University boys squad walked into a tough environment last Saturday at Bethesda Christian and ground out a 48-36 win over the Patriots.

Bethesda Christian was celebrating their 2024 Class 1A state runners-up and unveiled their State Finalist banner in a halftime ceremony. The Patriots fed off the energy in the gym to jump out to an 11-7 lead late in the first quarter. The Trailblazers settled down and outscored Bethesda Christian 41-25 the rest of the way to pull away for the win.

Max McComb, limited to just four first half minutes due to foul trouble, led a balanced University attack with 13 points. Zien Bland and Blake Gray chipped in with nine each and Peter Morales added seven.

University began to assert itself late in the first quarter. A basket by Gray was followed by a three pointer by Noah Cortez from the right wing to put University ahead 12-11 with 27 seconds remaining in the opening quarter. The Blazers never trailed again.

Gray began the second quarter with a right wing three off a Cortez assist. DJ Willis added a basket before Morales drilled a three pointer from the left wing. Bland scored and Morales made another three off a Gray assist and University led 25-17 at halftime.

McComb had a stellar third quarter making a trio of three pointers as University led by as many as 14 before taking a 36-25 lead to the fourth quarter. The Patriots briefly cut the lead to nine early in the final period before McComb made two foul shots to restore a double-digit lead. Bethesda Christian never got closer and University led by as many as 17 late in the game.

University coach Justin Blanding was pleased with the grit his team showed.

"Our guys showed a lot of heart tonight," said Blanding. We have multiple guys out and a few are banged up pretty bad. To be able to play without Faisal Mohamad and Josh Henderson shows a lot about the guys we have being ready to step up each and every night. Noah Cortez and Blake Gray were both game time decisions and stepped up and played with injuries as well. Max McComb and Cooper Cammack got in early foul trouble so our young guys really had to step up."

Blanding continued about his team's improvement. "I questioned our toughness multiple times this year and our guys are responding," he said. "The adversity I was talking about is helping our team. Now we just need to get healthier because we are playing some good basketball."

The win improved University's record to 4-6. The Trailblazers were scheduled to host Covenant Christian Monday, but the game was postponed to next Monday, Jan. 13. University will travel to Scenic on Thursday.
